Fire Damages Courtney Home

Verona Home Razed By Fire; Loss $5,000

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Courtney of Salem Creek road, three miles west of Walton, seem to be having more than their share of trouble. Last Wednesday it started.

It appeared first when one of their sons, Benny, 17, was stricken with appendicitis and was rushed to Booth Hospital for an emergency appendix operation.

While Mr. and Mrs. Courtney were at the hospital with their son, trouble visited their home for a second time.

Another son, Jerry, 15, was there with Peggy and Diane, his younger sisters, when the oil burner exploded and Jerry was burned severely on the face, neck and eyes.

The Walton Fire Department, headed by Chief Worthington, responded to a call from the Courtney home and limited the flames to a small area around the burner.

Benny was a member of the Walton-Verona High School basketball team. Both boys are recovering nicely at the present time.

Scott Fire At Verona

Chief Worthington said damage will exceed $5,000 in the fire which destroyed the two-story John Scott home on the Crittenden-Verona road. The family had no insurance, he said.

Neighbors helped two of the Scott children, Kenny, 12, and Marilyn, 10, out of the burning house after the flames were discovered by Daisy Hill.

Firemen, hampered by a lack of water, emptied four cisterns in fighting the blaze.

Wa-Na Club To Meet

The Wa-Na Club will hold its first meeting of the New Year, Friday, January 7, at 8:00 at Janoda's. The program promises to be a most interesting one as it will consist of a panel discussion on Teaching as a career. The panel members will be Mrs. Pauline, Library; Mrs. Roberto Steinhauser, representing the Elementary grades; Mrs. Elizabeth Hindsale, Junior High School; and Mrs. Bernice Bobbitt, High School. The discussion will be led by Mr. Robert Isom, Superintendent of Walton-Verona Schools.

Florence Woman's Club Holds Christmas Meal With Luncheon

The Florence Woman's Club met at Town and Country on Tuesday, Dec. 18 for a Christmas luncheon and celebration. Members in charge of arrangements were Mrs. William H. Wesler, Mrs. William H. Campbell, Mrs. J. J. Jacobson and Mrs. Wallace Lucas.

The attractive setting of the Parity Room was further enhanced by many attractive table and wall decorations brought by Mrs. Alice Long of the Family Gardens Floral Shop in Florence to illustrate her interesting and informative talk on "Christmas Arrangements in the Home." A Christmas-red life-size fiddle bow and a blue and white Maderna and Child arrangement were outstandingly beautiful. Mrs. Log closed her talk with the modern carol of "The Littlest Christmas Tree."

Mrs. William H. Wesler led the group in the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Ralph Smith was the accompanist.

Mrs. Dean Cator, president of the club, greeted the following guests: Mrs. John E. Murphy, Anna Fahr, F. Justice, John Sleat, M. Kendall, M. E. Clark, Charles Niblack and Miss Jane Scott.

Members present for this joyous occasion were: Mesdames Lute Back, J. Jacobson, R. R. Ragland, Henry Schmidt, William Scroggin, G. R. Tanner, H. H. Holiker, Joseph Huey, M. C. Owens, A. Melme, Jay Utz, Wallace Lucas, L. L. Lipgett, F. D. Cator, W. H. Campbell, Reuben Conner, Harry Daugherty, J. F. Daugherty, W. R. Davis, Sam Denham, Sr., Sam Denham Jr., Ralph Smith, J. Mr. Ferguson was one of the four runner-up and spoke before the Convention at Municipal auditorium at Miami Beach.

Gene C. Harris, Richvale, California, won the speech contest sponsored by the American Farm Bureau Federation young peoples committee. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson and daughter made the trip to Florida. The Boone County Farm Bureau was honored at the 38th Annual Convention. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Crigler and Mr. and Mrs. Beckham Shields.

4-H Tobacco Show and Sale Held Dec. 15th; Average Is $65.48

The Annual 4-H Tobacco Show and Sale was held at the 4th Street Tobacco Warehouse at Carrollton, December 15. 42,088 pounds were sold for an average of $65.48 cwt bringing $7,759.14.

Boone County had seven boys taking part in the Show and Sale. They were: Tommy Ryle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ryle, Burlington; Gayle Huff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huff, Walton; Albert Schwenke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schwenke, Union; Jim Bob Huey and David G. Huey, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Huey, Burlington; James Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephenson, Verona; and Atlee Anderson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Anderson, Sr., Petersburg.

Counties participating in the show were: Boone, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Henry, Kenton, Oldham, Owen and Trimble.

James Stephenson and Atlee Anderson, Jr. were in the blue ribbon class on their record books. Albert Schwenke had the highest selling small crop for the sale. Selling 458 pounds for an average of 66 cents per pound bringing $289.55. Jim Bob Huey of Burlington placed second in the tobacco judging contest, with his brother, David G. Huey placing fifth in the contest.

Glen R. McCormack, the Assistant County Agricultural Agent of Boone County, interviewed the Boone County boys and made a tape recording which was over WZIP on December 29th.

Burley Sales Resumed; State Average Is $63.42

Cecil (Pi) Presser Is Candidate for Sheriff Of Boone County

Cecil (Pi) Presser, Boone County jailer, formally announced this week that he is a candidate for sheriff of Boone County, subject to the Democratic primary election to be held May 28, 1957.

Mr. Presser, a lifelong resident of the county, is now serving in his second term as Boone County jailer. "Pi", as he is affectionately known by Boone Countians, was an employee of the county Highway Department for thirty-three years.

Mr. Presser's parents were the late Owen Presser and Lizzie Kirkpatrick Presser. His wife, Mrs. Ora Presser, has been a teacher in the Boone County school system for many years.

"Pi", a World War veteran, is active in a number of county civic and social organizations.

Cecil "Pi" Presser
In his formal announcement Mr. Presser stated:

"It has been a privilege and pleasure to serve the citizens of Boone County during the past years and I am nominated and elected to the office of sheriff of your county. I will make every effort possible to continue to serve you to the best of my ability. I will make an active campaign and hope to contact as many of our citizens as possible during the campaign.

"Your support and consideration will be sincerely appreciated."

99 Wedded, Only 17 Parted During In Boone County

With the passing of the old year, Boone County was able to add one more record to its lengthy roll.

Records in the office of C. D. Benson, County Clerk, disclosed that last year 99 marriage licenses were issued. Records in the office of R. S. Hensley, Circuit Court Clerk, revealed that there were only 17 divorces issued.

Boosters of "boom" count say that such a record is a clear indication as to why the county is making such rapid strides in population increase. A county with an estimated 25,000 population, they say, with only 17 divorces, is the real pointer as to the type of people who choose to live here.

Boone County's divorce rate over the past years has had little fluctuation. Records show that in 1940, when the county's population was 13,000, there were only five divorces. In 1941, the rate dropped to four, but increased at the rate of one each year until in 1945 there were nine divorces.

In 1946, immediately following the close of World War II, there were 18 divorces. This number dropped to 14 in 1947 and to six in 1948. The number was only six in 1949 but rose to 15 in 1950 and dropped to 11 in 1951, when the population had risen to 16,000. The divorce figure declined to eight in 1951 but rose again to 14 in 1952. The year 1953 disclosed only nine divorces; 1954 showed 13, and in 1955 there were only 14.

HAYES-CAIN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Cain

Aric Richard B. Cain, stationed at Prestwick A.F.B., Scotland, was married to Miss Jane Hayes of 64 Midton Road, Ayr, on October 12th in the Ayr Baptist Church. They spent their honeymoon in Dublin, Ireland. Airman Cain is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain, Independence.

Father of Dr. Maddox Dies Dec. 20; Was Retired Chaplain

Capt. John Lee Maddox, retired U. S. Army chaplain, died Wednesday, Dec. 20 in Booth hospital after a short illness. Capt. Maddox, 75, was widely known as a scholar, world traveler and author of several Greek textbooks. He had been an Army chaplain for 30 years.

He was the father of Dr. D. L. Maddox, Walton dentist. A native of Hillsboro, O., Capt. Maddox lived at the Metropole Hotel, Cincinnati for twenty-five years.

Capt. Maddox was a graduate of Yale University and Rochester, N. Y. University, and was a Presbyterian minister.

He was a member of the Rochester Andra Consistory, Scottish Rite, and a 32nd degree Mason. Members of the Covington Chapter met at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton.

Besides his son he leaves two grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday at the funeral home in Walton and burial in Arlington Cemetery at Washington, D. C.

Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Maude Wright celebrated her 80th birthday on December 25 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lee Davis Floral at Elsmore, along with her brother, Mr. Olie Reed, 81, of Stanford, and her sister, Mrs. Mollie Willen, 82, of Latona, and her daughter, Mrs. Zella Steely of Atwood, and her grandchildren, Mrs. Helen Rita Reynolds and children, Rita Jean, and Vicky and Michel, Mrs. Imogene Deatherage and son, of Elsmore, and Mrs. Barbara Davis and son, Glenn, and the hosts.

BOONE CO. SEAL SALE

The tuberculosis Christmas Seal drive in Boone County reached a total of $1109.70 for the first 37 days of the sale, according to John W. Woods, Jr., president of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association. This is $457.65 less than the same period in last year's drive. The seal sale, only means of support for the tuberculosis programs of prevention and control here, continued through Dec. 31.

Entertained For Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Feagun of Beaver grade, entertained for dinner Saturday, December 29th for their son and daughters of Berea College, Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Feagun, Jill and Judy, Mr. Howard Huey and Mrs. Eugene Gordon of Petersburg, Mrs. Anna McCabe and Mrs. Ida Feagun of Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson spent the Christmas holidays with a total of 14 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's daughters, Mrs. Nellie Fretti and Mrs. Norma Crocy.

85 Per Cent of The Estimated Crop Sold

Burley tobacco auctions resume on Wednesday in the eight-state belt and a quick windup of the sales season is expected.

Some observers believe a few markets may sell out by the end of the week and auctions may be virtually completed on 70 per cent of sales centers by January 11th.

Pre-holiday sales averaged a record $63.42 on sale of 432,543,330 pounds, or about 85 per cent or more of the estimated 494 million pound crop.

Sales resume on the same basis that prevailed before the Christmas recess. Albert G. Clay, Mount Sterling, who heads the sales committee, said that while some major companies may have tobacco yet to be redried, no request had been made to alter sales conditions.

The pre-Christmas volume represents the largest percentage of a crop ever sold before the holiday recess. It has been 10 years since growers failed to market more than half the crop before Christmas.

The 1946-47 season saw only 36.3 per cent auctioned before Christmas but a cool strike had reduced supplies needed by redrying plants forced a brief sales holiday and reduced selling hours for a time that season.

W. H. Roe at Burlington

William H. Roe, Contact Representative of the Kentucky Disabled E-Servicemen's Board, will be at the Court House in Burlington, on Wednesday, January 9, 1957, from 9:00 until 11:30 a. m. to assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits due them as a result of military service.

Oak Island Homemakers

Eleven members and three visitors attended the December meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers. Lamps were made and plans for the annual Christmas party completed.

The care of house plants and proper mulching of outdoor plants were given by the garden leader.

On November 14, members baked and iced 458 cup cakes and sent them to the Kenton County Infirmary and Old Ladies Home.

Boone County D.A.R. Meets at Home of Mrs. Conner In Florence

Mrs. Allen Conner of Florence, entertained at the December meeting in compliment to the members and their guests of the Boone County Chapter of D.A.R. at her home on Main Street. Mrs. Conner had as her co-hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Grubbs of Walton, Mrs. David Clore of Grant and Mrs. Ashlin Logan of Richmond.

The Conner residence was beautifully decorated to accentuate the holiday season. After a lengthy business meeting which included a report of all committees and the collection of yuletide gifts for the students of the Holiday Home at schools, Mrs. Fay Conner of Walton gave an oral recital of Christmas music. Her rendition of "Silent Night" and "Ave Maria" were particularly impressive.

Mrs. Conner presided at the D.A.R. approval at the Walton Methodist Church, is a life-long resident of that vicinity. The hostess and her assistants were showered with congratulations upon the attractiveness of their tea table and it was here again that the Holiday Home in color and decoration was most artistically carried out. Mrs. Sam Denham, Sr., Regent and Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Past Regent, presided at the tea table.

The inscriptions on the guest list for this occasion included the names of: Mesdames Dana Gaines, Sam Denham Sr., Ashlin Logan, Harold Conner, J. B. Wolfe, Clifford Coyle, Wallace Grubbs, Alice Conner, Walter Ferguson, John Lewis Feagun, Frances Berksheer, Roy C. Nestor, Fay Conner, H. S. Haves, Sidney Conrad, Rufus Tanner, Louis Braun, Florence Beckett and The Misses Margaret Goodridge, Jo Ann Nushum and Anne Code.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By GU Kingsberry

Kentucky Democrats:

Believe it or not, Kentucky Democrats will get more tickets to the inauguration than will their brethren, the Kentucky Republicans.

It works this way. Tickets for the big show are allocated to members of Congress. And, since there are more Democrats than GOP partisans in the Congress, more tickets will go to the majority party.

However, many such ticket-holders will turn over their ducats to their Republican colleagues. Thus, you can safely bet that the crowd will be dominated by the GOP.

Ohio River Bridges:

Kentuckians who are looking forward to more bridges across the Ohio River will be interested in a squabble involving Washington and the Potomac River. More than two years ago, a new bridge across the Potomac was okayed. But nothing has happened. It's all because of a hot debate over a proposed tunnel.

Some Washingtonians insist that another bridge would spoil the beauty of the water front. A tunnel, they insist, is the thing that's needed. Others object on the basis of cost, pointing out that a tube beneath the river would cost four times the price of a bridge.

That's where the matter rests, and Washington-Virginia traffic continues to be tied into knots. The same thing could happen to those proposed Kentucky bridges.

Eleventh Senator:

When Thurston Morton takes the oath of office as senator, he'll become the eleventh such lawmaker from Kentucky in sixteen years.

It's hard to believe, as we've pointed out before, that the Blue Grass State has had so many senators. Here's the list: Miles Logan, Alben Barkley, A. B. Chandler, Garrett Withers, Tom Underwood, Virgil Chapman, William Stanford, John Sherman Cooper, Earle C. Clements, and Robert Humphrey.

The revolving-door technique might indicate our state has plenty of men of senatorial stature but it also keeps the commonwealth from obtaining positions of prestige through the senatorial system.

In Contrast:

On the other hand, Kentuckians are fairly conservative in the election of their congressmen. The Fifth District has had the same member for 26 years—Brent Spence. The First District has been represented by Noble Gregory for 20 years. Frank Chelf has been in the House for 12 years, representing the Fourth District. Finally, Carl Perkins has been a congressman for eight years, a member from the Seventh Kentucky District.

Because of their lengthy service, all hold high positions on important committees. Spence heads the Banking Committee, Gregory close to the top on the Ways and Means Committee, while Chelf, on the Judiciary Committee, and Perkins, on the Labor and Education Committee, are swiftly moving to places of prominence.

VERONA

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden and daughter, Carolyn, spent Sunday with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Yancy and son Lloyd. It was Lloyd's birthday. Others there to help celebrate his birthday were Mrs. Martha Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robinson and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes spent Christmas day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edington.

Mrs. Allie Chandler and Mrs. Ethel Rogers had for dinner Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chandler of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Burdine and two children of Erlanger, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden and daughter, Carolyn, all of Verona.

We were sorry to hear of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott's house burning Christmas Eve. They were not at home when it burned. Most of the furniture burned also. They saved a few pieces.

We are sorry to know little Carol Ann Harris had to be taken to St. Elizabeth hospital Saturday afternoon. They had brought her home from Columbia, O., Hospital for a few days through Christmas but she got sick and didn't get to stay for New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams and Mono Sue left this morning Monday for their new home near Whitesburg, Ky. Mr. Adams has a job working at the coal mines there. We wish them the best of luck in the coming year.

Mrs. Lena Harris left the 21st of December by plane for Florida to stay a while with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouse and children.

We extend our sympathy to Rev. Ralph Curry and family by the passing of Bro. Curry's mother at Frankfurt on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Greenwell spent Sunday with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton and children, little Freddy Jr. went home with them for a few days visit.

James Whitson was calling on Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edington on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Webster were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Atha of near Zion Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Atha is getting along very well. She was operated on for a gall stone several days ago. We hope her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edington entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden for dinner Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Wilson entertained with a six o'clock dinner Christmas Eve for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilson and Mr. Elbert Wilson of Verona.

Oil Bath Recommended To Condition Furniture

Furniture needs more than dusting to keep it in condition, say Extension home management specialists at the University of Kentucky. It needs oil occasionally, to keep it from drying, cracking or warping, or the veneer from loosening.

A good oil bath to use once or twice a year on oiled or varnished furniture is a mixture of two-thirds boiled linseed oil and one-third turpentine. The turpentine loosens the dirt and helps the oil to penetrate the wood. Together, they remove a dull film which is sometimes seen on furniture.

Apply the mixture with a soft cloth, then wipe off the excess polish with a clean cloth. To polish, rub with the grain until the wood is thoroughly dry and the fingers leave no mark on the surface.

During the winter months, it is a good idea to keep the room air moist by having a pan of water near a radiator or register.

Soil Test Gives Clues to Need for Plant Nutrients

FIVE steps for taking accurate soil samples were listed here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on suggestions by Purdue University agronomists:

- 1—Pick an area on your farm that is uniform in color and soil texture—one which has had similar cropping and fertilizer treatment.
- 2—Avoid mixing soils that are light and dark colored, or those with a different crop history or past fertilizer treatment.
- 3—Use a sampling tube, auger or shovel to remove a small sample from surface to plow depth.
- 4—Stay away from fertilizer bands in row crops, farm lanes, field borders, fence areas, sand ridges and areas within 100 feet of gravel roads.
- 5—Mix the samples representing one area thoroughly in a clean pan. Spread out the soil mixture to dry. Use enough of this mixture to fill one soil carton.

Agronomists advise sampling soil this summer and early fall, and sending them promptly to the soil testing laboratory. This will give plenty of leeway for the soil testing results to be back in time for fall ordering of fertilizer.

Soil sampling instructions, forms to fill out and shipping containers can be obtained from local county agents or fertilizer dealers.

Soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes.

"Purdue agronomists point out that soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes from his field," says the committee. "Hence it pays to make as accurate samples as possible."

"Soil tests can provide a good guide for determining the plant food reserves of the soil. They can help a farmer provide his crops with the balanced fertility needed to get probable returns from his investment in fertilized."

Florence Homemakers

The Florence Homemakers held their Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Grant Maddox, U. S. 42, on December 13.

Mrs. Don Eger conducted the business session in the morning. Plans were made to hold a workshop on painting trays on January 9 at the home of Mrs. William Kwozello at 10 a.m. Mrs. Eger was selected as delegate to Farm & Home Week the last of January. A donation of $15 was made to the Gratiot fund being collected in Burlington. Pions were made to collect bakery goods for the county Farmers Market in Covington.

Mrs. Mable Sayre led the group in the Grace song. This was followed by a Christmas turkey dinner.

Mrs. George Tanner conducted the recreational program in the afternoon. The record "The Christmas Story" was played for the devotional. Several games were played and a Christmas gift exchange closed the meeting.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames Mable Sayre, Thos. Randall, William Kwozello, George Sieve, Harmon Lantz, Fred Ruppel, Don Eger, Don Shadrack, Charles Luchte, George Tanner, W. H. Wesler, Mae Griffin, F. W. Wesler, John Schran, F. W. Dempsey, Grant Maddox, William Foote, Roy C. Lutes, Clyde Arnold and Miss Jane Scott.

APPLYING FERTILIZER

Applying fertilizer without a soil test is like buying $50 worth of medicine without having consulted your doctor, says Joe Claxon, County Agricultural Agent. When calibrated against results from field fertilizer experiments these tests indicate what nutrients are needed for the crop and also indicate the amount or ratio necessary for proper nutrient balance. For best results from a soil management program, each field should be sampled once during a rotation but soil samples can be taken any time during the rotation. When soil samples are submitted to a soil testing laboratory they should be accompanied by a completed information sheet. The latter helps in making a more accurate interpretation of the test. Information on how to take good sample, information sheets are available from county agricultural agent's office.

SCHOOL BUILDING BOOM

Complete financing of the Foundation Program for Education has brought a boom in public school construction in Kentucky.

The additional $20,000,000 appropriated by the 1956 Legislature for this purpose resulted in construction of 39 buildings with 426 classrooms in 27 districts, a year-end report by Dr. Robert Martin, state superintendent of public instruction, shows.

The Education Department approved $10,750,000 in revenue bond issue for school building purposes.

Verona Homemakers

The Verona Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Virgie Adams. At a short business session plans were made for a Christmas treat for the old folks in the Burlington Infirmary.

Christmas carols and the exchange of gifts was enjoyed.

Guests were Rev. Kelly Keagacy and son, Dwight, E. J. Shannon, J. W. Adams, Dallas Burchett, and Jim Richards.

Afternoon visitors were Mrs. Nora Brashear and Georgia Webster.

Members attending were Mrs. Minnie Davis, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Dora Burchett, Mrs. Elizabeth Crowe, Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, Mrs. Juanita Kennedy, Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mrs. Ethel Fopky, Mrs. Lizzie Noel, Mrs. Corinne McCormac, and Mrs. Frances McCormick. Lillian Jackson, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams are leaving soon for Whitesburg, Ky. We are sorry to lose them, but wish them the best in their new home.

BIG WATER SUPPLY ATTRACTS INDUSTRY

Kentucky's great supply of stream water "rules out anything but optimism in making forecasts of the state's future industrial growth."

In dropping the prediction, Phil M. Miles, director of the maps and minerals division of the Department of Economic Development, said his basis for the outlook is expected expansion of the national economy and the recent spectacular growth of the chemical, metal and large water-using industries.

Miles said the volume of stream water in Kentucky varies greatly from a trickle in some parts of eastern Kentucky to 1400 billion gallons a day at some points on the Ohio River—but both distribution and quantity is considerably greater than found in many states.

Miles issued the statements in announcing a new Department of Economic Development publication containing flow data and other information on Kentucky streams.

He said copies of the booklet are available at $1.00 each by writing this department.

CHECK LAYING FLOCKS FOR CULL BIRDS NOW

Check the laying flock for cull birds now, says the U. K. Agricultural Extension Service, since the feed-egg ratio is "not too favorable" and probably will not improve much the rest of the year.

This practice is in order whether the flock is for home use, for market eggs, or for broiler egg production, since broiler prices also are low now.

Look for birds out of condition or overly fat and broken down in the abdomen, for long, thin, crow-headed birds with slim bodies and long legs, for those showing range paralysis with such symptoms as gray eyes with broken pupils. Other things to look for are dragging combs and wattles, and abnormal growth about the body.

All such birds should be culled. Many such birds, however, have salvage value, particularly heavy hens and if not too light in weight those having paralysis symptoms.

Superphosphate Still Best In New Burley Bed Treatment

As a source of phosphorus, 20 percent superphosphate is still the best for burley tobacco beds, when used to counteract the sometimes killing effect of calcium cyanamide when the latter is used as a weed-killer.

It is better than limestone for two reasons, says Dr. William Seay, UK Agricultural Experiment Station soils scientist. Limestone decreases the soil acidity to where it is harmful to tobacco plants, and the calcium in limestone is rather slowly soluble, not being released rapidly enough to be effective in counteracting cyanamide injury in tobacco plant beds.

Seay and other experimenters found this year that 2 to 4 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate per square yard in beds nullified the ammonia action of the calcium cyanamide chemical weed-killers.

Four insects that do the most damage to stored grain are the granary weevil, the lesser grain borer, the Australian wheat weevil, and the Angoumois grain moth.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The Lord's prayer opened the December meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers Club, the devotional being led by Mrs. Verner Stephens, at the home of Mrs. F. M. Powers, with Mrs. Roy Kunkler as co-hosts. The various reports were given by the chairman of the club, and an exchange of gifts from "secret sisters" took place, while Mrs. Marvin Procter, a newcomer to the club, took colored movies of the occasion.

Members present for this enjoyable event were: Mesdames Wm. Endres, F. M. Powers, Roy Kunkler, Gus Schadler, Wm. Meyers, Wm. Wolting, Wm. Clinkenbeard, Verner Stephens, Stanley Parker, Roger Robinson, Frank Atterkirch, Louis Lee, Geo. Finnell, Vera Ott, Russell Quick, E. A. Sterling, H. L. Clark, Marvin Procter, Roy McHale, Mrs. Greg Bramlage was on the sick list and Mrs. Cecelia Reynolds was a guest at the meeting.

On Saturday evening, December 15, all of the Beechgrove group enjoyed the hospitality of the club at Simon Kenton High School, with a turkey dinner for seventy members and their families, cooked as only the Beechgrove ladies can cook, and Santa Claus was on the job to distribute gifts to all, while Mr. and Mrs. Piber again made a record in colored movies of the event. Mr. and Mrs. Kohlman were guests of the club and added a perfect attendance record for Beechgrove.

It doesn't fit!

MUCH HAS BEEN SAID recently about so-called "pirating" techniques used to lure industries to the South. This talk just doesn't fit the facts.

No doubt local enthusiasm has created situations that are not above reproach. But these are isolated instances—the exception and not the rule. And they are by no means confined to the South.

The industries that reputable industrial development agencies in the Southland are seeking—and getting—are not the fly-by-night variety, looking for something for nothing.

The industrial Southland of today offers plant-site seekers ample inducements of real merit without resorting to phony lures or unrealistic concessions of any kind. "Look Ahead—Look South!"

Harry A. O'Fallon, President

You bet it doesn't!

THERE HAS BEEN some loose talk lately accusing the South and its industrial development agencies of using and endorsing practically any type of tactics in order to attract industries from other regions. You know and we know that "blanket accusations" of this kind pointing a finger of criticism at the entire Southland not only are unfair—they simply are not true.

Yet, talk of this sort is often picked up and passed on and on. That's why we felt impelled to "speak up"—in the national advertisement reproduced above.

The modern Southland has many enthusiastic spokesmen. We are proud to be one of them. It is still another way we can give meaning to our slogan "The Southern Serves the South."

WHITES TOWER

Tom and Judy Brumback of Independence, spent the holidays with their father in Cleveland, Ohio, where he heads one of the big trucking firms of that city. It goes without saying that they had a wonderful time and came home loaded down with nice gifts. It couldn't have happened to a nicer two kids! Their sister, Patsy, worked during that time in a Cincinnati store, but got her share of the presents, which she richly deserved. Maybe before we conclude our items for this week we will tell you of the adventures of Jimmy Mule, who took a trip from the farm here during the holidays.

The writer has about 200 magazines, Saturday Evening Post, Look, Esquire, and Colliers, and would like to give them to some shut-in who likes to read and has the time for it. I know when we were sick several years ago there was nothing we appreciated more than good reading matter. So let us know if you would enjoy them.

Mrs. Hannah Dorsey, who is 97, and the oldest resident of our neighborhood, was remembered by her many friends with a bunch of nice gifts and best wishes.

The writer and wife and guests enjoyed the last tomatoes of the 1956 season on Sunday, Dec. 23 and they tasted pretty good too, as we put away several baskets of half-pipe and just turning ripe from our garden in October and this is the first time we ever enjoyed them at this time of year. We found out that it is best not to wax them as some advised us to do.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Cox, some very good neighbors of ours, came and took the wife of this writer to church at Decoursey Baptist Church.

Did you know that good neighbors are what makes this country the great power it is in the world? So here is the story of Jimmy Mule, who found a gate open Friday night and had us worried for awhile, until Randolph Gibson, a good neighbor, notified us that Mrs. Clarence Dunn, over on Shaw Road, had fastened up a stray mule at her home near the LLL Highway. All though very busy grinding, the great Gibson volunteered to take us over to Mrs. Dunn's and we brought Jimmy back, safe and sound after her very short vacation from the farm.

Bro. Bob Brumback and family of Covington, were guests of the writer and family, December 23.

Bud Ryle and family of Cincinnati, were holiday visitors at Bide-A-Wee and brought the writer and wife many nice presents, too numerous to mention.

Los Beck of Perry Road, was a business visitor to the farm Dec. 22. He says he is going to have the Advertiser sent to a friend of his. Wise guy, I call him!

Doc Webster and family of Louisville spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Webster, of the Tower.

The writer has two wonderful pictures on his desk since the holidays started. Little Sarah Lynn, only daughter of Lieut. Richard Dorsey, and wife of Japan, our grandson, also a Christmas card of little Debbie Gower, another great-granddaughter of Erlanger, which was taken while she was saying her prayers. No one knows unless they are as old as we how much we appreciated those two pictures and we certainly love our son and granddaughter for remembering an old fogey, like yours truly.

Novel Egg Dispensing Device . . . . Helps Farmer Solve Production Problems

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

There are two good ways for farmers to sell agricultural produce. One is to deliver it to nearby stores and have it sold for them over the counter. The other way is to attract customers to the farm where they can deal directly with their buying public.

When one way doesn't work, the other might. At least that is how one New Jersey poultryman thought about his sales problem.

Eggs weren't going so well at neighboring stores and he decided to do something about it. His answer was a road-side "egg-o-mat"—a small building, heated in the winter and air-conditioned in the summer, where customers can buy eggs when they want them.

Right—view of roadside "egg-o-mat."

Below—farmer and wife working in "front office" of egg processing plant.

Medium, large and small sized eggs are stored by the dozen in cardboard boxes which fit snugly into the "egg-o-mat's" ceiling-high, square metal containers which look very much like narrow filing cabinets. Each time a customer puts the correct change in a slot in the proper cabinet, a door opens and out pops his box of eggs. The "egg-o-mat" even has an auto-trolled for the proper storage of newly gathered eggs and a "front-office" for candling, grading, cleaning and packing eggs.

The farmer and his wife work in the "front office," providing a novel and most interesting behind-the-scenes look at a poultry farmer's job—an idea which helps attract customers to the road-side store. An added sales touch is the fact that this farmer's poultry houses are located directly back of the "front office" so customers can watch fresh eggs being brought into the processing room on their way to the "egg-o-mat."

A little play for children, put on by the children of Amity Baptist Church, was surely a credit to those who directed it and it just goes to show you what can happen when those who take part put their talents to good use and in the right cause.

I think the biggest kick we get out of Christmas is in the giving and not the getting presents usually. We sure enjoyed watching the kids as their eyes grew big when they opened their presents. No one ever gets the feeling that comes to you then.

The male hog we had for sale is gone and the only swine we have for sale are shoots from 50 pounds to over a hundred. Six went out the past two weeks to folks who know when they are getting the best.

We feel very humble this New Year's day when we think of the many good presents we got from our children and grandchildren as they are the kind of kids that remember us every year on this festive occasion.

Our neighbor, Floyd Smith, continues to improve and his friends hope to see him back on the job soon.

A new subdivision is being laid out just beyond the Tower on one place formerly owned by Geo. Ratterman. We don't know who is sponsoring the project but if they are wise they will let you know thru the ad columns of our Walton Advertiser.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

By the time this goes to press, the holidays will be over. Hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Let's not make any new resolutions for the New Year unless we try our best to carry them out.

Our church attendance at Staffordburg Sunday was not so good as usual. I suppose several still are on vacation, but Sunday School attendance was better.

Let's all try to get started back to church services again next Sunday. Start the New Year off by attending services, the first Sunday of 1957.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Winford Riley in the loss of their little infant, which occurred at Lexington Hospital Saturday. Mrs. Billy Rich and children are spending this week with her parents at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Mrs. Mayo Smith of Crestwood visited with her sister, Miss Emma Yates during the holidays.

Several of the young boys of our community who are attending college at Lexington spent the holidays with their parents.

Four Gospels

Lesson for January 6, 1957

THE story of the Wise Men who came to see the baby Jesus is so familiar that this column will deal this week with a question in the background of all study of the Gospels. Matthew is to be the book studied in the churches during the next three months. The existence of four gospels raises a very ancient question: Why more than one? The early Christians church was somewhat embarrassed by that question. More attempts than one were made to discard all but one, or else to combine them all into one.

Dr. Foreman says: If the four gospels are alike, why repeat? And if they are different, which is right? Most of the problems involved cannot even be raised here. But there is room to set down a few notes on that one question: What is the point of having four gospels?

Gospels and Gospel

The conclusion to which the early church came, and for which we may well be grateful, is that there is only one Gospel, but four gospels. Adopted at a very early date were the headings we still read: The Gospel according to Matthew, according to Mark—and so on. The gospels tell different stories, but the story is still the same. They all bear witness to the same Christ. Just as in a courtroom trial it is important if possible to have more than one eye-witness report of an accident, it is valuable to have more than one report of the life, character and teaching of Jesus. But just as, in court, it would raise suspicion if all the eye-witnesses agreed on all details, so it would raise suspicion and be of no help if all our gospels agreed on details. The essentials of the four gospels are all the same, and the variations add to our knowledge. It is plain that the early church must have thought that each gospel had something indispensable, or else they would never have kept it. It should be remembered that our four gospels were not the only ones in existence. The early church did a good job of sifting, as any one can see who will take the trouble to read some of the fantastic or dull productions the church rejected. (See The Apocryphal New Testament, in any large library.)

Portraits

Not one of the gospels is what in modern times would be called a "definitive biography" of Jesus—a story so complete that no one would ever bother to investigate further. They are not biographies at all. They are not photographs, they are more like portraits. A commercial photograph is a neutral sort of thing. A portrait is an interpretation. Mark interprets Jesus as the mighty Son of God with power. Very little teaching is reported by Mark—it is all action, and rapid action, too. Luke's portrait is of the broad humanity of Jesus, his sympathy with all men, with women and children too. He gives us Jesus, the ideal human being. John's portrait interprets Jesus as the divine Son of God, in constant touch and harmony with the Father on high, doing the works of God and teaching the truth of God. In other gospels Jesus' teaching is, so to speak, in his own name. In John the reader never allowed to forget that it is all the teaching of God. Matthew combines the wonder-worker and the teacher in one portrait; Jesus appears as the One with Authority. From the very beginning, where Jesus is presented as the son of kings, to the end where he is given "all authority in heaven and earth," he moves with majesty and power.

Viewpoints

Not only are the portraits different, but the viewpoints of the four gospels are varied. Two features of Matthew's point of view will be evident all the way along. One is that he tries to interest Jewish readers. He quotes the Old Testament more often than any other gospel, he traces Jesus' family tree back to Abraham through the Hebrew kings (quite a contrast to the family tree given by Luke). To this day it remains one of the best gospels for interesting Jews in the life of Jesus. The other feature is that while Matthew begins, as it were, on the small stage of the Jewish people, he does not remain there. The Christ who comes first only as heir to the throne of David, is at last seen to have the very authority of God himself. Already in the gifts of the wise men Matthew hints his truth: Christ is Lord of all men everywhere.

WHEN I GROW UP . . .

Magical words these, "when I grow up"—full of promise, replete with confidence. What youngster hasn't uttered them?

This lad is no different. He looks into the future that will be his when he grows up, and the world is his oyster, intact with pearls.

This month he wants to be a flier. Next month he'll want to be an engineer, spanning bridges across great rivers and wide chasms. The month after that he'll see himself as a surgeon, scalpel poised between skilled fingers. And the month after that—who knows?

For youth is ever changing, ever restless. That's why it is so important that youth's naturally impulsive nature be held fast by an anchor that is good, firm and permanent. They need a faith that will sustain them whether they become doctors, fliers, or engineers. The Church provides this faith, this anchor.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in our search for the building of character and good citizenship. It is without a strong Church, neither democracy, nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Farm Facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

HAPPY NEW YEAR. The advent of the new year found the Kentucky farmer with a "smile on his face and a jingle in his jeans." 1956 was a good year—weather conditions were exceptionally good, yields in most cases were the highest on record. Small grain yields were excellent. Corn produced an average of 46 bushels per acre—12 per cent above the previous high and almost double the yield 20 years ago. And, above all, tobacco—his main cash crop, had all "three"—good yield, fine quality and high price. The smile on the farmer's face was contagious. The country banker was happy too, and so was the merchant, because cash does not stay with the farmer long.

TIGHT MONEY. Along with a group of Kentucky bankers I recently attended the National Agricultural Credit Conference at St. Louis where credit men from all over the country met to discuss the problems of financing agriculture. There was general agreement among the bankers and financial experts on two things. First, money will be "tighter" in 1957 than in recent years. The supply of it is smaller and the demand for it is greater, which will result in slightly higher interest rates and a little more "selective" lending than in the past. And second, there will be plenty of money to finance the bank's regular customers who have established a good credit rating in the past and who show that they can use borrowed money profitably. Lenders will not be interested in putting out "risk money" this year. They will want to be assured that the loan is safe and that it will be profitable to the borrower as well as to the lender. In face of high competition for money the alert farmer will figure out his credit needs early and discuss them with his banker.

"Tight money" might even benefit the farmer. If it slows the inflationary trend that has caused the price of things that farmers buy to go up so much faster than the things that he sells it will help rather than hurt.

COMPLICATED. One thing on which the bankers and farm experts were not in agreement was the merits of the Soil Bank. Although they believed in the principles of taking land from cultivation to preserve it for future needs they were in disagreement as to the operation of the program and its effect upon production and prices. Many looked upon it merely as a method of distributing cash among the farmers while others thought the program would help materially in bringing about an adjustment in supply and demand. The experts that tried to explain the program though, seemed as much confused about its operation as the farmers who are trying to put it into practice. To say the least, the program in its present form is very complicated.

BLUEGRASS STRAINS RESIST INVASION BY CRABGRASS—Seventeen of 25 test selections of bluegrass had "significantly less" crabgrass invasion than regular commercial varieties, says Robert Buckner, UK Agricultural Experiment Station grass breeder, in a test run the past year at Lexington. Buckner said 25 individual plant selections were made from old pastures and similar areas in central Kentucky. Seed from these was used on plots for a check against commercial varieties. Plots were sown in the fall of 1954 and seed taken from them last spring. The plots were harvested three times last summer, to stimulate pasture conditions. At that time, Buckner said, 17 of the selections had "significantly less" crabgrass invasion than commercial varieties; and 18 of the 25 selections yielded significantly more forage than the commercial ones. He also evaluated the plots for color. Those with the best color in February and April generally had poorest color in summer, and those poor in February and April had the best color in the summer. A few strains had fair color throughout the year. Test plots were seeded this fall with the selections for a check on palatability. ff-49

Manure On Cover Crops Has Many Good Uses—Manure on cover crops serves many useful purposes, says the UK Agricultural Extension Service. It stimulates growth of the cover crop, reduces freezing of the soil by acting as a mulch, and aids in reducing erosion. Also, manure spread on the cover crop will not ferment and lose nitrogen as it may if left in the barn. Cover crops themselves also reduce erosion, increase water infiltration through root channels, and prevent the leaching of nutrients from the soil. The cover crop is plowed under as a green manure or is used for grazing if desired. ff-49

FAST WORLD

1956 has moved on into the past. We lost several good citizens in 1956 and who are left are one year older. In this fast-moving world a year seems so very short. We have finished taking inventory and are ready to get into high gear for 1957. We have a lot of merchandise to sell and a lot bought to be shipped in the spring. We have a nice stock of merchandise. Of course, like all stores that have been in business several years, we have some obsolete stock which moves very slow. But our harness, and some still use it, is in complete stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Neuspickle, over at Nicholson, came in and bought a nice 9x12 linoleum rug, 2 door mats, some linoleum mats and a lamp converter from oil to electric. Dawson Ballinger brought in his Sunbeam mixer motor and his GE toaster for repairs. Shelby Acra brought in his Mirramatic toaster for repairs. Connie McCormack, over at Verona, called for Brewster to help her out with her two oil heaters—she went right over at noon and soon corrected them. Raymond Baker, Jr., who married Eleanor Marsh, have a baby boy. Raymond was in today and I was asking him all the details of raising a boy.

Rev. Kelly Kennedy, Baptist minister at Verona, was in looking for some items that might help the John Scott family. Verona, who were burned out Monday afternoon. Several have been in getting items for the Scotts. There was another fire last night (Wednesday) on Salem Creek Road at Boyd Courtney's, when a floor furnace flared up and burned one of the boys, not seriously, as he was out today I heard. I sent Beach to Devon to get some molasses for my sheep, then to the Walton Lumber Co. to get some lumber to build some pens in the sheep barn.

We then loaded a washer I gave the Scott family and some washer repairs for Harold Rosenstiel. We went to Verona, unloaded the washer, then to Harold's and left the washer parts. When we drove up at Harold's there were Harold, Francis Wolde, Charley Bowling and Jim Ellison stripping tobacco. Harold was in today—they always come to see me when in town and always buy something. Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, over on the hill east of Pleasure Isle, were looking for a Jamesway gas brooder and CONRAD HAD IT. I went over to Burlington today and got the 1957 hunting and fishing license, also our 1957 car and truck license. I saw most all the county officials, a fine group of people who make Boone county a clean and peaceable county in which to live.

They will not tolerate what other counties do. This is election year for our county officials, some around the grapevine have been talking a change, others say we had better keep what we have, so that should make a hot election. Omer Kite, Gordon Phillips, Cecil Seabree, Henry Catlett, Clinton Cleek, Charley Steers were in today—some were buying and some were loafing when I came to Presser, electorship for sheriff. We had the convention then. Now is the time to get your candidate in; we have several talking about running for office—the more the merrier.

I just sent in an order for more Bolex point—that Jelled Magic, Liquid Satin, Lustre Kote, and Quick Drying Enamel. I want to be ready for that early spring housecleaning. I also sent in an order for plastic water pipe and fittings. We sure sell lots of this pipe; it is so easily installed and works fine everywhere but in boiling hot water. Several have been inquiring about chicken brooders. We have the old reliable Jamesway in oil and gas, and the Jamesway electric hover, also some cheap, cheap brooders, about 100 chicks. We try to carry most of the parts for the Jamesway brooders.

In the past we have had inquiries about coal ranges. This year I bought 2 medium size coal ranges and I have one used one. I have only had one inquiry. There are some coal ranges used in the coal mines and when you need a new one CONRAD has it. Now that winter has started and you find you need a new heating stove or an extra one, we have a very nice hunting license, sold some point and wiring material. Check sold another perfect electric heater. Mrs. Jay Webster brought in her Handy churn and Brewster fixed it. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Salmons brought in their Minnomatic cooker with the handle off and Brewster fixed it.

Come to CONRAD'S in 1957—if there is anything that is not as it should be, tell us, not your neighbor, and it will be taken care of.

TB. ON DECREASE

Kentucky's six tuberculosis hospitals discharged 121 patients during and admitted 94 patients during November.

The State Tuberculosis Hospital Commission report shows 67 patients were in the hospitals at the end of November. Making first visits to out-patient clinics were 248 persons. X-ray treatments were provided for 1,693 patients.

The number of patients reported were: Madisonville, 167; Paris, 104; Ashland, 96; London, 104, and Glasgow, 98.

Kentucky Farm News

Because of high vitamin and mineral content, greens are a real bargain in food value at almost any price, say University of Kentucky food specialists.

To vary cabbage salad or slow, combine it with shredded carrots, celery, apples, pineapple, peanuts, raisins, crisp bacon, bits of ham or cubed cheese.

Wool is now being treated to make it more resistant to shrinkage. Other new finished make it moth and mildew resistant.

Cider made from apples ripened off the tree had better flavor than that made from tree-ripened fruit, according to USDA tests made with Washington State scientists.

All measurements for cakes and cookies should be level, say UK Extension food specialists. Even a small variation in the amount measured might cause poor results.

Ability of animals to put on or maintain weight on lower quantities of feed than other similar animals in is heritable. About 27 percent of the nation's 489 million acres of timberland are owned by public agencies. Private persons or corporations own the remaining 73 percent.

Chill drop-cooky dough before baking for well-rounded cookies that hold their shape; chill rolled cookie doughs, too, for easy handling.

In 1947, the frozen prepared food industry froze five million pounds of prepared food; this year, more than 700 million pounds will be frozen.

Fox and mousetraps continue to haunt England's livestock industry. This year, about 18,000 animals have been slaughtered.

When pieces of a garment are not cut on the grain, the "fit" appearance and hang of the finished garment is affected.

Use shredded corn stalks for bedding, researchers say, rather than unbedded ones. Shredded stalks store better for one thing.

The Poultry and Egg National Board of St. Charles, Ill., now has come up with bumper-strips advertising poultry and eggs.

Cheese factories in the United States make more than a billion pounds of cheese a year, and could make more if needed, says the USDA.

Transferring pattern markings to the cut-out garment with tracing wheel is more accurate and quicker than marking with tailor tacks or chalk.

The 1956 crop of sudan grass seed is about 43 percent below last year's record crop, but about one-third larger than the average.

Because the average stalk of celery weighing about 1 1/2 pounds provides only 75 calories, it is popular among weight-watchers.

Cut feed wastes in feeding operations and you've increased your profit. From half to two-thirds of costs in certain livestock and poultry operations are tied up in feed.

A half-pound of phosphate fertilizer per cow per day, spread in and a short distance behind the gutter in the dairy stanchion barn, is better than lime. Lime makes the floor slippery; phosphate ties up the nitrogen in the manure, cuts down smell and makes the manure worth more in the spring.

The Navy has turned over to California eight obsolete bomber planes, to be used as tankers in carrying chemicals or water to forest fire areas.

Five milligrams of stilbestrol fed daily to steers wintering on roughage primarily, was no particular help in gains, the USDA reports.

Instead of dusting a greased pan with flour for a chocolate or devil's food cake, home economists at the University of Kentucky say to substitute cocoa, and thus avoid any white streaks on the rich brown crust.

Low Cost Forage Crops Boost Profits from Milk and Beef

Well fertilized "home-grown" forage can keep feed costs low, boost profits.

LOW prices for livestock and dairy products emphasize the need for farmers to use low-cost feed, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by two University of Kentucky agronomists—George D. Corder and Harold F. Miller. "This does not mean a poor quality feed, but one produced at the least cost possible, whether it be grain or forage," says the agronomists' statement. The agronomists point out that pasture crops produce the cheapest feed for livestock. Hence, special attention should be given to pastures this year. In establishing pasture and hay fields, the first step should be to have the soil tested," Corder and Miller suggest. "Next step should be to apply lime and fertilizer needed to establish the crop and give high yields. The third step is to maintain pasture and hay production by annual applications of phosphate and potash fertilizer as indicated by the soil test. "It is cheaper to maintain established forage crops through top-dressings of fertilizer than it is to reseed them," the agronomists say. If there is no legume in the mixture, or if the stand is weak, the use of nitrogen fertilizer can be profitable, provided there is sufficient phosphate and potash to meet the needs of the crop, they point out.

Teaching As A Career Is Theme of Wa-Na Club Meeting Jan. 7

The new year got off to a rolling start at the January meeting of the Wa-Na Women's Club of Walton. After the regular business meeting, the program direction was turned over to Mr. Robert Ison, Superintendent of Walton-Verona Schools, who gave some interesting and enlightening facts concerning the State Educational program and in particular the setup of a Kentucky Foundation Scholarship Fund for aid to less privileged students wishing to enter the teaching field. Mr. Ison acted as moderator for a discussion among members of a panel consisting of Mrs. Pauline Huey, librarian; Mrs. Roberto Steinhauser, elementary grades; Mrs. Elizabeth Hindsale, junior high school, and Mrs. Bernice Bobbitt, senior high school. The club welcomed as guests in addition to the panel members, Mr. James Smith, principal of the Walton school, and several members of the senior class interested in the teaching profession.

At the close of the discussion, the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs and Mrs. Robert Oster, served a delightful dessert to the guests and the following members: Mrs. George Arnold, Mrs. William Montague, Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs, Mrs. James Webster, Miss Barbara Brokefield, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Dale Stephens, Mrs. Robert Oster, Mrs. Charles Holder, Mrs. James Falls, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Eldred Steinhauser, Mrs. Ward-Rice, Mrs. Paul Kline, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, and Mrs. Asa M. Rouse.

Mrs. Points, who died Sunday at Booth Hospital, was a member of Wilmington Baptist Church and Fiskburg Council of the Daughters of America.

She leaves her husband, John C.; three sons, Clifford Fisk, Covington; John Points, Hebron, and Willard Points, Cincinnati; three daughters, Mrs. Edna Lawson and Miss Viola Points, Covington, and Mrs. Lucille Rosengate, Lima, O.; a brother, James Turner, Mendota, Ill.; 10 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

County-Wide Dairy Meeting January 15 At Burlington C'th'se

Dairy cow feeding and management and forage production for 1957 will be discussed at a county-wide meeting at the courthouse in Burlington on Tuesday, January 15th at 10 a. m. o'clock when two authorities from the UK Agricultural Extension Service visit Boone County.

Harold F. Miller

Harold F. Miller, Agronomy specialist, and Garland Bastin, dairy specialist, will be the speakers, said County Agent Joe Claxon.

Dairymen, farmers and others are invited to attend this important meeting, he said.

Mr. Miller will discuss practices necessary for high production per acre of forage crops, including fertilization, variety and cultural practices.

Mr. Bastin will talk about feeding recommendations, weight-month testing, mastitis control, and other management practices essential to profitable dairying.

Engagement Announced

Louise Brewer

Mr. and Mrs. Kerfue Brewer, Florence, announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise, to Charles Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reynolds, of Thyner, Ky.

Miss Brewer is a graduate of Walton-Verona High School, class of 1956. Mr. Reynolds is a junior at the University of Kentucky, where his major is mechanical engineering.

No wedding date has been set.

Chest X-ray Unit Schedule for Boone

There is something you can do to fight tuberculosis. You should have a chest X-ray each year. The mobile chest X-ray unit will be in Boone county January 18 to January 23. It will follow this schedule:

January 18, at Walton, Main Street, 9 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 p. m. to 3 p. m.

January 21, at Florence, Community Center, 10 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

January 22, at Florence, Community Center, 1 p. m. to 6 p. m.

January 23, at Burlington, Court House, 9 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 p. m. to 3 p. m.

All adults should have a chest X-ray while the unit is here. The Health Department especially urges tuberculosis cases, school teachers and other school personnel, and food handlers to have a chest X-ray while the unit is available. Chest X-rays are particularly important for persons over 40 years old.

Most of those X-rayed will get a card stating that they do not have tuberculosis. If something is found in your X-ray that needs further attention, you will be asked to see your own private physician. Please take this advice and see your physician. He will tell you the results of your X-ray and help you get the condition corrected, if needed.

Know for sure if your lungs are healthy—have a chest X-ray now.

Boone Business Booms

"Business growth in Boone county is reflected by the fact that the Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book now lists 202 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in this area, compared to 137 listings in 1947," says William M. Gordon, the Cincinnati district manager of the credit reporting organization.

Wa-Na Club Will Hold "Mothers March On Polio"

It was decided at the January meeting of the Wa-Na Club, held last night at Janoda, that the club will participate in the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis' annual "Mothers March on Polio," which James E. Falls, president of the club, appointed a committee to map out this program for the city of Walton. This committee consists of Mrs. Asa M. Rouse, chairman; Mrs. George Arnold and Mrs. William Montague.

Home Economist Speaks at Meeting Of Simon Kenton FHA

Miss Dorothy Nanney, Home Economist for the R.E.A., spoke to the Simon Kenton Future Homemakers at a meeting January 3. Her subject was "Home Economic Careers in Business," and she told of the advantages and requirements for such careers. Requirement is a college degree in Home Economics and courses in speech, merchandising and public relations are quite important. Some advantages of such careers in business are the opportunities to travel widely, to meet many different people and to lead an interesting and exciting life. Miss Nanney suggested various kinds of careers in business, such as home economists in advertising, in writing, in merchandising, in interior decorating, in home and public service in testing and research, etc. At the close of the talk, Joyce Moffett presented Miss Nanney a box of candy from the F.H.A., and asked her to join the group for lunch in the canteen.

The Future Homemakers enjoyed having Miss Nanney as a guest and speaker and would welcome her back at any time.

Joseph A. Hogan Is Sheriff Candidate In Boone County

Joseph A. Hogan, of Hebron, made his formal announcement as a candidate for the office of sheriff of Boone county this week, in the Democratic primary to be held May 28, 1957.

Mr. Hogan is 56 years of age, and is married to Hilda Houston Hogan. They have four sons.

Mr. Hogan, who is referred to by his many friends and acquaintances as "Joe," is a native of Boone county and is presently serving as Chief Deputy under Sheriff Byron Kimman, and has served in such capacity since March 1, 1955. Prior to his present employment, he was associated in the transportation business for a period of 30 years as a bus operator.

Joseph A. Hogan

Joe has never held nor did he ever seek public office prior to his appointment as Chief Deputy, however, he has always been active in civic and community functions. Mr. Hogan is a member of the Hebron Lutheran Church and a charter member of the Hebron Lions Club.

Mr. Hogan, in his announcement, stated, "I desire to offer my services to the citizens of Boone county by seeking the Democratic nomination as sheriff. I shall make an active campaign in an effort to personally see the citizens and to discuss with them the responsibilities of the office of sheriff and to request of them their support and assistance in order that I may be successful in obtaining the nomination. The office of sheriff is one of great responsibility and my experience as a deputy-sheriff is invaluable in the execution of the duties of this office, if I am elected. I sincerely request of every citizen, their vote, support, and assistance for my successful nomination in the Democratic primary, and if so elected to the office of sheriff, I shall serve with the highest degree of extent of my capabilities and with the highest possible degree of efficiency."

It costs you about $20 a year to board a rat.

Dixie Heights Faculty Member Is Speaker At Literary Club Meet

Mrs. Alan H. Gaines and Mrs. D. L. Lusby graciously extended hospitality, as hostesses for the January meeting of Walton Women's Literary Club, which was held in Fellowship Hall of Walton Christian Church.

The president, Mrs. F. S. Thompson, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag, followed by the club collect, which was read by Mrs. E. B. Wallace.

Mrs. A. E. Atkinson gave the spiritual guidance with an inspirational talk, in which she referred to the passing of the old year and the beginning of the New Year. The Scripture chosen by Mrs. Atkinson is found in Isaiah 65: verses 17 and 18, closing with prayer.

The members enjoyed having a guest, the Senior Class of Walton-Verona High School, Mr. Robert Ison, Superintendent, and Mr. William R. Snow, Class Sponsor.

The guest speaker, Mrs. James C. Riffe, a member of the faculty of Dixie Heights High School, gave an interesting and informative talk on the subject, "Education." The speaker was introduced by Mrs. J. S. Webster.

Mrs. J. L. Hamilton and her grandson, Jim Bob Hamilton, made a pleasing addition to the program, with a piano duet, "El Capitan" by John Phillip Sousa. A solo selection, Beethoven's "Minuet" in G was played by young Hamilton.

Following adjournment, Mrs. Lusby and Mrs. Gaines, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Rouse served delicious refreshments from an artistically appointed table.

This sweet, smooth and sassy new Chevy has its own built-in "dollar-saver." It's the latest and liveliest edition of the six that's famous for its saving ways!

You'd never guess from the way this new Chevy looks and acts that it's so easy going on budgets. It's long, low—and every inch a beauty, with the solid quality of Body by Fisher written all over it. And the interior would go beautifully with just about anybody's Sunday best.

Hard to believe it, but this is a bottom-priced Chevrolet "One-Fifty." And it has a peppery, sweet-running "Blue-Flame" six under the hood to make your gas stops few and far between. You'll like the "lift" and the thrift it brings you.

And you'll like the special sureness of control you have at the wheel. This is a quality that just can't be measured in dollars and cents. Lots of cars that cost lots more just don't have it. Come in and see how much pleasure we're passing out these days at Chevrolet prices! Why not make it soon?

Social Security Law Changes Are Listed

The U. S. Congress has made important changes in the Social Security law in 1956 as it affects farmers, says John Bandurant, UK Agricultural Experiment Station economist.

Some of the changes which affect Kentucky farmers are:

Farmers whose gross income from farming is not more than $1,800 can report on net income from self-employment either their actual net earnings or two-thirds of their gross income, provided their net income by either method amounts to $400 or more. Farmers who gross more than $1,800 but have net earnings of less than $1,200 may use either their actual net earnings or $1,200 in figuring their Social Security tax.

Farm owners who cash-rent or share their farm land to others are now covered by Social Security, provided the owners "participate materially" in the management of the farm land or in the annual work and expense of crop and livestock production.

Soil Bank payments generally are to be considered as farm income in payment of Social Security taxes. However, if a land owner does not participate materially in the farm business, manage, or work on the farm, the Soil Bank payments would not be included as self-employed income in figuring the Social Security tax payments.

Changes effective after January 1, 1957, are:

Women, age 62, whether eligible for Social Security benefits from self-employment, as wife or as survivor of a self-employed person, may now qualify for benefit payments at age 62 instead of age 65.

Benefits from disability insurance will be payable to insured persons between the ages of 50 and 65, who are totally disabled and who meet the other requirements for such payment, effective July 1, 1957.

The Social Security tax rate has been increased to two and one-fourth percent each for employees and employers, and to three and three-eighths percent for self-employed persons, beginning January 1, 1957. The increase is to be set aside in a separate Disability Trust Fund.

Additional information is available through county agents' offices or the UK Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky. Ask for Regional Extension Publication No. 5, "Farm Families' Social Security."

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsberry

Musical Chairs:

Senators are engaged in playing musical chairs—moving from one office to another. The late three-room suite, once the property of Kentucky's Senator Earle C. Clements, is now the home office of young Senator Russell Long of Louisiana.

Elaborate rules are set up for all the switching. Veteran senators get their choice when there's a vacancy. Next come such senators as John Sherman Cooper, who have broken terms of service. The newcomers are last on the list, coming after such men as former congressmen, former governors, and former members of the cabinet.

Those Flags:

During the past year, Kentucky lawmakers have obtained several flags for Kentucky groups and individuals, flags which have flown over the Capitol.

Interest in those historic banners is fairly recent and each time a constituent calls on his Blue Grass lawmaker for a banner, it costs him $6.50.

Actually, the flags don't fly very long—about five minutes in all. The demand is so great that if they remained aloft much longer, there would be enough time in the day to supply all the requests. For example, last year some 4,000 flags were distributed. Nevertheless, you can be sure that the flags in your possession did actually whip in the breeze about the great, gray building on the Hill.

Similar Rules:

Similar rules apply in the Lower House. However, some men, like veteran Brent Spence, prefer to keep their present offices, although the Northern Kentucky congressman rates a big suite with adjoining meeting rooms.

Congressman Frank Chelf is another veteran lawmaker who could have larger quarters, but he has kept his office even since he came to Washington and the House of Representatives about ten years ago.

On the Job:

Once again the corridors are packed with lawmakers and staff members. The fight in the Senate over the new rules, the organization of the Upper House, and all the ceremonies brought record crowds to the building.

Two Kentuckians resumed their important jobs. One is H. H. Morris, Postmaster of the House. He has been in Washington for many years, and once was secretary to the late Virgil Chapman. His father is a former Kentucky congressman and H. H.—as he is best known—is a Central Kentuckian.

Another man with an important job is Emory Frazier, Chief Clerk of the Senate, who also is a veteran refugee from the Blue Grass state. No new senator goes on the Senate payroll until he puts his name in the Frazier record.

Mrs. Pattie Wilford returned home a few days ago from Georgia where she spent the Christmas holidays with her son Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilford and daughter.

Mrs. Ethel Rogers returned home the last of the week from her sister's, Mrs. Frances Aylor and Mr. Aylor and son.

Mrs. Lizzie Noel left last week to stay with Mrs. Cornelius of Walton.

We were sorry to hear of Junior Alford passing away Sunday afternoon at his home in the Porter road, he had been ill for quite a while. The Hamilton funeral home is in charge of the funeral. We extend sympathy to his wife and son and mother and father in the passing of this loved one.

Mrs. Martha Hayden went Sunday to stay with Mrs. Stapleton of Covington, Mrs. Stapleton is quite ill.

Pearl Lamm, Susie Glore, Martha Hayden, Flannice Edgington was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker Saturday afternoon.

We are sorry Mr. Walter Renaker is ill, we hope for him a speedy recovery.

Holiday and recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell were: Mrs. Littrell's brother J. M. Walton, his daughter Mrs. Christine Jones and Mr. Jones of Union; Rev. and Mrs. Jimmy Wilson, (nee) Doretta Jones of North Carolina; Mrs. D. Sizemore and son Jerry and his bride who were married recently, Roland Stephenson of Bates College in Maine, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Stephenson of Erlanger route 4, Mr. and Mrs. Kite of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McMillan of Lorton Ave., Covington.

Mrs. Russell Littrell who is in Jewish Hospital for observation and treatment, is improving and should be able to return home soon.

WHITES TOWER

The usual let-down after the holidays when everyone is worn out and trying to relax will make our news a little short this week.

Over the weekend we killed our 800-pound beef, which was divided equally between the Dorsey and Ryle families. The benefits of having a nice young beef to kill will show this summer, when we roast in there for a juicy steak of a big roast which we reserve for our visitors.

Billie Baker was a Sunday guest of the writer and wife. Billie enjoys his rare visits to the Tower and we are glad to have him with us.

Jess Webster was a welcome helper to the farm over the weekend when he helped his friend Chas. Dorsey to butcher an 800 pound beef, which from its looks at this writing is about the cream of the crop in this vicinity.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Maude Brumback of McCollum Dr. and hope for her a quick recovery.

It has been kinda lonesome at the Tower farm this week as our guests who were so numerous last week are doing just like the writer and wife, trying to recover and relax from the strain of the holidays.

Linda Ward and her $30.00 cocker spaniel which she got for Christmas visited her grandma Ryle at the Tower over the weekend.

Our country sausage is all gone, so if you are killing hogs and have some for sale, please call FI 7-5432 and you have a sale for about 10 pounds.

The Christmas weather arrived about a week late and this Monday morning the ground is covered.

Mrs. Minnie Perry of near Lorton Lakes underwent an operation at the hospital last week and is getting along very well at this writing.

Baptist W. M. S. to Meet

The Baptist W. M. S. meets Thursday January 17th at 10:30 a. m.

Hostesses are Mrs. Mary Allen, Mrs. Iona Atherton and Mrs. Mary Black. W. M. S. Focus week January 13-19. On January 14th at 1:00 p. m. "The Year Book," will be taught by Mrs. Chas. Young at the church.

All members are urged to be present. Visitors are welcome.

IS YOUR SUBSCRIPTION PAID?

Dear Mr. Jones:

Please consider this my application for a job. Although I'm a big healthy fellow and will do a man's job I ask only a boy's wage. I'll work for about $12.50 a week, and if you give me the job, I'll stay on it as long as you need me.

I'll agree never to ask for a raise—in fact, I would not accept an increase even though you might consider me entitled to one. I'm thrifty, and will promise to save the biggest part of my salary. I'll also promise that, if you are ever hard-pressed, I'll loan you all my savings.

Here is the job I'll do. If you should be taken out of the picture entirely, I'll watch over your family and take good care of them. I'll buy shoes and clothes and school books. I'll pay the rent and grocery bills. I'll buy fish lines and poles for Ray and Eddie, dolls and doll dishes for Helen, Ruth and Alice. I'll see them all through school and keep their little "tummies" well filled.

In addition, I'll promise that your family will never want for the comforts of life.

Every Christmas, I'll make sure that Santa Claus comes to your house and leaves the things that bring happiness to little tots. In fact, I'll try to do all the things you would do if you were here. Of course, I can't go fishing with Eddie and Ray, but instead I'll send along memories of a thoughtful and devoted dad.

After the children are grown, if you don't need my services any longer, you can stop my pay and I'll say to you, "That's all right, Boss—I've enjoyed working for you all these years. Now to show my appreciation, I'll take care of you and your wife for the rest of your lives."

All these things I'll guarantee to do for you—and all I ask that you put me on the payroll for about $12.50 a week.

Yours truly,

FRANKLIN BUTLER

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Tempted We Are

Lesson for January 13, 1957

EVERYBODY is a sinner yet not everybody is tempted to the same sins. But being tempted is not a sign of sin. The church believes that the same Jesus who in every respect has been tempted as we are (Hebrews 4:15) in the flesh was tempted without sinning. It would be a mistake to suppose that in order to be tempted as we are, Jesus would have to have been tempted to all the sins there are. What this means is simply that the way he was tempted is the way we are tempted.

Dr. Foreman

At Highest Moments

One thing we can learn from Christ's temptations is that it is not possible in this life to be guaranteed freedom from temptation. In the first place, it can be said that only serious-minded high-minded people know what real temptation is. Weak, flabby, frivolous persons tell no pulp or push, they drop into sin like a stone into water. You can't feel temptation without resisting. Low-minded people do what they feel like doing without thinking. They aren't even aware they have sinned. They are like dirty little boys who can't see the sense in washing their faces clean enough. It is the clean person who is conscious of dirt on his hands or clothes. So only the person with real convictions and ideals can feel the tug of temptation. It is only people with consciences who can be tempted to go against their conscience. Now high-minded people, people who really want to please God, often wish they could reach a stage in life where they wouldn't have to struggle to be good and to resist. But the story of Jesus shows that this is a false hope. Jesus had just been baptized when his great temptations came. If ever there was a consecrated, holy person conscious of God's approval, it was Jesus at that time. If ever there was a person filled with the Holy Spirit, it was he. Yet Matthew tells us that Jesus was led by the Spirit to be tempted. In life's highest and holiest moments one is tempted to say, Now I am safe. But that may be the very moment the great struggle begins.

Tempted to Do Good

Again, the story of Jesus shows that sin may not always be something evil in itself. The three temptations of Jesus illustrate three levels of temptation, three levels of sin. Falling down and worshipping Satan is obviously the sin of sins. Jumping off a temple roof isn't so much wicked as it is foolish; but playing the fool is still sin. If the President of the United States rolled his Secretary of State down Pennsylvania Avenue in a wheelbarrow, it might not be wicked, but for him it would be very wrong indeed. But turning stones into bread — That would be a helpful thing in a country full of poor people. Nothing was said about Jesus using the bread for himself alone. And if he could turn stones into bread he could turn them into medicine, into meat, manna. Not wicked, but foolish. But still wrong, because Jesus was commissioned to do something more profound, more radical than supplying people with bread. He came to change man from the inside, to feed their souls. So we, like the Master, are sometimes tempted to do what is good, when what is better is possible. "To choose a lesser good," said Prof. W. M. Urban, "is the essence of wrong."

Sword of the Spirit

Another way in which the Christian can learn from Christ's temptations is by observing how he met them. He did not play around with them. He did not say, "Well, there is something in what you say." He did not debate what for him was not debatable. And he met each temptation with a word from God's Word. Each of the quotations he makes, ("It is written") come from the same book of the Old Testament, Deuteronomy. If Jesus could find help, in time of temptation, in his Bible, surely the Christian of today is cutting himself off from a major source of strength if when temptation comes the best he can think of is, "I am sure there is a verse in the Bible about this somewhere, but I can't think what it is." The best way to have the Bible ready for daily help is not to have it on a shelf, but to have it as a treasure in the mind.

THE GLEAM FROM BEYOND THE CLOUDS

There may be folks who dream of a new year with no clouds over the horizon. But life has taught most of us that there is never a day free of uncertainty. Some like to rejoice in the calm of today and give no thought to the clouds of tomorrow. There is a contentment without strength, a happiness empty of hope. But stronger souls see both the calm and the clouds. And they look beyond the clouds to the Light whose rays bathe the horizon. These are the souls who face the new year with faith in their God. They know the days will not be without shadow. The ripples may sometimes become angry breakers. But they follow the gleam across another year . . . the Gleam from beyond the clouds. The Church is for those who would look ahead . . . ever toward the Light.

The new year seems to have gotten off to a fast start in our neighborhood. The winter night service at the church while not largely attended was enjoyed by all present. Had a good attendance at Sunday school with several new faces. Hope they will like us well enough to come again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey who are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son Jeffrey David on Dec. 31st are spending a few days with the proud grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Losey.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children Louise and Lynn of Dayton were guests on Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Klein left on Friday morning for Orlando, Fla., to attend the funeral of Mr. Wm. Twenhofel. Mr. Twenhofel who was born in this vicinity had spent most of his life in Madison, Wis. where he was a teacher of geology. At retirement he with his wife moved to Orlando. They were faithful in making annual visits to relatives and friends "back home". He was the author of some widely used textbooks on his favorite subject Geology. He liked nothing better than to walk over the country side which was always interesting. His wife Virginia preceded him in death by only a few weeks. They have two daughters and one son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Anderson and children on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish were Sunday guests of Miss Emma Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon, Mrs. Albert Brown and children, Virginia and Charles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney.

Mrs. W. E. Hanna will entertain the W.S.C.S. on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Won't you come? Every woman in the neighborhood is invited to come and join in this great effort to do Christian service.

Mrs. Flora Summey and Mrs. Ora Stone are leaving on Monday to accompany their brother Foster Armstrong and wife to their home in Fla. for a few weeks of sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna entertained for the first Sunday of 1957, Mr. and Mrs. G. Croymyle, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and sons Jimmie Lee and Billy Lee. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were guests on New Year's of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rector.

OAK RIDGE

The children of the community enjoyed the snow very much. They never seem to have much opportunity to use their sleds and ice skates anymore, but they take advantage of every opportunity they get. Their parents don't appreciate the snow, especially when they have to drive in it.

There was a good turn out of Simon Kenton fans to see the Simon Kenton team defeat Lloyd High School in three games at the Erlanger gym Friday night.

We have several members of our community who are seriously ill. Mrs. Minnie Perry is in St. Elizabeth's Hospital following a serious operation Thursday morning. Rodney Eager has returned from the hospital but is still quite ill. Mrs. Sid Richardson has recovered from the flu but will enter the hospital for surgery soon. Little Stephen Huffman is in Children's Hospital in Cincinnati awaiting heart surgery.

We were glad the snow held off until afternoon on Sunday so Gertrude Dorman could come to Sunday School and Church. Gertrude can't get out in her wheel chair in bad weather.

Marie Elliott Baker returned from her honeymoon last week and is finishing her Senior year at Simon Kenton.

Mike Ash has a bad case of chicken pox. In fact there were several cases of "chicken pox" in the first grade at Taylor Mill School last week.

Shirley Guffy had her tonsils removed recently.

Miss Nancy Jackson, one of the first grade teachers at Taylor Mill School, was married during the Christmas holidays to Stephen Massy.

J. N. Caldwell of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins.

Why do men hate to put skid chains on? They will slip and slide and burn up several dollars worth of good tires trying to get up on an icy hill, rather than spend fifteen minutes putting on a pair of skid chains.

We made a new years resolution to get this column in every week this year, but we can only do so if you will call us when you have some news for the column. We can't hear about everyone's visitors, illnesses, etc., just by chance, so call us at Fleetwood 7-6881 before Sunday night of each week, and we will try to report your news for you.

CRITTENDEN

Mrs. Lola Carlisle of Independence spent Saturday night with her mother Mrs. Lida Doud.

Mr. Don Hitch returned home Friday after spending several days with friends in Florida.

Billy Marr remains quite ill at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Mrs. Cora Dyer has returned home after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Monahan and Mr. Monahan at Peach Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Menefee of Lexington have been called here by the death of his brother, Mr. Harley Menefee who passed away at Dry Ridge convalescent home Sunday morning.

Mrs. Harry Miller was called to Cincinnati by the illness of her brother who was injured in a fall.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank everyone who has been so wonderful to our son, Eddie, during his illness; thanks to the many who donated in getting him a television set, fruit and books. We deeply appreciate your love and generosity.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank everyone who was so kind to us during the illness and loss of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cora Bethel. We wish to thank donors of the flowers, the singers, Rev. Tackett, Rev. Durham, Chambers and Grubbs for their efficient service, and our deepest appreciation to anyone else who helped in any way. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

CRITTENDEN

Mrs. Lola Carlisle of Independence spent Saturday night with her mother Mrs. Lida Doud.

Mr. Don Hatch returned home Friday after spending several days with friends in Florida.

Billy Marr remains quite ill at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Chas. Dyer has returned home after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Monahan and Mr. Monahan of Peach Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Menefee of Lexington have been called here by the death of his brother, Mr. Harley Menefee who passed away at Dry Ridge convalescent home Sunday morning.

Mrs. Harry Miller was called to Cincinnati by the illness of her brother who was injured in a fall.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank everyone who has been so wonderful to our son, Eddie, during his illness, thanks to the many who donated in getting him a television set, fruit and books. We deeply appreciate your love and generosity.
11-2 BERNARD RYAN FAMILY

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank everyone who was so kind to us during the illness and loss of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cora Bethel. We wish to thank donors of the flowers, the singers, Rev. Tackett, Rev. Durham, Chambers and Grubbs for their efficient service, and our deepest appreciation to anyone else who helped in any way. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Mrs. Viola Bowie
Mrs. William Justice
Mrs. J. Begbie
Mr. Wilbur Strouse

Kill Japanese honeysuckle before the planting of trees, foresters say. The foreign plant will smother trees if it once takes firm hold of a growing plant.

About 90 percent of our raisins come from Thompson seedless grapes, and are sold as seedless, bleached or unbleached raisins. Bleached raisins have been changed from a dark brown color to a yellow or amber color.

Leather belts and purses will keep their new look and resist marring if they are polished with paste wax.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon, Mrs. Albert Brown and children, Virginia and Charles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney.

Mrs. W. E. Hanna will entertain the W.S.C.S. on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Won't you come? Every woman in the neighborhood is invited to come and join in this great effort to do Christian service.

Mrs. Flora Summey and Mrs. Ora Stone are leaving on Monday to accompany their brother Foster Armstrong and wife to their home in Fla. for a few weeks of sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna entertained for the first Sunday of 1957, Mr. and Mrs. G. Craymyle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and sons Jimmie Lee and Billy Lee. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were guests on New Year's of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rector.

OAK RIDGE

The children of the community enjoyed the snow very much. They never seem to have much opportunity to use their sleds and see skates anymore, but they take advantage of every opportunity they get. Their parents don't appreciate the snow, especially when they have to drive on it.

There was a good turnout of Simon Kenton fans to see the Simon Kenton team defeat Lloyd High School in three games at the Erlanger gym Friday night.

We have several members of our community who are seriously ill. Mrs. Minnie Perry is in St. Elizabeth Hospital following a serious operation Thursday morning. Rodney Eger has returned from the hospital but is still quite ill. Mrs. Sid Richardson has recovered from the flu but will enter the hospital for surgery soon. Little Stephen Huffman is in Children's Hospital in Cincinnati awaiting heart surgery.

We were glad the snow held off until afternoon on Sunday so Gertrude Dorman could come to Sunday School and Church. Gertrude can't get out in her wheel chair in bad weather.

Marie Elliott Baker returned from her honeymoon last week and is finishing her senior year at Simon Kenton.

Mike Asch has a bad case of chicken pox. In fact there were several cases of chicken pox in the first grade at Taylor Mill School last week.

Shirley Guffy had her tonsils removed recently.

Miss Nancy Jackson, one of the first grade teachers at Taylor Mill School, was married during the Christmas holidays to Stephen Massey.

J. N. Caldwell of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins.

Why do men hate to put skid chains on? They will slip and slide and burn up several dollars worth of good tires trying to get up an icy hill, rather than spend fifteen minutes putting on a pair of skid chains.

We made a new years resolution to get this column in every week this year, but we can only do so if you will call us when you have some news for the column. We can't hear about everyone's wishes, illnesses, etc., just by chance, so call us at Fleetwood 7-6681 before Sunday night of each week, and we will try to report your news for you.

A NEW YEAR

A new year is here and we have been going right along, just the three of us. Chick sold a coal heater and a water pump; Brewster tried to repair Mrs. Baxter's pump down at Richmond—he failed and turned the job over to John Wood, who wound up putting in a new Jet Dayton water pump. You can't beat those left at $99.50. I was just talking to the Dayton pump man and he said the next pumps would sell for $117.50. A fellow came in today and asked if we had an Enterprise hard press—we only had one and he took it along. I tried two wholesale houses to find another and they have quit stocking them so I will have to send to the factory.

This is a changing era when items like that sell slow and the wholesaler's quit stocking them. Most all wholesale hardware houses have quit stocking harness, saddles, stretcher chairs, single trees, clevises and lots of items used in the horse-drawn days. Mr. Dodson Turner was having some trouble with his water pump he thought it was a frozen suction line. Mr. Arnold Allard, out on Verano Road, needed help on his furnace so I called John Wood—John helps most everyone out on their oil furnaces and water systems. There is not much to a water pump but very few can make one pump when it quits.

Chick sold Mr. Sams, over at Nicholson, on Bowman Road, a new Perfection oil heater—he and Brewster put it in this morning; he built the rock while Brewster did the rest. I have more people looking for $10.00 coal heaters. I have not seen one for years. We have sold lots of those Perfection electric heaters and Perfection portable oil heaters. We have several Perfection fuel oil heaters and Warm Morning coal heaters in stock. If you need an extra stove for these cold days we also have some cheaper heating stoves. We also have a large inventory front door feed wood heaters for only $9.75 while they last.

Mr. Clay, the tobacco seed man from Carlisle, Ky., was here today and left us a new display rack full of tobacco seed. We have most all varieties. We no longer carry Rickard's seed but we think Clay's seed will sell better in our community and they have really gone into the seed business. Clay Nix, from Elliston, was in today—he always comes in when in town. This seems to be water pump week—everyone has an old pump that is breaking down and they want a new one. We have sold several Dayton water pumps already this year. We have the best pump for the money, that is the reason we sell so many.

All water systems have advanced but we still can sell you a very fine water system for only $99.50, which is much less than other good water systems.

Dawson Ballinger brought in his toaster for repair, and we have it ready to go. Our Dayton pump man brought down three more Dayton water systems and some repairs. That is the reason I sell Dayton water systems, because we get the best of service—I called him last night and he brought the pumps today. You do not get that kind of service anywhere else. If you have pump trouble and no one here can fix it, he will send a man and fix it as once.

Today we sold large cans, Morton's sugar cure, sausage mills and repairs, wood heaters, aluminum roasters, butcher knives, sharpening stones, Mortite caulking, weather strip, wood and coal heaters, dishes, pyrex, snow shovel, dairy barn push broom, axe handles, glass, Slop Dr., for cisterns or leaky basement walls, paint, extension cords, wiring material, fuel oil tank, plastic water pipe, water pails, filter disc for milk strainer, Case pocket knives, fine twine mop, broom, clothes line, pie pans, and so many items I do not remember all of them and who bought them. We sold several hunting license and gun shells; lots of hunters and the season is not over until the 17th.

Mr. Sams, from over on Bowman Road who bought the Perfection oil heater last week, said that was a real stove and it heated his house so he could sleep on top of the cover. Those Perfection engineers sure know how to build a heater and we have so little trouble with them. I have been selling Perfection oil heaters for 15 years and have never seen one burned out. We never have to order a repair for one, but I can't say that for any other make I have sold. This is a new year and the papers and news editors say the first half of 1957 will be a good year for all businesses but they don't know about the last half.

Leo Courtney, down on Frogmont Road, called for a Dayton Jet water system. I called John Wood, he took one down, put it in, and came back with the check—that is the fast service you get from CONRAD. All that slows us up is finding John Wood for he is busy all the time on oil furnaces, water pumps and most all kinds of repair jobs. Ralph Sparks, Ben Dixon, Mike Link, Clarence Combs, and Al Hunt were all in today—it was a bad, snowy day and not many in town, but what did come bought and hurried home. We sold mostly repairs, pipe fittings, electrical supplies, stove pipe, hinges, toggle bolts, dishes, roaster, mop, broom, grind wheel and lots of other items.

I received an invoice today on tobacco cans; it should be here any day and it's the same price as last year. We have our tobacco seed. I'm not selling Rickard's any more but have a full line of Clay's from Carlisle. Frank Panick, who was in today telling me about his baby daughter, born three weeks ago.

Chevrolet shows you some important differences in low-priced cars just by # the look on its face!

There's a look of substance and character and quality about that new Chevrolet front end that reveals a lot. Feel the strength and solidity of the grille, and you learn even more.

Wouldn't you say that most of the '57 cars look good from 50 feet away, but what about from 50 inches away? What does a close-up of the grille tell you, for example? Is it solidly made like the new Chevrolet grille? Or, in comparison does it look less rich in design—feel less strong and solid? Compare the quality and construction of the bumpers and headlights, the fit of the chrome trim.

The more closely you look all around the car, the more clearly you'll see that Chevrolet has the edge in the way it's put together. You'll find, for instance, that Chevrolet is the only car in its field with a lacquer finish... that only Chevrolet Bel Air models give you foam rubber cushions in front and rear seats as standard equipment. These are just a few of the advantages of Body by Fisher. And Chevrolet, you know, is the only low-priced car that has a Fisher Body.

We'll be glad to give you a close-up, comparative look at this new Chevy any time you care to come in. This week, maybe?

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are very glad to report Mrs. Lybion Richardson has returned home from Booth Hospital after a week's illness from a serious operation. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We are also glad to report Mrs. Mayme Hoffman has also returned from the hospital and we hear is doing as well as can be expected from a broken hip.

Our Sunday School attendance at Staffordburg was not so good Sunday. We hope the children will all be able to be back next Sunday, and bring Mom and Dad along. We sure will appreciate their coming.

L. J. Rapp is still housed in with a very painful attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fennell's children have been quite ill with severe colds but are now on the road to recovery. Mrs. Earl Hanna entertained the W. S. C. S. at her home last Thursday evening with an excellent attendance.

Mrs. Howard Willoughby will entertain the society February 14 at her home with a Valentine social connected with the W. S. C. S. meeting. We hope all members will try to be present, and visitors are always welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Bollinger entertained Sunday for Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey and little son are spending a few days with their parents in Owenton.

Rev. George Miller and wife of Warsaw, were soon in our community one day the past week, calling on some of their friends.

Mrs. Charles Losey received word from her sisters, Mrs. Flo Sumner and Mrs. Ora Stone, who left last Tuesday morning for Florida, that they arrived safely and we hope they are enjoying the warm sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley drove to Warsaw, Sunday afternoon and viewed the new dam which is being made at that place.

Howard Willoughby's mother returned home recently from several weeks stay with her son and several of her other children in Covington.

Johnnie Pieper returned home the past week from a week's stay with her sister, Mrs. Wynford Riley, who lost their infant son recently.

Entertains Gleaners Class

Mrs. Wootton Ashcraft entertained The Gleaners Class of the Walton Baptist Church, Thursday January 3rd. Mrs. Lewis Webster, presided at the business session. Plans for the coming year were discussed and Secret Pal names were drawn.

Those present were: Mesdames: Vera Wright, teacher, Geraldine Gough, Raymond Beach, James Handy, Harry Reed, W. W. Greene, Lewis Webster and the hostesses.

The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harry Reed on Verona Rd.

Piner Homemakers Meet

The Piner Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Spaulding with 18 members and three visitors present.

Twenty members reported visiting elderly people during the Christmas holidays. Mrs. W. M. Wood discussed landscaping in her talk on exterior beautification. Miss Zelma Byerly, the home demonstration agent, visited the club and discussed the making of planters, also economical conditions.

Those present were Mesdames C. Cavanaugh, Leslie Smith, Clarence Duncan, John Dwyer, A. Pelizzari, O. Fisk, Steve Rich, John Lunsford, Marion Martin, R. W. Elliott, Wm. Woods, Chester Adams, Willis Strien, C. Flynn, Owen Flynn, Roy Tomlin, Miss Alice Bridges, Mesdames James Kidwell, Ralph Spaulding, Marion Collins, Jr., E. H. Spaulding, and Jennifer and Aimee Collins.

WHITES TOWER

Were you one of those who attended the Armstrong sale, Saturday? If you were, you were lucky to get close enough to park your car and have time to get there for the sale. Bob Mathis and Tom Brumback came by for the writer but if we had known what we were in for we would have stood in bed. There must have been a hundred or more machines parked each way for a mile on both sides of the turn when we arrived at 10:45 a. m. It really looked like Kenton county had turned out en masse for this event. At 12:30, they stopped sales for dinner but try and get up to the window for a sandwich and you had a real job on your hands. We would make a conservative estimate of $75 which the ladies who served the lunch took in for the day. Prices realized for what was sold were the best we have ever seen at a sale, and Cecil Wayman proved his right to the name of one of the top rate auctioneers.

Wilmington W. M. S. Meets

The Wilmington W. M. S. held its Royal Service program at the church at Fiskburg, Wednesday, January 2, at 10:30 a. m., with 11 women and two children present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Nell Spegal. Mrs. Nell Rapp read the minutes and the roll call was answered with each lady giving a Bible verse. Plans were made to attend an association at the Baptist Church on January 8, at Belleure.

Those present were: Mrs. Lula Fisk, Mrs. Anna Collins, Mrs. Geneva Honey, Mrs. Obra Planstiel, Mrs. Beverly Gorton, Mrs. Naomi Spegal, Mrs. Wilma Mullins, Mrs. Nell Rapp, Mrs. Marietta Wilson, Mrs. Anna Fisk, and Mrs. Eula Durr.

Study for the day was, Missions in the Mississippi Basin. On the program were Mrs. Gaffan, Mrs. Rapp, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Planstiel, Mrs. Fisk, Mrs.

Durr, Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Spegal. At noon a sandwich lunch and dessert was enjoyed. Mrs. Wilma Mullins was hostess for the coffee.

Thirty-two cards were sent to the sick, 18 phone calls and 16 visits made.

Citizenship and No Gripe Week Observed by FHA

The Simon Kenton FHA Chapter observed Citizenship and No Gripe Week December 3-9 by having announcements on our school P. A. system each morning encouraging the students and faculty to participate in the following:

Monday - Pat Jones - Pick up papers

Tuesday - Jean Elliott - G. in overdue books

Wednesday - Joyce Mofett - Cafeteria Courtesy

Thursday - Wanda Conner - Be good on the bus

Friday - Karen Cain - Teacher appreciation day

Saturday - Peggy Binder - Helping around the home

Sunday - Visit the church of your choice - We had practically 100 percent participation on this.

On Friday, which was Teacher Appreciation Day, our chapter presented each faculty member with an apple.

THOMAS L. MANGOLD

Thomas L. Mangold, youngest son of Augustus and Sophia Tritch Mangold, was born in Pendleton county, June 3, 1882, and departed this life December 22, 1956, at the age of 74 years, six months and 19 days.

At an early age he accepted Christ as his Saviour and united with the Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church of which he was a faithful member as long as his health permitted.

He was united in marriage to Golda Deatherage, May 3, 1905, and to this union a daughter, Hazel, now Mrs. E. H. Spaulding of Morning View Road, Kenton county, was born. This union was dissolved by death when his wife was called home April 20, 1907.

On December 22, 1908, he was united in marriage to Miss Clara Jane McKinley. To this union three daughters were born: May, now Mrs. W. H. Wallace of near Dry Ridge, Grant county, Sylvania, now Mrs. Ivan Wallace, and Edna, now Mrs. Philip Turner, both of Pendleton county. His second wife preceded him in death September 16, 1952.

Besides the four daughters, he is survived by a brother, William Mangold, and four sisters, Mrs. Lillie Mullins, Mrs. Clara Middleton, Mrs. Kate Bowen and Mrs. Florence Bowen, all of Pendleton county; also 11 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. Two brothers, Augustus Mangold and Charles Mangold, and one sister, Mrs. Addie Bailey, preceded him to the Great Beyond in recent years.

Funeral services were held at the Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church at 2:00 p. m., Monday, December 24, under the direction of Eckler funeral home, conducted by his pastor, Bro. Gaffin J. Lills, assisted by his former pastor, Rev. Homer Shettler, now of Piner.

Three ministers told of their visits to "Uncle Tom" in his long illness and how they tried to feed his soul but always left feeling he had fed their souls instead.

Three hymns, "Whispering Hope," "In the Garden" and "Amazing Grace" were beautifully sung by the choir, with Mrs. G. R. Henshaw at the piano.

Three grandsons and three nephews acted as pallbearers: Ralph and Eugene Spaulding, Marion Collins, Jr., Johnnie Hutchinson, Roy Middleton, and Russell Bowen.

The body was laid to rest in the church cemetery under a large bank of beautiful flowers.

Cecilian 4-H Club Meets

On Monday Dec. 17th, 1956 the Cecilian 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting.

A Christmas party was held in conjunction with the meeting. A nice time was had by all the members and their families as guests.

We were shown a movie called, "The Town That Came Back," which had to do with re-organizing the 4-H Club. After the movie "Santa" came and passed out gifts to all the children present and then we were served ice cream and cokes by our leaders.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 21, 1957.

Swept-Wing Dodge . . . only 4 1/2 feet low and all dynamite!

Step into the wonderful world of AUTODYNAMICS

It breaks through the vibration barrier!

It unleashes a hurricane of power

It tames a tornado of torque

It is swept-wing mastery of motion

Right off the bat, you'll realize there's something entirely different about driving the new Swept-Wing Dodge. You know it's the slickest piece of live action you've ever driven. The most responsive and easiest handling, too.

But the thing that really hits you is the silence! Why, all the irritating noises, all the annoying road sounds common to automobiles have vanished!

For Autodynamics has introduced a revolutionary new suspension system—Dodge Torsion-Air—that cushions you in a "Realm of Silence." Thick cushions of "live rubber" isolate engine vibration, noise and road shock at its source.

Actually, everything is new in the Swept-Wing Dodge—from new race car torsion bars to new Push-Button TorqueFlite, from new 310 hp. V-8 engine to new Total-Contact Brakes.

This is Autodynamics in action . . . yours in the most exciting car that's ever come up the pike. See and drive the Swept-Wing Dodge today!

UK Develops Dark Tobacco Immune To Black Root-Rot

The UK Agricultural Experiment Station's tobacco-breeding section has developed an experimental line of dark tobacco with apparent immunity to the fungus disease, black root-rot.

The immunity factor was brought in from a wild Australian plant related to tobacco, known as "Nicotiana debneyi." Dr. G. W. Stokes and Dr. W. D. Valleau, plant pathologists, said that through special selection work, "there has been saved from the wild species (Nicotiana debneyi) the piece of a chromosome that contains the apparent black root-rot immunity factor." Biologists define a chromosome as a body in the nucleus of all cells that governs hereditary characteristics. Here's how the breeders transferred the black root-rot immunity factor to commercially-used dark tobacco strains: A tabacum-debneyi cross was secured from the USDA; this was "back-crossed" with a standard dark tobacco variety. The resulting plants were grown in the UK tobacco lab's temperature tanks where conditions are made ideal for black root-rot development.

Plants (from this back-cross) were picked out which showed no black root-rot injury symptoms. These plants were back-crossed with the same variety of dark tobacco. Immune plants from this second cross were back-crossed again to the same dark tobacco, until four back-cross generations had been produced.

The breeding and rigid selection work apparently has "nailed down" in the dark tobacco varieties the desirable black root-rot immunity factor from the debneyi plant, Stokes says.

He noted that the black root-rot immunity factor (the part of the chromosome) is the only part of the debneyi (wild plant) now in the dark tobacco lines.

The best lines of these were tested at Princeton Experiment Substation in 1956. High quality, similar to standard dark varieties, is present in the breeding lines, Stokes said.

Sunday School Class Meets

Mrs. P. T. Sturdivent was hostess to her Sunday School class December 13, at her home near Verona.

A delightful dinner was served. Each member brought a covered dish of their favorite delicacy to compliment the main dish—roast turkey.

Those present were: Mrs. Bill Smith,

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay-Broshear, Mrs. Pearl Lamy, Mrs. Lizzie Noel, Mrs. Alpha Locke, Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy, Mrs. Lena Belle Harris, Mrs. Lillian Jackson, Mrs. Effie Clements, and Mrs. Henrietta Stephenson.

Rev. Kennedy gave thanks for the food and opened the business meeting with a scripture reading and a prayer.

Twenty-four men and women from nine foreign countries spent about three months at the University of Kentucky the past year to observe agricultural Extension methods.

Righteousness

Lesson for January 20, 1957

RIGHTEOUSNESS is an old-fashioned word. You almost never see it outside the Bible. But the thing itself is not old-fashioned; you can see it outside the Bible. Nearly everybody wants it for himself and everybody wants it for his neighbors. Even criminals count on it—in other people! The word originally came in the Bible from the Hebrew word meaning "straight." To this day everybody knows what the difference is between a straight man and a crooked one. We mean in the same thing sometimes when we "Dr. Foreman" use only the first part of the word, "right." We like to be right; we like to have the right people around us. "He's just not right" is one of the worst things that can be said about a man. A righteous person is one that is all that he should be. He comes up to standard, there is nothing shoddy or make believe about him. To be sure, some people don't care about this, but then some people do care whether they are healthy or clean.

Better Than the Best
One of the things Jesus said that must have sounded surprising at the time he said it, was that the righteousness of those who followed him must "exceed that of the Pharisees." Now, the Pharisees made a specialty of righteousness. They were super-good, or aimed to be. They had money, and leisure, and they spent their time thinking up ways to be better than anybody. They were so-do-super, the athletes of morality. They held all the records for high jumps and pole vaults to the top levels of righteousness. Nobody else even tried to be as good as they were. So it must have astonished everybody, not to mention shocking the Pharisees, when Jesus as good as said they were not up to the standards of the kingdom of heaven. If we look into what Jesus said by way of explaining this astonishing remark, however, we can see three ways in which the Pharisees' idea of what it is to be "right" in the sight of God, that is—comes short of the true ideal. First of all, the Pharisees were interested in action only. Now acts are very important. But as Jesus explained it, actions come from inner attitudes, and where the attitude is wrong, acts are likely to be wrong too. True righteousness, or rightness, begins and has its roots in "the heart," the inner life, where thoughts begin. The truly right person will not be content with making a good showing, he wants to be right even if it never shows.

No Fences for Love
So the righteousness Jesus demands goes deeper than what satisfied the Pharisees, ancient or modern. But he pointed out another difference. Jesus' ideal (which is God's ideal) of rightness is also broader than the Pharisees' brand. They loved their friends, they would do a great deal for those who did a lot for them. Jesus pointed out that anybody not a "complete fool" will do as much. "You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" is a philosophy almost anybody can understand. Loving people who give you — and no others — is like exchanging presents at Christmas time. Some people "give" a great many presents, at least they wrap them up and distribute them; but they don't give a thing unless they expect to get a present in return. The Pharisees, ancient and modern, know what love is, but they put a fence around it. They do not "waste" love on those who do not in some way pay them, for if Jesus went all the way out for that to this day few of us dare to follow him. Love your enemies, he said. Love is good; the Pharisees were on the right track. But love must have no horizons.

Why Be Good?
The kind of rightness God wants has another sure mark: it has the right motive. The Pharisees wanted to be right so as to be admired by other men. But true rightness has just one motive: to be like our Father in heaven. To wish to be God, to "play God," is wicked, but it is not wicked, it is the very heart of the truly good life, to love God so much, and know him so well (and never as well as in Christ) that one can think of nothing better than to be like him. All other motives for some time, but this one motive is the only one that will last.

HER WINDOW

The Bennetts live here. That's Grandmother Bennett's Bible on the window sill, and the whole family goes to the church across the snow covered field.

John Bennett works in the local bank. Martha, his wife, is president of the P.T.A., and they have three lovely children. Grandmother Bennett has been living with them for the past couple of years, since she broke her hip. She can't always get to church in wintertime and that's why she calls this her window. When she can't be in church, it helps to be able to see it.

To her, the church steeple represents a great many things, and brings back many memories. Her son was married in that church. Her husband was buried from it. Her grandchildren were christened in it. The Church has helped her to bear grief, in hours of sorrow, and it has seemed to put a benediction upon her happiness, in times of joy. Most important of all, whatever the occasion, whatever the crisis... the Church has always been there.

To Grandmother Bennett, the most comforting thing in the world is knowing that it always will be there.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers' January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Dan Hackett, Madison Pike, with Mrs. Snelson assisting.

Report on the book of the month, the devotional, and new year thoughts were read by Mrs. V. Vogel, reading chairman. Things to do in the garden during January were read by the garden chairman, Mrs. W. House. After lunch a discussion and showing of textile painting, basket weaving, Swedish weaving and lamp shade making was held.

Those attending were Mesdames C. S. Snelson, H. L. Witt, S. Stagg, C. Davis, D. Hacker, W. House, V. Vogel, and Mrs. V. Bradford. Three guests were present: Mesdames S. Baker, W. Clinkenbeard and J. Kenney.

Bullittsville-Idlewild Home'kers

The January meeting of the Bullittsville-Idlewild Homemakers was opened with devotion by Mrs. Harry Matthews and roll call was answered with a favorite song or new year's resolution. The hostesses were Mrs. Nick Mikkelsen.

Mrs. Lee Girvin, and Mrs. Larry Moehring. After lunch, Mrs. Henry Hudson gave the lesson on trays, and a white elephant sale was held.

On January 26, there will be a book sale at Lawson's Hardware store in Hebron.

Those present were Mesdames Henry Hudson, Harry Matthews, Larry Moehring, Ray Hill, Gilbert Furnish, W. E. Jones, Nick Mikkelsen, Lee Marshall, Lee Girvin, Leo Lawson, Henry Seikman, Robert Culver, Earl Souther, Marc Green, Chester Grant, C. V. Anderson, Mary Ann McCormack, home agent, and Mrs. Frank Reed, a guest.

Dance at Kenton, Saturday

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department will give a dance Saturday night, January 19, at 8:30, in the firehouse at Kenton. Mrs. Cliff Martin, chairman, announced there would be lunch and refreshments and proceeds would be used to put a sink and water in the firehouse kitchen. The ladies hope for a good attendance as everyone is welcome.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The January meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers was held at the home of Mrs. Russell Quick with Mrs. Verne Stephens assisting. Reports from the various chairmen were given and an election on "Landscaping" by Mrs. Frank Atterkirch. A very educational program in the way of guessing games was conducted by Mrs. Stephens. Those present were: Mrs. Wm. Endres, Mrs. Fabian Powers, Mrs. Roy Kummer, Mrs. Wm. Walsing, Mrs. Roger Robinson, Mrs. Ed. Sterling, Mrs. Greg. Bramlage, Mrs. Raymond McHale, Mrs. Vera Ott, Mrs. Wm. Clinkenbeard. The wonderful attendance record of Beechgrove suffered a setback by the absence of five of its members. Discussion was held as to the date of meeting being changed to the 3rd Wednesday of the month. Therefore the next meeting, February 20th will be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Lee with Mrs. Geo. Fennel assisting. There will be a work day lamps on Thursday Jan. 17th at Mrs. Vera Ott's home.

Pleasant Grove W. S. C. S.

Mrs. J. H. Lawson was hostess to the W. S. C. S. of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church, Ryland Heights, for the January meeting. Mrs. T. S. Moffett gave the opening meditation. Her subject was "Your Prayers and Mine". Mrs. H. W. Ward, program chairman, discussed "Islands in Our Community".

Mrs. Richard Kuhn, secretary of Missionary Education, introduced Mrs. Sherwood Funk whose son is a missionary to Sarawak. Mrs. Funk gave an interesting account of the life of a missionary in that country and the customs of the people there. She told what food they eat, the clothing they wear, the principle mode of transportation is a bicycle and the way they celebrate Christmas is a combination of halloween and the fourth of July.

Mrs. Ralph Lewellen discussed "Prayer-What is it? What it means to us. How to pray. When should we pray" and why should we pray" during the spiritual life session. The meeting closed with a circle of prayer.

Mrs. James Osborne was welcomed as a new member. The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Richard Kuhn.

The following were present: Mesdames T. S. Moffett, Richard Kuhn, F. B. Hermes, C. W. Pruett, H. A. Sutter, Martha Noble, Crutcher Masters, J. K. True, W. G. Turner, Ralph Lewellen, A. R. Hicks, H. W. Ward, J. A. Rich, Ralph Porter, Clarence Armstrong, James Osborne, and guests Mrs. Sherwood Funk and Mrs. Frank Meyer and the hostess.

Hickory Grove W. M. S.

The Hickory Grove W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Forest Popp, last Thursday night at eight o'clock for their monthly meeting, with seven members present: Mrs. Eva Carr, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Forest Popp, Mrs. Ada Alexander, and Mrs. Ralph Jump. Several members were unable to be present due to sickness. We hope they will all be back for the next meeting.

The program was taken from the Royal Service, "Missions Along the Mississippi River Basin," with each member having a part. It was interesting to learn what our missionaries and good will centers are doing in God's work here in our own country as well as in foreign lands. We do wish more of our church members would join us in 1957 to help us in the little part we do toward such a needed cause, do try and attend our next meeting which will be the 5th of February at eight o'clock. The place of meeting has not been decided. It will be announced later.

Mrs. Popp served delicious refreshments of fruit cake, topped with whipped cream, and tea, coffee, and cookies which was enjoyed by all.—Reporter

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to all our friends and neighbors for their kindness and consideration during our recent accident. We would also like to say to the volunteer firemen of Walton, we surely do appreciate their ability to save our home from fire—May God's richest blessings be upon each one for their help, visits and prayers.

PLAN NOW FOR CHICKS

For efficiency, poultrymen should plan now for this year's baby chick supply. Contact the breeder or hatcheryman and arrange purchases, says Joe Claxton, County Agent in Boone.

More chicks are being started in January and February than in former years. For this reason, make contacts now.

And to keep laying flocks producing at a good rate, here are some tips: (1) change water more frequently; (2) keep water from freezing by using electric warmers; (3) confine the laying flock;

(4) gather eggs two or more times a day; (5) use wire baskets for gathering; (6) cool egg rooms to between 55 and 60 degrees F.; (7) maintain relative humidity readings in egg room to 80 to 85 percent; (8) keep a dry, clean floor litter of four to eight inches, and (9) maintain clean, dry nesting material.

January Half Gone

January 8, 1957, a wet, snowy day, ending with rain. We can have any kind of weather now, this month and next are our worst. I forgot to tell you I received a Christmas card from M. B. Rice, Picacho, Ariz., also from Harold Conrad of White Deer, Texas, and in a few days Harold was here visiting his dad. He came in to see me only for a few minutes, then back to Texas. Ambrose Davis, over beyond Verona, had tough luck Monday afternoon when his house burned. The Walton fire department answered the call but were too late. The neighbors were out today helping get these people back in a home. This community has had its part of the calamities, but we all go to their rescue.

January 9, 1957, another wet day, raining all day. We repaired Mr. and Mrs. Wash Readnor's Maytag washer. I sold Mr. and Mrs. Hauser, who live in the Roger Eckler house in South Walton, a set of portable laundry tubs. Brewster had to go to Everett Bickers' and Games Robinson's at Richmond, then to East Bend bottoms to August Trapp's to put new switch on a Siegler oil heater. I rode along and stopped off at the farm. It sure did rain and was really wet down there. We left Chuck at the store and they kept him fairly busy. Mrs. Pollett, at Waltonman Hotel, bought another Armstrong lineoleum rug.

Clyde Alexander came after a new Maytag washer. We had several in, after a lot of soil pipe and fittings for his house. Groger unloaded a lot of soil pipe and Orangeburg plastic pipe with fittings. We have a very nice stock of hardware and household supplies to start 1957. As in past years, CONRAD tries to carry the best in hardware at the most reasonable price. In the past 20 years, we have accumulated the finest group of customers. Of course, in that length of time I have made several enemies, not so much an enemy, but lost customers. Some I was glad to get rid of as I have others to take their place.

Anyone who has been in business knows there are always several who try to run your business and if you listen you will be out of business in a hurry. But in all these years I have never been in that position. I am one of my customers. Most people in this community are like credit customers—very few bad ones. Clyde Alexander, Jean Ford's husband, who is remodeling the house by the factory, came after soil pipe and fittings for their bathroom and plumbing for all the house—you will notice they've done a lot of work.

Arthur Doggett came in and said his wife was awful mad at me—the paint I sold her was bad. She had to put on four coats. Well, I don't believe she was as mad as Arthur said, for she is such a fine lady. Anyway, we sent her more paint and will do all we can to please her. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Logan, down on Richmond Road, bought eight gallons of inside house paint. Thos. Scroggins bought a roll of poultry fence to make a dog pen. Chick sold lineoleum rugs, a coal range and dishes. I sold that Jeep to Gaines Stephens at Bullsville—the Advertiser gets results.

Now is the time to buy one of those Jetway electrically heated poultry water fountains. They keep the water at 55 degrees and the hens drink more, therefore lay more eggs. Also those 5' feeders on legs to keep the feed out of the dirt. William Robinson of Verona Road, brought in a diagram for some plumbing to install a sink and a clothes dryer. Brewster cut it and threaded it for him, all he had to do was put it together. We do a lot of this type work for the do-it-yourself plumbers. Ralph Piper, Gunpowder Creek Rd., was getting heat bulbs and reflectors for his brood sows. He's in the hog business, so Chick gave him some books on hog raising put out by Dr. Hess and Clark.

Edgar Schuler came in for cable, receptacle and range cable to install an electric range. Every day we sell wiring material, plumbing supplies, plastic water pipe, galvanized water pipe, copper pipe and fittings. We also try to carry a line of cast iron soil pipe and fittings. We sell lots of Orangeburg plastic 4" pipe with fittings. This makes the best drain pipe outside of your buildings; it's easy to install and roots will not go through the joints like they do in tile. This comes in 8' lengths with couplings. We also carry water tees, y's and adapters from this pipe to 4" cast iron drain pipe.

We also sell electric water heaters in the round up right 52-gallon and the table-top 52-gallon to put right by the sink with a porcelain working top to work on. These are Hoffman heaters, guaranteed for a year. With an electric water heater and a Dayton water system installed in your house will save you and your wife a lot of steps as well as give you all the hot water you need. We have 2 cast iron cook ranges, a black with white door for $97.50, and a white porcelain range for $139.50. Also a 4-burner with 16" oven for $139.50. We also have a 36" fully automatic Perfection electric range for $239 and an Allen 36" range with 4 electric burners, full size oven, $159.

When you start to work before long cleaning the land, cleaning out the barns—lots of you still use a team of horses or mules—you'll need some new harness, probably not a set, but some parts like collar, bridle, check lines, etc. We have most all parts. This 'n's cold, snowy Monday, not many in town, some buying wood heaters, oil heaters, electric heaters, also heat bulbs, heat tape, etc. We have all types of pipe insulations, weather strip, and window covering.

Billy Graham Film to Be Shown at Baptist Church in Crittenden

"Olivetown, U. S. A." released by Billy Graham Evangelistic Society will be shown in Crittenden, Jan. 28. Local arrangements are in charge of Rev. John Durham, pastor of the Crittenden Baptist Church, who has secured the school gym for the showing.

Evangelist Graham amazed the entertainment and religious world with the world's first Christian western film, "Mr. Texas." More than 5,000,000 persons have seen the film in its first two years of showings, and the Graham organization reported that over 135,000 persons made "decisions for Christ" through the ministry of the picture during the first twelve months of showings.

"Olivetown, U. S. A." was filmed during Graham's crusade in Houston, Texas, and features the young evangelist and his team in their meetings in Rice Stadium where the attendance was as high as 60,000 for a single service.

The picture will begin at 7:30 p. m. There will be no admission charge but an offering will be taken, with all the proceeds going to the Graham Foundation. Everyone is invited to this outstanding service.

MRS. ALDA B. JACOBS

Mothers March Against Polio Set For January 30th

Turn on your porch lights! Mothers March Against Polio will take place on the evening of Wednesday, January 30, after the sounding of the fire siren at 7:30. The mothers in the community have banded together and have formed teams which will call on every house in town that night. The signal to stop at your home will be your porch light, so please be sure it is on.

The fight against the great gripper is going our way but until it is completely won no effort can be relaxed. The Walton Club, in cooperation with the March of Dimes, is sponsoring this drive in Walton to continue the war against polio. Such past efforts on a nationwide scale as are being carried on now deserve credit for parents having hope when the word "polio" is mentioned instead of the terrible feeling of helplessness. When the volunteers call please remember that they are working for you and give as generously as you possibly can.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETS

The Walton Baptist W. M. S. met Thursday, January 17, at the church, with 26 members and a visitor present. A covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all.

The program was taken from Royal Service, "Missions Along the Mississippi River Basin."

We wish more of our women would attend our meetings and hear what our missionaries are doing in our country and in foreign lands. As a Christian it is our duty to tell others about Jesus. Monday, January 28, at 1:00 p. m., "Year Book," will be taught by Mrs. Charles Young, at the church. All members are urged to be present. Visitors are welcome.

Simon Kenton PTA to Meet

The January meeting of Simon Kenton P. T. A. was held Monday night at the school. Mrs. Harold Hallfill presented the business session. His last Hallfill introduced Dr. Eugene Ware, assistant Health Officer of City of Cincinnati, who gave a talk on Polio. He feels there would be fewer cases of Polio if adults as well as children were inoculated. Social hour followed the meeting.

Piner Baptist Church Calls Rev. Shettler As Its New Pastor

Rev. Robert Shettler was recently called as pastor of Piner Baptist Church. Rev. Shettler and family have moved into the parsonage and are well established in our community.

Rev. Shettler is a native of New York, a graduate of Georgetown College, and the Southern Baptist Seminary. His last two pastorate were at Pleasant Ridge, Pendleton County, and Hyden, Leslie County, from where he came to Piner.

Mrs. Shettler is a native Kentuckian from Allen County. She is a graduate of Western State Teachers College and a very able teacher.

Rev. and Mrs. Shettler have two lovely children, Lucy and Bobby. This family has come well recommended and have been given a hearty welcome into the community.

Rev. Shettler has been very busy since his arrival on the field, making acquaintances with the people and take care of his new duties.

Everyone is invited to come out, worship with us and to hear Bro. Shettler's inspiring messages. The schedule of services is as follows: Sunday School 10 a. m., morning worship 11 a. m., training union 7:15 p. m., evening message 8 p. m. and midweek prayer services each Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Bearcats Win Over Simon Kenton By 62-55 Score

Florence Woman's Club Hears Talk By Dr. Pierce

The Florence Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. W. R. Davis, Tuesday, January 15, at 1:30 p. m., with Mrs. F. Dean Caton presiding. The Spiritual Values message was presented by Mrs. Luther Bach, followed by the pledge to the flag.

Dr. Vincent Pierce graciously gave of his time to speak to the women on the subject, "The Physician in Our Free World of Life." He described the many activities undertaken by the doctors in civic, spiritual and everyday life and their efforts to continue our heritage of freedom.

A social period followed the program, with Mesdames T. C. Crume, Fred Hammorsmith and Luther Bach assisting the hostess.

Members attending the meeting were: Mesdames Luther Bach, F. Dean Caton, W. H. Campbell, Paul Chaney, Reuben Conner, Harry Daugherty, J. F. Daugherty, T. C. Crume, W. R. Davis, William Fitzgerald, Fred Hammorsmith, Joseph Huey, A. A. Liggett, Ray Lutes, M. C. Owens, John Pierce, R. R. Ragland, Robert Riehl, J. Robert West, G. Robert Tanner, W. H. Wesler, and Mrs. Uts Soback present were Dr. and Mrs. Vinson Pierce and Mrs. Minnie Davis.

Acreage Reserve Program Sign-Up Date Announced

Mr. Roy C. Gray, Chairman of the Kentucky State A.C. Committee, announced today that January 28 will be the beginning of the sign up period for the 1957 Acreage Reserve program. Mr. Gray stated that the compensation for the farm that may be placed in the 1957 Acreage Reserve program will be determined by using the normal farm yield for tobacco and the farm productivity index for corn and cotton. He went on to say that the maximum acreage for the farm that may be placed in the 1957 Acreage Reserve program will be for corn 20 acres or 30% of the allotment; cotton, 10 acres or 30% of the allotment, and for all types of tobacco, one acre or 30% of the allotment, whichever is larger for each commodity.

The agreements will be approved on the maximum acreage to the extent of the county allocation on the "first come, first served" basis, in the order in which they are filed by the producer in the county office.

Mr. Gray pointed out that the producer may indicate his desire to place more than his maximum acreage limitation in the Acreage Reserve program with the additional amount to be approved provided money is available after the final sign-up date. The deadline for signing these Acreage Reserve agreements will be March 1 for cotton and corn, and March 8 for tobacco. Eligible crops for Kentucky are corn, cotton, wheat, barley, fireweed and dark air-cured tobacco, however, the final date for entering into the 1957 wheat Acreage Reserve program was October 5, 1956.

It was pointed out that persons interested in entering into an Acreage Reserve agreement should contact their local A.C. county office.

Farmer's Income Tax Guide

The 1956 Farmer's Income Tax Guides have been received at the Joe Claxon's office, according to Joe Claxon.

Mr. Claxon states that this circular on income tax has a lot of good information and will be a great help in making out income tax returns. Any farmer desiring the circular may call the County Agent's office, Burlington 412.

Dorothea Lane YWA Meets

The Dorothea Lane Y. W. A.'s of the Walton Baptist Church held their first meeting of the new year Monday, Jan. 14, at the church.

Those present were Doris Pennington, Janice Osborne, Irma Reor, Gail Stephens, Jean Elliott and Barbara Abner. The business session was called to order by the president and plans were made for the coming months. A program was enjoyed by all. We extend our welcome to any girl between the age of 16 and 24 to join our Y. W. A. group, and hope our next meeting will find more of our regular members able to attend. Our next meeting will be at the home of Shirley Saylor at 7:30 p. m. January 28. All visitors are urged to be present and we will meet in front of the Baptist Church at 7:15 p. m.

Winners Lead 36-26 At the Intermission

Walton-Verona High School, paced by a 21-point attack of Lloyd Poore, handed the Simon Kenton Pioneers of the NKAC a 62-55 defeat Tuesday night on the Walton floor.

Poore counted half of the winner's points in the first quarter as the Bearcats led 16-11. The home team outscored the losers 20-15 in the second period to lead 36-26 at half time. Simpson led the winners in the period with seven points. Simon Kenton outscored the winners in the third period 13-12 to trail 48-39. Butler... and Heeger each had four in the period for the Pioneers. Again in the final period Simon Kenton outscored the winners 16-14, but the winner's margin was never in danger.

Walton-Verona: Poole 0-1-1; Cook 6-3-15; Hinds 2-2-6; Simpson 3-1-7; D. Poore 0-1-1; Menke 3-5-11; Lloyd Poore 10-1-21.

Simon Kenton: Vaughan 2-5-9; Haldeman 1-2-4; Piggeman 1-0-2; Heeger 8-3-19; Butler 5-5-15; Exeler 0-6-6.

Simon Kenton won the reserve game by a 47-33 score.

Chevrolet shows you some important differences in low-priced cars just by
the look on its face!

Wouldn't you say that most of the '57 cars look good from 50 feet away, but what about from 50 inches away?

What does a close-up of the grille tell you, for example? Is it solidly made like the new Chevrolet grille? Or, in comparison does it look less rich in design—feel less strong and solid? Compare the quality and construction of the bumpers and headlights, the fit of the chrome trim.

The more closely you look all around the car, the more clearly you'll see that Chevrolet has the edge in the way it's put together. You'll find, for instance, that Chevrolet is the only car in its field with a lacquer finish... that only Chevrolet Bel Air models give you foam rubber cushions in front and rear seats as standard equipment. These are just a few of the advantages of Body by Fisher. And Chevrolet, you know, is the only low-priced car that has a Fisher Body.

We'll be glad to give you a close-up, comparative look at this new Chevy any time you care to come in. This week, maybe?

VERONA

Harve and Walter Vest received word the first of January of the passing of their oldest sister, Mrs. Lila Haworth, who was 84 years old. She was the daughter of Jimmie George and Jane McClure Vest, who some years ago lived in this community. She leaves to mourn her death, besides the two brothers, a son, William Haworth of Beaumont, Texas; a granddaughter, Miss Lou Haworth of San Antonio, Texas; a sister, Mrs. Maude Ashman of Indianapolis, Ind., and a number of nieces and nephews. Her brother, Steele, preceded her last winter. He resided in Elwood, Ind. Her sister Artoe died some ten years ago.

Mrs. Patti Waller and sons of 175 North Bellvue Ave., Louisville, spent Christmas with her father, Walter Vest and family of Edwards Ave., Walton. Mrs. Lizzie Noel and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Waller and the boys had dinner with Mrs. Peraleno Kandy and Ben the day they butchered.

J. D. Risner, who goes to school at Berea, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Risner. He was visited by his girl friend from North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Puckett, who lived at the Waller farm house, bought a home in Walton, near the overhead bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ross have moved to the Waller farm. Mrs. Ross is the former Helen Brewster.

A shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Davis at the church, Tuesday night. They lost most of their household goods by fire the week before.

This community sympathizes with the family of Walter Renaker in his going. We are thankful that Mrs. Rosie Yates is able to be back in the PO.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE—

All persons having claims against the estate of Walter T. Renaker, deceased, are requested to present same properly proven, according to law, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to call and settle with the undersigned.

CLAYTON L. RENAKER, Administrator

GLENCOE

Those who called on Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. Lennie Taylor were Mrs. Edna Spencer, Mrs. Willie Beall Smith and Mrs. Bobbie McFerrin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chapman and two sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel called on Mr. and Mrs. Pat Noel of Williamson.

Sympathy is extended the family of Jess Kenney over the passing of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Scott who died Sunday morning.

The little baby of Bro. and Mrs. Richardson is able to be home from the Owenton hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stewart and Carroll Ann spent Sunday with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw.

Bro. C. B. Richardson completed his school at Louisville and congratulations to him in his service for the Master.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gordon had a homecoming last Sunday with a big turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

Treatment Time Here Now Against Pesky Cattle Grub

Cattle-grubs are beginning to appear now on the backs of Kentucky cattle, says Richard Thurston, UK Agricultural Experiment Station entomologist, which means control measures are recommended.

Cattle-grubs develop from the healthy fly. The fly lays its eggs in the spring and summer on legs and flanks of dairy and beef cattle. The larvae from these eggs bore into the cattle skin and live in the animal about nine months, working their way eventually to the backs. They are noticeable as lumps in the skin about a month before they emerge from the back, drop to the ground and start the cycle again.

Grubs damage hides, lower milk production, and cause beef production drops. The adult flies are particularly annoying to cattle in the spring.

A 5-percent Rotenone dust (one part of the dust to two parts of diluent, such as Mcl) applied all over the back is a good treatment, Thurston says. Start the first treatment about three weeks after the lumps first are noticed on cattle backs. A 5-percent Rotenone powder can be used as a spray, too, he says; use 7 1/2 pounds per 100 gallons of water to treat from 150 to 200 cattle. This treatment also should be given twice.

Thurston noted infestations generally are due to heel-fly presence in pastures, but the insects also migrate several miles if necessary, infesting far-away pastures.

CARD OF THANKS—

Thanks to my many friends, relatives, and neighbors for the kindness shown us in the death of our loving husband and father, Walter T. Renaker.

We especially thank Bro. Kennedy and Bro. DeMoisey for their consoling words; those who sent cards; and those who sent beautiful flowers; Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Hamilton, and Mrs. Ransom for the special music; the Verona Lodge for special services; the pallbearers, and the funeral director, Mr. Hamilton, for their kindness.

These expressions of sympathy and kindness will always be remembered.

NEW PARKS FOLDER IS AVAILABLE FREE

The State Division of Parks has recently printed an attractive folder on the many State and National parks and shrines in the Commonwealth, which is available to the public.

Illustrated with 22 pictures - many in color - the folder gives a complete list of facilities and accommodations at each of 27 parks and shrines. A map of Kentucky is included, which shows exactly where each attraction is located.

The folder is ideal for persons who are thinking about vacations in Kentucky later this year.

This publication is available at no cost by writing to the State Division of Parks, Capitol Annex, Frankfort.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

The Staffordsburg Homemakers held their regular January meeting at the home of Mrs. Inez Beall in St. Bernard, Ohio, with Mrs. Bluck Rich, presiding.

After reports from our various committee chairmen were heard, our reading chairman, Mrs. J. A. Keeney read the 8th Psalm and a reading called "My Glender" by Gastot Foote.

The afternoon was taken up with the making of "Planters" with Mrs. John Shaw and Mrs. L. J. Faulkner as the leaders.

Present were Mesdames Roy Payne, L. J. Rapp, Edith Ware, Ralph Howard, Denver Binder, Chester Hill, Thomas Byrne, Emil Stein, L. J. Faulkner, Bluck Rich, John Shaw, Anthony Wolf, Inez Beall and two visitors.

Fruit and Vegetable Work On Farm-Home Program

Fitting fruits and vegetables into Kentucky farm operations will be discussed at a special session Thursday, Jan. 29, at the 45th annual Farm and Home convention at the University of Kentucky.

The session will be at the livestock pavilion, behind the dairy products building. It opens at 9:00 a. m. Carl Chaplin, horticulturist, will preside.

Talks will be on: The problem and its alternatives; farm fruit production; vegetable production; ornamental horticulture; forestry; and group marketing. Agricultural Extension Service, and Agricultural Experiment Station specialists will give the talks.

Younger hens in the prime of health lay eggs with thicker whites and firmer shells than when they become older.

CARD OF THANKS.

Our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks are extended to those who were so kind and helpful to us during the illness and death of our son, Larry Gene. Especially do we thank Eckler funeral home, the minister from the Crittenden Christian Church, donors of the beautiful flowers and all our friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Menefee, Jr., and Children.

TRUTH

In Advertising - Don't Be Misled

When you are ready to buy any car, ask your dealer this question . . . "How much money do I pay in addition to my trade-in?" . . . In other words, "How much money difference?" Which of the following deals is best for you?

Inflated New Car Price
Cost of Car .....	$1900.00
Trade-In Car .....	600.00
Money Difference .....	$1300.00

Suggested Factory List Price
Cost of Same Car .....	$1700.00
Same Trade-In Car .....	500.00
Money Difference .....	$1200.00

These two examples figured on the same car prove that although your trade-in allowance is greater in the first example, it still costs you more because the list price is also inflated.

WHITES TOWER

Add the name of Lee Brinkley to our fast growing Tower group of subscribers. Lee joins with his neighbors as a reader and we hope to soon make it unanimous in our community.

The zero weather, the past week caused a lot of inconvenience among our residents. What with frozen water pipes and stock ponds frozen over made a lot of extra work for all of us. The warming trend over the week-end was very welcome as all had as well as good have to come to an end.

The writer has a couple of gilts about 125 pounds for sale at $25.00.

Our neighbor Floyd Smith, was able to take a walk Saturday during the mild weather. We met him during his walk and are glad to say he seemed more like his old self again. You can't keep a good man down, which is no joke.

Skating on the lakes here is getting to be quite a pastime as this is one of the few years in the last decade that the ice was four inches thick as this time of year. This is a grand sport and helps develop muscles and other organs of the body which needs the exercise. We thought it was a forgotten art but after looking at the lakes we see that the young folks are getting wise to the greatest sport of them all.

The residents of Decoursey Pike are pleased to know that bus service is to be opened again between Morning View and the Gavington terminals. A good bus service on this pike should be a paying proposition and we wish them every success and hope the folks of that section will appreciate enough to patronize this line and make it pay.

A letter from our grandson, Lieut. Richard Dorsey of Japan said he was on a flight from Japan to the Philippines on a six-day trip in a jet flyer. Sorry to hear that the wife of the pastor of Decoursey Baptist Church, is ill at her home. We hope for her a quick recovery.

Coal piles have been suffering lately from a bad case of anemia during the zero spell which makes the coal dealer very happy as he is getting a break at last.

The new residence going up on Harris Pike is about ready for the occupants, so we will have more later about who our neighbors are going to be.

We were just wondering what has happened to our other correspondents for our only voice in this part of the country. I suppose they have the same trouble we do in getting people to cooperate in getting the news. We know you are not ashamed of the company you have over the week-end, or where you go on your trips, but did you know that that is what makes our paper newsy and that is the way you want it. Is that not so. So why not call up the writer for your particular area and give them the items that makes news for the week.

Insect Control Slated As Farm-Home Topic

Controlling insects of crops, livestock, house and lawn will be discussed at a special session of the Farm and Home Week, at University of Kentucky, Lexington, January 29-February 1.

This session will be in the Animal Pathology building. It opens at 9 a.m. Wednesday, January 30.

David Dougherty, U. K. Experiment Station, will discuss the Kentucky pesticide law; Dr. Kenneth Starks, U. K. entomologist, will discuss the alfalfa aphid; Dr. Mallory-Bough will discuss tobacco insect control; Dr. J. G. Rodriguez will outline strawberry insect control; Dr. Richard Thurston will discuss livestock insect pests; Dr. Lee Townsend will talk on home insects; and Dr. James Herron will discuss moles, weeds and insects in lawns.

Youth Group Activities On Farm-Home Week Agenda

Working with boys and girls through group activities will be a prominent part of the 45th annual Farm and Home Convention at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, January 29-February 1.

It opens at 9:25 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 29 and continues through the day, at Memorial Coliseum.

There will be group singing, and talks on the family as a place for learning, by E. V. Pope, Washington, D. C.; working with boys and girls from 7 through 14, by Mrs. Betsey Este, U. of K.; group activities, Robert White, U. of K.; and understanding boys and girls, by G. B. Dimmick, U. of K.

Specialists Will Discuss Marketing Opportunities

Marketing opportunities today and tomorrow will be discussed at a marketing session of the 45th annual Farm and Home convention January 29-February 1 at the University of Kentucky.

The session will be held Thursday, January 31 at Galupol Theatre in the Fine Arts building. A. J. Brown, agricultural economist, will preside.

Talks will be on producing what the consumer wants; packaging and merchandising developments; helping sell farm products, and marketing opportunities.

Words cannot express the love and appreciation we feel towards the hundreds of people that so graciously gave clothing, food, furniture and money during our recent loss. May God bless each one and we will never forget your generosity.

The JOHN SCOTT FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends and relatives for the lovely gifts, cards and visits during my stay in the hospital and at home. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Don't let it slip away...

Hold on to that happier atmosphere of the holiday weeks by keeping your home cheerfully lighted... all year!

GOOD LIGHTING is akin to charm... something to use daily if you would enjoy its greatest benefits. This is the season, too, of more "at home" activities—heavier study work, if you have school-age children—friends dropping in for cards, conversation, or a bit of tele-viewing.

When your home is well lighted for everyday living, you'll find it easier than ever to keep the family in gayer spirits. And such an inexpensive home treatment... because GOOD LIGHT costs so little!

Advisory Council of Kenton County Meets At Covington "Y"

The Kenton County Homemaker's Advisory Council held its first meeting of the year on Thursday, January 17, at the Covington YMCA. In spite of the sub-zero weather, 28 members responded to roll call.

Mrs. Lawrence Miller, county vice president, presented a reading, "A Recipe for a Happy New Year," as an introduction to the meeting. Mrs. Bernard Grimm, county chairman, was in charge of the business session, assisted by Mrs. Homer Wallace, county secretary, and Miss Ruth Schmidt, county treasurer.

Plans were made for attending the 45th annual Farm and Home Week, January 29 through February 1, at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. Mrs. Grimm will serve as official delegate. Thirty-seven homemakers plan to attend on January 30. A chartered bus will take the group.

Spring program of work will include mosaic tile craft, copier, brass, and aluminum planters, in addition to regular program of work on home furnishings.

Mrs. R. P. Matchett announced that the meeting of the Associated Country Women of the World would be held on July 3-13, at Cayton, the meeting formerly scheduled for December of last year, but postponed because of world conditions.

Miss Zelma E. Byerly, county home agent, outlined plans for National Home Demonstration Week observation and suggested ideas for arranging exhibits.

That homemakers have interests for beyond their homes was shown in the reports on Christmas welfare projects of the groups, which included gifts for the aged and needy, donations of money and service to welfare organizations. Each club participated in the program.

A coffee hour was enjoyed by the members. Those in attendance were: Mesdames James Martin, Henry Weglage, Ted Gross, Donald Riddell, Russell Recker, Henry Free, R. P. Matchett, Edward J. Blou, Everett Cooper, Dan Harker, Howard Routledge, Arthur Steele, Fred A. Ficke, William Endres, Glen Lindeman, Clarence Sexton, G. Musser, Earl Maegly, Linda Nuttin, Herman L. Brown, Lawrence Miller, Howard Benson, George Mason, Jr., R. H. Wallace, Paul Biederman, Bernard Grimm, and Miss Ruth Schmidt and Miss Zelma E. Byerly.

Exams Slated For Those Seeking County Tax Posts

Examinations of prospective candidates for county tax commission will be held in each Kentucky congressional district Feb. 5.

Revenue Commissioner J. E. Luckett said under Kentucky law no tax-commissioner candidate's name may be placed upon the ballot until he has been examined and qualified by the Department of Revenue. Persons passing the exams are given certificates of eligibility. In addition to holding the certificate, a candidate must be at least 24 years of age at election time and must have been a Kentucky resident at least two years and a resident of the county and district in which he is running for at least a year, Luckett said.

He added that although law requires the tests be given in each congressional district, an applicant may take an exam at the location most convenient to him. Notices of exam time and location will be posted in court houses.

The examinations, beginning at 9:30 a. m., local time, will be conducted at: Kentuck Hotel, Kentucky Lake; Owensboro, Senior High School; R. E. A. Building, Glasgow; high school, Eighth and Columbia, Newport; Kentucky Utilities Co. auditorium, Lexington; Morehead State College; Hazard High School auditorium; Somerset High School library and Garden Hall, University of Louisville, Louisville.

Services at Lebanon

Services will be held at the Lebanon Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon, January 27, at 2:30, by Rev. Charles Owens, Louisville. The public is cordially invited to attend these services the second and fourth Sunday of each month.

Health and Sin

Lesson for January 27, 1957

IT TAKES a long time for some ideas to sink in. Sometimes it happens that a father or mother will give a child a serious talk about something important, but all the child remembers is that there was a talk about it. Years later, as a grown man, the former child will suddenly exclaim: "So that's what Father was trying to tell me! Much of Jesus' teaching was like that. He was always giving hints, or saying things straight out, which a few faithful minds remembered, but did not understand. Dr. Foreman stands. For years, the saying of Jesus would be read in the Bible, and scholars would puzzle over it, and then hundreds of years after Christ, people would discover what Jesus meant. He was long ahead of his time.

Why People Are in Hospitals

One of these ahead-of-time hints was about the relation between health and sin. In the famous story of the man who was paralyzed, brought in by four of his friends for Jesus to heal, it long seemed a puzzling thing that the first thing Jesus said to him did not appear to have anything to do with his case. "Your sins are forgiven," Jesus said. Perhaps the four friends found it odd. They did not bring the man there to have his soul looked into; they came to get him back on his feet again. It was his muscles, not his morals, that seemed to need help. But Jesus saw with certainty that the root of the man's trouble was not in his body, it was in his soul. He saw there was no use sending the man back into activity, with an active body but a crippled soul. Jesus that day was probably the only living person who could see that. Today the truth has dawned on a great many persons. Dr. Russell Dicks of Duke University says: "It has been learned that the majority of patients in hospitals would not be there if they were rid of what is eating into their minds."

Sins Against the Body

Psychiatrists, who are M.D.'s first, and who work hand in hand with surgeons, internal-medicine specialists and so on, are trained to probe for these non-physical causes of disease. The causes may be mental or spiritual, —if indeed they can be distinguished. A major cause they look for is the "guilt complex." One who hides within himself, perhaps at a deeper level than conscious memory, a sense of guilt, is a person who falls easy victim to disease, even to accidents. Case records are numerous in which it appears that the patient began to get well as soon as he began to "get right" in his attitude to God, or man, or both. (Don't jump to extremes here! If you catch cold it's not necessarily because you've been stealing.) One of the most common sins, however, that many commit without being aware of it, is the whole class of sins against one's body, one's health,—against oneself. Eating and drinking unwisely, under-sleeping, over-exercising, or under-exercising—in ways too many to be counted, men and women sin against themselves. If it is a sin to commit suicide, it is equally a sin to do anything or to form any habit which shortens life.

Can Jesus Help?

Jesus brought the paralyzed man back to health of soul and body. Can Jesus help today? Yes, in several striking ways. (1) As a living Spirit, he can bring assurance of God's forgiveness. With that assurance, the inner life can begin again, healed and strong. (2) As the unseen but constant Companion, Christ can be so real that in his presence temptation loses its power, and the desire to live as in his presence becomes a high motive of life. (3) Christ has so inspired many a man and woman that they have been his personal representatives; he has lived in them and worked through them. Today there are persons, in Alcoholics Anonymous, for example, who have been so touched by the Master that they no longer live for their own appetites, but literally are on call day and night wherever they may help others who are struggling with the same habit which once had dragged them down. Whatever a Christian does for another in the name of Christ is not only done for him—He does it. So Christ today, through those who bear his name, helps by cure, but, better, by prevention.

COUNTERPANE CATHEDRAL

There was a man who had stopped going to church because, he said, "Church doesn't make me feel any nearer to God."

One night he stepped into the children's room to kiss them good night. And suddenly he felt as though he were in church. There was a pillowed altar and a devout congregation in prayer. Yet he didn't feel any nearer to God.

And in that moment he learned the truth that every soul must learn; religion is not some outer force that brings God close to a man. Religion is man's inner yearning which reaches up and discovers how near God is.

And so, from the example of his children, he learned how to find the faith which had eluded him. And, finding it, he returned to church to share with other Christians the rich experience of worship... to receive the spiritual gifts of Word and Sacrament... to serve Christ in the vital, challenging work of the Church.

He knows that in church—or in a moonlit nursery—God is near those who want Him near!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

TOO LATE NOW:

This information may come too late for those Kentucky Republicans who have decided not to take in the Eisenhower inauguration because of the expected crowd.

Word from committee officials indi-ate that ticket sales are lagging and hotel rooms are still available. The fact that the President is going to be officially sworn in on Sunday appears to be a factor in keeping people at home. The public ceremony on Monday is like putting on a dress rehearsal after the opening night performance.

THE SENIORITY SYSTEM:

The seniority system as practiced in Congress has its merits and demerits.

The weakness of the system was demonstrated the other day when the Senate named members to various committees. Kentucky's Senator John Sherman Cooper was named to the Labor Committee and Senator Thurston Morton got the Civil Service and District of Columbia Committee.

Those appointments mean that Senator Cooper's service as ambassador to India and Senator Morton's service as assistant secretary of state will not be used for their fullest when all-important foreign affairs problems are considered.

In other words, experience means but little. Seniority counts most.

OFFICE STAFF:

In selecting secretaries and clerks, Senator Cooper and Senator Morton hired some capable people who formerly worked for several Kentucky Democrats.

Miss Lorraine Winfrey of Somerset is a former member of the staff of the late Senator Barkley. And Mrs. Frances Farmer, of Mayfield and Frankfort, once worked for the late Senator Tom Underwood and Senator Earle G. Clements. Both are capable people who know Kentucky and the Hill.

BRIEF NOTES:

Two Kentucky congressmen, William Natcher and Frank Chelf, offered bills to cut taxes. They don't have much chance of passage. Congressman Brent Spence re-elected Chairman of the House Banking Committee. No surprise. Senate Democrats still hoping Earle Clements will accept the position as director of the Senate Campaign Committee. Farm income increased last month. Tobacco prices got much of the credit. However, cost of living on the farm reached a new high.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE—

All persons having claims against the estate of Arnold Afford, Jr., deceased, are requested to present same properly proven according to law, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to call and settle with the undersigned.

Last Monday, the first meeting for the recently installed officers were called to order by June Cron, Honored Queen.

All officers were proficient in their work and comments were made by Helen West, the Bethel's Guardian. Under new business a variety of recreation plans were discussed with the Honored Queen desiring to add new ideas and places of interest to their lists. More information on this will be added at the next meeting.

Under membership it was learned that girls having qualifications for membership into a Bethel may obtain applications from any present member or by calling Fleetwood 7-7296.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Williams of Plantation Heights, recently returned home from a two weeks vacation trip to Florida. Fishing at Pompano, Chas. landed a 6' sail fish which he had smoked and sent home. The Williams and neighbors have been eating fish ever since.

Charlie is now attending the National Home Show in Chicago, as a Rusco Prime Window representative for the greater Cincinnati area.

Both Charlie and his wife, Dolores, are natives of this area, having attended Simon Kenton High School, and residing within Kenton county. They are the proud parents of 3-year-old Kirk and have stated that they will try for a larger sail fish come next vacation time.

Two Effective Pig Saving Devices Listed by Sellards

Swine raisers have two effective pig-saving devices to make their operation more efficient, says Grady Sellards, specialist in Animal Husbandry with the UK Agricultural Extension Service.

One is the farrowing crate. It can be easily made or improvised, but is used to allow plenty of room for the pigs.

A second pig-saver is the hoyer or some form of heat. It should go in a corner of the farrowing crate. A 250-watt heat lamp is suspended 20 inches or more off the floor. The lamp is also useful on cold nights to heat farrowing sows, and for drying newborn pigs.

Less electricity is needed if a conventional 100- or 150-watt bulb is used in an improvised pig hoyer, such as half a metal barrel or a discarded wash tub.

Entertain With Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kunkel, Jr. of Nicholson, entertained with a farewell dinner on Sunday, January 27, at 5:00 p. m., in honor of Mrs. Kunkel's sister and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Armstrong and Mrs. Herbert Works and children, Lickey Lynn and Wayne, of Independence.

They departed for Oldsmar, Fla., Monday morning for a month's stay with Mr. Armstrong's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Armstrong, formerly of Covington, who now make their home in Oldsmar. Mrs. Works and children will shorten their visit and return home Sunday via American Airlines.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brunck and son, David, of Latonia; Herbert Works, Mrs. William House, Independence; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Krebs, Jr., of South Ft. Mitchell, Floyd Krebs, III, and the hosts and their son, Bobby Kunkel.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Webster and sons, Terry and Jerry, visited his home, Harvey Webster, at Central State Hospital, Lakeland, last Wednesday. He was much improved at this time.

Miss Boontuck Beutena will be given away at a county-wide meeting Saturday, February 9, at 10:00 a. m., at the Florence Grade School, Florence. 4-H members throughout Boone County are receiving donations for the fund-raising campaign with the proceeds going to the Boone County 4-H Clubs. Your support will help the 4-H boys and girls to become better citizens and future leaders. The fund-raising campaign is sponsored by the Fedders Feed Company and the Boone County 4-H Council. Glen McCormack states that all Boone County 4-H boys and girls are receiving donations, if you have not been contacted, see them.

Health Committee Named In Boone County at Meeting

Members of the Boone County committee to promote the 1957 National Conference on Rural Health, to be held in Louisville March 7, 8, and 9, was announced this week by Mrs. John E. Crigler, county chairman, at a meeting in Burlington.

The following persons will serve on the committee: Besham Shields, John E. Crigler, Mrs. John E. Crigler, Mrs. Grant Maddox, Dr. Virginia Kratz, Mrs. Mary Cress, Boone County Health Nurse, Mrs. James E. Falls and Mrs. Joseph Hogan.

Each committee member was suggested by one or more of the 20 state wide organizations represented in the Kentucky Rural Health Council, which is promoting attendance at the conference by rural Kentuckians in all walks of life.

The committee will have responsibility for insuring adequate representation from Boone County at the conference when it is held March 7-9 at the Brown Hotel, Louisville.

Mr. Miller, field representative, outlined the plan and purpose of the organization. The conference is sponsored by the American Medical Association Council on Rural Health, in cooperation with leaders from the American Farm Bureau Federation, the agricultural extension service, the National Grange, farm editors, and others.

Mrs. Crigler emphasized, in announcing the committee membership, that the conference will be aimed at laymen in the health field. While many physicians, dentists, veterinarians and other professional persons will attend, the conference is designed primarily for the farmer, homemaker, the parent, and others who in their ordinary lives have responsibility for their own and community health.

Woman's Demo Club to Meet

The Boone County Democratic Woman's Club will hold its next regular monthly meeting on Thursday, February 7, at 8:00 p. m., at the Honeycomb Restaurant, opposite the Courthouse in Burlington.

WHITES TOWER

The weather reports of the past few days have just shown us that no one but the power-above knows what is coming in the way of weather. Cold sleet, rain and snow were predicted over the week-end. Oh, yes, we know it just got vied off over some other territory, but why can't they say that this might happen and acknowledge that that is so instead of saying that is the weather? Well it wasn't the weather this week-end anyway.

Richard Gribble, of Independence was killed in an auto accident near Mason Road on Grand Ave. Two men in the car, one of them the driver, Robert Adams, of Latonia, and Dave Sargener of Covington are in the hospital but not seriously hurt.

Bud Ryle and wife of Werk Road, in Cincinnati, were Sunday guests of the writer and wife, the first time since the holidays. We are always glad to see them.

The roads here are very slick this Monday morning and traffic is proceeding at a snail's pace.

Rev. Bob Brumback and family and Jimmy Ryle and wife, Joyce, were the Sunday guests of this writer and wife.

Mrs. Maryetta Hoffman passed away yesterday at St. Elizabeth hospital. The burial will be in Independence cemetery Wednesday January 30. Swindler funeral home has charge of arrangements.

smooth
(ah, that velvety V8)

sassy

This is the car that's fresher and friskier from its own special look to the way it takes to the road.

Those words—sweet, smooth and sassy—seem to fit this new Chevy right down to its tubeless tires. In the first place, it looks the part. It has a crisp, alert appearance—as trim and functional as an arrow. You can tell that the styling isn't just going along for the ride. It's right in keeping with Chevrolet's own special fresh and frisky ways.

And this is one car that looks as good close up as it does across the street. It's built the way you've come to expect a Chevrolet to be built.

But a Chevy isn't just something that's nice to look at. You'll see what we mean when you sample Chevrolet's cat-quick reflexes and solid way of going. Horsepower options, you know, range up to 245*. Come drive a Chevy!

Going Concern

Lesson for February 3, 1957

A "GOING concern" is one that prospers, does business and keeps growing. If the Christian church is not a going concern, maybe the reason is that it is not a going concern. That remark needs explaining; it is not meant as nonsense.

Concern?

The Quakers have a good word: Concern, which has a deeper meaning than "firm" or business. It means warm, deep, even self-sacrificing interest in some one or some group or cause. Lincoln had a concern for the Union; St. Paul had a concern for Gentiles; mothers have a concern for their children. Now the church, if it is the true Body of Christ, ought to share his concerns. We know what it was that concerned him—people, the "multitudes," the masses as we now speak of them. The church ought to have—and to be—a living concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

A church without the human, humane concern which Jesus had, is not what Christ intended.

Going?

Furthermore, the church, so far as it is Christian, ought to be a going concern, not only a sitting one—not only a praying one either. Plenty of churches are (so to speak) sitting concerns. The preacher preaches about "lost" people but nobody gets out to hunt for them—perhaps the preacher doesn't look very hard himself. The members talk to one another about the dreadful state of the world, but they do nothing about it. Missions? What's that? The fact that their denomination is actually going into the ends of the earth, and begs them for help, does not get through to their minds. (Maybe the preacher's fault again?) They have a concern for the sad state of the world, but it's not a going concern, only a talking concern, a tut-tutting concern, nothing alive. So the church dwindles and dies, it's not a going concern any longer, because it isn't a going concern—it has no real concern, and it never goes anywhere.

No Mission, No Church

The first Christian church was the twelve apostles. It was a 100% going concern. Jesus did not plan for any of them to remain behind. The directions he gave them are not followed by any mission, any society that has much success; circumstances alter Christian strategy. But all the same, suppose those twelve men had preferred not to go when Jesus sent them? He chose them for two purposes, we read: to be with him and to be sent out. There are always Christians who enjoy worship better than service. Ten people will be out for church, to one who will come out for volunteer service, of any sort. But there came a time when Jesus had to say (in effect) to his closest friends: You have been with me enough. You have heard all you need to hear, learned all you need to learn—for now. Go out now and change people, change the world, in my name! If they had refused, if Jesus could have found no one willing to go, there never would have been a Christian church. And if the church ceases to be missionary today it will become a fossil, a relic, a curiosity, without life or usefulness.

"I Wouldn't Be Here if..."

Not everybody can become a foreign missionary. (Indeed the Twelve were sent out first to a region smaller than Vermont, their home country.) But there are various ways in which the church can go out, and send out. There is a man who has found his life's chief work and interest in developing the moral and spiritual atmosphere of the schools in his state. He said not long ago to a group of religious workers: "I wouldn't be here if my church didn't feed me." What he is doing is outside the church; he works through public agencies of the State. But his inspiration comes from the church. And his church would not have inspired him and "fed" him if it in turn had not been inspired and fed by the living church. Where the church as an organization cannot go, its members, stirred and supported by the Spirit of God, must go, into life everywhere, in the name of Jesus.

THE SECRET

In another moment he will be getting up and walking toward you, eager to tell the secret of his calmness and strength. Will you listen? He has solved many problems, overcome much grief and temptation, been able to meet the conditions of every-day living, all because through the Church he has come in contact with the Source of all power. In the Church he has found companionship. Its worship services have brought faith, peace and serenity. Its activities have furnished an outlet for his creative abilities and energy. The Church has been a part of his life from boyhood. Through its various departments the needs of his life have been met. He has enjoyed the fellowship there and, looking back, he is able to trace his own growth. Have you learned his secret? Wouldn't you like to know it? What the Church has done for him it can do for you. If you are young, it will help meet your problems. If you are older, it will bring satisfaction and peace.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OAK RIDGE

The icy sidewalks and driveways are pretty hazardous this morning. The ice doesn't seem to be slowing up the traffic on the roads but pedestrians are going at a snail pace.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cumins of Old Decoursey Pike. Our sympathy is extended to his family. Mrs. Cumins mother, Mrs. W. D. Hutchins, of Louisville, is visiting with them for a few days.

Mrs. Ruby Sexton and Mrs. Joyce Meyers of London, Ky., visited Mrs. Shirley Tallent over the week-end.

Mrs. Minnie Perry came home from the hospital Saturday and is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. E. C. Harris of Lipscomb Road has chicken pox. Three of her grandchildren, Judy Harris, Frosty King and Guy King have also had chicken pox this past week.

Congratulations to Dorothy and Bill Harris on the birth of their eighth pound 7 oz. baby boy.

Mrs. T. C. Richardson, Mrs. Paul Newman, Mrs. Frances Richardson, Mrs. Lewis Collins and Mrs. W. C. Tallent attended the quarterly meeting of the Women's Missionary Union of the North Bend Association last Thursday at the Wood Memorial Baptist Church.

There was another auto accident on Taylor Mill Pike Friday night, involving several residents of our community. Mr. and Mrs. Mullins of Wayside Drive were injured in one car, while several teenagers including John and Butch Godman, Louis Heeger and Roger Boles were injured in the other car.

Allen Petty was home for the Christmas holidays visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodard Petty of Taylor Mill Pike. He went to New York where he was held up for a week by the snow and cold weather but Thursday he flew to Iceland where he will be stationed for the next 18 months. Allen is on the Naval Air Force.

Six-year-old Clyde Jamison is getting mighty tired of staying home from school. First he had scarlet fever, then chicken pox, now a virus infection in his mouth. He has been confined to his home for over a month and will be mighty glad to get back to his classes in the first grade at Taylor Mill School.

THREAD-BASTING TOPS PIN-BASTING

Mary Ann McCormack, acting Home Demonstration Agent of Boone County, reports that whether to pin-baste or thread-baste is in the mid-winter sewing is a question often asked, by housewives who have good workmanship and time-saving in mind.

For the more difficult sewing jobs, thread-basting saves time and gives better results, according to recent tests, says Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, extension specialist in clothing at the University of Kentucky. Thread-basting is both fast and accurate.

In contrast, stitching over pins takes longer as the machine must be run slowly to avoid blunting or breaking the needle as well as to keep the stitching even and hold the fabric in place.

The tests were made by a skilled seamstress in USDA clothing research, working on three qualities of percale as she did familiar but difficult sewing jobs—putting in two kinds of sleeves, applying a double yoke to a shirt back, inserting an extension band in a blouse front, and applying two types of collars.

Pinning generally was faster, but in every instance the machine stitching took longer on pin-basted than on the thread-basted fabrics, and except for applying a flat, shopped collar, results were poorer.

Eggs given a carbon dioxide treatment within four days of laying had a delayed breakdown of the white and yolk.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

The many friends of Wayne Riley are sorry to learn he was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday for a minor operation. We wish him a speedy recovery.

This community was saddened to learn Mrs. Mayme Hoffman passed away Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She has been quite ill for several months. Mrs. Hoffman was a resident of this community most all her life and was a member of the Staffordburg Church. The entire community extend their sympathy to the entire family.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children of near Dayton were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Miss Minnie Rapp is planning on leaving by plane the latter part of this week to visit her brother, Jess, and wife of McGee, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Armstrong and children of near Dayton were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Rev. J. W. Parish and wife have as guests over the week-end their son, wife and two children of Louisville.
J. B. Losey arrived home Friday evening from Lexington for several days vacation during the second of the semester of college.

Use Farm Credit Wisely Says Speaker At Farm-Home Meet

Kentucky farmers were told Tuesday properly used credit could multiply their funds several times and give them better chances to get ahead in the world. "Instead of buying for cash a small, inferior farm which would keep your nose to the grindstone all your life," said James D. Toy of the Federal Land Bank at Louisville, "one could use credit to buy a productive farm of adequate size which would pay off its debt and furnish a good living in addition."

But, Toy had this warning in his speech at the 45th annual Farm and Home Week:

"Avoid the pitfalls of debt as you would the devil. Credit has reached its fullest bloom in our day. May you always use it wisely and well so it will be not your master but your servant."

The midwinter session opened at the University of Kentucky with more than 1,000 farmers and homemakers attending. It continues through Friday.

LI Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield was the speaker at the Tuesday night banquet of the Kentucky Seed Improvement Association, one of several farm affiliated groups meeting this week.

University economist Steve Allen said he did not think farmers are over-borrowing.

Allen explained farm debts increased about 10 percent last year. But, he said farm assets increased 2.6 more than debts.

And, university economists L. A. Bradford and Harold Jensen suggested some

Fertilizer is "Bright Spot" In '57 Farm Cost Picture

FERTILIZER and lime are "the bright spot" in the farm cost picture for 1957, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by Dr. Arthur Mauch, Michigan State University agricultural economist.

Mauch reports that most everything else a farmer buys

Over the years, prices of fertilizer have remained relatively low, says the committee, whereas prices of other crop production items have increased 100 percent or more. Yet each dollar invested in fertilizer can return as much as $3 to $5 in increased crop value, the committee says.

Mauch points out that among the farmer's best opportunities for increasing his 1957 income are:

1—Building his individual volume of production; 2—Increasing his efficiency; 3—Reducing his unit costs of production; 4—Keeping informed on new technical developments in crop and livestock production; 5—Taking advantage of price support programs and the Government's acreage and conservation reserve program where they fit.

The Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out that fertilizer can play an essential part in helping the farmer boost his income through increased efficiency, higher yields per acre and lower costs of production per unit. Over the years, it says, prices of fertilizer have remained relatively low, while prices of other crop production items have increased 100 percent or more. Yet each dollar invested in fertilizer can return as much as $3 to $5 in increased crop value, the committee says.

Plant food helps boost yields per acre and cut costs of production. For farm production will be higher in the New Year. Among such items, he lists farm machinery, building and fencing materials, seed, and wages for farm workers.

farmers should consider using more credit. They said most farmers have erred by failing to borrow money for farm operations, especially where production is low and the real estate debt high. It is easier to get a return of 100 percent on money put in fertilizers, they continued, than 10 percent from money put into land.

State Agriculture Commissioner Ben J. Butler said there are "immediate and vast" opportunities for Kentuckians to advance farm income.

"We have depended too long on tobacco as a primary source of income," he said. "We must either take on new enterprises or expand current ones. Enterprises in the expansion category are beef, sheep and swine; dairy and poultry also are such fields."

Experiment station specialists told farmers they could bolster their income and to some degree offset reduced tobacco acreages by growing more fruit and vegetables.

Walton Man Injured

Dick Burns, manager of the Pure Oil Station at Elmore, suffered first-degree burns over most of his face and neck Tuesday night when oil he spilled on a battery ignited at the service station.

Patrolman Paul LaBare of Erlanger, said Burns was repairing a car when a flash explosion burned his face. He was released after treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Burns, 24, lives on Walton, Route 2. He was taken to the hospital in a police cruiser.

Crops Eat Up Plant Food Faster Than Farmers Replace It

CROPS are eating up plant nutrients four times faster than farmers are putting them back in the soil, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in summarizing a statement by University of Minnesota soils scientists.

"In Minnesota alone, soils scientists estimate that crops remove nearly 500,000 tons of nitrogen, phosphate and potash from the soil each year," says the committee.

"In terms of complete mixed fertilizer, this represents more than 14 million tons."

"Replacements by Minnesota farmers amount to little more than 150,000 tons of plant nutrients annually, or the equivalent of 370,000 tons of complete fertilizer that is removed from the soil without being replaced."

The Minnesota soils men report that the biggest nutrient loss comes in the form of nitrogen. Last year, crops took 250,000 tons of actual nitrogen from the soil. Only 33,000 tons of nitrogen was applied last year. Crops used up about 130,000 tons of phosphate and 107,000 tons of potash last year. Farmers put back 70,000 tons of phosphate and 43,000 tons of potash. Thus the soil was short 53,000 tons of phosphate and 64,000 tons of potash, the committee points out.

Loose Ends:

Following the inaugural parade, Kentuckians gathered at the Willard Hotel for a reception. . . Much talk centered around the fight over who would be the clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. . . Congressman Eugene Siler was named to the important Committee on Banking, which is chairmanned by Rep. Brent Spence. . . There is still talk that former senator Earle Clements will be chairman of the Democratic National Committee, if and when a change is made. . . Kentucky lawmakers disappointed that more money was not allocated to Kentucky navigation projects in the presidential budget.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsberry

Kentucky Flavor:
In spite of the fact that no Kentuckian was a principal in the inauguration, the ceremonies on the front steps of the Capitol were not without a Blue Grass flavor.

Mrs. Fred Vinson, wife of the late chief justice, had a place on the stand near President Eisenhower. Supreme Court Justice Reed, of Maysville, was similarly honored and, following the swearing-in ceremonies, he was host to a group of legal-eagles at a dinner before the parade. Kentucky's governor, Happy Chandler, also was a platform guest along with other governors.

In the Limelight:
Governor Chandler got the attention of a lot of correspondents who wanted to talk about his presidential ambitions. Happy agreed that getting the Democratic nomination would be the hardest part of the job, but he also insisted that once he won the honor, he could whip the GOP opposition.

New Chairmen:
During all the ceremonies, serious-minded Republicans gave thought to selecting a new national chairman. The job finally went to Moad Alcorn of Connecticut but one Kentuckian came in for "honorable mention."

It happened when newsmen asked retiring chairman Leonard Hall to give a list of prospects. Among those mentioned was Louis Nunn of Kentucky. "Remember," Chairman Hall reminded his press conference, "Nunn was a leader in the fight which led Kentucky into the GOP column."

It is not necessary to thaw meat before cooking, but if it is not thawed, the cooking time is necessarily lengthened.

For the best results in cake baking, be sure to use the kind of flour called for in the recipe.

Like all other foods to be frozen, ready-cooked foods must be stored in moisture-vapor proof containers or wrapping materials.

Turkeys can get a lower-than-normal protein diet only if first-rate pasture is available. . . experiments in Wisconsin show. The fed meales averaged 10 to 15 percent protein rather than 20 percent when pastures were good.

Vitamin C, found principally in oranges, grapefruit and tomatoes, provides body conditions unfavorable for growth of bacteria so the colds do not develop as readily.

Little Theatre Club Presents "Dino," A Drama In Three Acts, Saturday, January 12, 1957

Little Theatre Club Members Who Took Part In "Dino" Presentation

The Little Theatre Club presented, "Dino," a drama in three acts January 12. It was a powerful and yet warmly moving story about Dino, a young man who, at the last possible moment before turning completely to crime and delinquency, is given a chance for a happier life.

The characters were as follows:

Dino Falconero	Dean Poore
Mr. Sheridan	Danny Chapman
Shirley Wallace	Irma Rector
Jackie	Judy Young
Miss Haines	Peggy Downing
Danny	Benny Courtney
Steve	Gary Stephenson
Sylvia	Beverly Rouse
Della	Jody Scherer
Pat	Mary Ruth Ryan
Bea	Mosil Allen
Mr. Mandel	Bobby Medley
Tony Falconero	Ernie McLaney
Mr. Falconero	Jimmy Lipscomb
Mrs. Falconero	Pearl Cotton
Mrs. Mikula	Ruth Perkins
First Young Girl	Jenny Gullion
Second Young Girl	Elizabeth Gribbs
Director	Mr. William Snow
Asst. Director	Sue Carolyn Gutzell

All members of the Little Theatre Club wish to thank everyone for the time, patience, and cooperation which has been given us.

Home Economics Open House

The Walton-Verona Home Economics Department presented the parents with an open house. They had Christmas decorations, made by the students, on display. Various types, such as brooms decorated for back entrance, wreaths, and artificial snow men.

They served refreshments consisting of cookies and punch, made by the students. They were served on a table display made by one of the hostesses, Elizabeth Grubbs. The other two hostesses were Joanna Kent and Lucille Speagle. Miss Bruce, Home Economics teacher, welcomed everyone.

Improvements Around School

In case you are not aware of the improvements that are going on our school each day let me point out a few of them to you—The library is getting a new set of American Encyclopedia for Junior and Senior High School which will arrive sometime in February.

We are also getting new cavers for the windows in the gymnasium which I think everyone will agree we need very badly.

Mr. Smith has gotten a new desk and chair and Mrs. Conner has gotten a new chair for the office. Mrs. Bruce has a new bulletin board and a green board for the Home Economics room.

Seniors Attend Club Meetings

The members of the Senior Class were the guests of the Women's Literary Club on Wednesday, January 2, 1957.

The guest speaker, Mrs. James D. Riffe, a teacher from Dixie Heights, talked on "What It Means to be a Teacher," and she proved to be very entertaining. Refreshments were served and the Seniors had an enjoyable afternoon.

The Seniors were invited to the January 27th meeting of the Wa-Na Club held at Janoda's. After their business meeting they had a panel discussion with Mr. Ison asking the questions, on the panel were: Mrs. Bobbitt from Dixie Heights, Mrs. Steinhauser from Simon-Kenton, Mrs. Hensdale from Simon-Kenton and Mrs. Huey from Walton-Verona. After the discussion refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

It was a very interesting meeting and I think everyone benefited from it. We wish to thank Alva Falls very much for inviting us.

Seniors Study History

On Wednesday morning, January 9, six girls and one boy decided to meet at Lucille Speagle's house the same evening to study for a history exam which was to be the next day.

Naturally at any teen-age get-together there must be food. This group of seven decided to pay a portion and buy themselves something to eat while they studied.

As they talked about this venture more and more people were invited to study with them. Finally, at the end of the school day, the whole senior class was invited to a party at Lucille's home that evening.

All this was well and good except that Lucille's mother didn't know about this little gathering. When the people started arriving Lucille's mother happened to be out stripping tobacco. Everyone danced, joked, talked and had a good time.

After the guests had departed, Lucille, Carole, Joanna, Betty Lou and Betty Jean scurried about trying to get the house back in order before Mrs. Speagle returned.

When she returned, the house was in order and the five girls sitting in the kitchen as though they had been studying all the time. When she was told of her fortunate experience, Mrs. Speagle took it calmly—they are coming to take her away tomorrow.

Unfortunately, every little history was studied.

INVITE TO PAPER STAFF

The staff of the Proboscis has been invited to a buffet dinner January 14, given by the staff of the Boone County Rebel.

Most of the staff is planning to attend and we hope to gain a few helpful pointers from them.

We wish to express our gratitude for this invitation.

Bobby Medley

In the highlight this week is Bobby Medley, Vice President of the Senior Class.

Bobby is seventeen years old, five feet and eleven inches tall, has brown hair and hazel eyes. Bobby is usually seen with one of our Sophomore girls, Pat Worthington.

He is a member of the Little Theatre Club, of which he is reporter. Bobby is also the Assistant Editor of the paper staff.

He is of yet, undecided whether to go to Eastern and major in accounting. We wish Bobby all the success that is so highly due him, in whatever he does.

BETA CLUB NEWS

We enjoyed our Christmas dinner very much. For our menu we had a baked chicken, green beans, macaroni and cheese, baked beans, sweet potatoes, fruit salad, cranberry salad, pecan pie, apple pie, ice cream, hot chocolate, and nut rolls. We also had our table decorated and favors at each place. After the dinner we exchanged our gifts.

Irma Rector

In the spotlight this month is Irma Rector, president of the Senior Class. She is a high honor student and very active in her school work. She is also president of the Beta Club and president of the Tri-Hi-Y. She is a member of the Dramatic Club and had one of the leading roles in "Dino". Her hobbies are playing and teaching the piano.

Irma has blue eyes and brown hair. She is five feet and four inches tall. Irma is planning to attend the School of Nursing at Kentucky Baptist Hospital in Louisville. We are all sure she will make a very fine nurse and we wish her much success.

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

The Junior Varsity was sorry to loose one of our cheerleaders. Mona Adams who moved to Whitesburg, Kentucky. She has been replaced by Sandra Smith. The Junior Varsity has blue corduroy skirts and white turtle neck sweaters and they have saddles.

Mrs. Baker has been teaching for 21 years, and we hope she will continue teaching 21 more.

F. H. A. NEWS

Members of the F.H.A. are happy to say that our Open House was a great success. We had a large attendance and everyone seemed to like the new department, and they also enjoyed our Christmas decorations. We would like to thank all who came.

We are also happy with the success of our Christmas party. We had a large attendance and everyone had a wonderful time.

We have nothing new planned as yet. Like everyone else, we are all busy studying for mid-year exams. Maybe we can have some new plans next time. Good luck in your exams from the F.H.A. girls!

Mrs. Mildred Farnalia (nee Mildred Renaker) left last week for her home in New York.

Mrs. William Stevens and little daughter of Illinois are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vest of Verona.

Misses Annela Hayden, Mrs. Martha Hayden, Susie Glare and Florrie Edgington attended the W.M.U. Association Meeting at Wood Memorial Baptist Church at Latonia Thursday. Miss Rose Marlowe gave a wonderful talk on her work in China and Japan. She was a missionary to China for 29 years and served a few years in Japan before returning back to America.

Mrs. Ethel Rogers returned back to her home Saturday after spending a few days with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ayler of New Liberty.

Mrs. Pearl Lann and little Karen Kay Hamilton are on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman were calling on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Chapman and Verie Webster Sunday afternoon.

Miss Eula Mae Coyle was in the hospital several days last week, was able to be brought back home and all right.

Mrs. Jake Struve and children spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Chapman and her sister, Mrs. Verie Webster.

Susie Glare and Florrie Edgington were calling on Mrs. Pearl Lann Saturday afternoon. She is confined to her home with a cold.

Quite a few were missing from church Sunday on account of sickness.

Miss Nola Rose Yates entertained two of her schoolmates from Walton over the week-end but didn't learn their names.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edgington had a card from Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams on Saturday. They moved from her and went up around Whitesburg. Mr. Adams likes his job fine. Hope they all like their new home up there.

CRITTENDEN

Mr. and Mrs. William Dancy and two children of Dayton, Ohio spent week-end with his sister, Mrs. Lorena Hutsell and daughter, Virginia Dell.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Menefee and two children of Butler have moved into the apartments of Mrs. Mary Schneider.

Mr. William Jacobs of Covington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Alphin.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Hise visited Mr. William Mulligan of Holmes Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio Sunday. Mr. Mulligan is getting along nicely from an eye operation.

Winter In Kentucky!

Today was a rainy day but we had several in—some on their way to the stock sales, others getting repairs, bolts, pipe fittings, electric wiring and repair parts. John Luttrell bought several large window shades and several other things, also some rug border.

We sold several rug throw rugs, some door mats and several orders of paint for interior decorating. Bath of our HANDY men were here today, telling us paint was going up. We will not raise any paint unless we have to. With everything going up, we are trying our best to give our customers advantage of all we can by not raising anything until we have to.

The Wheeling Corrugating Co. man was here today. He is the fellow who sells us those extra good wash tubs, garbage cans and all other galvanized ware—it is a little higher than some other brands but it is better.

The Real Kill spray salesman was here today. It has not gone up in price. I gave him an order to be shipped in the spring for Real Kill, very good for killing any insect that flies or crawls. That moth spray is very good as well as all the other sprays they sell.

We received that Mono chain saw today, a 20" size to sell for 169.50. That is the best saw I have ever seen for the money, cuts very low and at any angle.

My salesman from W. Birmingham Co., Cleveland, Ohio, was here today—he has been calling on me for 21 years and always gets an order. They carry a wonderful stock of hardware and most generally have a better grade for the price.

Denny Davis, over in Gallatin, had trouble with his Dayton water pump. I gave John Wood some repairs and sent him over but he had to come back—it is hard to have all the parts when you don't know what the trouble is until you take it apart. But John soon fixed it and he had water again.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, down from Banklick, were in and bought some Bole liquid satin paint, a brush and roller. We sold out of two-cap laundry stoves, but we have some more in stock now. Mr. and Mrs. Martin, who are building a new home at Fiskburg, bought some varnish and Stip.

I sold a door mat and some rug flaps to a lady today but I didn't learn her name. We have so many customers that I don't know. There are several places where you can buy a little hardware, a few items here and there, but when they really want hardware items they come to CONRAD.

Lots of stores sell buckets, tubs, brooms and mops, also some toys and appliances, but when you come to CONRAD's you can get all these and most anything you want in the hardware line.

CONRAD, this 1957, will try to have the best in hardware for the lowest possible price. We just received another shipment of Perfection electric portable heaters. For years they made the best portable oil heaters; now they make the best portable electric heater, and we sell lots of them for 24.95. Of course we have a cheaper electric heater for 10.95 but when they see the Perfection, they buy it!

Nathan Northcutt came in and said he saw in my ad that I had just received a new shipment of plastic pipe. He bought 50 feet of 1/2-inch and several fittings for Junior to put city water in his home at Florence.

Mrs. Ezra Dixon came in and selected an Armstrong linoleum rug. We happily lay it for her when she is ready, she had a large heater to move. We are still selling those rebuilt Maytag washers with aluminum tub and pump for only 75.00, fully guaranteed, and in good condition. These are a bargain while they last.

Just received a large shipment of dishes in white ware and some in flowered patterns. This was another wet, icy, cold, winter day. There were several in town buying. Jim Brewer brought Annie and Burt Powell to town and they all bought a few pieces of hardware.

Ed Hamilton, his daughter and son-in-law bought a truck load of hardware and household supplies. The two youngsters are going to housekeeping over on Hicks Pike. Brewster took over a wonderful stock of hardware, plumbing supplies, copper pipe, fittings and galvanized pipe with a lot of cutting and threading.

We had several looking for washing machines. We have the Maytag, 139.95 and 189.95, also three rebuilt Maytags for 95.00, and a new Barton washer for 99.50. Another item they were looking over today was that new 20" Mono chain saw for only 169.50.

Give it a try—well, it is not satisfactory, you know where you got it. CONRAD takes care of what we sell. Gib Anderson bought a sickle grinder and may buy that chain saw—he has a lot of land to clean up. We had two looking for lawn mowers today—we have the Eclipse and Lawn Boy ready to show.

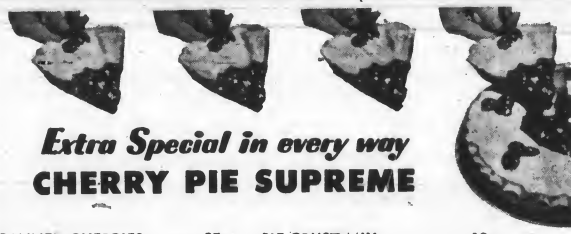

Russell Rector, from beyond Atwood, was in buying a few items. Russ is getting angle iron, Everett Flynn, down on Hicks Pike, bought tobacco seed and a new hatchet. We have those tobacco seed saws and they really do an even job sowing seed.

We have Dowdume in pressurized cans, the plastic covers and the applicators for only 33.00. You can prepare a plentibed, 9x100 and have the cover and applicator left. When the weather permits, prepare your plentibed. It costs 33.00 the first year with Dowdume and only 8.55 for the next year. Those who have used Dowdume really like it.

When you need something for the farm or home, come to CONRAD Hardware—we're ready for 1957!

Fire Department Victim of Ungrounded Rumors Says Chief

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department Inc. has recently received information that there is a story circulating to the effect that the department hesitated in response to the Scott fire at Verona because it feared it wouldn't be paid.

Needless to say, this rumor is not only false, but just plain malicious gossip. Never since we have acquired several pieces of equipment, have the Walton Volunteers failed to try to do anything except get to the blaze just as fast as humbly possible, states Chief Worthington.

True, there is a fee due when a call is answered outside the protection limits of Walton for those that have not signed up for the rural protection plan. Please understand that it is foolish to believe that records are checked to see whether or not the person is protected before the engine leaves the station. This is an appeal for you thinking citizens to put a stop to this "backyard" gossip and to give the Walton Volunteers your support in order that we might give the best fire protection in the state.

Printed below for your information is a table of fees for those desiring services outside the protection limits of the city. In order that we may provide more efficient and effective services for outlying districts, we strongly urge you to subscribe to the following protection plan:

FIRST YEAR—Three buildings or more $15.00; two buildings $10.00 and one building $5.00.

If you are a member, your rates for renewal are as follows: three buildings or more $5.00; two buildings $3.00 and one building $2.00.

If you are a resident of Verona, the renewal rates apply. That is to say, that no initial fee is required for the first year. For any business establishment in Verona there is a flat rate of ten dollars per year, according to Chief Worthington.

FRANK BRAUNWART

Requiem High Mass for Frank Brauwart, Sr., 56, who died Monday at his home on Banklick St., Florence, will be sung at 9:00 a. m. this morning at St. Paul Church, Florence, following the funeral at 8:30 at the St. Mary's funeral home in Florence. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, St. Bernard, Ohio.

Mr. Brauwart, assistant warehouse supervisor for the Gibson Art Co., Cincinnati, worked for the firm 35 years.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Angela S. Brauwart, three sons, Frank, Jr., Ronald and Norman Brauwart, all at home; a brother, William of Cincinnati; and three sisters, Mrs. Anna Malloy and Mrs. Margaret Weber of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Marie Spangenberg of Dayton, Ohio.

New Substation For RECC In Operation Now At Banklick

A new substation, constructed by the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, at Banklick, Kentucky county, was cut in on the East Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation transmission system on Friday, February 1.

Hugh L. Sparlock, manager of the East Kentucky RECC, stated that this was the 76th substation of the member cooperatives to be connected into the East Kentucky RECC transmission system.

Charles Richardson, manager of the Owen County RECC, stated that the increased demand for electric power in the rural areas of Kenton, Campbell and Boone counties made it necessary to construct this new substation to adequately serve the rural families of these areas with a dependable supply of low cost electric power. This station will provide electric service for one thousand rural families.

Mr. Richardson further stated that the capacity of the new station is 1500 KW made up of three 500 KW transformers, with a fourth 500 KW transformer in place, to be used in an emergency.

This substation is of the latest design incorporating oil breaker switches which will operate to keep the station in service in case of trouble on any of the distribution lines.

Each Kentucky RECC has also installed switches on each side of the transmission line serving this station so that in the event of trouble on the transmission line, East Kentucky RECC will still be able to supply power into the station.

Red Cross Certificates

Results of the merger of the Boone County Red Cross as a branch of the Cincinnati Area Red Cross, "Have exceeded our greatest hopes and ambitions." So said Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, Walton, acting chairman of the Boone County Branch, as she formally accepted the official certificate of authority of the Boone County Branch. The presentation was made at a meeting of the area chapter's Board of Directors on Jan. 30 in the Red Cross Memorial Building in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Gaines went on to say that, with acceptance there is responsibility. You can count on us for that," she said as she emphasized the Red Cross activities which have gotten underway in Boone county since the merger.

At the meeting, Nelson Schwab, Jr., chapter chairman, announced receipt of the charter for the county Cincinnati Area Red Cross from the Board of Governors of the American National Red Cross. It was signed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, honorary chairman of the National Red Cross, and E. Roland Harrison, chairman of the Board of Governors of the National Red Cross.

It states, "This is to certify that the Cincinnati Area Chapter having jurisdiction over that territory in the States of Kentucky and Ohio specifically defined in the authority to organize the chapter heretofore issued, has been regularly organized and is authorized and obligated to engage in Red Cross activities which have gotten underway in Boone county since the merger."

The five former Red Cross chapters in this area merged into one Cincinnati Area Red Cross on July 1, 1956, pending approval of the Board of Governors of the American National Red Cross.

Accepting Branch certificates of authority were Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, acting chairman of Boone county; Randolph L. Wadsworth, chairman of Campbell county; Harold D. Nichols, board member from Clermont county; and Robert S. Tate, chairman of Kenton county.

Among the many activities of the Simon Kenton Y-Teens, they are now starting a series of programs concerning the ideal girl.

Miss Elmer Taylor, club sponsor, introduced the series January 25, by reading the poem "If" (for girls), with many interesting comments. "The Girl I Want to Be," was presented at the meeting on February 1, by a panel discussion. Members of the panel were Barbara Bishop, Wanda Brantigan, Jean Elliott, Norma Elliott, Edwina Miller, Sandra Tattershall, and Carol Winburn. The panel discussed the qualities which make an ideal girl.

Some of these qualities are Personality, Correct Dress, Charming, Health, Manners and Tolerance. Each of these qualities were discussed in detail and many interesting ideas were brought forth. The poem says, "If nothing less than what is best can win you, you'll be the girl God meant for you to be."

TOBACCO MEET FEB. 7
The Annual Winter Tobacco Meeting of Boone County will be held Thursday, 1:30 p. m. February 7 at the courthouse in Burlington, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent of Boone County.

Mr. Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist, University of Kentucky, will be the main speaker. Mr. Hunt will discuss "The Outlook for the 1957 Burley Crop."

11-Lb. Son for Brewsters
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brewster, High Street, announce the birth of an eleven pound, two ounce son, born last Friday at Borlow Hospital, named David Rich.

Both mother and son are doing nicely.

JOHN CRAWFORD

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Oakland Christian Church, Pendleton county, for John T. Crawford, 81, retired farmer and a native of Brocken county. Burial was in the Oakland Cemetery, with the Swindler funeral home, Independence, in charge.

Mr. Crawford, who had been making his home with a daughter, Mrs. Mollie Bell, Independence, died Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

He also leaves two sons, Wilbert Crawford of Horton, Ohio, and Herman Crawford of Brooksville, Ky.; two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Moore and Mrs. Mollie Cushman, and a brother, George Crawford, all of Pendleton county, and 15 grandchildren.

ROBERT EWALT

Robert Ewalt, a retired Covington barber, died Tuesday at the Grandview Rest Home, Covington, Mr. Ewalt, who was 85 years old, lived in Big Bone, Boone County. After being a barber for thirty years, he retired in 1947.

He is survived by a sister, Miss Anne Ewalt, Big Bone.

The Rev. R. McClure, pastor of the Big Bone Baptist Church, officiated at the church Thursday. Burial in Big Bone Cemetery with Chambers & Grubbs funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Improving Fishing Lake At Verona Lake Ranch

Extensive work is going on at Verona Lake Ranch now to improve the fishing lake. It is being enlarged a little, new dam installed for a walkway to make it more convenient for fishermen, etc.

The lake promises to be more attractive this coming season to both the fishermen and the picnickers who enjoy the cool breezes and shade trees that abound the lake. Soon as the lake is completed, it will be heavily stocked, and continually stocked, to please the anglers throughout the year.

Thurston Moore, operator, said the first show date for the big lake park, 1957 would be May 5, with a free show to get the kinks out of the way for the summer season.

Walton P. T. A. to Meet

The Walton P.T.A. will meet at the school on Thursday, February 21, at 7:30 p. m. There will be a special program on Founders Day. All members are asked to bring a cake.

Celebrates Birthday Sunday

A. T. Hunt celebrated his 83rd birthday on Sunday, February 3. Those who attended his birthday dinner at his home here were his only sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. U. T. Alexander, of New Liberty; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hunt and sons, Tommie and Ronald; and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hamilton, of Winchester, N. F. Pinner and Mrs. Doris Phillips and son, John, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Jessie Haley of Latonia, and Mrs. Ethel A. Hunt and Mrs. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt received many lovely gifts and said it was one of the happiest birthdays he ever had.

Card Social at Kenton

The Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department will give their monthly card social this Saturday night at 8:30 in the Firehouse at Kenton. President Mose Scogard announced they would be refreshments.

February Birthdays Discussed at Meeting Of the Wa-Na Club

The Wa-Na Woman's Club met Monday evening at Janodo, with Mrs. Charles Holder and Mrs. Clayton Jones as hostesses.

The subject for this meeting was February birthdays, and the speaker, Mrs. James S. Webster, gave a most interesting talk concerning various important and well-known men and women in history who were born in February. Following the speaker, a "white elephant" sale was held in which all members participated with Mrs. D. L. Maddox acting as a most capable auctioneer.

Bearcats and Pioneers Break Even Past Week

TO AID FLOOD SUFFERERS

On Saturday, February 9th, between 9:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. the boys of Cub Scouts and Boy Scout Troops of Florence, Elmore and Erlanger will make a canvass of the area to collect canned food stuff for flood sufferers of Kentucky.

This drive under the supervision of Thomas Schonecker, R. J. Florence, Cub Master and George Wilson, Wallace Ave. Florence, Committee Chairman, Cub Scouts, is in conjunction with Red Cross activities in this area and we urge everyone to contribute wholeheartedly—and RIGHT NOW!

Heilman Candidate For Commonwealth Attorney In District

Harlan Heilman, Commonwealth Attorney for the Fifteenth Judicial District, has announced his candidacy for re-election.

In citing the importance of the office, Mr. Heilman said:

"Although peace officers are diligent in making arrests, the actual conviction of criminals depends largely upon the experience and ability of the commonwealth attorney, and his willingness to devote sufficient time and attention to the investigation and preparation of cases to be tried.

"I am asking the support of the Commonwealth people as I begin my campaign for another term as I have devoted a great deal of time to the duties of this office, as the proper trial of criminal cases requires. I have worked vigorously on investigation of criminal cases before they are called in court for trial, and the defendant may have a fair trial, the jury be presented with all the facts so they can render a just verdict.

"If re-elected to this office, I shall, as I have in the past five years, continue to devote sufficient time and attention to properly carry out my duties of office."

Mr. Heilman was born in Frankfort, Ky., and received his elementary and high school education there. He attended Georgetown College and obtained his law degree at the University of Louisville.

He served as a tank gunner in World War II before being wounded in action March 18, 1945. Since his discharge in November, 1945, he has been actively engaged in the practice of law. He was city attorney of Carrollton for two years prior to taking office as Commonwealth Attorney in January, 1952.

Mr. Heilman, 44, the son of the late Dr. George Harlan Heilman of Frankfort, is married and the father of three children. He is a member of the Baptist Church and the Carrollton Kiwanis Club.

To Complete Basic

Pvt. Harold L. Campbell, whose wife, Leola, lives at 30 N. Main, Walton, is going to complete eight weeks of basic combat training with the 3rd Infantry Division at Fort Benning, Ga., early in February.

Campbell, son of Mrs. Mabel M. Campbell, Route 2, Walton, entered the Army last December 8. He is a 1952 graduate of Walton-Verona High School.

Campbell's father, Russell B. Campbell, lives at 704 Pike St., Covington.

Victims Are Morgan And Silver Grove

Walton-Verona High School scored its sixth win in the Pensagon by defeating Morgan High School 65-63 last Friday night at Walton.

Walton had to come from behind to win. After leading at the close of the third period, the "Cats" found themselves trailing 63-61 with seconds left to play in the regulation game. Dean Poole hit a fielder to send it into an overtime. In the extra period, Lloyd Poore scored a goal for the victory.

Walton led 19-13 at the end of the first period but the score was tied at 31-31 at halftime. The locals regained the lead at 48-45 in the third period to set the stage for the thrilling finish.

Walton-Verona—Stephenson 0 1 1; Menke 3 0 6; Simpson 5 3 13; Poole 1 0 2; L. Poore 7 3 17; D. Poore 3 0 6; Courtney 3 4 10; Cook 5 0 10.

Morgan—Armstrong 7 4 18; Roberts 2 2 6; Lotimer 3 0 6; Vaughn 3 1 7; Hays 7 1 17; Ishamed 3 3 9.

In the preliminary game, Morgan scored a 56-34 victory.

Simon Kenton 73, Silver Grove 58.

Simon Kenton High School Pioneers scored 24 points in a fourth quarter rally last Friday night to trounce the Silver Grove Big Trains 73-58 at Silver Grove. This win the seventh in the NKAC for the Pioneers.

The teams fought to a 15-15 tie in the opening period and were deadlocked 34-34 at the half. Simon Kenton took over in the third period, outscoring the Trains 15-11, to lead 49-45. Zigler, Sutton and Lewis fouled out for Silver Grove in the fourth quarter.

Simon Kenton—Vaughan 4 1 9; Coleman 1 4 6; Halderman 0 2 2; Heeger 2 7 11; Butler 8 24; Exler 8 5 21.

Silver Grove—Goodwin 7 10 24; Traylor 3 0 6; Whitford 3 3 9; Zigler 2 4 8; Lewis 0 3 3; Price 1 0 2; Sutton 3 0 6.

Grant County 73, Walton-Verona 68.

Grant County High marked up its tenth straight victory without a loss in the Pensagon Conference by defeating second-place Walton-Verona 73-68, on Tuesday night at Walton.

The Bearcats held a three-point lead entering the final period but a 29-point scoring spurge in the final period tied the game for the Dry Ridge team. In the third period the visitors took a 21-18 lead, but in the second quarter, with Cook scoring ten points, Walton outscored the winners 18-12 to lead 36-33 at the half. Poole had five in the third period for Walton as the scoring was even with each team getting 11 points for a 47-44 lead. In the final period, Simpson scored ten points as Grant County held a 29-21 edge.

Walton-Verona: Poole 4 2 10; Stephenson 1 2 2; Cook 5 6 16; Hinds 3 4 10; Menke 1 0 2; L. Poore 6 10 22; Courtney 3 0 6.

Grant County: Livingston 7 7 21; C. Simpson 3 0 6; Fink 1 0 2; B. Simpson 9 4 22; Rose 4 6 14; Beech 1 0 2; Burgess 1 0 2.

The Grant County reserves won the preliminary game, 54-39.

Newport Catholic 80, Simon Kenton 57.

The Newport Catholic Thunderbolts, headed the Simon Kenton Pioneers on 80-57 defeat Tuesday night at the school's floor at Independence. It was the thirtieth win in twenty games for the Newport team, and the eighth loss for the Pioneers.

The teams played to a 20-20 standstill in the first period as the Thunderbolts, backed by Larry Taylor and Ron Longenbrunner, led 39-31 at halftime. The winners widened the lead to 57-43 entering the final period and in the closing quarter had an advantage in scoring 23-14.

Newport Catholic: Longenbrunner 8 2 18; Kollman 0 1 1; Parks 5 2 12; Emmerick 3 0 2; Taylor 9 4 22; Zimmerman 0 2 2; Gross 3 2 8; Gerrin 2 0 4; Fox 1 0 2.

Simon Kenton: Vaughan 3 0 6; Coleman 2 0 4; Halderman 4 1 9; Heeger 2 3 13; Plageman 0 0 0; Butler 3 8 14 and Exler 3 5 11.

Newport Catholic won the reserve game 57-50.

Sweet, smooth and sassy—that's Chevrolet all over. Above, you're looking at the Bel Air Sport Coupe.

Clings to the road like a stripe of paint!

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going. Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoes Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nicely, too—with up to 245 h.p.* Come on in and take a turn at the wheel of a new Chevrolet.

GLENCOE

Sympathy is extended Robert Thomas and Howell Roland and family in the death of Mrs. Maude Thomas Roland, who passed away last week at her son's, Robert Thomas, Latonia.

A surprise shower was given at the home of Mrs. Georgia Noel last Thursday afternoon for Miss Jennie Taylor, who is leaving to live with her nephew, Jean Taylor, Latonia. Those present were Mrs. Ira Collins, Mrs. Liza Carlton, Mrs. Carry Bradley, Mrs. Lottie Poland, Mrs. James Pyle, Mrs. Reba Henderson, Mrs. Lona Higgins, Mrs. May House, Mrs. Ollie Hudson, Mrs. Jennie Taylor, who received lots of nice gifts. All left giving Jennie their best wishes.

Ray Beach has been very sick with pneumonia the past week. We hope for his early recovery.

Wesley and Irene Collins spent Friday with his mother and father, Worth Collins.

Mrs. Clarence Alcorn called on Mrs. Jennie Taylor, Saturday morning. Paul Chapman, wife and son were in Covington, Friday shopping.

Boone Garden Club to Meet

The Boone County Garden Club will hold its regular meeting February 12, at 1:00 p. m., in the Florence Community Center. The program will deal with "Our Permanent Home," which will be in Shaw Gardens, St. Louis, Mo. Hostesses will be Mesdames Dempsey, Garrison, Carter, Denham and Moritt. Tea will be served and the roll call will be answered by naming a new flower. "I would like to grow."

Attention is called to the importance of the March meeting, which will also be held in the Community Center. This will be a very interesting program and each member is urged to be present and bring at least one guest.

"Marjorie," who is to have the program, asks that at least 100 be present as she does not feel that it is worth her time and effort to speak and demonstrate to fewer persons. Her flower arrangements and designs are most unusual and distinctive.

UK BEGINS PROGRAM IN FLIGHT TRAINING

A flight instruction program for advanced Air Force ROTC cadets opened this week at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. The new program will enable senior cadets to obtain private pilot licenses, and the Air Force will determine if the students have an aptitude for flying.

Twenty outstanding Air Force cadets have been selected to receive the training at the University during the coming semester. The program is being carried on in several universities under a new Congressional Act.

Two Hybrid Varieties Show Promise For Silage Uses

Kentucky 105 and Kentucky 104, hybrid corn varieties, showed up better than Kentucky 102 for corn-silage purposes in a Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station test this year.

The one-year test, conducted by the corn improvement project of the agronomy department, evaluated for silage purposes the hybrids currently recommended for grain purposes by the station. Kentucky 102 is the current selection most widely used.

Kentucky 105 averaged 8.28 tons per acre of dry matter (moisture free basis) and Kentucky 104, 8.13 tons. Kentucky 102 averaged 7.41 tons and was the best of the other hybrids recommended by the station.

—All Offices Open Daily—

ANYONE who has ever driven in a city traffic knows what a snarl there is when a traffic-light goes "on the blink," meaning that it doesn't blink. There is almost as bad a tangle of traffic when one side of the light, either green or red, fails to operate. The driver on the blind side is not sure what he ought to do, but the drivers backed up the street think they know, and honk at him and at things in general, until the police come and straighten things out. Now suppose—if you can suppose nonsense for a minute—that a city board of aldermen decided to save money by not buying red traffic lights. "Let's not discourage our energetic citizens with red stop-lights; what we need is vigor and drive; GO lights are all we need." Or suppose in another place the city fathers decided to buy and install red lights only. People should be left to their own initiative, they might say. All we need to do is to stop them when they need to be stopped.

God's Yes and No

All through the Bible, and especially in the teachings of Jesus, we find, as it were, lights both red and green. There are the red lights of warning and the green lights of encouragement. In the two chapters of the background Scripture, for instance, we find Jesus warning men against judging by appearances, failure to respond to God's messenger, condemning men for "sins" which are not really sins, regarding institutions (in this case, the Sabbath) as holier than human life itself, speaking evil against God's Holy Spirit, careless speech in general, and living an empty life (the story of the restless demon). These are all warnings against ideas or action which look all right on the surface. The Bible has few warnings against obvious sins; many against sins that look harmless or even good. But also there are the green lights of comfort and encouragement. A certain philosopher, a particular gloomy one, called Christianity God's "attack on man."

Lighthouse

In the New Testament Christians are called lights in a dark world. Indeed Christ says they are "the light" of the world. So the church like the Lord must hang high both the lights of warning and the light of encouragement. The church must never let the red light get out of order. She must never let people think a sin is not a sin, or that sin is not harmful. She must warn men of dangers that are not obvious. She must never be a Pollyanna. She must never sing, "The world is so full of a number of things, I am sure we should all be as happy as kings." Like a lighthouse, the church must warn men, both Christians and the world at large, of hidden dangers. If the church sees no harm in what "everybody does," if the church's standards are simply those of the world, if the church turns into a sort of celestial rotarian society, its members figuratively slapping one another on the back and telling one another how wonderful they are, then the church itself is in danger.

Home Lights

If the lighthouse says, STAY AWAY! the harbor lights say, COME HOME. So the church, like the Lord, if faithful to God's Word, will show men not only what not to do but what to do. When an airplane is approaching a landing-field in the dark, if it is a modern properly lighted field, it will have a double row of lights on the runway, so that the pilot by lining up his plane with those lights can follow them right down to a safe landing. The church ought to furnish lights like those for the world. The church has the right and the duty to speak, as Jesus spoke, not only to its own members but to the world at large, proclaiming the principles of life which is right in the sight of God, not only for individuals but also for group living on a small scale and large. The church must speak of sin, yes by all means. But a church that speaks only of sin and never of its remedy, is like a doctor who diagnoses but never prescribes—like a harbor authority which maintains a light-house to keep boats out but no buoy lights to guide ships in.

THE MEASURE OF CIVILIZATION

Some folks judge civilization's progress by the kind of houses they live in.

Others point toward the giant strides of science or industry—or the striking advance of music, art and literature.

Yet civilization is perhaps best measured by the kind of people it produces.

Picture a man who respects the dignity and rights of others, and who looks with compassion on human suffering. He is guided in all things by an abiding love for God. His moral stamina never ebbs. His spiritual courage grows stronger.

Multiply this man by the thousands . . . by the millions . . . and you'll see a civilization higher and greater than has ever existed.

The Church is the one great institution that devotes itself to the development of man's character and spirit. As long as it continues to thrive, we can expect our civilization to flourish and progress. Help extend the influence of the Church—give it your support, make it a part of your life!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tolling, Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harris, (the former Joyce Sizemore) are the proud parents of a six pound 13 oz. baby girl born February 1.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Mitchell returned home Friday after spending three weeks in Lexington.

Leonard Thompson, a daughter Judy spent the week-end in Nicholasville. The chicken-pox sufferers are all improving and we haven't heard of any new cases this week.

Little Stephen Huffman of Laniro Lanes, has returned home from Children's Hospital after a serious heart operation, and he will now be able to walk and play like any normal boy. It is a wonderful thing the way heart surgeons can operate on the heart of children who just a few years ago would have been helpless invalids with very short lives, and they can live and grow into normal healthy adults. While Stephen was in the hospital his mother presented him with a baby brother.

Mrs. Minnie Perry is home from the hospital and is slowly improving and able to be up and about.

Mrs. Ethel Fogel is in poor health and unable to be out, we hope she feels better soon.

Mrs. Mabel Farmer is suffering from an annoying skin disease and is unable to be out.

Ray McAllister has had all his teeth pulled out. He got twelve of them pulled one day last week and passed out when he got out of his car and attempted to enter the store. He recovered soon and was back at work the next day.

The Taylor Mill Boy Scouts went on an all-day hike last Saturday. There were about twenty boys, three dogs, and the Scout Master, Frank Jacobs. They all reported having a good time.

Eighteen Intermediates and Young People of Oak Ridge Baptist met at the church last Thursday evening and organized a Young Peoples group. They plan to meet each Thursday for prayer, visitation and recreation. Mrs. Thelma Tamm, Bob Bell and the pastor, Rev. Frank Wilkerson, met with the group and will act as sponsors.

The Taylor Mill Civic Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Taylor Mill School Thursday night at 8 p. m. All residents of the community are urged to attend.

Mrs. E. C. Harris was very ill last week but is improving at this time.

WHITES TOWER

We folks who live on the hill tops are beginning to appreciate that fact when we read of disastrous floods in Eastern Kentucky and other places. The unfortunates need all the help we, the State and government can give them.

Jess Webster and wife visited their son, Doc and family of Louisville last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Inabitt who has been under the weather the past week is feeling better at this writing.

Working crossword puzzles and studying out what kind of soup to have for dinner has been the main pastime of your correspondent for the past weeks. I suppose others are just marking time as the weather has not been suitable for outside work.

The last nine pigs of our '56 crop were sold the first of the week. All to one buyer who will probably realize a nice profit on the transaction.

The writer just recently learned that his brother, Dave, of Cincinnati, recently underwent a surgical operation at a Cincinnati hospital, and is now on the way to a complete recovery. Oh, well! Dave never did want to bother anyone with his troubles, so here's hoping everything turns out for the best.

We were shocked Sunday by a news cast that tragedy had come to the home of one of the patrons of my mail route in Latonia. Barry Ray, 11 years old, of Baltimore Ave., in Latonia, was shot and killed by a rifle shot in the hands of his brother, who was three years his senior. Another case of I didn't know it was loaded. Billy Dale just in fun pointed the gun at his brother and pulled the trigger killing him almost instantly. Billy Dale as you must know, is still in a state of shock, trying to realize what he has done.

Farm Facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS
by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

Another series of meetings has just given me an opportunity to visit every section of the state and to talk to farmers and bankers from practically every county. So this month Farm Facts will be a summary of impressions this "country boy" gained from a winter time trip zig-zagging over Kentucky.

SATISFACTION Everyone was pleased with the tobacco situation. There was not one word of complaint about the prices or the program. Bankers report good collections and higher deposits. Some old timers recall when such prices would have been followed by increased acreage, over-production, flooded markets, and ruinous prices. Such was the condition just fifty years ago when night-riders tried to enforce an acreage reduction. With the present program farmers can look with some assurance to stabilized production and satisfactory prices another year.

A JOB AHEAD In spite of the progress made in recent years one can not help but feel, as he drives over Kentucky in winter, that we have hardly scratched the surface of conservation problems. Either because of ignorance, lack of money, or just plain "don't care," there is still a lot abates of our land and forest resources taking place.

Nothing is more depressing than to drive through areas of eroded farm land with broom-sedge, sassafras and persimmons; dilapidated barns and unpeeled homes at this season of the year; not to see anything more pleasant than to see the conversion of such areas to green pastures, neat homes and protected woodlands. Both of these scenes can be found in Kentucky today and it makes us realize that there is still a big unfinished job ahead.

ENCOURAGING I was pleased, of course, to see the fine contribution Kentucky 31 fescue has made, and is still making, in providing cover and winter grazing throughout the state. It was particularly noticeable in the mountains and in southern and western Kentucky where there is little else green at this season. It was encouraging, too, to see in many parts of the state the planting of pine and hardwood trees showing up on the hillsides. They were particularly prevalent around Hazard where banker Dewey Daniel has taken the lead in setting over a million seedlings during the past three years. May be the soil bank program can be used to hasten the seeding of grasses and planting of trees—let's look into it.

Piner 4-H Club Meets

The Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club met in the school auditorium January 25. The meeting was conducted by our president, Nancy Carlisle.

Noble reading and prayer were given by Bonnie McNeese. The pledge to the American flag and 4-H Club pledge were led by the officers. The entire club sang "Oh, Susanna." After reading of the minutes, each member answered present by naming their favorite radio or television program.

Mary Linder, our first vice-president, introduced the program. Each officer gave a brief talk about his duty as an officer. Then a program, entitled "It Could Be You" was presented by several members. Several musical numbers were presented.

Talks were given by Mrs. Mann and Mr. Brown, our 4-H leaders. Then Mr. T. L. Riley, associate County Agent of Kenton County made several important remarks. The club invited him to a turkey dinner in the school cafeteria that noon.

Tips Are Given Dairymen On Conserving Bedding

Dairymen using the loose-housing (loofing area) system generally have a winter problem on conserving expensive bedding during the winter. Here are tips from Joe Claxon, County Agricultural Agent of Boone County.

- (1) Do not scatter fresh bedding until the cows are confined in the holding pen prior to milking. This will prevent the trampling and soiling of bedding.
- (2) Take a little time each day to place fresh droppings outside the edges of the "manure pack" in the loafing area, away from the area used by cows for lying down or resting.

Loose-housing requirements for bedding generally are 50 percent more than the stanchion type's needs. But the two methods above will reduce that difference to only 10 to 15 percent, Claxon says.

Refinishing Furniture Can Yield Rich Rewards

Many people in Kentucky are taking advantage of the winter months to re-finish family pieces of furniture or those they have bought at household sales. Miss Marion Bartlett, Extension home furnishings specialist at the University of Kentucky, says that refinishing furniture often yields rich rewards for the time, energy and patience put into it. Refinishing brings to life all the lovely color and grain of the wood and adds a protective covering to keep the piece beautiful. Nevertheless, it is work, and the would-be refinisher should ask himself these questions before starting the task:

1. Is the piece worth the time and effort needed to complete a good finish?
  2. Does it have good lines and pleasing proportions?
  3. Does it have many turnings and carvings that make it extremely difficult to do?
  4. Is it made of valuable wood, such as cherry, walnut or mahogany?
  5. If it is not in good condition, can it be satisfactorily repaired?
  6. Does it have sentimental value because it belonged to some close relative?
- Miss Bartlett points out that many pieces poor in style and proportion can be improved. Excess decorations and carvings can be removed, supports for the mirror taken off and the mirror hung on the wall above the chest, the high headboard of a bed lowered, the backs of wash stands removed. Such work should be done before the refinishing job is started.

An Invitation to Our Farmer Friends

Dear Folks:

We're rolling out the red carpet for you here at our store. We want you to be our guests on John Deere Day.

You know, this day is planned just for you—and, of course, all the relatives and friends you want to bring along. We've whipped up a program everybody will like.

There'll be movies galore, including the full-color feature... "Heaven to Betsy," a film so honey it will draw you right inside it. Of course, Tom Gordon—the perennial John Deere Day favorite—will be back with a laugh and a lesson, and then, too, you'll see a lot more, including the new G. D. Tractors and other equipment at work in the field.

Now—don't miss it. Plan to come and spend the day. And, remember— it's our treat. If you haven't received your tickets by now, call for them at our store.

And don't forget the date!

● Date: Saturday, February 16

● Place: Our Store

● Time: 10:30 A. M.

TRUTH

In Advertising - Don't Be Misled

When you are ready to buy any car, ask your dealer this question . . . "How much money do I pay in addition to my trade-in?" . . . In other words, "How much money difference?" Which of the following deals is best for you?

Inflated New Car Price
Cost of Car .....	$1900.00
Trade-In Car .....	600.00
Money Difference .....	$1300.00

Suggested Factory List Price
Cost of Same Car .....	$1700.00
Same Trade-In Car .....	500.00
Money Difference .....	$1200.00

These two examples figured on the same car prove that although your trade-in allowance is greater in the first example, it still costs you more because the list price is also inflated.

STAFFORDSBURG

Miss Minnie Rapp left on Saturday, February 2, to spend some time at the home of her brother, Jess Rapp and wife of McGee, Arkansas. We will miss her since she was always in her place on Sunday morning and ready to take an active part in class discussions.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish were surprised at the close of the morning service to see their son-in-law from Henry County. He and his wife and baby came to spend the day here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were invited to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Recter who were entertaining Mrs. Jessie Craig and children, Ronald Carolyn and Thomas of Newport and Misses Alma and Mary Stephens of Independence.

Weather not too good so not a very large number were out to the Fellowship Supper Saturday evening, but all who were there had a pleasant time. It would be so much more interesting if we could get a larger number interested.

Word was received by her parents that Miss Hope Keeney of Houston, Texas, is going soon to Bellevue, Md., for a short course in Upper Extremity Prosthetics. After this is finished she will spend a few days visiting friends in Washington where she spent several years as an occupational therapist at Walter Reed Hospital.

Mrs. Ona Cavanaugh and family had as guests for a few days her brother, Earl Thornton and family.

Rev. Allen Parish and wife of West Virginia and a minister friend visited his parents here and taking Rev. J. D. Parish with them attended a conference at Wilmore the past week.

Glad to report Dawson Ballinger is better following a heart attack.

So much regret to hear of the death of Mrs. J. J. Barner's 18th brother, Mr. McBurney in Florida the past week.

Wayne Riley who underwent surgery last Tuesday is at home. Hope he is soon well.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline Gordon and children were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and son were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doman.

Glad to learn that Howard Stafford who recently had an appendectomy is recovering satisfactorily. Wish him to be able to be about soon.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsley

Down to Work:

Congress is just getting down to work, what with organization and the like completed. Much talk centers on the record peacetime budget, and a breakdown of figures indicates that each Kentuckian will have to cough up more than $400 a year to pay our national bills.

Add to that figure the cost of running state and local government, and you'll find each one of us will shell out about $600 a piece before the end of the year.

To make matters worse, if you are the head of a family of four, government will cost you about $2400. Ouch!

On Drinking:

Kentucky's Eugene Siler, congressman from the Eighth District, inserted an article in the Congressional Record the other day in which he deplored the drinking of alcoholic beverages in Washington. He wrote this:

"I came here more than two years ago and I have had nothing stronger than ginger ale. I hasten to add that if I stay here until I am ready for the undertaker, which is unlikely, I'll still have nothing stronger than ginger ale."

He wants Congress to do something about the drinking problem. Which also is unlikely.

Three New Bills:

Another congressman from eastern Kentucky, Carl Peters, has offered several bills of interest to the folks at home.

One deals with federal aid to education and would have Uncle Sam help with federal money to build more classrooms. The other bill would enlist Uncle Sam's aid in combating juvenile delinquency.

Both measures were referred to the Committee on Education, of which the Congressman is a member. He'll have a chance to work for his pet legislation.

Ohio River Navigation:

The current budget, now being debated, contains money for those new high level dams along the Ohio River bordering Kentucky. That's no secret.

However, it is interesting to know just how many of the present dams—low level barriers—will be eliminated once the work is done. The Greenup Dam will replace five, the New Richmond Dam, above Newport, will eliminate four, and the Warsaw-Markland Dam knocks out five. That makes a grand total of 14 and the job, once completed, will create lakes hundreds of miles in length along the borders of Kentucky.

Federal food laws do not permit green, immature oranges to be colored, instead only those that are fully ripe but partly green in color by nature.

About 1,000 homes catch on fire each day, three-fourths being caused by fires for heating or cooking.

FEBRUARY

This is the month when everyone is glad its over. Unless we have some extra good weather, very few will be able to work outside. This is the month to sow your grass seed. Several are cutting trees and clearing land when weather permits. Some are cutting fence posts before the sap rises. Mr. Conley, who lives in Erlanger, and has a farm on Big Bone Road, bought an elastomer and some rubber bands for his lambs. Backham Shields bought two boxes of hog rings—when the ground is wet they will put that nose in the ground until you put the rings in the nose.

In came Omer Kite and Ed Kennedy, both needed light bulbs. Frank Rouse, from down at Richmond, was in today. We had several in today, it being a very bad day, several were going to the stock sales. Burt Powell was in; he was with Jim Brewer. We received a new 1957 model perfection 30" electric range, fully automatic, 30" oven with glass in door. This is a wonderful range and it is cheap. I have a 52-gallon table-top electric water heater and a 52-gallon round upright electric water heater—these are at the old price; also we have four Daytop water systems at 1956 prices.

R. L. Salmons was inquiring about some point for walls, something to wash down. I gave him two color cards to take home and select colors. We have been selling the rubber base wall paint we are closing out at 3.95 per gallon and 1.25 per quart. At this price for a quality wall paint you can't go wrong. Mrs. Raymond Conner, from over on U. S. 42, was in getting pyrex baking dishes and knobs for pot lids. Groger just brought out a new shipment of Sta-Dri.

Ed Block's electric range is having a little trouble with the oven door. Then he came by Richmond to repair an oil heater in a trailer—they are really something to work on. He had to take it outside to have room and finally brought it in to fix it. These days we sell lots of bolts, wiring material and plumbing supplies.

We just received a shipment of cattle dehorners, also elastomers for using the rubber bands in castrating lambs and calves, taking tails off lambs and even de-horning cattle. Some like these rubber bands while others like the dehorners. We have lamb nipples, calf feeder buckets, also heat lamps, heat tape for water pipes that may freeze. This heat tape is very handy, just spiral it around the pipe and plug it in to a light socket. We have several of those Jamesway water fountains to use where you have water pressure. You can pipe these to your water line and always have plenty water for your hens. We also have a water heater for this fountain, same as the 5-and 8-gallon fountains. We have some Jamesway oil brooders, gas brooders and electric hovers. Chick time is about here, so get ready.

We still have a lot of harness. Leather goods have advanced a lot but I never raise the price on harness unless I have to replace an item. We have a lot of extra good work bridles I bought lately, a little higher but they are good ones. I have some 18" check lines at old price, also steel homes and trace chains, several pairs of bracing in different sizes. Of course we sell lots of halters—I try to carry all sizes and prices. A fellow came in today and wanted 5" pipe for his hammock, so Chuck and I bolted 6 points together. Another fellow came in hunter in 12x13" bolts and sled sole bolts to repair his farm sled. We have sled shoes and plenty of bolts in all sizes. February is the time to sow grass seed. We have the cyclone seed sower and the horn type sower. Several have looked over this new chain saw we have—say it's OK and it sell for 169.50. I went to the wholesale house today and brought out a large selection of plastic model cars, boats and planes. I also brought some of the smaller new toys to put on our toy table. We don't have much space but we try to keep enough toys.

Today, Chuck had several of those plumbing jobs. We have some real plumbers and we try to help them out in keeping all the plumbing supplies. We sell copper, galvanized, plastic pipe and fittings for all. We just received a large shipment of paint from Chicago. We buy the paint items from Chicago Paint Co. that Balce does not sell. A lady came in today and asked if I still carried that Jelled Magic paint—she used it last year and said it was wonderful. A few items that Chicago don't carry I order from Sheffield Paint Co.

That is the reason CONRAD carries the largest selection of paint in these parts. My old friend Barker, who sells wiring material, came in today. Back in 1939, Mr. Barker, who I thought was an old man then, came in and sold me a stock of Nu-Electric paint. He sold out his paint business and now has a small jobbing business in wiring devices and all types of electric wire—a very fine old gentleman. We try to carry a very nice stock of wiring material, all type switches, sockets, light fixtures, night lights, bed lights, bulbs for most any fixture or appliance. CONRAD has it when you want it.

Brewster just finished laying a kitchen, bath and a hall with new linoleum for Mrs. Sue Jarman—she said he did a very nice job. Mrs. James Messner was in today, bought a few items. I showed her the miniature oil lamps I had just gotten—of course she had to have one. Mrs. J. W. Soden saw the lamp and she had to have one. They are very nice.

Hebron 4-H Youth Is Winner of Prize Heifer at Florence

Number 11072 was the winning ticket, which won Miss Boonebeck Beaufort Saturday morning at Florence grade school. Gilbert Furnish, a Hebron 4-H member is now the proud owner of Miss Beaufort. Over $500 was received from this fund raising campaign for the Boone County 4-H Clubs, Glen McCormack, assistant County Agent stated.

The program was sponsored jointly by the J. H. Fetter Feed Company, Covington, Kentucky, and the Boone County 4-H Council.

The program started Saturday morning with Nancy Prigge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Prigge of Union and Phyllis Kirtley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kirtley of Union. 4-H members of Boone County High School led the pledge to the American flag and the 4-H pledge. John Crigler, president of the 4-H Council, gave a talk on the benefits of 4-H work in Boone County, and announced the Boone County Fair which will be held August 22, 23 and 24 at the Burlington Fair grounds.

The Boone County 4-H members made this program a success by their untiring efforts to sell tickets, along with the cooperation of the people of Boone County. Flowing are the winners of the ticket selling contest: Ernest Bobbery, Constance, Mary Smith, Burlington; Sandra Rogers, Bellevue; Johnny Harris, Vandy; George Stephens, Hamilton; Carolyn Butler, All Saints; Susan Messing, Schuyler; St. Paul; Joe Hamilton, New Haven; Gerie Gorman, Hebron 1; Sue Graves, Hebron 11; Nancy Prigge, Boone County; Hugh and Dennis Frickling, Florence.

The donations will be used for prizes and awards in Boone County 4-H work. Ricky Vice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vice of Burlington Pike was the lucky boy in guessing the weight of Miss Boonebeck Beaufort, which weighed 332 lbs. He guessed 331 pounds.

Attends Louisville Meeting

Henry Lipscomb of Lipscomb's Farm Supply, Walton, returned from a three-day farm service conference in Louisville, which was conducted by Southern States Cooperative for managers and employees of its local co-operative service agencies.

The meeting was especially designed to help agency personnel become better acquainted with the products and services of the cooperative so they in turn will be better equipped to service the 330,000 Southern States members. The conference was conducted by officials and top distribution and purchasing men from the cooperative's central offices in Richmond, Va.

UNION EASTERN STAR

Union Star No. 461 O. E. S. will hold regular stated meeting Thursday, Feb. 14, at 8 p. m. in Boone-Union Masonic Hall, Union. Initiations, ceremony and birthday anniversary. Refreshments will be served by the men.

Mrs. Enos Miller, Worthy Matron and Warren G. Miller, Worthy Patron, will preside.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Adams, of Casey county, Mrs. Vernon Floyd, Stanford; J. B. Adams, Rossmore, Ohio, and his sister, Mrs. Carl Dietz, Junction City.

Fertilize Properly In Order To Get Better Results, Says Claxon

Don't apply fertilizer indiscriminately says Joe Claxon, County Agent, Boone County. Put plant nutrients on fields according to soil tests—supply the specific elements needed on specific fields.

Soil samples show what nutrients are needed, such as nitrogen, potash or phosphorus. Take samples in advance of fertilizing time to allow for sample analysis.

Remember—applying excessive amounts of fertilizer will not give an immediate return on the fertilizer investment.

Average plant food content of fertilizer in Kentucky rose from 17 percent in 1940 to 26.3 percent in 1955. Based on plant food content, fertilizer costs have increased only 10 percent in the 15-year period, while other farm production items increased 200 percent in the same period.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Jeff, Kentucky February 6, 1957

Dear Sir,
On the request of the First Creek Baptist Church of Blue Diamond, Kentucky, to acknowledge the receiving of the gift of clothing and other articles, contributed by the citizens of Walton, Kentucky, for the people suffering from the recent flood in this area.

An list of those who benefitted by your gift, I thank you.

4th Annual Boone County 4-H Talent Show February 21

The 4th Annual Boone County 4-H Talent Show will be held February 21 at Hebron Grade School, according to Mary Ann McCormack, Acting Home Agent, and Glen McCormack, Assistant County Agent. The show will be sponsored by the 4-H and Upland Council and will begin at 8 p. m.

All Boone County 4-H club members who can sing, dance or play a musical instrument, give a comedy or pantomime act or any other form of entertainment individually or in a group, are eligible to participate in the program.

Plaques will be presented to the winner and runner-up of both individual and club acts.

All 4-H members wishing to participate should give their names to their club secretary.

Burley Plant-Bed Handling Factor In Profits On Crop

Handling burley plant beds properly is a factor in the crop's profit, says Russell Hunt, Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service burley specialist.

Hunt, noting plant bed preparation times is close by, recommends: 1) Plow bed sites as soon as ground is dry; 2) include a drainage ditch to keep out surface water; 3) treat soil thoroughly with weed seed.

Weed seed can be killed by bed-burning; steaming; use of methyl bromide (gas treatment); use of vapors, or allyl alcohol. He noted directions of manufacturers in use of methyl bromide, vapors or allyl alcohol should be followed explicitly. This treatment saves labor and reduces crop diseases, he said, particularly wildfire and mosaic.

Fertilize at the rate of 25 to 30 pounds per 100 square yards of bed; seed, and put bed-covers on immediately.

Fryman entered the Army last April and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Specialist To Speak at Independence On Many Dairy Problems

Dairy and agronomy specialists from the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, Lexington, are scheduled to meet with Kenton county farmers, according to C. A. Wickland, County Agricultural Agent. The meeting will be held in the Independence Court House on Friday, February 15, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

In addition to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jump, Jr., is survived by a brother, Albert Jump, Jr., his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jump, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Webster, of near Walton.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Swindler funeral home, Independence. Rev. Robert Hopkins, pastor of the New Banklick Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

The automobile in which Private Faulkner was riding landed upside down throwing him clear and pinning the driver in the wreckage between the steering wheel and the dashboard.

Pfc. Albert Faulkner, this victim's brother, said that they were near the Marine Corps together and that they had returned home Monday of last week on a 30-day leave from their assignment at Headquarters and Service Battery, First 155 Gun Battalion, Marine Training Center, 29 Palms, Calif.

The two brothers had been together since entering the Marine Corps in January, 1956. They had taken their boat training at the San Diego (Calif.) Marine Base and their advanced basic at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The victim had attended Burlington High School and was employed by the Kroger Store in Erlanger, prior to entering the service.

Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. Helen Faulkner; three other brothers, William Faulkner, Jr., and Donald Faulkner, both of Covington, and William Frederick, Erlanger, and a sister, Miss Helen Faulkner, at home.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Radcliff funeral home, Covington. Burial was in Maple Grove Cemetery, Cleveland, Ohio.

Here's how to lay water pipes between farm buildings so they need never be dug up: Lay a 4-inch line of cement-joint sewer pipe or composition asphalt pipe in the trench and simply push the water pipe through it so it can be removed for repairs. In case of freezes, hot air can be blown through the jacket pipe for thawing.

OAK RIDGE

Ritchie-Clark

Mrs. Hershel Campbell of Plantation Heights, announces the marriage of her sister, Pauline Ritchie, to Bruce Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark of Erlanger. The wedding took place on Saturday, February 2, at the Hickory Grove Baptist Church, Rev. Frank Lipscomb officiating. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom attended.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white-embroidered nylon with a fitted bodice and white cap sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white roses.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Hershel Campbell, who wore a fitted gown of white and gold with blue accessories.

The groom had as his best man, Mr. Dennis Ritchie, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony the wedding party attended a buffet supper at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's parents of Hindman, Ky., were unable to attend the ceremony because of the recent flood in that area.

Both the bride and groom are teachers at Taylor Mill School.

There is still quite a bit of sickness in our community. Kevin Tallent and Fran Thompson had measles this past week. Mrs. John Fogel of Klette Road is quite ill at her. Mrs. Mabel Fortner is still suffering from a skin infection. Mrs. Betty Jones hurt her back and has been in bed several days. W. O. Mitchell has been quite ill from a virus infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Crawford (nee Muffel Hutchins) became the proud parents of a 7 lb., 5 oz. baby boy on February 5, at St. Luke Hospital. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

Frank Clendenin of Wayside Drive, was injured last week when his car went out of control on Taylor Mill Pike and struck a tree.

Mrs. Jill Joegers and daughter, Marilyn, spent the weekend in Beattyville. We were sorry to hear of the death of Charles Sout of Latonia Lakes. He died in Booth Hospital as a result of a heart attack suffered several weeks ago.

CRITTENDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Malden Belew and son Eugene of Williamstown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wagner, Saturday evening.

Lawrence Pettit and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, their third heir.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pugh and daughter have moved from the apartment of Mrs. Letha Brauner to the apartment of the late Bud Dailey house.

Miss Sarah Mae Hiel spent the week with friends in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shearer, Lawrenceburg, Ind., spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Piner returned home Thursday after spending several days with Mrs. Piner's mother, Mrs. McKee, at Flemingsburg, Ky.

Mrs. Mary Reed has been visiting friends in Richmond, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Osa Holton and two children of Dry Ridge, were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Hiel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Woodward and son of Williamstown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Olan Piner, Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Jones entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones and Dr. and Mrs. Joe Jones and family of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Clifford Gordon is suffering with a throat.

Misses Grace and Alpha Martz are moving from the May apartment to the apartment of Mrs. Mary Schneider.

Emery Wilson escaped serious injury last Thursday evening when he lost control of his car on a curve just north of Crittenden. His car was badly damaged.

CARD OF THANKS—

We would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone who helped us in any way since our home was destroyed by fire. We pray God will richly reward everyone of you. Again, from our hearts, we say thank you.

An Invitation to Our Farmer Friends

Dear Folks:

We're rolling out the red carpet for you here at our store. We want you to be our guests on John Deere Day.

You know, this day is planned just for you—and, of course, all the relatives and friends you want to bring along. We've whipped up a program everybody will like.

There'll be movies galore, including the full-color feature... "Heaven to Betsy" a film so homey it will draw you right inside it. Of course, Tom Gordon—the perennial John Deere Day favorite—will be back with a laugh and a lesson, and then, too, you'll see a lot more, including the new J. D. Tractors and other equipment at work in the field.

Now—don't miss it. Plan to come and spend the day. And, remember— it's our treat. If you haven't received your tickets by now, call for them at our store.

And don't forget the date!

- Date: Saturday, February 16
- Place: Our Store

Truth Is Alive

Lesson for February 17, 1957

HOW do you explain advanced mathematics to children who don't know what 2x2 means? Jesus had an equally hard time trying to explain what he meant by the Kingdom of God. (By the way, comparison of passages will show that Kingdom of God and of "heaven" mean just the same thing.) Nearly everything he said about it has been persistently misunderstood by somebody or other. Harder than explained a totally new idea is transforming an old one, and Jesus had this more difficult task for many of his contemporaries, both friends and enemies, though they knew what "Kingdom of God" meant, already, and they did not want to be told.

A Definition

We can venture a definition of the Kingdom of God to which most persons will agree: The state of things in which God's will is wholly done by all men in all things. Many persons will agree to that definition; but it leaves several questions unanswered. One of these questions is dealt with in the parables chosen for this week's study. It is this: How does the Kingdom grow, or spread, or come? This is an especially important question if we understand that it is a part of God's plan to use his servants—meaning and including ourselves too—to help bring the Kingdom to pass, to bring it out of the world of hope into the world of fact and experience. Most churches sing the hymn: "Rise up, O men of God!" They do not sing the parody on it which begins, "Sit down, O men of God, you cannot do a thing!"

Not by Force

But suppose we do rise up to work for the Kingdom, what shall we do?

Good men have long asked themselves that question, and sometimes given wrong answers. Some have thought that the reign of God could be forced on men. So we have had the Crusades, the Inquisition, the New England "theocracies", Calvin in Geneva and Cromwell in England—all working on the same theory: You can force people to do God's will. This can become like heaven if your police force is good enough.

Not by Machines

But that never has worked. It can't work, because the Kingdom of God is not that sort of thing. So, other good but mistaken men have supposed that the way the Kingdom spreads abroad is by a copying system of some kind, let us say by a vast mimeographing machine. Some particular person, or period, or institution, is taken as the absolute pattern; and people are encouraged to imitate it to the last detail. For example, the early Christian church, as described in the book of Acts, is taken by some people as the picture of the ideal church, and all churches (it is said) should be as nearly exact copies of it as is possible. Or the social and political organization set forth in the laws of Moses are taken to describe the ideal state, and we to-day should imitate that if we want to get the perfect society. Or some ancient saint is taken as the exact model of every one who wants to be a good person. But these notions are all off center. No world and no institution and no age or system in the past was perfect even for that day; and when you take something that was imperfect yesterday and try to make it fit today, the result is more imperfect than ever.

The Kingdom Is a Living Thing

Jesus' parables show how the Kingdom of God really spreads and grows. He called it once a kingdom of truth; and truth is a living thing. Truth cannot be forced upon people. Mere copying of truth is mechanical and may even be meaningless. Truth grows the way a plant does, the way yeast does in dough; silently, steadily, by the sheer power of the life that is in it. But since the Kingdom of God is made up of people, since the truth of Christ is not one to be read about but one to be lived out, the Kingdom of God, the world of his heart's desire, comes into being by the personal touch of life on life. Truth spreads from life to life only as it spreads from soul to soul.

ARE YOU PUZZLED TOO?

Here is a young lady who's puzzled. She has all the pieces at her fingertips but how to make them fit into the finished pattern—that's her problem.

And it's your problem, too! Life is full of odd pieces which just don't seem to fit into any kind of sensible pattern. There are the odd pieces of sorrow and joy, of suffering and health, of doubt and faith, of evil and good, of death and life, and it sometimes seems as if we never could make them fit into a pattern which makes sense.

And yet there is a pattern for your life—and every life. God knows the pattern and wants to help you find it.

The key to the puzzle of life is a Cross. And the Church, with its message of the Cross of Christ, can help make the odd pieces in the puzzle of your life fall into the finished pattern: a life of confidence and courage and serenity.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

WHITES TOWER

Several nice cropies and bluegills have been caught in lakes near the Tower the past week, as it seems the warm spell has brought them out from hibernation. Watch out for some delightful weather this week as our old reliable almanac says you had better trim your fruit and shade trees as the real cold weather is over for 1957.

Got any old hats to sell—so, call FL 7-5432 before next Sunday.

Old Sol peeked through the clouds Sunday about 11 a. m., which was a pleasant surprise to all. We only hope it is permanent.

The writer has a rather peculiar hobby, that of collecting epitaphs from tombstones, and also comic ones from newspapers and magazines, so we thought it might be a change to put one in our news each week. Here is a funny one from the Chicago Ledger of 1896: "Down the muzzle of a shotgun blew careless Eli Hatch, they found his head next morning in Jobson's cabbage patch."

The Jump family was involved in two accidents of duets the past week. Jerry Jump died in an accident while the other, no relation, was more fortunate in that he suffered no serious injuries.

Carse Brinkley and family and Lester were called to Opelika, Ala., on account of the death of their father who died of a brain hemorrhage. Nine children and 20 grandchildren survive.

The writer's wife has a baby bed, almost like new, which she will sell reasonable.—EJR

It takes about 1 1/4 cups of cottage cheese of 1 1/2 ounces of processed or cheddar cheese to equal the nutrients found in one cup of milk.

Resolutions of Respect:

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Verona Bank, held in its office in Verona, Ky., on the 5th day of February, 1957, there was a vacant seat occasioned by the death of our associate W. T. Renaker, who has served as a member of our board for the past twenty-one years, giving his excellent ability and time wholeheartedly to the advancement and security of the bank.

The members of the board are deeply grieved over the loss of such a stalwart, untiring and able associate. Now, therefore, in open session by motion the following resolution was adopted:

BE IT RESOLVED—in the passing of W. T. Renaker, the Verona Bank has lost a valuable executive, one whose place will be hard to fill; that Boone County has lost one of its most upright, honorable and valuable citizens; that his family has lost a kind and affectionate husband and father. Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be printed in the Walton Advertiser, a copy sent to the bereaved family, and a copy spread upon the minutes of the Verona Bank Committee.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION—

I want to express my thanks and appreciation to everyone who sent me cards, flowers and handkerchiefs; to the Woman's Auxiliary, also Fire Chief Cecil Ishmael; for their wonderful cards from the Kenton and Community Fire Department; thanks to Rev. Frank Kuriger for coming to the hospital and at my home, for his blessed reading and prayers; the nurses, Sisters and Priest at the hospital and our little Priest here at Morning View, who said blessings for me at the hospital and home, was Father Geisner. I was at St. Elizabeth Hospital for one week. Thanks to God I am home after a high pressure blood hemorrhage.

MARY K. CHEESEMAN

Sales of chicken meat increased from 13 pounds to 21 pounds per son annually between 1935 and 1955; in the same period, turkey sales jumped from less than 2 pounds to 5 pounds per person.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are sorry to report D. B. Vondlandingham is quite ill in the hospital. We certainly wish him a speedy recovery.

We are very glad to learn Howard Stafford is improving and they are expecting him home from the hospital the latter part of this week.

The Staffordburg church was very proud of its attendance Sunday morning of the eleven o'clock service. More than we have had in over a year. Our pastor, Rev. Parish, was overjoyed to see so many out. We hope the sun will shine again next Sunday. All come back next Sunday and bring someone with you and let's try to fill every vacant seat. Everyone is welcome.

Remember to read your bulletin for the quarterly meeting will be at 8 p. m. Rev. Ogles will be with us and they are planning to discuss some important church matters. Don't fail to be present at 8:00.

Mrs. Wynford Riley and wife daughter, Sandra, returned home to Lexington, Saturday after several days visit with relatives in this community. Her husband, Wynford, was called to West Virginia for a few days, on business.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish and Mrs. Devie Kennedy attended a church meeting at Falmouth, last Monday. They reported a very pleasant day.

Mr. and Mrs. Carse Brinkley and sons have returned home from a week's visit with relatives in Alabama.

Mrs. W. E. Hanna spent one day last week with Mrs. Daisy Richardson, who has been a shut-in most of the winter. Mrs. Joe Richardson and daughter, Mrs. George Finnell, Jr., attended the funeral of Mrs. Wayne Richardson's grandmother at Williamstown, last Thursday.

Mrs. Donald Loney and little son returned home the latter part of the week from a couple of weeks visit with her parents in Owenston.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul entertained Sunday for her daughter, Mrs. Johnnie Haner and husband of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and little son.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley.

Ira M. Tanner Is Candidate for Jailer In Boone County

Ira M. Tanner, Florence, formally announced his candidacy for jailer of Boone county, last week, subject to the Democratic primary to be held May 28, 1957.

Mr. Tanner was born at Florence, and has three girls and five boys, was a dairy farmer and operated a restaurant and gas station on Highway 42, Florence, in 1946. He was associated with Chakares Treaties, Inc., Springfield, Ohio. In September, 1949, operated a gas station on U. S. 42 at Beaver Lick, Boone county. In May of 1953, he opened a grocery store on Evergreen Drive, Florence, where he is now located.

In his formal announcement, Mr. Tanner said, "I have never before asked for public office of any kind. I am now asking the people of this county to elect me jailer of Boone county, and I promise, if elected, I will fulfill the office to the best of my ability."

RURAL HEALTH MEET

A co-sponsoring plan is being developed by the Boone County Committee for the 1957 National Conference on Rural Health, to be held in Louisville, March 7, 8 and 9, it was announced this week by Mrs. John E. Crigler, County Chairman.

The plan is part of the committee's effort to be sure that Boone county is well represented at the conference, sponsored for leaders by the American Medical Association Council on Rural Health.

Persons willing to drive their cars and carry passengers to the conference, either for one day or the entire meet, are requested to contact Mrs. Crigler. Persons who would like to go, but have no transportation, should contact a committee member.

Members of the Boone County Committee, besides the chairman, are: John E. Crigler, Beckham Shields; Mrs. Grant Maddox, Dr. Virginia Krotz; Boone County Health Director; Mrs. Mary Cress, R. N., Boone County Health Nurse; Mrs. Joseph Hogan, and Mrs. James E. Falls.

Bake Sale at Independence

The Loyal Workers Class of Independence Christian Church will sponsor a bake sale at Gross Electric Shop in Independence on Saturday, February 23, starting at 10 a.m. Proceeds to go to Missionary Fund. Please help us!

Soil Conservation Essay

In November of 1956 there was a Soil Conservation Essay contest held, the topic was "How Fish and Wildlife Can Benefit My Community." There were about 25,350 essays written and sent in from all over the state for judging in December.

David Webster, a member of the Sophomore class of Simon Kenton High was runner-up in the county. He was sent a reward of merit for his fine work.

Completes Basic Training

Pvt. Robert E. Bell

Pvt. Robert E. Bell, son of Mrs. Richard Bell, Independence, was scheduled to complete eight weeks of basic combat training February 16 under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox. Men volunteering for the six-months tour of active duty are permitted to finish their military service in a local Army Reserve or National Guard unit. Bell is a former employee of the Dixie Chevrolet Sales, Walton.

To Honor Liggett Family Friday

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Liggett and children, Tommy and Peggy

The Walton Christian Church will honor its members who have made the church their life work with a potluck dinner Friday night at 7:30.

At present there are two who have gone into church vocations. Mrs. Virginia Liggett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore, is a missionary working in the Latin American field for the United Christian Missionary Society. Raymond Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watson, is the minister of the Menioe (La) First Christian Church.

Mrs. Liggett and her two children, Tommy, 12, and Peggy, 8, are spending their furlough from the mission field in Walton. Mr. Liggett will join them in the early summer after he finishes his doctoral dissertation for his Ph.D. degree. Mr. Liggett has been professor of church history at the Union Theological Seminary in Buenos Aires. His thesis will be on Juan Valdez, early Spanish reformer, and will be submitted to Union Theological Seminary of New York, where he has done his advanced work.

The Liggetts will return to Puerto Rico instead of Argentina when they return to the mission field. Mr. Liggett has been called to be president of the Union Theological Seminary in San Juan. The seminary serves the Protestant churches in Cuba, Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Colombia, San Salvador, as well as those of Puerto Rico. The school is sponsored by the American Baptists, Congregational Christians, Evangelical Union, Brethren, Methodists, Presbyterians, and Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

Mrs. Liggett, formerly professor of religious education, will speak on the church as a calling of God and will present the church as a worthy vocation for youth. The youth of the church will be special guests of the evening.

The CP's, junior weekday group, will sing, as will a special quartet. The minister, Rev. George Fiske, will be the master of ceremonies.

The dinner is being sponsored by the women's groups of the church under the leadership of their presidents, Mrs. J. G. Rouse, Mrs. June Sleet, and Mrs. Finley Jacobs, Jr.

Members and friends of the church are invited to come and hear Mrs. Liggett, who so recently underwent the dangers of the Argentine revolution.

Boone Garden Club Meets at Florence Community Center

The Boone Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, February 12, at the Florence Community Center. The hostesses were Mesdames Garrison, Roberts, Hensley and Carter. The tea service and refreshments featured the homespun atmosphere as Lincoln might have been served at a neighbor's house—earthen crockery and wooden trays and bowls—very simple and truly American.

Mrs. F. J. Hommesmith read the Resolutions of Respect in memory of Mrs. Sam Denham, Sr., who passed away February 6. And Mrs. A. A. Liggett read "The Gentle Gardener," by Edgar A. Guest, also in memory of Mrs. Denham.

The program consisted of a presentation of facts and pictures by Mrs. Liggett about the permanent home of the National Council of State Garden Clubs which is being built on ground donated by the Missouri Botanical Gardens, known also as Shaw Gardens, in Saint Louis. The home will cost $300,000 and will house the national offices, records and archives, permanently.

Mrs. Liggett showed plans and drawings by the architects for the building which will be pink Georgia granite and is now in the process of construction. St. Louis was chosen for the location because of its geographical position in the country and its cultural opportunities and background and the world-famous Shaw Gardens, second only to those in Kew, England, which are the finest in the world. The club donated 100% to this fund.

Bake Sale; Car Wash

The senior class of Walton-Vernon High School is sponsoring a bake sale at the Phoenix Restaurant, Walton, on Saturday, February 23, beginning at 9:00 a.m.

There will also be a car wash on the same date at the Fire House. Hours will be from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and the charge will be $1.00 per car. This project is to help sponsor an educational senior class trip. Please support this worthwhile endeavor.

Card Party and Social

The ladies of St. Cecilia Parish of Independence will hold their monthly card party and social on Wednesday, February 27th from 1 to 4 p.m. in the church basement. Donation 50c with refreshments included. The public is invited to attend.

LADY DEMOCRATS MEET

The Woman's Democratic Club of Boone county, met at the Honeycomb Restaurant, Burlington, on Tuesday, February 5, at 8:00 p.m., with Mrs. Joe Dringenburg, president, presiding. Fourteen members were present.

The by-laws and constitution of the club were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ted Heile.

Ten couples are planning to attend the Jackson dinner-dance, given by the Kenton County club at the Sinton Hotel, Cincinnati, February 23.

The Club is having a bake and open sale February 23, in Florence.

Kenton 4-H Club Meets

The Kenton and community 4-H club held its first meeting of the new 4-H year in the basement of the newly-erected St. Matthews school.

Eddie Fisk presided at the business session. Among the officers elected were Buddy Beck, president; Madeline Cross, vice-president; Patsy Jackson, secretary-treasurer; Sandra Lawler, reporter; Bobby Jackson, sergeant-at-arms. Sixteen members were present, and after the meeting refreshments were served and gifts exchanged.

Pre-Lenten Social

St. Cecilia Parish, Independence, will sponsor a pre-lenten social on Saturday, evening February 23 at 8 p.m. in the school basement. Donation 50c, homemade doughnuts and coffee included. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Methodist Class to Meet

The Young Adult Class of the Walton Methodist Church will meet Friday evening, February 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doggett. All members are urged to be present and visitors are welcome.

Recuperating from Operation

Friends of Mrs. William McPherson (nee Toofsee Aulton) of Senour Road, Kenton county, will be glad to know she is doing nicely at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, following surgery, ten days ago.

F.F.A. Membership Made Up of Farm Youth In High School

Membership in the F. F. A. is made up of farm boys who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. Their organization's activities are designed primarily to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishment in farming.

The Simon Kenton F. F. A. chapter has 33 members. Officers are: President, Larry Smith; vice president, Jim Courtney; secretary, Frank Barberick; treasurer, Harry Riegler; sentinel, Alvin Gibson; and reporter, Melvin Whitaker. John Gray, vocational agriculture instructor in Simon Kenton High School, serves as advisor of the FFA chapter.

The national Future Farmer organization has more than 382,000 members, with 8,990 local chapters in the forty-eight states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Membership in Kentucky totals 12,000.

Deadline April 15 In Conservation Program

Kenton Elementary P.T.A.

This evening, the Kenton Elementary P.T.A. will observe Founders' Day in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. George Dowkins, Founders' Day chairman, will introduce the guest, Mrs. Clyde Scherv, of the Speakers Bureau of Civil Defense.

Mrs. Minerva Riggs, music director at the school, will present a boys' chorus, who will sing a few selections. A silver tea will be held in the cafeteria.

A room award will be presented to the room having the largest percentage of parent members present.

R. S. Hensley Again Candidate for Office Of Circuit Court Clerk

R. S. (Schuyler) Hensley of Florence, Kentucky, Circuit Court Clerk of Boone County, formally announces his candidacy for re-election.

Mr. Hensley is widely known in Boone County, having operated a general store in Bellevue for more than twenty-three years, and has been a director of the Citizens Deposit Bank of Bellevue for the past thirty years.

R. S. (Schuyler) Hensley

Mr. Hensley and his wife are active members in the Florence Baptist Church, and they have two children, a son, H. R. Hensley, who is President of the Fort Thomas Bank, Fort Thomas, Ky., and a daughter, Mrs. M. F. Ligon of Florence.

In making his announcement, Mr. Hensley made the following statement: "To the people of Boone County—I have performed the duties of my office the past five years with an honest, sincere effort to give the best service possible to one and all alike, and if re-elected, feel that I can render even better service because of past experience. Your support is earnestly solicited in the coming primary election, May 28."

Local Chairman Urges Farmers To Sign Now

Boone county farmers are advised that contracts for starting in the Conservation Reserve program this year must be signed on or before April 15. After that date, according to A. L. Stephens, chairman of the Boone County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, no more contracts involving annual payments for 1957 will be accepted.

Chairman Stephens explains that Congress has authorized payments to producers under the Conservation Reserve program which will not exceed $450 million in any calendar year. Money for payments has been allocated to the states and counties. Funds not used by a county by the April 15 closing date will be reappropriated to other counties which have a "waiting" list. Unused funds in a state may go to other states with "waiting" lists. As more farmers sign contracts, the increasing number of farmers who will receive annual payments in succeeding years will reduce the funds available for new farmers to enter the program.

Bringing the situation closer to home, he points out that the initial allocation to Boone county for the 1957 Conservation Reserve program is $37,000.00. Part of that will be used for annual payments to the relatively few farmers who signed contracts last fall. The balance is available for those who sign contracts before April 15. Assuming a "full" sign-up this year, a greater part of the funds available to the county for next year will be used for making annual payments. To that extent there will be reduced funds for initial payments for those who wait until next year to sign up.

"Tick" Shields Seeks Office of Coroner In Boone County

A. Clinton "Tick" Shields, Walton, announces his candidacy this week for the office of Coroner of Boone County, subject to action of the Democratic primary, Tuesday, May 28, 1957.

Mr. Shields, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Beckham Shields, was born and has spent his entire life in Boone county, and is a graduate of New Haven High School, class of 1947. In 1951 he completed his training and graduated from the Cincinnati College of Embalming and has been a licensed embalmer and funeral director since that time.

A. Clinton "Tick" Shields

In 1953 he married Miss Colleen Vallandigham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Vallandigham, Walton, and has been connected with the management of the Walton Garage for the past three years. He is a member of Walton Masonic Lodge, 719, and 32nd Degree Scottish Rite.

In his statement, Mr. Shields said, "I earnestly solicit the support of every voter in Boone county, and if chosen by you to fill this office, I will endeavor to serve to the best of my ability."

Harold Cecil Lipscomb underwent a tonsilectomy last Saturday and is recuperating at home.

Reading Signs

Lesson for February 24, 1957

ALL human beings, civilized or not, are used to reading signs. Indeed all human communication and life goes by sign-language. Words, printed or spoken, are signs. No word on a page looks like the thing it represents. It is no more than a set of marks, but the way the marks are arranged makes meaning for all who can read. Expression of people's faces, gestures, road signs, we learn to interpret before we can read! The farmer looks for weather signs, the fisherman and the hunter have their own signs to look for. There are few people so stupid that they see only what they see.

Wanted: A Sign!

When Jesus was teaching and healing in Galilee, he was doing so without any official authorization from what we would call the church. And yet he claimed to speak and work with the authority of God. The church officials did not take this easily. They kept pestering him: "Show us a sign!" they said. How do we know you are right? How do we know what you say is from God? To this day there are people who are not satisfied with what God has shown us. They want to know: How do we know the Bible is true? How do we know Jesus was the Son of God? If the preacher would let himself be bitten by rattlesnakes, without getting hurt; if the stars arranged themselves in the sky so as to spell a personal message from heaven; if some modern Joshua would make the sun stand still, such people think they would find it easier to believe.

The Signs Are Up

Jesus steadily refused to produce any such "sign from heaven" as he was challenged to call down.

True, he worked miracles, but it is evident that the kind of miracles he did were not the kind of "sign" the Pharisees wanted. His mighty works were always simply and quietly done, out of sympathy with human suffering. They were never done in dramatic, showy fashion. Never in the childish way: See Me do this—don't you think I'm Wonderful? Jesus told the Pharisees that the signs of the times were there to be read. By "times" he did not mean years or dates. He meant what in the Old Testament usage, with which both Jesus and the Pharisees were familiar, the "times of God's visitation," the special era of God's visiting the earth and man for special purposes. In all of Jesus' work and words was the claim, made outright or implied, that God was in and back of it all. The Pharisees wanted some sign that this was true, some sign outside Jesus. But Jesus was the only sign there was. If they could not see God in him they could not see God any other way. So it is today. Jesus is still the Sign of God.

Wanted: Eyes!

The Kingdom of God is at its core a kingdom of souls, of the spirit; and the signs of its coming are spiritual. An atheist was once asked what it would take to make him believe in God, and his answer was, "Trot him out and let me see him do something!" Well, God cannot be led around on a leash. But he is doing things all the time, for those who have eyes to see. The beauty and the order and grandeur of the universe speak of his power and glory. The goodness and the grace that we see in the lives of men and women speak of the creative Goodness that made such persons. Furthermore, God is at work every day, transforming lives. The great miracle is not turning stones into bread but sinners into saints. The great miracle is men and women who live above the rules and standards of ordinary mankind, men and women who already in this noisy world have found the melodies of heaven. When you read in the Bible, especially in Jesus' teaching, an invitation and challenge to high, pure, brave living, and you think, "This is asking too much, this is beyond human nature," remember there are people who actually do live "beyond human nature" as you say, because they have been touched by the Divine. Such men and women are the living signs of God.

ANSWER THIS QUESTION

Am I My Brother's Keeper?

Those words do come from the Bible. And they have sometimes been quoted to justify a man's lack of concern for the welfare of others.

When we quote Scripture we must be careful WHOM we are quoting!

It was Cain, the first murderer, who asked that biting question. God had said, "Where is Abel, thy brother?" And Cain was trying to escape the consequences of his crime.

Each of us is responsible for his brother's welfare. That is the very reason this feature is appearing in your newspaper.

You and your family need the spiritual resources our churches offer. In whichever Christian congregation you select there are waiting to welcome you many men and women and young people whose faith has taught them a deep concern for their brothers.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs its moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By GU Kingsberry

No Kentuckians:

When Maysville's Stanley Reed leaves the Supreme Court the end of this month, an era will come to a close.

For many years Kentucky had three native sons on the high court—Chief Justice Vinson, Justice Reed, and Justice Wiley Rutledge, Kentucky-born, although Rutledge had another state.

By the time this reaches print, the President may have named a new judge but thus far no Kentuckian has been nominated.

Executive Director:

Kentucky's Earle Clements has accepted appointment as executive director of the Senate Democratic Campaign Committee, to the great pleasure of the Democrats in the Upper House. Day after day, Democratic senators of all persuasions visited his office to persuade him to take the post. They felt they needed an old "pro" to do the job.

Politicians were not the only ones knocking on the Clements' door. He received more than one offer from private industry before making his decision—to stay in the business he knows best—politics.

A Handful:

The Senate has confirmed several hundred appointments and promotions to the diplomatic service. However, only nine Kentuckians were on the list, which may indicate that Blue Grass folks are not interested in foreign affairs. Most of the appointments came from the eastern states.

The Kentuckians appointed or promoted include William H. McLean, Robert B. Williams, Scott George, James S. Sutterlin, John G. Mein, Edmund A. Gullion, David E. Simcox, Maxwell K. Berry, and Bryan Cowherd. No home towns were listed.

Also confirmed at the same time was the appointment of Douglas MacArthur II to be ambassador to Japan. Mrs. MacArthur is a daughter of the late Vice-President Barkley.

Wrapping It Up:

Recent demands to purchase an official home for the Vice-President recalls that Kentucky's Congressman Noble Gregory introduced such a bill when Senator Barkley was the veep.

The latest bill providing federal aid for education calls for Uncle Sam to give the state almost $9 million.

Figures released here show that various companies spent—or contracted—for $15 billion in new plant construction included are plants at Carrollton, Casey, Henderson and Louisville. A Kentuckian, Colonel J. B. Davis, U. S. alumnus, is chief of claims for the United States Air Force. His former home is Kenton county.

Oak Island Homemakers

The Oak Island Homemakers met recently in the Sunday School room of the church with Mrs. Arthur Steeley president, presiding. Eleven members were present for an all-day meeting.

The first four steps in seat caning were given by the leaders, Mrs. Arthur Steeley and Mrs. Donald Riddell.

Miss Zelma Byerly, home demonstration agent, visited the club and gave a talk on the weaving of stool seats.

Members present were Mesdames: Arthur Steeley, Frank Jackson, Alvin Oliver, Edward Kerr, O. B. Black, Robert Wainwright, Donald Riddell, Russell Rector, Sherman Barberick, Albert Martin and Miss Nell Niehof.

Homemakers Clubs Aid In Community Needs

How homemakers in Kentucky are broadening their interests beyond their own doorsteps was noted in a report made at UK Home Week by Mrs. S. N. Brooks of Shepherdsville, state chairman of the citizenship committee of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers Clubs.

Five hundred and sixty-four homemakers clubs sponsored 4-H clubs, and 1,664 homemakers served as leaders the past year.

A total of 1,868 packages of food and clothing were sent to other countries, and $12,383 was given to local welfare and educational projects.

All 12 districts made a study of the country of Ceylon, where the ACWW will hold in July its delayed triennial meeting. Ten other countries in the Middle East were also studied.

Six hundred and seventy-one homemakers wrote to pen-friends in 41 different countries, and 387 International Day programs were held.

Throughout the state, homemakers clubs have directed their efforts toward the beautification of public parks, church grounds, cemeteries, and roadsides.

Number of retail groceries in the US is shrinking—but those still in business are individually larger, a survey shows.

Hughes Chapel W. S. C. S.

Hughes Chapel Methodist Church W. S. C. S. met for regular meeting February 13. Valentine Day was used for the decorative theme. A covered dish lunch was extra interesting with the addition of a beautiful pink and white heart-shaped cake. Then the group settled down to the more serious, informative and worship part of the meeting. Program subject was "Whom Shall I Send?" The purpose was to focus attention on the urgent need for well qualified, dedicated young people to answer the call to full-time-Christian service, and to present some of the qualifications and requirements for such service. A sincere dedication and commitment to God must be first of all. High educational standards must be met.

There is a great variety of kinds of mission work being done today. No longer does full-time service mean just preaching or directing Christian education. Those are vital spots but also there are places for social group workers, case workers, for all kinds of hospital workers such as administrators, laboratory technicians, nurses, etc.

Assisting with the program were Mrs. Joe Wood, Mrs. Walter Robinson, Mrs. Elsie Allen and Mrs. Shirley Guard. Mrs. Lula Hudson and Mrs. Pearl Bedinger led in prayer. Mrs. Clarence Struve led meditation and read scripture.

Stop for Buses, Sturgill Warns

Acting Safety Commissioner Don S. Sturgill has urged continued alertness on the part of Kentucky drivers when approaching or following school buses. To pass a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge passengers is a violation of Kentucky law, he pointed out.

Meat production for the first eleven months of 1956 was up 6 percent from the 1955 figures, says the USDA.

Public Sale

Having decided to quit the dairy business, I will sell at auction, at the Murphy Farm, directly across U. S. Highway 25 from the Gay 90's Cafe, between Crittenden and Bracht Station, in Kenton County, on THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1957 - 10 A. M.

Cecilia 4-H Club Meets

The Cecilia 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening, February 18, at 8:00 p. m., in the St. Cecilia School, Independence. There were 45 members present and seven absent.

Following roll call, the minutes were read by Judy Hayes, secretary-treasurer. A bake sale was discussed, which will be held June 8. Tom Riley, Associate County Agent, spoke about the talent show to be held in the county. The date of the next meeting was set for March 18. A movie was then enjoyed, which showed actual scenes of the life of Jim Jimma in 1945. The picture was brought by Mr. Riley and enjoyed by Monsignor Lubrecht, pastor. After the movie, refreshments and dancing were enjoyed. Girls in Group 11' out on quips and potshots. All had a wonderful time.

Lambs receiving poultry feather meal as a protein supplement gained just as rapidly as lambs fed conventional soybean oil protein supplement, in tests in Minnesota.

Piner Homemakers

The February meeting of the Piner Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Steve Rich, with twenty-two members present.

The main event of the day was the lesson on coning chair bottoms, very ably presented by Mrs. Fred McMillan and Mrs. Chester Mullins. The first four steps were shown.

Mrs. William Wood encouraged members to plant flowering shrubs or evergreens at the entrance to their farm or home for beautification purposes.

Mrs. John Dwyer read several interesting letters she had received from ladies from all over the U. S., concerning Homemakers Club work and cake decorating in particular. As a result her picture and an article are being published in the newspapers.

Mrs. Clifford Cavanaugh gave a report of the Advisory Council meeting. Mrs. A. Pellizzari gave a talk on her recent trip to Italy. Mrs. William Wolterman talked on her visit to Canada, and Mrs. Owen Flynn told many interesting things about her trip to Texas, Arkansas and into Mexico.

Those present were Mrs. Clifford Cavanaugh, Mrs. John Dwyer, Mrs. Leslie Smith, Mrs. William Woods, Mrs. Fisk, Mrs. Amos Lunsford, Mrs. Chester Mullins, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. James Kidwell, Mrs. William Wolterman, Mrs. John Lunsford, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. E. H. Spaulding, Mrs. Angela Pellizzari, Mrs. Clarence Duncan, Mrs. Steve Rich, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Roy Tomlin, Mrs. R. W. Elliott, Mrs. Charles Flynn, Mrs. Marion Martin, Mrs. Owen Flynn, and a visitor, Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Roy Tomlin gave a talk on Abraham Lincoln and encouraged members to give to the Heart Fund.

Verona Homemakers

The Verona Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Edith Hamilton. The president, Mrs. A. M. Davis, was in charge. Roll call was followed by the regular business session. Lunch was served and a social hour followed. The group enjoyed some music by Mrs. Bessie Mills, a guest.

Those attending: Mrs. Arch Noel, Mrs. Doris Burchett and son, Dallas, Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mrs. Etta McManama, Mrs. W. B. McCormick, Mrs. Ethel Fooks, Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, Mrs. Lillian Jackson, W. B. McCormick and Mr. Hamilton.

Goshen Missionary Society

The women of the Goshen Christian Mission met in the basement of the Goshen Christian Church for their monthly meeting, February 13th.

In the afternoon they visited the Old Ladies Home at 7th and Garrard St., Covington. The women of the Mission had a program for the old ladies. Read Scripture, prayer, song songs, and Mrs. Edna Callen gave two readings, then they treated the ladies with a bag of home-made cookies for each and cup cakes. The visit was enjoyed by all. Those attending were Mrs. Edna Callen, Mrs. Ruby Worthington, Mrs. Ruth Worthington, Mrs. Gladys Colston, Mrs. Rachel Daniels, Mrs. Susie Beagle, Mrs. Margaret McMillan, Mrs. Inez Vastine, Mrs. Nancy Cliff Fisk and Sue Ellen, Mrs. Eula LaFollette and Rondo, Mrs. Nettie Mann, Mrs. Joan Ashcraft and Mrs. Janice Morgan, Pam and Karen.

The High School "Spotlight"

Masil Allen

In the High School Spotlight this month is Masil Allen, a member of the senior class.

She is 18 years old, born on the first day of February, 1939. She is five feet, five inches tall, has brown hair, and green eyes.

She is a member of the Dramatics Club and Pep Club. Masil has been a cheerleader for five years, two years for the midjet team, two years for the varsity, and one year for the junior varsity.

She has lived in Walton and attended school here practically all her life. In the summer of 1954 she went to Arabia with her mother and returned here in March to finish her sophomore year. Masil returns to Arabia each summer to visit her parents and then comes back for the school year. Her parents are coming home in May for her graduation and they are planning to go back to Arabia by boat in June. She now lives with Sara Dean Hance, another member of the senior class.

She plans to attend Eastern this fall and is of yet undecided on a career. We wish her the best of luck in the future.

Sara Dean Hance

In the High School Spotlight also, this month is Sara Dean Hance, a member of the senior class.

She is 17 years old, born October 25, 1939. She is five feet, four inches tall, and has light brown hair and blue eyes.

She is a member of the Pep Club, Dramatics Club, and is treasurer of the senior class. She was the treasurer of our freshman and junior years, also.

Sara Dean has been a cheerleader for four years, three years for the varsity and one year for the junior varsity.

Sara Dean has always lived in Walton and attended Walton-Verona School. After graduation in May, she plans to attend Eastern State College in the fall. She is going to major in commerce. We know she will be successful in all that she does.

Mrs. Mary Jane Trapp

Mrs. Mary Jane Trapp is originally from Walton, and is a graduate of Walton-Verona High School, in 1943. Mrs. Trapp attended Georgetown College and finished her schooling at the University of Kentucky. She married in Elementary Education. Previous to this year, she has taught nine years at Walton-Verona.

She is married to Mr. Lee Trapp and they have a little daughter, named Mary Ann. We are very happy to have Mrs. Trapp back with us again.

Mrs. Shields belongs to a number of clubs, which are, Medical Science Club, Pep Club, Women's League, Chi Omega Sorority, Phi Kappa Phi, Woodcock Society, and W. B. A.

After graduating from college, she married Clinton Shields, better known as "Tic."

All the juniors think Mrs. Shields is the best, and hope she will be here again next year.

SENIOR CLASS NOTES

The seniors had a bar-wash Saturday and it was a success.

Joyce Ann Schwab has been ill with tonsillitis, and Bobby Wood had his tonsils removed.

We are starting to work on the annual and if anyone has any pictures they would like in it, please bring them.

Six people were chosen to go get annual-ads in town and they were: Joyce Schwab, Lucille Speagle, Ray Green, Bobby Medley, Gary Stephenson, and Rodney Vest.

LITTLE THEATER CLUB PLANS NEW PRODUCTION

The Little Theater Club plans a new production around the first of March. The title of which is, "The Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams, a celebrated playwright.

Tryouts for the play will begin sometime this week. We had a meeting on January 30, and appointed a committee to see how many points each person should receive for the work they did in the last play.

We received $200.00 from the P. T. A. with which we bought lighting equipment for the stage. We plan to buy one large spotlight on a stand for close-ups.

We appreciate the help and consideration everyone has given us.

Sprayed heifers did not do as well in North Dakota feeding trials as did steers. A recent experiment there showed.

Another Southern Railway "FIRST"!

This is not only the first use of this new computer by the railroad industry. It is also the first commercial installation anywhere of this latest, largest and fastest version of the so-called "electronic brain," with twice the "remembering" capacity of even the best of previous models.

This new electronic miracle will give us continuous, up-to-date information with unbelievable speed and accuracy. Reports and studies that we were unable to make before now will be available to us.

It is one more "tool" to use in our never-ending effort to furnish the South with the best rail service it is humanly and mechanically possible to provide.

Volume 42 - Number 9

Past Presidents Are Honored at Meeting of Walton P. T. A.

The Walton P. T. A. met Thursday night, February 21, at 7:30, in the school. Mrs. Sue Miller, program leader, had a very good program observing Founders' Day.

Mrs. A. E. Atkinson gave the devotional, the parable of the talents, Matthew 25:14. She suggested each president carry the torch and pass it on to each succeeding president. She ended the devotional with prayer.

There were nine past presidents present and each was presented with a corsage. They were: Mrs. Hope Vest, her daughter, Mrs. Helen Jones, Mrs. Myrtle Young, Mrs. Mildred Vest, Mrs. Nicola Steers, Mrs. Mary Stephenson, Mrs. Mary Lee Hance, Mrs. Mary Rector, Mrs. Louise Rouse, Mrs. Lucille Hudson's room round the attendance of ward.

Final plans and committees were appointed by the president, Mrs. Helen Burgess, for the firemen's supper on February 26.

Cake and coffee was served in the lunch room after the program.

The next meeting will be held on March 20, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Roberta Steinhauer's accordion pupils will have the program.

Walton Masonic Lodge Meets
Walton Lodge, 719, F&AM, had its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, February 21.

Charles Bertley Roberts was elected by the brothers of the lodge to receive the three degrees of a Master Mason. Also, several other petitions for membership were accepted.

Willard Rice presented Dr. D. L. Maddox with his 25-year pin. Dr. Maddox has been a Master Mason since 1931 in the local lodge.

A large number attended this meeting and there were several brothers from other lodges also in attendance.

Refreshments were served, following the closing of the lodge, by Dan J. Roberts.

Buy's Purebred Shorthorn
Duane G. Platt of Green Road, Walton, has purchased Dume Rock Regal Quality 10th from Howard B. Hart of Lexington. The animal is a purebred Milking Shorthorn bull calf and the record of the transfer of ownership has been made by the American Milking Shorthorn Society of Springfield, Mo.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Noel Denham.

KENTON UTOPIA CLUB
The Kenton Utopia Club held a joint meeting with the American Spring Utopia Club at the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company, with Miss Virginia Crawford and Miss Helen Johnson as demonstrators of electrical appliances.

The district Utopia Club meeting is to be held March 8, at 6:30 p. m., at Warsaw, Ky. Reservations are to be in to Tom Tiley by March 1.

The state conference is to be held at a later date this year—it is March 30, at Lexington.

The county banquet was discussed and is to be held Wednesday, May 8, at 7:00 p. m., in Dixie Heights High School.

Miss Crawford and Miss Johnson served a very delicious lunch. Everyone enjoyed the meeting very much.

Young Adult Class Meets
The Young Adult Sunday School class of the Walton Methodist Church was entertained Friday evening, February 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doggett, Verona, for the regular monthly meeting.

The scripture and devotional was read by Ward Rice. The business session was conducted by the vice president, Wesley Burgess, in the absence of the president. The chief topic of business was a name for the class.

After the business session, games for the group were had by Mrs. Ward Rice. A delicious dessert course was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corliss and Connie, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rice and Michael, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doggett.

The class will be entertained next month at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Atkinson.

Tests on control of wild garlic show that a chemical called TBA does a good job, with little or no injury to desirable grasses in forage stands.

District Tourney Under Way at Lloyd High

Simon Kenton Pioneers will meet the finals of the lower bracket on Friday, March 1. Finals of the tournament will be played on Saturday, March 2. All games start at 8:00 and the price of admission is 75 cents. Robert Miller and Fox DeMoisey were elected to officiate the tournament.

Coaches elected the tournament to be played at Lloyd High School in the new Lloyd Memorial Auditorium, in Erlanger. Tournament manager will be Paul Champion.

Willon Stephens Seeks Re-election As County Tax Commissioner

Wilton E. Stephens again offers himself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Boone County Tax Commissioner.

Mr. Stephens, not yet 50 years of age, is now completing his sixth consecutive four-year term in that office. He literally "grew up" in serving the people of Boone County in tax assessment matters.

Until only recently he made a personal annual house-to-house canvass of the entire county on tax matters. Previous state administration revenue departments have said, over the years, that Boone County had one of the most fairly administered tax assessment programs of all the 120 counties in Kentucky.

In fact, last year, after Mr. Stephens had assessed the more than 8,000 pieces of property in the county, the Board of Equalization received only two appeals of his assessments, and both of these, after due deliberation and inspection, were disallowed.

Now, of course, due to the growth of the county, he is required to have additional help. Mr. Stephens said that Florence now requires more field work than did the entire county 24 years ago, when he first took office.

Boone still is one of the few counties in the state where taxpayers are visited by the tax commissioner or his deputies. In other counties most persons are required to go to the tax commissioner's office to list their property holdings.

Mr. Stephens, in his formal announcement, said: "Because of the overwhelming confidence and abiding faith of the people in my conduct of the office of County Tax Commissioner, over the past 24 years, the duties of the office have become, year after year, my extremely great pleasure. I knew I was serving to the best of my ability, and I felt confident the people were satisfied with my endeavors. So now, if your continued trust is indicated by returning me to this office, I again promise, as I did in the beginning, my very best for all the people in the future."

Never before has intimate, first-hand knowledge of the property and wide experience in placing assessments been so necessary in fixing tax values. Our county has changed so much. Instead of virtually all land being in farms at first, we now have an ultra-modern airport, gasoline and crude oil pipelines, a trotting track, a race track, factories, public utilities, physical assets of all descriptions, and, more important—real estate sub-divisions with thousands of homes.

Our intangible assessments (stocks, bonds, notes, etc.) almost equals the total assessment of all the property in the county when Mr. Stephens first took office.

Seasoned judgment, born of 24 years of sound experience, as well as plans, guides and manuals, are necessary in placing just and equitable values on Boone County property in this day and time.

Mr. Stephens is past president of the Kentucky Tax Commissioner's Association. He is a director of the Hebron Perpetual Building and Loan Association. A Mason, he is a member of the Burlington Baptist Church, Florence Lions Club, and Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association.

Bandit Victim Dies of Wounds Monday Nite

Literary Club to Meet

The regular meeting of the Walton Women's Literary Club will be held at the Phoenix Restaurant, Wednesday, afternoon, March 6, beginning at 2:00 o'clock, with Mrs. D. Hest Vest and Mrs. Clayton Jones as hostesses. A book review will be presented by Mrs. Leo Flynn. With call will be answered with "A thought from a recent book."

Services for Walter Craddock Today

A 68-year-old Union garageman, who was wounded in a holdup December 10 at his place of business, died Monday night at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Walter Craddock's death probably was connected with the shooting, Dr. Edward L. Smith, Kenton county coroner, reported.

Mr. Craddock, with the exception of a brief period, had been a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital since the shooting. He suffered a bullet wound in the right upper arm and side. The slug embedded itself close to the spine.

Dr. Smith, who was continuing his investigation of the shooting, said chest complications developed.

Allen Runion, 22, of Walton, Route 2, and William R. Centers, 19, of Verona, Route 1, who were captured less than five minutes after Mr. Craddock and his son, Harry, were held up and robbed of $61.00 at the service station-garage, are now serving life terms in LaGrange, on charges of shooting with intent to kill and armed robbery.

William P. McEvoy, Boone county attorney, said the youths might be returned to face additional grand jury action in April if the death proves to be a result of the shooting.

Services for Mr. Craddock, a member of the Big Bone Baptist Church, will be held at two o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence. Burial will be in Rice Cemetery, Union.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Nellie Rouse Craddock; one son, Harry W. Craddock, of Union; five daughters, Mrs. W. E. Butler of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. T. C. Crume, Jr., of Sellersburg, Ind.; Mrs. Lloyd Huff of Verona, Mrs. Jesse W. Thornton of Hamilton, Ohio, and Miss Bertie Craddock, at home; a sister, Mrs. Oscar Burdick of Mason, Ohio; three brothers, Tom Craddock of Hebron, Lee Craddock of Florence, and Russell Craddock of Union, and six grandchildren.

FHA SELECTS BEAU

The Future Homemakers of America of Simon Kenton High School held its Sweetheart Party in the school cafeteria on February 14, in honor of their Beau, Tom Stephenson.

About sixty attended, and many exciting games were enjoyed. Refreshments of sandwiches, baked beans, potato chips, homemade cookies, pickles, and cakes were served by the girls.

The Beau, Tom Stephenson, was presented a black leather wallet with his name engraved on it, by the F.H.A. Chapter.

Kidwell Announces Candidacy for State Senator This Week

Alvin Kidwell, Gallatin County, who has served since 1941 in the State Senate, announced this week that he is a candidate for re-election as Senator from the 26th Senatorial District which includes this county, subject to action of the Democratic primary, May 23.

Senator Kidwell, in making his announcement, said that the 16 years of serving this area in the State Senate, had given him an abundant background for future service, and asks everyone to examine his record and judge accordingly.

The 26th Senatorial District includes Boone, Gallatin, Grant, Owen, Carroll, Trimble and Henry counties.

Mr. Kidwell also wishes to express his sincere thanks for such loyal support in the past.

Two Young Women Win Good Citizenship Awards In Boone Co.

Two young women have won Good Citizenship Awards sponsored annually by the Boone County Chapter, D.A.R. They are Sue C. Gutzett of Walton, and Anita Hampling of Taysorsport.

These awards are given to the senior high school girl chosen by her fellow students because she has shown to an outstanding degree the following four qualities: 1) dependability, 2) service, 3) leadership, and 4) patriotism. Plans for these "good citizens" will be presented at the May meeting of the D. A. R., and a trip to and tour of Frankfort, ending with a tea at the governor's mansion will be an event of June.

be proud of in a Chevrolet!

You'll take extra pride in the way it looks—the way it acts—and the way it's put together. It's so sweet, smooth and sassy—and so solidly and finely made.

You'll feel a very special kind of pride the day you park a new Chevrolet in your driveway. It's a beautiful sight to behold.

And when the neighbors drop by to "look 'er over," you'll be prouder than ever. They'll see the fine construction and finishing touches throughout. For instance, they'll feel the extra solidity of Body by Fisher, and they'll see the deeper luster of Chevy's long-lasting lacquer paint job.

Stop in and see the car that gives you more to be proud of.

More beautifully built and shows it—the Bel Air Sport Coupe with Body by Fisher.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to report the sick of our community are improving.

We almost felt last week that Spring was not too far away, with those beautiful, sunny days.

We were delighted to see a good congregation out to Sunday School, and church services at Staffordburg Sunday.
All come again next Sunday, always glad to see new faces as well as our regular ones. Also came out to our Fellowship Supper at the church Saturday evening, lunch at 6:30, plenty good singing and visiting after lunch. Hope to see you out.

Several of our Trustees and Pastor were out again Sunday afternoon church window-shopping. They wish to thank the pastors of Erlanger and other churches for being so courteous to them.

Mrs. Ora Stone and Mrs. Flo Summey, also their brother, Mr. Bryan Armstrong and wife returned home Saturday afternoon from Florida, where they have been spending most of the winter. They report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lasey and little son have returned to their home on Riggs Road after several weeks stay with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley spent the week-end with Mrs. Riley's sister and family of Doucource Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and little daughter spent the week-end with relatives of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kenney had as guests Sunday their daughters, Mrs. Marris Wharton and family and Mrs. Emily Klette.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna entertained Rev. J. W. Parish and wife for dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Ezra Elmore spent the day Sunday with relatives of Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Lasey had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilligan of Batavia, Ohio; also their daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Damon and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Annins of Latonia.

Mrs. Howard Willoughby and little daughter called on Mrs. Dewey Parsons and family Saturday afternoon.

Rev. J. W. Parish and wife had as guests Saturday their daughter and family of Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett entertained over the week-end for Mrs. Barnett's niece, Mrs. James Clark and husband from Indiana. Also other guests Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin and children of LaGrange.

W. S. C. S. will meet with Mrs. Dawson Ballenger on March 14th at 8 p.m.
All visitors of the church and community are welcome any time to join us.

WHITES TOWER

Rev. Bob Brumback was called and preached at the Twelve Mile Baptist Church last Sunday. A good number witnessed his initial sermon.

Ward has been received here at the birth of a daughter to Jack Robinson and wife of Fort Knox. Mrs. Robinson was Mary Ruth Stevenson of near Independence.

Our neighbor, Mr. Bagby of Independence comes over to his farm near the Tower every day to tend to his fine cattle on his farm near here. Mr. Bagby is an expert on the rearing of Black Angus cattle, so if you want to get any of this kind of stock, I would advise that you talk to him before buying.

Another new house going up on Harris Pike in the Hasse subdivision. This is a growing place for building and will enhance the value of property on both sides, the Tower included.

The power of advertising in our Walton paper was demonstrated very forcibly to the writer as we advertised a baby bed and it was sold just a few hours after the paper came out. Did you know that you get the price of your subscription back by just reading and patronizing the advertising page. In addition our news is about people you know and are interested in, for example your friends and neighbors.

Just to show the pessimists that there are lots of nice people in the world yet, we want to recall a little experience we had recently when we were in Covington and missed the 3 o'clock bus to the Tower. We were standing on the corner at Rittes Corner wondering what to do when a car had to stop for a red light.
Just on a hunch we asked the driver if he was going out Taylor Mill—he was, and besides that he took us beyond where he was going to get us home—At least I found out his name Eddie Brosier who lives in Latonia Lakes. So thanks Eddie until I think of some way to repay you for a very wonderful experience.

The beautiful weather over the weekend sure brought out the motorists who have been penned up for so long. We never saw as many autos on old Taylor Mill and that means both ways going.

and coming. We will say for them that they seemed to be driving more careful and were not in a reckless mood. Perhaps the recent epidemic of accidents is at last having its effect and maybe now they are thinking, "Yes it could happen to me."

Two black-steers were loose in the Tower Friday but Ray Gibson soon had them under control. They belonged to his father.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank our friends for the acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our husband and brother, Arthur C. Roberts. We especially thank the ministers, Rev. Kelly Kennedy and Rev. George Fiske, for the consoling words and comforting prayers; Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Roy Gullion and Mrs. G. C. Ransom for the beautiful songs and music; those who sent the lovely flowers; the pallbearers, and the funeral director, Fred Hamilton, for his efficient service.

Sincerely,
MRS. LULU ROBERTS, Wife

GAS YOUR TOBACCO BEDS WITH Dowfume MC-2

Easier, faster, cheaper, better than burning

Treat your beds in 2 hours or less with Dowfume® MC-2. Place and seal the new lower cost, lightweight plastic cover over the bed and apply. Your job is done. You can fumigate in the spring and plant 48 hours after application.

Gassing with Dowfume MC-2 actually costs much less than burning. And you can use the new low-price cover over and over again.

Dowfume MC-2 kills nematodes and other soil pests faster and gives more effective control of weeds than burning. And it works into the soil to the depth you till, not just the top few inches.

Let us help you plan your seed bed fumigation this year. You'll save money while getting a strong, healthy crop.

SAFEGUARD YOURSELF

against Uninsured and "Hit-and-Run" cars through New Hartford Family Protection Coverage!

Through the new Family Protection Coverage feature of Hartford Automobile Insurance you can have important protection for yourself and members of your family who live with you against being accidentally injured or killed by an uninsured or "hit-and-run" automobile.

In such situations, Family Protection Coverage assures that any damages to which you are legally entitled — but which you can't collect — will be made good to you or your legal representatives, up to the limit of coverage.

The protection applies whether or not you are occupying an automobile — for example, if you or members of your family who live with you are struck by an uninsured or "hit-and-run" automobile while walking or bicycling, etc.

It also covers passengers in your car and persons driving your car with your permission!

Who Is This?

Lesson for March 3, 1957

WE ALL like to know what people think of us, but sometimes all we really want is compliments, or else we ask out of idle curiosity. Jesus asked the same question most people ask some time or other: Who do men say I am? But it was not curiosity or pride, with him. He knew better than any one that what men thought of him was vital—not to him, but to them. What people think of Christ affects their whole lives. Is he no more than a picturesque figure out of the past? Then we can safely ignore him. Is he a wise teacher, no more? Then we can put his teachings to the test of those of other great teachers and add a few nuggets of ideas from him to the wealth of the ages. But suppose he is more—

They Thought They Had Seen Him
Nobody in Jesus' lifetime thought of him as a priest. The priests were professional religionists; but Jesus did not make that sort of impression. He reminded people of no priest, rather of prophets. Many spoke of him by the name of well known prophets—John the Baptist, Elijah, Jeremiah. Of course they did not literally think these men had risen from the dead; but it was almost as if they had. Incidentally, the modern reader might look up the three prophets whom Jesus was thought to resemble. They were anything but gentle, meek and mild. At all events, they were men whose authority did not come to them from a position, an institution. They were men whose power and authority came from within; men carrying their commissions direct from God.

The One Lord
One might think that no higher category could be found for Jesus than Prophet—one sent by God, speaking the word of God. But Jesus once called himself "more than a prophet." So it was his closest friends thought of him. Peter's "Great Confession" is well known. Speaking not for himself but for all—for the question was put to the group, Simon Peter said as Matthew reports it: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." The words should not lose their force because of familiarity. Peter does not use the language later theologians were to devise. He does use words which a Jewish man of the first century could use—but they were not words: Peter could have applied to any one else. Christ means Messiah, King, God's special chosen King; to usher in the World's New Age. No Jew looked for two Messiahs. Peter was saying to Christ, There have been many prophets; but there will never be more Christs than one. You stand alone, with none to match you, none beside you. For Messiah was not only a unique title, there was nothing above it. Furthermore, the word Christ implied a great deal more than Prophet. You could take a prophet or leave him—his mistakes might not be for you at all. But the Christ was to be every man's Master, Lord of Israel, Lord of the world. Before a prophet a man may keep the silence of respect. In the presence of the one Lord a man must bow in reverence, asking, What will thou have me to do?

Eyes of Faith
What did Jesus mean when he said to Peter, "Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven"? He meant that Peter and the rest of the Twelve (not Judas) could see with eyes of faith what the Pharisees and priests never saw. It is always possible to doubt the full meaning of Jesus Christ. In his life time there were a great many who listened to his teaching and watched his miracles and never believed in him at all. Belief in Christ is never forced. It is not like believing that two and two are four, or that the paper you are reading is printed in black ink. The deity and lordship of Christ can never be demonstrated like a proposition in logic or a theorem in geometry. Our relation to him must be personal. All personal relations are carried on by faith, not mathematical demonstration. A man and his wife, a father and his son, even a merchant and his customer, live with each other and trust each other by faith. The eye of love, the eye of loving faith, sees what mere sight never shows.

SPRING MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

As you gaze at this scene of snow, ice, and leafless trees, your mind may skip ahead and picture green grass, abundant foliage, and a rippling stream. The very thought brings happiness. Spring makes the difference.

As grass, trees, and streams are fettered by winter, so some lives are bound by doubt, unbelief, lack of faith, and false ideas. When they come in contact with the Church, the love of God sets them free. They see new beauty in everything about them, and others see new beauty in their lives. As spring brings all nature to new life, so God's love makes human beings happier, gives them life more abundant.

No matter how strong the fetters which bind you, freedom can be yours through the Church and the message it brings to all. Why not accept that freedom today?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

MARCH 1st

By the time you get this paper February will be on the way out and March coming in. We have had so many looking for lawn mowers—all the papers with big lawn mower ads and store windows in the city full of lawn mowers, and not a sprout of grass in sight, but today I did buy a lot of lawn seed from McCullough Seed Co., and we sold several boxes of seed today. So we got out all our lawn mowers—you come in and look out mowers and prices over before you buy. We have the best in mowers for the lowest prices.

A very busy day for February—Mrs. Harold Vest, over by Verona, bought a new Maytag washer. Mrs. Hallie Benson bought a new Perfection portable oil heater. Larry Atha bought 13 gallons of Bolce outside white paint, 5 gallons of linseed oil, and a real good 4" paint brush. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Connolly, from Elliston neighborhood, were in today getting a few small items in the hardware line. Melvin Platt was in this morning; so was Mr. Alford, who lives on Verona Road. Marion Collins, Jr. and Bill Goshorn came after a lot of cast iron pipe and fittings—we sell lots of plumbing every day.

Albert Rosenthal was in today; Chick said he sold him some plumbing supplies. James Taylor, from over in Kenton, and his neighbor were in getting wiring material and a 4-cup laundry stove. Wilbur Kelly came in after some more Jellied Magic paint for Mrs. Gaines. He is painting for her; on South Main St. Bob Benton bought a new oil handle; I don't know who is going to use it. I have some more of those rebuilt Maytag washers with the square aluminum tub and guarantee for one year, for only $95. We just received a new supply of wheelbarrows, steel wheel type, in the small size for $14.50, large size with rubber tire for $39.50, and a smaller size with rubber tire for $34.50.

Today, we unpacked our power lawn mowers—Lawn Boy, Eclipse and Mastercut. We think these are the three best lawn mowers on the market—they may be a few dollars higher than some mowers you have seen advertised in the papers or catalogues, but you know Conrad sells top grade merchandise and if it is not good, he will make it good. That is the way you buy these lawn mowers—if they are not what you think they ought to be, bring the mower back and get an other one.

We have a new Mastercut riding mower this year for $289.50—this is a real mower, built for service. We have the Eclipse mower with the electric starter; we have plenty of good mowers and there is a difference in the mowers. We had some of those cheap mowers last year and did we have trouble? Ask anyone who has an Eclipse, Mastercut or Lawn Boy mower what kind of a mower to buy. That is the way I find out what to buy—I ask my customers who use what I sell—if it is good, I buy more, if not, I buy another good brand.

Kenneth Stamper bought the first power saw and likes it very much. J. C. Reynolds, from over on Taylor Mill, came over for a few minutes—he has been having a little water pump trouble, but it is better now since Brewster tried his luck. Mrs. Steinhauer and daughter, over at Kenton Station, bought a Perfection stove and other small items. Mrs. Owen Flynn and mother, from Fiskburg, were in today. Mrs. Boyd Elliott bought several items for the house. Ed Helmer bought some wiring material, also some bicycle parts for his boys' wheels.

Walter Shoran bought another Mono chain saw—I sent a telegram for more saws as I ran out. I had two more calls Saturday, but I had to tell them to wait until Tuesday. I went to Lexington, and brought back more plastic covers for plantbeds and several cases of Dowume gas to prepare plantbeds without burning with wood. Nine cans of Dowume, a plastic cover, and applicator, a total of $38 for the first year, for a bed 10'x9'—the next year just 9 cans of Dowume for $8.55. We have had very good luck—everyone of our Dowume users have been well satisfied—not one complaint; also comes in 12' wide.

We have been having several customers wanting to look at power lawn mowers; so now we have them all out where you can see the finest assortment of mowers anyone has to show you. Get a power mower now, if you want to pay cash we will give you a nice discount or if you do not have the cash, let us put one aside for you to start paying on. Several do this every year and have them paid for before the grass is ready. We have a riding mower this year with dual rear wheels and even a reverse—it's a real buy at $289.50.

We have that Eclipse rotary mower with the electric starter in two sizes. We have the Mastercut mower that comes with extra blade and leaf mulcher at no extra cost, and the greatest of all lawn mowers with two-cycle motor, the Lawn Boy, in two sizes. There were more Lawn Boy mowers sold last year than any other mower. We have lawn mowers in push types from $4.50 for used ones to $34.50, and power mowers from $69.50 to $289.50. We have lawn rollers, lawn seed, lawn fertilizer and all types of lawn tools. We have two used washers for $20 each.

Have you seen this new 30" Perfection electric range with a full 30" oven and fully automatic? We have it still selling hot. Sissors sharpened a used Anchor heater today, and I sold two small oil heaters last week. We carry a lot of heaters in all sizes and all kinds. Come to Conrad's!

Joe Dringenberg Is Candidate for County Tax Commissioner

Joe Dringenberg, widely known Boone County resident, announced this week that he is a candidate for Tax Commissioner of Boone County subject to the Democratic Primary on May 28, 1957.

In his formal announcement Mr. Dringenberg stated:

"I have never sought an elective office before, but I feel that I am well qualified to serve the people of Boone County in the office I now seek. I was born and have lived my entire life in Boone County, therefore feel that I know the tax situation in our county."

I will make every effort during the coming campaign to personally contact every resident. If elected to the office of Tax Commissioner, I assure the taxpayers that I will serve honestly, tirelessly and efficiently, and that I will welcome taxpayers to discuss their assessment problems with me."

Receives High Grade

Mr. Dringenberg received one of the highest grades in the Tax Commission examination given recently by the Kentucky Department of Revenue. Joe attended Florence elementary and high school and graduated in 1934. Since that time he has been engaged in farming and at present is employed by the State Highway Department as maintenance superintendent for a part of the Fifth District including Boone County.

Mr. Dringenberg is married. He and Mrs. Dringenberg (Sue) have four children. They reside on Burlington-Florence Pike.

Joe is active and prominent in many civic, social and church groups. He is a member of Hopeful E. Lutheran Church, a member of the Church's Council, and is a member of Hebron Lodge 757 F. & A. M.

AIR RESERVE UNIT

Reserve Airman in Grant county met February 25, to organize an Air Reserve Unit for Grant and surrounding counties. The unit, which will be attached to the Cincinnati Air Reserve Center, will meet twice monthly in the training consisting of classroom instruction. Participation in a unit of this type entitles airmen to pay for attending meetings, promotion, and retirement benefits.

Any reserve airmen in Boone County interested in joining this unit should write or contact Bruce C. Cotton, Dry Ridge, Ky. If enough interest is shown in the Walton area, a unit may be formed for Boone County.

Local Baptist YWA Entertains the North Bend Association

The Y. W. A. of the Walton Baptist Church entertained the North Bend Association of Y. W. A., Monday evening, February 11. The mission study book was "Twentieth Century Pioneers." After the book, refreshments were served.

On Thursday evening, February 14, the Y. W. A. had a tea for the W. M. U. of the church. After the tea, the Y. W. A.'s had their regular business session, and presented a playlet, "You Are There."

The Y. W. A. had their regular meeting on Monday evening, February 25, at the home of Miss Irma Rector, with nine members and the counselor present. During the business session, it was decided to send health kits to immigrants. Each girl is to make a piece of clothing for a baby to be sent to the foreign mission field. The program was titled, "Up for This Is the Day." Refreshments were served and games enjoyed. Present were: Janice Osborne, Donna Wright, Barbara Abberne, Betty Johnson, Shirley Saylor, Jean Elliott, Patsy Markberry, Dora Pennington, Irma Rector, and Loretta Johnson.

World Day of Prayer

This is the seventy-first observance of World Day of Prayer, which began in 1887. The service in Walton, this year, will be in the Walton Christian Church on Friday, March 8 at 7:30 p.m. The service is being promoted by a committee of ladies representing the Walton Baptist, Christian, Methodist churches. All are cordially invited to attend this service and unite in prayer.

Jerry W. Rouse Is Candidate for Boone County Coroner Post

Jerry W. Rouse, of Florence, formally announces his candidacy for the office of Coroner of Boone County, subject to the Democratic primary, Tuesday, May 28, 1957.

Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Rouse, 23 Lloyd Avenue, Florence, and a nephew of Joe Rouse, who was elected and served two terms as Representative from Boone County in the Kentucky House of Representatives.

Jerry was born and lived his entire life in Boone County. He attended the Walton and Florence Schools and was graduated from Florence High School in the class of 1948. He also attended Eastern Kentucky State College and the University of Kentucky. In 1953 he successfully completed his training and graduated from the Cincinnati College of Embalming and since that time has been a licensed Funeral Director and Embalmer.

Jerry W. Rouse

In 1950 he married the former Miss June Abdon and is the father of two daughters, Marilyn and Sheila. Jerry is presently associated with his father's business, Florence S-10 & Dept. Store and Rouse Specialty Sales, and prior to August, 1956, was associated with Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Directors.

He is an active member of the Hopeful Lutheran Church, Florence, and is a member of Florence Masonic Lodge, No. 949.

In his statement, Jerry said, "I earnestly solicit the support of every voter in Boone County and if elected to this office, I will endeavor to serve to the best of my ability."

FIRST AID COURSE

To better prepare family members to meet emergency situations, 50 ladies of Florence are enrolled in a Red Cross first aid course, arranged by the Boone County Branch of the Cincinnati Area Red Cross. Tom Murray, Covington, instructs the group from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., each Monday at the St. Paul School, Florence.

The need for widespread first aid training is evident when the number of accidents each year are considered. The Red Cross offers courses in standard, advanced, and instructor's first aid training to residents of Northern Kentucky and Cincinnati.

Bake Sale March 16

The Hughes Chapel Methodist Church, W. S. C. S. will hold a bake sale at R. W. Gross Appliances, Walton, on Saturday, March 16, beginning at 10 a. m.

MRS. MARY M. BAKER

Mrs. Mary Mullins Baker, wife of Edgar F. Baker, principal of the Top Mill Elementary School, herself a teacher at that school, died on Thursday, February 28, at Booth Hospital, Covington. She was 46 years old.

Mrs. Baker lived in Fiskburg, Kenton county, where she was a member of the Daughters of America. She was also a member of the Piner Baptist Church.

Surviving are her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Norma Jean Claunch, Mary Ann and Nancy Baker, and a son, Edgar Baker, Jr., a brother, Winfred Mullins, and a sister, Mrs. Geneva Harney, all of Fiskburg, and two grandchildren.

Services were held Sunday afternoon in the Piner Baptist Church, burial was in the Gardnersville Cemetery, Pendleton county, under the direction of the Swindler funeral home, Independence.

Boone County Garden Club Meet to Be Held At Florence, March 12

The Boone County Garden Club will hold its March meeting at the Florence Community Center on Tuesday, March 12. This is an open meeting and all members are urged to come and bring one guest, at least—and are reminded that cookies are requested for the tea which follows the program. The feature of the afternoon will be flower arrangements by Marjorie from "Flowers By Marjorie," a well-known florist shop in Cincinnati. She will make her arrangements from a minimum of flowers, and using many usual and simple things of the house, such as cherished figurines, heirlooms and other articles such as most people have about the home. We should have many lovely ideas for enjoying flowers every day in our homes and for flower arrangements for our annual Flower Show in June.

LENT OBSERVANCE

For many Christians the season of Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday, is a time for personal self-examination of their religious life and for deepening the spiritual life.

The Walton Methodist Church invites you to join in this time of devotion and soul-searching by attending services at your church. Special services and subjects are being planned. Prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings are a devotional study of the Epistle to the Hebrews.

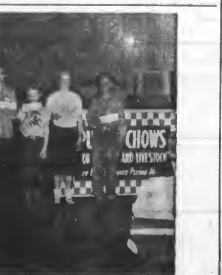

On Sunday, March 10th, a service of consecration and Holy Communion at 11 a. m. On Sunday evening the Youth Fellowship will present a short program of worship on the Missionary program. Rev. H. C. Ogles, D. D., will bring the evening message.

"Miss Holiday of '57" Finalist

Miss Nancy Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ryan, Beaver Road, and Florence, was chosen by Rex Dale of WKCY as one of the ten finalists in the "Miss Holiday of 1957" contest. She attended the opening of Holiday on Ice at the Cincinnati Gardens as a guest of Mr. Dale. Nancy was presented a gardenia corsage album, and met the stars of the ice show.

Fidelis Class to Meet

The Fidelis class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Ethel Breeden on Tuesday, March 12, at 8:00 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

4-H Club Talent Show Attracts Large Crowd

KENTON GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Forest Papp, secretary of the Kenton County Garden Club, was hostess to the club for the January meeting at her home in Nicholson.

After a short business session, the program chairman, Miss Margaret Stephens, and the president, Miss Elma Taylor, gave interesting talks on the principles and background of "Landscaping the Home."

Mrs. Forest Papp

Mrs. Papp served delicious refreshments and gave each guest an attractive table favor.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Clara Cooke, Mrs. Velma Pitcher, Mrs. Nellie Northcutt, Mrs. Lydia Vallandingham, Mrs. S. E. Fisk, Mrs. Roberto Steinhauser, Mrs. Glenn Goodenough, Miss Lena Mills, Miss Margaret Stephens, Miss Elma Taylor, and the hostess, Mrs. Papp.

The February meeting of the club was held in the home of Misses Alma and Mary Stephens, Independence, with Mrs. J. A. Keeney, hostess.

Farm Families Use Less Installment Credit Than Others

Of nearly half the families in the U. S. who do installment buying, farmers are the group least likely to use this type of credit, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture household management specialists.

Their reason for lesser use of this type of buying may be that many have credit outside of credit, or because they don't receive regular pay checks to tie into installment plans.

The most frequently found installment customers are in the middle-income class. At least half of those making $4,000 to $7,500 a year had installment debts. But so did nearly one-third of the families with annual incomes of $10,000 or more. Twelve percent of the families put one-fifth or more of their incomes into installment payments.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET

The Boone County Democratic Women's Club have invited the Boone County Democratic Men's Club to their meeting to be held Thursday, March 7th at 8 p. m. at County Courthouse at Burlington.

Mr. Joe Leary of Lexington, will be the guest speaker. All interested and enthusiastic Democrats are urged to attend. All members of Ladies Club please bring cake.

Intermediates Lose 65-36

The Intermediate M.Y.F. basketball team of the Walton Methodist Church lost a hard-fought game to Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia, Tuesday evening by the score of 65-36.

Gene Rowland was high scorer for the losers with 19 points. Chris Crutcher was next with 15 points, and Don Morgan had two.

Coch Randy Linton says the boys did wonderfully well for their first time as a team and is confident of many victories in the future.

A return game will be played at the Walton-Verona gym, soon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webster and family have moved near Crittenden to the Wright Garage.

Winners to Participate In District 4-H Show

Approximately 300 people attended the fourth annual Boone County 4-H Club Talent Show, February 21, according to the office of the county agent.

Thirty-two acts, including comedy, tap dancing, singing, and instrumental numbers were offered. Four of the acts were club acts. The New Haven club was awarded first place with their act, "Arthur Goofy Talent Show." The Hebron 7th and 8th grade club won second place with a play, "My Old Kentucky Home."

Twenty-eight acts were of the specialty variety in which 44 members participated. First place winner was Bonnie Wilson of Boone County High, with a piano solo, "Prelude in C Minor" by Rachmaninoff. Second place went to Sheryl Schneider, Hebron, with a tap dance routine. Four others received honorable mention: Pat Owens, Boone County High, pantomime; Brenda Robbins, New Haven, who sang "Whatever Will Be, Will Be"; Sandra Rogers, Mary Sue Rogers and Marcell Roberts, Bellevue, who sang "Tonight You Belong to Me"; and Jim Bob Hamilton, Verona, who played a piano solo, "Minuet in G" by Beethoven.

The first place winners are to compete in the District 4-H Talent Show to be held later. John E. Crigler, president of the 4-H and Utopia Council, presented trophies to the winners in behalf of the council.

MARY JANE LITRELL

Mrs. Mary Jane Littrell passed away February 5th at the Devere Rest Home in Brooksville, Ind. She was the daughter of Andrew Jackson and Elizabeth Hess Walton, settlers for years, before, thru and after the Civil War at Point Lick. She was the wife of Robert Fennell Littrell, former merchant or Beaver Lick who preceded her in death thirty nine years ago.

She leaves one daughter, two sons, two step daughters, one step son, Joseph Littrell of Florence, several grand children and three great grand children; one brother, John.

Funeral services were conducted in Brooksville, with burial there.

Banklick WWC to Meet

The W. W. C. of New Banklick Baptist Church will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Jesse Kahler, Wilson Road, March 7. The ladies Sunday School class, the Willing Workers for Christ, and everyone is invited.

Kentucky's 4-H Club Organization Now Observing 4-H Week

Kentucky's 4-H club organization, about to start its annual 4-H Club Week observance (March 2-9), shows quantity as well as quality.

Throughout the commonwealth 9,406 adult leaders serve without pay 1,087 junior leaders do likewise. The total is 68,174 4-H members.

Project-wise, Kentucky 4-H members do a fantastic amount of work. Last year there were 25,069 clothing projects, 3,759 in canning, 12,541 in foods, 5,629 in home furnishings, 1,232 in gardening, 2,243 in poultry, 1,232 in dairy, 2,393 in beef, 432 in swine projects, 3,765 in swine, 2,013 in corn work, and 3,855 in tobacco.

Besides this was 5,541 of the youngsters attended 4-H camps, and 362 teen-agers, special camps. During that time leaders held 1,408 training meetings.

In Kentucky's top crop—tobacco—389,422 pounds of leaf were sold in 15 shows for a total value of $254,544. In nine beef shows, 1,236 animals brought $229,298, and in eight dairy shows, 969 4-H animals were shown.

As an adult has said, "4-H youngsters are operating the biggest single farm in Kentucky."

Chevrolet Wins coveted Manufacturers' Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile"!

Want facts, not claims, about performance?

Then look at the official figures from NASCAR's internationally famous Daytona Beach competition for stock cars. Here's what you'll find: Chevrolet, in two weeks of blistering competition, proved itself as America's Number One performance car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it. No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!

The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Best of all, this superiority isn't limited to just a few extra-cost high-performance models. Every type of Chevy—from the six-cylinder models right up to the 283-horsepower "Super Turbo-Fire" V8's, from the single-carburetor V8's with Powerglide to the stick-shift "270's"—is a championship car.

Daytona proves it. And you can sample it for yourself at your Chevrolet dealership. Come in and test drive the model that suits your needs. And get a championship deal.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union
Seventh Day Adventists

BY DR. KENNETH A. FOREMAN

Seventy X Seven

Lesson for March 10, 1957

IS IT a mark of high breeding never to forget an injury? One of the most famous Americans was known also as a duelist. When he left home as a boy, his mother wrote him a letter which contained some Christian advice; but she mixed with it an idea she could not have found in her New Testament; he must never overlook an insult or a slight. It is rather strange how many Christians (Christians otherwise, that is) have had the same notion. Long after duel, Dr. Foreman was outlived in most states, it was still going on in the "Bible Belt." It has gone out there too by now; it may be an indication that people understand the Gospel better than they once did.

The Need for Forgiveness.
In a southern town there lives a man who was in a penitentiary in another state, for 19 years, for a crime he did not commit. He was a stranger and he had a gun, so when the local hoodlums all came up with alibis, this man was a convenient mark, and to the penitentiary he went. And there he stayed even after the real criminal confessed. Authorities kept him there, because if the facts became known, and the man released, some important reputations and careers would be ruined. Finally, through the efforts of a sister and a friend, he was released, 19 years not guilty, but punished all the same, even years after his innocence was established. Would you be in a forgiving mood after that? Not many people have tremendous, long-lasting injustices done to them of that sort; yet the story illustrates one point about forgiveness, it is not always a matter of forgiving persons directly. One may suffer severely, unjustly, without its being possible to identify the persons who are responsible for things we suffer (such as unfair laws, or customs which harm us in some way); but although we cannot forgive the responsible persons—who may be many—face to face, it is just as un-Christian to harbor bitterness in the heart against "fate" in general as it is to feel bitterly about some one we know.

God Has More to Put Up With

When Peter asked his question about forgiveness, he was thinking, it seems, of a kind of rule. Forgive a man once, twice . . . to seven times; but the eighth time is one too much? Jesus' reply—that if a brother repents 70 times seven times, we are to forgive him just as many times,—is not a matter of strict arithmetic. It is not intended as a rule. It is Jesus' way of saying: Forgiveness must be without limit. The reason Jesus suggests, in his parable, goes to the heart of things. God has far more to forgive than we have. Even an apostle, Jesus suggests, has sinned against God more than any man has ever sinned against him. What we have to put up with from others, every day, are trifles compared with what God has to put up with from us. If the reader thinks this is an exaggeration, let him consider one point: the way we Christians misrepresent God. His reputation in this world is maintained or blackened by those who profess to be his people. We claim to be his children, and yet we often act as if we had been sired by the devil. Few if any human beings have been so persistently slandered as God is by his professed friends.

Forgiving From the Heart

Forgiveness has been called a fiction, and in a way it is. It is not the same as ignoring or condoning, but it treats the offender exactly as if no offense had been committed. That may be fiction; but there is no true forgiveness without forgetting. God's forgiveness is complete; he casts forgiven sins "behind his back"—he "remembers them no more." Human forgiveness like all things human is never complete, for in spite of our best efforts the thing will keep coming back to mind. Nevertheless, true Christian forgiveness makes every effort to forget. Forgiving without forgetting leaves things much as they were. Only in complete forgiveness can there be a complete new start. Erasing the whole thing from mind, living as if it never had happened; this may be a fiction but it is a fiction of love.

KEEPING IN TOUCH

That mailbox on the city corner . . . that post office at the country crossroads . . . what would we do without them?

Life is too complex for us to live by ourselves. Man's interests and his welfare reach far beyond the boundaries of his community. Communication with people and corporations hundreds of miles away is a part of modern living that we take for granted. We have to "keep in touch."

But long before life became so complex, men discovered their need for another kind of communication—prayer. The courage and faith and hope which steel men for the challenge of each day come from God. The deep spiritual needs of the soul can be supplied only by keeping in touch with God.

We think our mail-boxes are indispensable! Even so, one church means more to a community than all its postal facilities. For not so long ago men lived very happily without a postal system. But men have never lived happily without God!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"Deacon Dubbs" to Be Given by Seniors

The senior class will present "Deacon Dubbs," a rural comedy-drama in three acts on April 25 and 26. The sponsor is Mr. Malcolm Moseley. It is set off with plenty of laughs, romance, and country songs, plus plenty of action. Deacon Dubbs from Sorghum Center, West Virginia—Garry Sipple, and Bob Wainscott.

Amos Coleman, his nephew and lawyer—Ronald Brown, and Roger Finney. Rowdon Crowly, a wolf in sheep's clothing—Edgar Martin, and Ray Zimmerman.

Major McNutt, auction, justice of the peace—Tom Stephenson, and Jerry Hatfield.

Deuteronomy Jones, a country product—Marvin Dunn, and Bill Drennon. Rose Raleigh, the brave little school mom—Edwina Miller, and Carol Wimburn.

Miss Philena Popover, has both eyes on the Deacon—Betty Northcutt, and Margie Bridges.

Emily Dale, the richest girl in town—Joan Cram, and Joyce Cooper. Trixie Coleman, full of mischief—Joyce Driskell, and Donna Schuster. Yennie Yensen, the hired girl from Sweden—Mary Garlough, and Betty McDermott.

Villagers, quartet—Children. SYNOPSIS—Act I: A country auction; the Deacon arrives from Sorghum Center, W. Va. Act II: A country wedding; shadows of the past; the Deacon takes a prisoner. Act III: Hecaton bee; penitentiary break; the Deacon takes a wife. This play will be about two and one-quarter hours in length.

Soil Conservation Essay

In November of 1956 there was a Soil Conservation Essay Contest held. The topic was "How Fish and Wildlife Can Benefit My Community." There was about 25,350 essays written and sent in from all over the state. These essays were judged in December. David Webster, a member of the sophomore class of this school, won second place in Kenton County. He was sent an Award of Merit for his fine work.

Basketball Queen Crowned January 18

The annual event of crowning Simon Kenton's Basketball Queen took place Friday, January 18, 1957.

The Beta Club presented a short program before the crowning. Our sponsor, Miss Palmer introduced our Press, Roger Finney, who in turn opened the program. Students participating in the program were Marilyn Cooper, Mildred Durr, Norma Elliott, Joyce Cooper, Donna Richardson, Donna Schuster, Raymond Zimmerman, and Bobby Wainscott.

The chosen attendants, Jo Ann Heideman, Jean Elliott, Joyce Moffett, Sandy Setters, Alice Works, and Gloria Peterson came in as a band ensemble played. The petite crownbearer, Miss Dianne Miller, sister of the Queen, proceeded next, followed by the elected Princess, Miss Joyce Tarvin, escorted by Ted Richardson.

The lovely Queen ascended by Mr. Garry Sipple. The queen, Miss Edwina Miller, reigned in shining splendor as she was crowned by Mr. Ronald Coleman. Ever thrilling was the kiss that followed the crowning.

All the attendants were presented with a band bouquet of mixed flowers. The queen was presented a dozen long stem pink and white carnations.

A dance followed, where the queen reigned in her ever present royalty. The Beta Club wished to thank all students and teachers who helped make our Basketball Queen Event possible.

Simon Kenton P.T.A. Meets

The Simon Kenton P. T. A. met on Monday night in the school cafeteria, with Mrs. Harold Halfhill presiding.

Mrs. Woodrow Worthington gave the devotional. An inspiration to all was the "Parents' Pledge," which she gave. Mrs. Wootson Aschcraft read the by-laws. Election of officers was held. Elected were: C. Hinsdale, principal, Miss Lucille Hall, and Mrs. John Laubach. Mrs. Hinsdale won the room count. Roll call was held for past presidents. Four were present. A book, autographed by past presidents, was presented to the school library in their honor.

In her program for Founders' Day, Miss Lucille Hall presented a playlet titled "Through the Years—with the P. T. A." A silver tea was held after the play.

Regional Music Festival April 6

Big things are beginning to happen for the band this spring. April 6 is the Regional Music Festival, which will be held here at Simon Kenton. Simon Kenton Band will enter 34 solos and small ensembles. Entries that get a Superior rating will get to perform at State Music Festival in Lexington, May 11.

The Band will give their Spring Concert May 2. This should be a very good program. May 12, the Band will perform at Lexington at the Music Festival in which they are hoping for their third Superior rating in a row.

There will also be a Northern Ky. Band Clinic held somewhere either in Newport or Covington in which seven of our band members will be asked to participate.

Junior-Senior Prom Set For March 30

Simon Kenton seniors and juniors met after school January 30 to lay the ground work for the 1957 Prom. Many things were decided at this meeting. First there was the task of selecting a theme about which our decorations are to be built. After considering many of the hit songs, "Moon Glow" was selected as the theme for the prom.

Many of the decoration ideas will receive their inspiration from scenes in the current movie, "Princess," in which "Moon Glow" is the theme song.

Paul Keifer and his band has been contacted to provide the music for the occasion. Refreshments will consist of punch and cake, which will be prepared and served by our very efficient Future Homemakers Chapter, under the leadership of Mrs. McElroy.

In the next few weeks, the juniors and seniors will elect a King and Queen and their court and a Prince and Princess. They will reign over a court of three senior couples and three junior couples at the prom.

The prom will be held March 30 in our school gymnasium. We expect over two hundred people to be present, and we are sure that this will be an evening of enjoyment for all to treasure in their memories.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Simon Kenton Student Council has been busy with the poster contest. The winners of the first two contests were Alma Cain and Jimmy Filer. We are now having a contest on Sportsmanship, which will close February 22. These posters are for the benefit of the school and we wish everyone would participate. We have a beautiful plaque for the winners of the poster contest. So everybody get your posters in!

Simon Kenton Enters Shillito's Art Exhibit

Each year Shillito's holds an art exhibit. This year Simon Kenton entered for the first time.

In preparing for the art exhibit the best work had to be done. This meant hard work had to be a part of the art students and teacher. Miss Oppelt had to approve of all the work done. If something was wrong, it had to be done again.

The pictures were judged on three standards: neatness, originality, and quality. If a picture lacked any of these, it was not entered. Only the best work was entered. Even though all the pictures could not win prizes it was an honor in itself for the work to be accepted.

We are proud of the accomplishments made. For out of 21 entries, nine received awards. We are proud of these nine people, who are:

Honorable Mention: Elaine Satchwell, Sue Conn, Alma Cain, Ramona Saltee. Key I: Joyce Tarvin, Jenny Duncan, Raymond Mains. Key II: Jerry Sipple, Pat Carbert.

Future Engineers Club Organized

About twenty senior high boys are in the process of organizing a new club at Simon Kenton. It is a chapter of the Future Engineers of Kentucky state wide organization and is sponsored by the College of Engineering of the University of Kentucky and the Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers.

Our chapter was formulated in January and is under the sponsorship of Miss Taylor. Several Senior High boys met and elected Marvin Dunn as president, Billy Ray as vice-president, and Mike Vaughan as secretary for the remainder of the year.

A constitution for the club was written and is now in the process of being modified and approved by the members. It provides that regular members must maintain a high academic standing in mathematics and science and show interest in the field of engineering.

Further information concerning associate membership for boys in the eighth and ninth grades will be announced later.

Beta Club News

On January 18, the Beta Club crowned the Basketball Queen for the 1956-1957 season. All that week Beta Club members hurried to and from home rooms trying to collect votes. We were slowed down in our process by bad weather and shortage of time in the mornings, but that didn't stop the election. Finalists were chosen from each grade. They were:

Dianne Miller from the 7th grade; Joyce Tarvin from the 8th grade; Pat Moffett and Gloria Peterson from the 9th grade; Sandy Setters and Alice Works from the 10th grade; Joyce Moffett and Jean Elliott from the 11th grade, an Edwina Miller and Jo Ann Heideman from the 12th grade. Then from these finalists, Dianne Miller was chosen crown-bearer; Joyce Tarvin was chosen princess, and Edwina Miller was elected queen.

Before the crowning of the queen there was a short program, presented by Beta Club members, designed to tell everyone of the fine ideals which the club strives to uphold, which was moderated by Roger Finney, president. After this short program, the Queen's Court was formed by some of the band members; the girls entered. How pretty they all looked carrying their flowers and wearing their lovely gowns. Then came the Queen, Edwina Miller, escorted by Garry Sipple. When they had all entered, Edwina was crowned by Ronnie Coleman. The Queen and her Court then went off the floor to the music provided by the musicians.

We are all proud of our queen. We think Edwina is truly qualified to serve as our Basketball Queen of 1956-57.

F.H.A. PARTY GIVEN

The Future Homemakers of America held its Annual Sweetheart Party in the cafeteria on February 14, 1957 in honor of their Beau Tom Stephenson.

Some of the games played were "Heart Song," "Potato Tablespoon Race," "Shave, Haircut and Manicure," "Dart Games," and "Prizes."

Their were about 60 in attendance with the F.H.A. being larger in attendance.

Refreshments served by the girls were Sandwiches, Baked Beans, Potato Chips, Cakes, Homemade Cookies and Pickles.

The Beau, Tom Stephenson, was presented with a Black Leather Wallet with his initials engraved.

Cabbage Statement

Pledging his full energy toward being a "working Senator," James C. Cabbage, prominent Democratic leader and insurance agent, recently announced as a candidate for his party's primary for State Senator in the 26th District in the May 28 primary.

Clerk of the Kentucky House of Representatives during the 1956 session, Mr. Cabbage is a former secretary of the Sixth District Young Democratic Clubs, was publicity and program director for the 1952-state convention of Young Democratic Clubs, served two years as state treasurer of this organization, and served two terms as president of the Henry County Democratic Club.

A resident of Pleasureville, Mr. Cabbage was chairman for five years of that community's city council and during this period saw his city freed from indebtedness for the first time in more than 30 years.

His civic activities have included organization of the Pleasureville Farmers' and Businessmen's Club, of which he was president for two terms. This group is devoted to the interests of rural problems.

At present, Mr. Cabbage is chairman of the Henry County Water District, director and former vice president of the Henry County Fair Board, and member of the county's Red Cross committee.

tee, bookmobile committee, Farm Bureau, Odd Fellows Lodge, and of the Pleasureville Baptist Church for the past 35 years.

Mr. Cabbage pointed to five years service with the "Engineering" Division of the Kentucky State Highway Department, and said "I believe this experience gives me a working knowledge of our road problems and better equips me to continue my support of a better rural and intra-state highway system."

In his pledge to be a "working Senator," Mr. Cabbage commented, "anyone going to the Kentucky General Assembly who views the job as one of merely attending the formal legislative sessions is definitely wrong. Actually, a Senator is representing the people of his district in Frankfort. He is a contact between the people back home and their state government. Attending sessions of the Senate is but a culmination of the various responsibilities entrusted to him."

"A Senator who fails to work back and forth between his constituents and the state government machinery is not deserving of the office. The people of our district deserve a Senator interested in them and their welfare. I was born in Owen County and reared in Henry County. I have lived my entire life in the rural area; I know the problem of the farmer, the storekeeper, the professional man, and those of other walks of life and business."

"Our communities and the service of our government will be just as strong and efficient as we demand they be. I ask the voters' trust to execute these demands... and make them work."

Mr. Cabbage attended Georgetown College after being graduated from Pleasureville High School.

The 26th District includes Boone, Carroll, Gallatin, Owen, Henry, Trimble, and Oldham Counties.

Pretending it isn't there won't banish that old lighting fixture...

What most of our homes need is a complete modernization of this most necessary source of light... lighting fixtures. Practically every room in our homes has some sort of wall or ceiling light... and chances are these fixtures have been around a good, long time! So long, in fact, that we'll sacrifice their needed light, rather than call attention to their out-of-dateness. Lighting fixtures today are beautifully designed to compliment the home... and scientifically designed to give the very best in home lighting.

The family of Mr. H. E. Kelly gathered March 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Kelly on Hands Pike, to help him celebrate his 85th birthday. Mr. Kelly was born on leap year, Feb. 29, 1872, so, though he is 85 years old, he has only had 21 birthdays. Those helping him celebrate were his son and wife Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Kelly, his daughter, Mrs. T. C. Richardson and her husband, also, Mrs. Larena McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kelly and children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kelly and children, and Mr. Frank Recker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cecil Lipscomb and boys spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting Mrs. Lipscomb's grandmother in Maysville, Ky.

A very interesting mission study class on "Christian Citizenship," taught by Mrs. Walter Wash, state mission study chairman, was held Thursday at Madison Ave. Baptist Church. Those attending from Oak Ridge Baptist Church were Mrs. T. C. Richardson, Mrs. Frank Postler, Mrs. Paul Newman, Mrs. G. W. Collins, Mrs. E. C. Harris, Mrs. G. W. King, Mrs. Chester Talbert, Mrs. Robert Butte, Mrs. Charles Asch and Mrs. Edward Rust.

Our whole community was saddened by the death of Mrs. Mary Baker, wife of our school principal, Edgar Baker. Every one who knows Mr. and Mrs. Baker loves and respects them and we extend our sympathy to him in his loss.

Little Jerry Harris has been quite ill this weekend. Mrs. John Fogel is still sick. It is good to see Mrs. Minnie Perry at church again.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Al Holly of Latonia Lakes, on the birth of a son, Feb. 26 and to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Kemper on the birth of a daughter, March 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldin Stienhouse and daughter, Dale Anna of Brooksville, Ky. visited Mr. and Mrs. Estill Webster last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson and children went to Lexington for the weekend, to attend the Golden Wedding anniversary reception of Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Willey, March Third.

Jobs Daughters to Meet

The next regularly stated meeting for members and officers of Bethel B. Jobs Daughters, will be held on Monday evening, March 11, at 7:30 p. m. at the Independence Bank Building.

Joan Cron, Honored Queen, and her officers cordially invite all members of the Masonic Order to attend. This invitation is also extended to the old members whose names appear on the Bethel's charter. Are you one of them, make it a date to be on hand Monday evening. Refreshments will be served by the appointed committee.

Independence &amp; Community News

Anyone desiring to submit items of interest, personal or otherwise, may do so by sending or phoning their information to Bob West, FL 7-8601. For these items to be published in the very next issue of the Advertiser, they must reach me by Monday afternoon. Social and club gatherings make mighty fine reading because of the wonderful work these members do for the community. It would be easy for the presidents or secretaries to submit their writings on projects, meetings and the highlights of previous meetings to me for publication for all to read about. Remember, just jot it down and send it to Bob West, Independence, Ky.

Bradford O.S.S. Chapter, 493, of Independence, will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, March 12, at 8:00 p. m., at the Independence Bank Bldg. Friendship night will be observed. Virginia Carr, Worthy Matron, and Med Appel, Worthy Patron, will preside at the meeting. All members of the order are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Plant diseases cost the U. S. an estimated 3 billion dollars annually. The figure would be higher but for work of pathologists. Hardwood trees need soils of good structure and fertility, foresters remind farmers interested in tree-planting.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The February meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers was held at the home of Mrs. Louis Lee with Mrs. George Finnell assisting as co-hostesses. Reports were made by the various chairmen. Mrs. Frank Aelterkir gave a lesson on care of your lawn, also on various shrubs and plants for spring beauty. The smooth green lawn this summer depends on the care you now give it. Mrs. Howard Clark and Mrs. F. M. Powers demonstrated their ability to "cane a chair seat" from the lessons they received at the U. K. Homemakers classes. Plans were made for various activities. Decision to keep the second Tuesday of the month for the meeting was made by those present: Mrs. William Endres, Mrs. Roy Kummer, Mrs. Gus Schader, Mrs. William Wolsing, Mrs. Verner Stephens, Mrs. Stanley Parker, Mrs. Roger Robinson, Mrs. Vera Ott, Mrs. Russell Quick, Mrs. E. A. Sterling, Mrs. Raymond McHale.

On March 11th, at 1:30 p. m. the Model Laundry will show a movie, "Time for Living" to the club at the home of Mrs. William Wolsing. The next meeting for this group will be held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Sterling on Taylor Mill Road.

LOSE UGLY FAT IN TEN DAYS OR MONEY BACK

If you are overweight, here is the first really thrilling news to come along in years. A new and convenient way to get rid of extra pounds easier than ever, so you can be as slim and trim as you want. This new product called DIATRON curbs both hunger and appetite. No drugs, no diets, no exercise. Absolutely harmless. When you take DIATRON, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions and automatically your weight must come down, because, as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less you weigh less. Excess weight endangers your heart, kidneys. So no matter what you have tried before, get DIATRON and prove to yourself what it can do. DIATRON is sold on this GUARANTEE! You must lose weight with the first package you use or the package costs you nothing. Just return the bottle to your drug-gist and get your money back. DIATRON costs $3.00 and is sold with this street money back guarantee by: Brookfield Drug Store, Walton, Ky. Mail Orders Filled.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. McBee of Harris Pike called on the writers wife Friday evening for a short visit.

This is the time of the year when you get out your favorite seed catalogue, and start dreaming of raising some vegetables and flowers that look just like those pictured therein. It hardly ever turns out that way, but you know how spring eternal in the human breast.

Miss Patsy Brumback and Wanda White gave a shower for her girl friend Mrs. Harold Holbrook, at the home of Mrs. Fred White near 3L highway Friday night. Many nice gifts were received by this nice young couple who live in New York.

Mrs. Joe Schader is well again her friends are glad to hear she is well.

In a few days now we will see smoke going up from plant beds and the year of work raising a crop of tobacco will be under way.

We hear that one of our young married men has been called to service and will leave soon for the army.

Sunday mornings temperature here was down to twelve and some say it damaged lilacs and some other shrubs that had put out buds.

CARD OF THANKS—

We deeply appreciate the many acts of kindness by our many friends during the illness and in the loss of our loved one, Walter Craddock. We especially wish to thank the minister, Rev. Albert Carpenter, Chambers & Grubbs, Dr. J. M. Huey, those who sent cards, gave food, sent flowers, provided the music, and those who prepared the grave.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna entertained on Sunday in honor of the birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons on the 26th and the other the 27th of Feb. The list of guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons and children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were delightfully entertained on Tuesday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish.

I've always thought we should tell folks if we like what they do. Too many people find it much easier, or so it seems to tell others when they disapprove of them but take it if granted that folks will know we are pleased if we find no fault. So let's pass around more of the bouquets or compliments. Now for instance today I received a compliment which was very unexpected, but very much appreciated. Thank you! In the same vein I would compliment our minister. His sermon was so helpful, someone said to me "it was one of the best he has given us." I should like to tell both chairs that we enjoy their music. Now those are words of real appreciation but I'm hoping others who read this will come to our services. We will make you very welcome. Remember the Good Book says, "Neglect not the assembling of yourselves together."

Rev. and Mrs. Parish are leaving on Monday for a short visit with some of their children in Henry County.

Glad to report that little Jimmy Cavanaugh who is convalescing from rheumatic fever is much improved. Wish for him a speedy and complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wharton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raum and family were missed at church today. We hear that they visited the Warsaw church where our former pastor Rev. George Miller is now stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney entertained friends on Sunday evening.

CRITTENDEN

STAFFORDSBURG W. S. C. S.

The Staffordsb. W. S. C. S. met at the home of Mrs. Howard Willoughby on Thursday evening, February 14 at 8 p. m. for their regular monthly meeting with the president, Mrs. J. J. Barnett, and Mrs. John Shaw, program leader. The devotion was opened with a song and prayer by Mrs. Earl Hanna. A very interesting reading was given by Mrs. Dewey Parsons on Missions, and also one by Mrs. J. W. Parish from the Study Book and Mrs. John Shaw on Missionary Work. Some other discussions were on Missionary work in general. After which the devotional meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. John Shaw.

The business meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. J. J. Barnett, after which Mrs. J. W. Parish suggested the Society order some flower seed for the members to sell, which was voted on and carried. Also they voted an ordering some more cards from Mrs. Dawson Ballinger for sale. The secretary report was given by Mrs. Billie Cummins and approved as read.

The roll call by the treasurer, Mrs. Howard Barnett, with fifteen answering present, had three visitors which became members of our Society which we appreciated very much. A few games followed and the exchanging of Valentines was enjoyed by all. At the close of the meeting delightful refreshments were served by the hostess with Mrs. Will Binder and Mrs. Dewey Parsons assisting. Remember the March meeting on the 14th at 8:00 p. m.

WALTON BAPTIST W. M. S.

The Walton Baptist W. M. S. held its regular meeting at the church, Thursday, February 21, at 10:30 a. m., with 32 members present.

Those present were Mrs. Niola Steers, Mrs. Helen Chance, Mrs. D. K. Johnson, Mrs. Relda Powers, Mrs. Emma Tackett, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Gertrude Daniels, Mrs. Kacaba, Mrs. Gouge, Mrs. Mary Rector, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Edith Percival, Mrs. Hollie Cook, Mrs. Violet Priestner, Mrs. Dolly, Mrs. Ann Soden, Mrs. Willona Kilgore, Mrs. Ison, Mrs. Bonnie Woods, Mrs. Wilma Winburn, Mrs. June Brewster, Mrs. Ethel Breeden, Mrs. Mary K. Hendricks, Mrs. Grace Knox, Mrs. Louise Stephenson, Mrs. Ruth Stephenson, Mrs. Virgie Fisher, Mrs. Thelma Rust, Mrs. Bess Conrad, Mrs. Juliana Shields, Mrs. Lucite Neumeister and Mrs. Blanche Franks. Mrs. Helen Chance, president, opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Steers read the minutes of the last meeting.

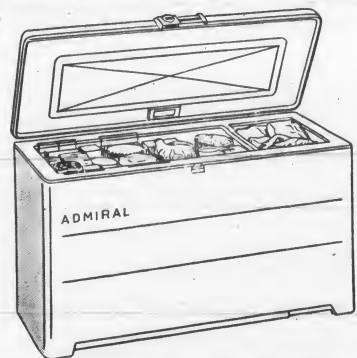

Several items of business were taken care of, and $5 was sent to the Baptist Home in Newport, for drapes and furnishings. $5 was sent to Mrs. Kenneth Parks, teacher of Home Missions, USA, for her expenses. The youth leaders made their reports, and chairmen were asked to give their reports.

Mrs. Emma Tackett had charge of the program, taken from the Royal Service, "Like a Watered Garden," with members taking part. The program centered around the Y.W.A., this being the 50th anniversary of this group.

We are proud of our Y.W.A. and the good work their leader, Mrs. Dora Pennington, is doing.

"Week of Prayer" is to be observed March 4-8, each day, at 1:00 p. m. The next business meeting will be held on Thursday of that week. It is hoped many will attend and hear what the Annie Armstrong offering is doing for Home Missions.

OUR VET

We have a new veterinarian, Dr. R. W. Bachmeyer, who lives South of Walton, across from Joe Neumeister. His telephone number is Fleetwood 7-7171. Give him a call and he will be right on the job. Farmers in this vicinity need a good vet, and now we have one, so let's keep him busy. A young man starting out in business needs a lot of help and money. You can give him both and he will give you value received. I know, because I have already had him at my farm twice and he is right on the job. I also talked to farmers who have had him and they like him very much. Give him a try—let's keep him busy.

There are a few people in our community who we more or less take for granted—the minister, the doctor, and the dentist—these take care of us spiritually and physically. We never really think of these people as long as we are well, but let something happen and we call them at once. If we get very low spiritually, we call the minister. If we have the toothache, we call the dentist. If we have the stomach ache, we call the doctor. So, if your livestock or pets get sick, call Dr. R. W. Bachmeyer.

In the past few days, we have been getting out our power lawn mowers. I had two of the best salesmen today. One, a hardware salesman from W. Birmingham Co., Cleveland, Ohio; then the wire and nail salesman from H. Belmer Co. He never fails to get an order. It even if nails and wire fence are getting higher all the time. We set up a Jamesway gas brooder for Mr. and Mrs. John Riley—Brewster will take it over tomorrow and hang it up, ready for the gas man to install. Ray also delivered a new Perfection electric range today. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Combs are using some of that Jelled Magic paint. It is just wonderful to use. No mess, no drip and no waste.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boots bought a lot of paint today for their home inside. We had several in today and cleared her oil cook stove. The ground is so wet no one could work. We put in a lot of shovel and fork handles. If you have a lot of tools that need new handles, bring them in, and we will work them up when we are not busy. Every spring we put in a lot of handles and repair so many tools. Of course we sell lots of forks, rakes, axes and all types of tools.

For the past several weeks we have been getting in spring hardware. We have lawn mowers in all sizes and prices. We received a large shipment of galvanized ware today—I bought this before the price rose. We can sell this at 1956 prices. We received 100 gallons of that good Bolce paint at the 1956 price. I am trying very hard to keep the prices down as much as I can. Donald Stephenson, over in Kenton county, has 26 sq. yds. of Insulene, a lot of fole paper, and a portable Perfection oil heater. John Stubblefield got a lot of stainless steel binding. Mrs. Stella Marshall came in the store, waiting for a bus; she looked at the Maytag washers, and said she needed a new one; she had an old model that washed alright, but thought she would like a new one. I made her an offer; she asked if we would take her and the washer to Florence, where she lives, so Chick took her home and brought the old washer in. Now, if you need a good used washer, we have it. Frances Kilgore purchased my first power lawn mower, for she told me to use this year.

We received a shipment of lawn seed from McCullough Seed Co. You think you have a full stock and every day I have to order something. Of course we carry so many items and things that every home needs. Jack Berkshire bought his boys a swing set. We had two robberies last night; I guess there are some who would rather steal for it than to work for it, knowing in time they will get caught—and if they do get caught, in time.

This was a cold day and we had a few loafers along with a lot of customers. Albert Park bought a pair of wheelbarrow handles; he, Clarence Sparks, Ralph Sparks, Kenneth Stamper and Russell Sparks were all looking today. Mrs. Ora Taylor, who lives over on Percival Road, bought a coal heater, and Brewster set it up for her today. B. C. Cotton needed a new drain hose for his Maytag washer; I sent-down-and got him one today. We sold a lot of lawn seed today. Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby, out at Boone Lake, were here today getting a lot of paint for their cottage.

Mrs. Charles Vest, Verona, likes that paint from Conrad Hardware—said she needed more of it before long. They are building a new house. I took Kirt Richter some steel fence posts and a roll of barb wire, while Brewster went down to Mrs. Cleo Robinson's and saw Howard McKinley, who has a farm over by Duckhead, came up and bought a Mono chain saw. My friend, Leonard Caldwell, who has a restaurant and filling station down there, sent him up here. Ernest Finney bought a Perfection electric heater to use these coal days.

I sold a lot of Jelled Magic paint today, also that rubber base paint we are closing out at 39¢ per gallon. Dr. Bachmeyer is building a small office and lab room on his back porch; Brewster put him in a gas heater. It's about time for you to get your tobacco seed and canvas; also to have those tobacco seed sowers for only 12.50. We have some very good used washers, also we always have those new Maytag washers. I have a 52-gallon table-top Hoffman electric water heater for only 125.00.

INDEPENDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Cloy Martin, Martin Road, Independence, had as guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Helt and daughter, Cindy, of North College Hill, Ohio. Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Martin visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wanda Martin, Taylor Mill Road. They were making plans for their summer vacation. They are contemplating a visit to the Smoky Mountains. They have made plans also to visit Mrs. Wanda Martin's sister in Portsmouth, Ohio, for the weekend within the next two weeks. Mrs. Cloy Martin's husband presented her with a new car for her birthday two years ago and Mrs. Martin drives anywhere she desires to go as traffic is no bother to her, as traveling is her pleasure, but Mr. Martin does not care to take long trips, but desires fishing trips.

Calvary Baptist Church had a wonderful crowd March 3 for the pastor's 30th anniversary. Their goal for attendance was 1101, but they went over the goal by 138, there being 1239 in attendance, and everyone enjoyed a wonderful sermon by Dr. D. B. East. For that daughter of yours in high school, a new booklet offers advice on career opportunities in Home Economics plus an outline of its advantages in Homemaking. It's called "For You—A Double Future in Home Economics." Available from the American Home Economics Association, 1600 20th St., N. W., Washington 9, D. C. The price is 25 cents.

Just A Thought: A husband should always help his wife with the house work. For instance, holding the step-ladder while she paints the ceiling.

Highest Command

Lesson for March 17, 1957

WE ALL live by authority of some kind. When some one says, "Do this!" we do it—willingly or unwillingly, but we do it if we can. If a man says, "I wear no man's collar, I do as I please, I am my own authority," a close observer can often perceive that the man is fooling himself. He may have certain habits, certain appetites. He may be one whom Dorothy Parker describes: "Some men cannot pass a bookstore." It may be books, or liquor, or fishing tackle, or women—something says with compelling voice to this boastful man, "Come!" and he loses no time coming. Sometimes the man who brags most of his own freedom is the man who is the most willing slave.

Who Is in Charge Here?

Consider some of the many bosses of the human race. One authority whose voice is loud in the land is the "Voice of the People." Some politicians live by it. A politician will split the weak in telling the world what a low-grade rat his opponent is; but then the opponent beats him in the primary, and the politician sings another tune. "The people have spoken," he says; and turns around to support the very man who (he had just been saying) was hardly fit to be dogcatcher. Others again regard the law as the highest command. In their eyes, law can turn right into wrong or wrong into right. But the law is a human thing; any good lawyer will admit that there is a gap between what the law commands or permits, and what is morally right. Law tries to catch up with morals; it never creates right or wrong.

Money Talks

Others again find their highest authority in money. Some will admit it, some will not. But whenever you find a person making all his decisions in the light of the one question: What will make the most money? Or, What will cost the least? then you know that for that person the last word is with the cash account. One form of this authority is business. If it's good for business it's good for the country. In the name of this authority many practices are advocated which are definitely not good for the people who make up the country. For many other persons, the highest command is the voice of the one who is most loved. In times gone by, it might be the King's Favorite. In our more democratic era, individual citizens may take their wife's or husband's word as the last word. Or—to take one more type, for a vast number of persons the highest authority is their Church. Some people even think the church cannot make a mistake!

Jesus, Lord of All

For the Christian, however, his highest command is that of Jesus Christ. The vows taken when a person is confirmed, or joins the church, profess, sometimes in these very words, "I take Jesus Christ for my Lord and Savior." "For my Lord..." If the word means what it was intended to mean, it means that above all other authorities is His. All these other commands have their places; but His is supreme. In a great corporation there are many persons with authority; but only one President. No decision at lower levels is valid if it conflicts with a policy the President has laid down. So there are situations where the money question is decisive. There are other situations in which a political party's decision, state or platform may be decisive for the party worker. — and so on. But if decisions on these lower levels come into conflict with what we may call the policy of Jesus, then those lower decisions must give way. In Jesus' lifetime He challenged every authority that confronted him. He was responsive to authority within proper bounds (as when He paid taxes or when placed on oath in a trial) but even over the church, even over the inspired Law, He claimed first right. The sensible Christian does not claim for Jesus what He did not claim for himself. He did not set up to be an authority on forms of government, financial affairs or farming. But He did lay down certain great principles founded in the will and nature of the heavenly Father.

WHAT A BIG BOOK!

Of course the Bible is big. Not only in size... but in the endless depth of the messages to man.

God never intended the Bible to be studied without help. When an Ethiopian official centuries ago wrestled with a passage from Isaiah, God sent the evangelist, Philip, to meet the man's chariot, climb aboard, and explain the text's reference to the crucifixion of Christ.

Explaining and applying God's Word are still two of the major aims of the Church. Every sermon, every lesson, every discussion topic your church offers is intended to focus your attention on the timeless truths of Scripture and help you thread them into the pattern of your life.

Cherish your Bible... read it regularly... and let your Church guide you to the richness of its message.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer (Jack) Sturgeon. The stark won out on the way to the hospital and Mr. Sturgeon, Kahr of McMillan Drive took over the job. So therefore Mr. Sturgeon has named the new arrival "Stanley Elwood" in honor of the man who saved the day. Keep up the good work Stanley.

Visitors at the farm Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Ryle of Werk Road, Cincinnati, Mrs. Lenida Ward of Covington, Tom Brumback of Independence and Bob Mathis of Schuamaker and Taylor Mill Pike.

A large crowd attended the Reynold's sale Saturday and as far as we saw in our short stay at the sale, the articles sold brought good prices and everyone seemed to have plenty of cash, which made the sale a grand success from a financial viewpoint.

March is a good time to whitewash or paint the yard fence, gate and out-buildings, but do not whitewash trunks of trees, says N. R. Elliott, UK horticulturist.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Brashear spent Sunday with his cousin Mr. and Mrs. Rice Godman of Vevay, Ind. Mr. Godman has been quite ill from a heart attack.

Mrs. Martha Hayden returned to her home Sunday from Highland Heights where she had been staying the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Mayra Hayden was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vest Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Allie Chandler and Mrs. Ethel Rogers were calling on Mrs. Susie Glare Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Ralph Adams of Louisville spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Blain Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richards and children left last week for Florida to visit her mother for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis Perry and two children of Dayton, Ohio spent from Friday till Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman and children.

WALTON 641XKenton Elementary P. T. A. Hears Talk On Civil Defense

A silver tea to honor past presidents was observed at the Kenton Elementary School recently. The table was beautifully decorated in the traditional colors of blue and yellow. Mrs. Hubert Baird arranged the yellow asters in a lovely center piece.

Mrs. George Dawkins was in charge of the Founders' Day observance. She chose "Look to the Future" as the theme for the program. She introduced Miss Joy McCarty from the Speakers Bureau of Civil Defense, who told of the need of preparing ourselves in the event of attack. Serious thought is needed on this subject by the entire community.

Mrs. Carl Wicklund, president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Floyd Roberts and Mrs. W. E. Durr were elected to the nominating committee to serve with F. D. Caton, principal of the school, in selecting names of new officers.

Mrs. Charles Adams, program chairman, asked Miss Minerva Rigg, music director, to bring her mixed chorus. They sang several delightful songs. Miss Rigg does wonderful work with the children, and it is always a pleasure to have them on our program.

Colorful Draperies Will Add to Room Interest Says Report

Well chosen draperies are one of the ways to add new interest to a room. The right color can provide an accent note that changes the entire effect, or a patterned piece can pull together the principal colors already in use.

Whether to use plain or patterned draperies is determined largely by the floor covering and wall finishes. If they are patterned, then plain color draperies that repeat one of the colors used in the room will be best.

When the walls and floor covering are plain color, the use of patterned draperies in texture or color may bring pleasant relief, although they, too, may be without design, says Miss Marian Bartlett, UK Extension home furnishings specialist.

With plain color walls and floor covering, patterned draperies and furniture covering are often effective, but care must be taken in arrangement so the furniture is not placed against the draperies.

The room exposure, the number of windows, and the size of the room deserve consideration when the color is selected. The larger the room the more contrast in color may be used. If there are many windows or if they are poorly placed, they will be less conspicuous if the draperies blend with the wall. A small room can be made to appear larger by having the draperies, woodwork throughout the room, and the wall finish closely related in color.

Although it is a temptation for the home decorator to make draperies without linings, they will hang better, wear better and give a more professional appearance if they are lined.

Before you buy a fabric for draperies see it in folds. Be sure it is equally pleasing hanging in few folds or deep ones.

Wilmington WMS Meets

The Wilmington Baptist Church held its regular Royal Service program on March 6, at 10:30 a. m., with ten women and two children present.

Those attending were: Mrs. Blanche Harter, Mrs. Naomi Spegel, Mrs. Nell Rapp, Mrs. Anna Collins, Mrs. Marietta Wilson, Mrs. Anna Fisk, Mrs. Lula Fisk, Mrs. Wilma Mullins, Mrs. Obro Pfanzstel, and Mrs. Eula Durr.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Spegel. Then a song by the group, "Lead On O King Eternal." Mrs. Rapp read last month's minutes, and had roll call. After a nice sandwich lunch at noon, there was a study on home missions. Those who had a part on the program were Mrs. Spegel, Mrs. Mullins, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Durr.

Mrs. Anna Collins was hostess for the coffee. Thirty cards were sent to the sick during the month, 27 visits, and 26 phone calls made. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. Spegel.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

Mrs. Inez Bell read an account of the Bill of Rights at a meeting of the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club in the home of Mrs. Melvin Bruggen.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney based her devotionals on the topic, "Sign Post of Friendship." Final instructions for the coning of chairs was given by Mrs. Melvin Bruggen and Mrs. Ray Payne.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Thomas Byrne on Taylor Mill Road.

Those in attendance were Mesdames Bluch Rich, Denver Binder, Ray Payne, Emil Stein, Ralph Howard, John Shaw, Floyd Smith, E. B. Rich, Geo. Klein, James Keeney, L. J. Rapp, Inez Beall, H. L. Faulkner, Stella Richardson, Inez Bruggen, Edith Ware, and a visitor, Mrs. Ralph Vanderschmidt.

Planned Home Gardens Strongly Recommended

Planning the garden is one of the most important things home gardeners can do, says George Marlowe, UK Agricultural Extension Service vegetable specialist.

Home gardens should be near the house, away from trees, and in the best available soil. Its size depends on the size of the family, the time the gardeners has to spend on it, and the amount of canning and freezing planned.

It is better to do a good job on a small garden than a poor one on a large garden, Marlowe points out. Biggest failures in Kentucky home gardens stem from a too-large garden, one too poorly planned, and those "too well eaten by insects."

Children who are given regular allowance get valuable training and satisfaction from learning how to get the most for their money, usually, less money is required than in the "hand-out" method.

Mrs. Fiske Is Speaker At Meeting of Simon Kenton FHA Chapter

Mrs. George Fiske, Walton, spoke to the Simon Kenton FHA Chapter at the regular meeting on Thursday, March 7. She spoke on "What I Expect of A Baby Sitter." Her topic was based on the 11 top tunes. They were as follows:

"I Never Felt More Like Singing the Blues" and "Slow Poke"—She said she never felt more like singing the blues than when she has to call on her neighbors to keep the children so she could keep an appointment because the baby sitter was a slow poke.

"On the Street Where You Live" and "Too Young"—She wants a girl to take care of her children on the street where she lives and one that is not too young or too old—preferably a high school student.

"No, No, A Thousand Times No" and "Green Door"—She wanted a baby sitter that will say no to the children and have supervision over them so she won't come home and find the white doors in the house green.

"Banana Boat Song"—She wanted her baby sitters to feel free to eat anything they wanted, but not to feed the children too much.

"Sixteen Tons"—She wants the baby sitter to be able to build a fire in the furnace should the weather get cold.

"Happiness Street" and "Too Much"—Tell the children stories and keep them happy, but don't tell them too much—to the extent that they will form fears and prejudices.

"Love Me Tender"—Most of all she wants the baby sitter to love her children.

"Jim Dandy"—Taking into consideration all these qualifications, she has some real jim dandy baby sitters.

Mrs. Fiske was presented a box of candy by Betty Northcutt in behalf of the FHA Chapter.

World Day of Prayer Observed Friday In Christian Church

Women of the four Protestant churches in Walton united in the World Day of Prayer service at the Christian Church last Friday night.

The theme was, "Who shall separate us?" from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

The writer of the service was Mrs. Serena Vassidy, formerly of Hungary, who dealt with the problem of those behind the Iron Curtain. She voiced the prayers, hopes and yearnings of those who must live without contact with the rest of their Christian fellows.

Mrs. T. L. Liggett, Latin American missionary, acted as leader for the service. Speaking for Christ was the voice: Mrs. Joseph Tackett.

Mrs. Clarence Stephenson gave a meditation on prayer and its meaning. The readers were Mrs. George Fiske, Mrs. A. E. Atkinson, and Mrs. Clifford Chance. Prayer leaders were Mrs. Cleveland Marsh, Mrs. Stanley Kacaba, and Mrs. Andy Penn.

Proclaiming the world mission of the church were the following who appeared in the native garb of the respective countries: Elizabeth Atkinson, India; Virgil Redd, Africa; Marvin Hudson, migrant—U.S.A.; Mike Kacaba, Eskimo; Paulette Chance, China; and Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Japan.

Mrs. Sam Hudson was the organist, and Mrs. Paul Brighle and Mrs. Carl Conner sang a duet, "O Divine Redeemer," as the offering.

The committee in charge was made up of Mrs. Jack Rouse, Mrs. Frederica Mann, Mrs. Clifford Chance, Mrs. Joe Tackett, Mrs. A. E. Atkinson, and Mrs. Andy Penn.

Churches participating were the Walton Methodist, Walton Christian, First Baptist, and Zion Baptist.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank our friends for the kindnesses shown us in the death of our brother, Archie Spillman. We especially thank the Hamilton funeral home, the ministers, Rev. Kelly, John, and Rev. Elton Johnson, Mrs. John Scott, for her song, donors of the beautiful flowers, and the boys who prepared the grave.

18-YEAR-OLDS MAY VOTE

Young men and women who will be 18 years old before the November election will be allowed to vote in the May primary, Joe Dringenburg pointed out to those attending a joint meeting of the Boone County Democratic Woman's Club and the Men's Club, at Burlington, Thursday night, March 7.

The group voted to present a resolution to the Boone Fiscal Court and the Election Commission requesting that they divide the large voting precincts to make it more convenient for the voters to vote in the coming elections.

Refreshments were served to a large crowd following the business session. Joe Leary, Gov. Chandler's advisor, was unable to attend as planned and sent his regrets.

Home Furnishing Leaders of Kenton County Meet Mar. 6

Fifty home furnishing leaders of the Kenton County Homemakers Association assembled at Trinity Methodist Church, Lorton, Wednesday, March 6, for a workshop on "Color Harmony in the Home," given by Mrs. Mary E. Burroughs, Extension Specialist in Home Furnishing from the University of Kentucky, and Mrs. Zelma E. Buerly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Extension Agent.

Leaders were told that color, pattern and texture must be selected, weighed and balanced as carefully as a costume ensemble if there is to be harmony and livability in the home. Demonstrations were arranged to show these factors, and at the afternoon session leaders were given an opportunity to assemble color schemes for various rooms.

Leaders attending the class were: Mesdames Leo J. Kiely, Edward Lange, Jack Dryer, H. L. Hedges, Arnold Motz, Earl Whitefoot, L. L. Clark, F. M. Powers, Henry Heide, Bernard Hackman, George Mason, Jr., Patrick Groves, Earl Bonetert, Robert Conley, R. C. ## Local Students at Northern Center

Students at the University of Kentucky's Northern Center in Covington, have increased six-fold during the eight years since the Center was established. Slightly over 100 students were registered there in 1948. Current enrollment stands at 735. Prof. Thomas L. Hopkins, director, has announced.

Covington, capital of Northern Kentucky, has the largest enrollment, 250, while one of its suburbs, Erlanger, is next with 48. Largest percentage of students, 36 percent, are classified as special.

Almost half of the students are carrying only a small load: from one to six credit hours. Six to 11 credit hours are carried by 32 percent, and 18 percent are carrying from 12 to 21 credit hours.

Male students slightly outnumber female students, 390 to 345, while the ratio of married to single students is 382 to 353. There are 227 veterans registered at the Center.

Student enrollments from other cities are: Newport, 45; Florence, 39; South Fort Mitchell, 35; Fort Thomas, 34; Ludlow, 30; Alexandria, 10; Bellevue, 22; Barmley, 4; Burlington, 19; Butler, 5; California, 8; Cincinnati, 19; Cold Springs, 2; Crittenden, 4; Dayton, 21; Demossville, 5; Dry Ridge, 4; East View, 3; Elsmere, 8; Falmouth, 3; Hamilton, Ohio, 6; Highland Heights, 5; Independence, 19; Jackson, 4; Kenton, 2; Lakeside Park, 5; Melbourne, 4; Morning View, 4; Park Hills, 10; Silver Grove, 4; Southgate, 2; South Hills, 2; Summit Hills, 2; Union, 5; Verona, 2; Walton, 10; and Williamstown, 5.

The Center has enrolled one student each from Amelia, Beattyville, Blaine, Chester, Insko, Lookout Heights, Concession, Cornith, Crestview, Edgewood, Forest Hills, Foster, Mentel, Winchester, Virgo, Norwood, Petersburg, Dayton, O.; Pulaski City, Ripley, O.; Sherman, South Shore; and Tattleg.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE WEEK

The week of March 17-23 has been proclaimed National Wildlife Week in Kentucky by a proclamation issued by Gov. A. B. Chandler at his offices in Frankfort. This week has been observed throughout the nation in observance of Wildlife Week and in asking Kentuckians to heed this observance the governor pointed out that the wise use of natural resources is essential to the welfare and security of the individual, the state, and the nation.

The Chief Executive declared that almost 40 species of wildlife in the United States are dangerously near extinction and many others are suffering from severe depletion of food and cover and he urged all citizens of Kentucky to acquaint themselves with the natural resources problems and in keeping with the national theme to "Make A Place for Wildlife" in their communities and to support projects providing for the protection and restoration of wildlife living area.

Extra Profits from Fertilizer Pay for Better Farm Living

EXTRA profits from fertilizer use can help farmers pay for comforts and conveniences they and their families desire, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out.

Tests at agricultural colleges and field experience on farms, says the committee, show that fertilizer can return anywhere from $2 to $5 in increased crop production value for every dollar invested in plant food.

The extra dollars can help farmers buy new cars, tractors and equipment, new furniture, rugs and drapes, labor-saving electric kitchens, more plumbing of new refrigerators, the committee declares.

"That makes prosperity for local merchants and for business generally," says the committee, "and it all springs from intelligent use of fertilizer."

When a farmer invests in crop-boosting fertilizers such as fertilizer, he cuts the cost of production for each crop unit and he increases his profit margin.

"Soil building investments usually pay back the very first year in increased crop yields. And after that, the farmer has carry-over profits in future years from bigger crop yields per acre on more fertile soil."

many relatives and friends will be glad when she is back among us.

The Tuesday Ladies Social Club met on March 5th at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPherson, Senour Rd. Luncheon was served followed by games. We welcomed two new members, Mrs. William Pittman and Mrs. Ray McCormick both of Covington. Members present were Mrs. Fred Auton, Senour Rd., Mrs. Wayman Cooke and Mrs. Virgil Perry of Independence.

Mrs. Gil Furnish of Burlington, Mrs. Ben Jones and Mrs. Charles Jeffries of Covington. We spent an enjoyable hour reading letters from a member who moved to California in January, Mrs. Don Auton, formerly of West Covington. Another member, Mrs. Ransome was absent due to illness. She is in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Buy Fertilizer Early to Save Time and Avoid Spring Delays

THE Middle West Soil Improvement Committee lists four advantages in buying your fertilizer early this winter and storing it on the farm until spring:

1—You are sure of getting the exact grade and amount of fertilizer you want. The plant food is well cured and you can get immediate delivery.

2—You have the fertilizer on hand and ready to use at a moment's notice when planting time arrives.

3—You save time and avoid costly delays in the spring when everybody is scrambling for fertilizer.

4—You avoid the risk of scarcities in the spring rush period when some grades of plant food are sometimes hard to get.

The committee points out that fertilizer can be safely stored so it will be in good condition when it is needed for crop operations. It doesn't take up much room, either.

The plant food can be stored in the barn or some other dry building. It is advisable to put the bags on 2x4s or cribbing above the floor, so the fertilizer won't soak up moisture.

Bags should be piled only seven or eight high to prevent caking. Broken bags should be kept separate from the main pile, says the committee.

CRITTENDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alphin made a 1,000 mile trip to Tallahassee, Fla., to act as chairman of the Southern States Convention on juvenile delinquency. He spoke on the plan to curb Juvenile Delinquency in the future. They visited institutions at Chattanooga, Pensacola and Apalachicola, also New Orleans and Baton Rouge, La. The purpose of the inspections was to determine the best state and federal institutions to make recommendations for the future.

Mrs. Alvin Alphin was visiting Mr. and Mrs. DeMoisey at Walton Sunday.

Miss Grace Martz is ill suffering with low blood pressure.

Pascal Reed and Walter Cooke attended a sale at Greenville, O. Saturday. Mrs. Collins has moved from Mrs. Laura Hutsell apartment to the Oakley Smith apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Waller have moved from the McNay house to the apartment of Mrs. Mary Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. "Pete" Barnes are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl. This is the second child.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wagner are entertaining his brother and family this week.

Mrs. Leona Wilson passed away at St. Elizabeth Hospital Saturday after a weeks illness. She is the mother of Mr. Chance and Floyd Riley.

Mr. Charles N. Brown who has been in St. Elizabeth Hospital, returned home Saturday much improved.

For best service, clean and oil your sewing machine before you begin your seasonal sewing. Follow the directions in the machine's manual.

In 1906, when Dairy Herd Improvement Association work began, 239 cows on test averaged 5,300 pounds of milk annually and 215 pounds of butterfat. Almost 50 years later 1,333,866 DHIA cows averaged 9,503 pounds of milk and 375 pounds of butterfat. Culling, breeding and feeding practices account for the rise.

Vitamins disappear as vegetables wilt and wilt. Keep vegetables damp and cool in a tightly closed plastic bag in the refrigerator.

Soil Care Pays Off For New Corn Prince

DAVID LUX, 16, of Shelbyville, Indiana, the new Corn Prince, maintained an old family tradition when he won top honors at the recent International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago.

David is a third-generation champion in the family. His grandfather, Peter J. Lux, started it all back in the 1920's when he won the Corn King title four times. David's father Maurice, was Corn Prince twice and his Uncle Frank, also a former Corn Prince, was named reserve grand champion corn grower at the 1956 international show.

David Lux, the new Corn Prince

The Lux family attribute their corn growing success to careful seed selection, good management and soil fertility.

This year, David's prize winning corn was grown on a 5-acre field he had entered in the 1956 Indiana 5-acre corn growing contest. The seed was an Indiana Certified Hybrid, No. 8-44-D. Altogether, the Luxes had 115 acres in hybrid seed corn last season on the family's 400-acre farm in Shelby County, Ind. On most fields, the yields averaged better than 120 bushels per acre.

Over the years the soil fertility level has been built up and maintained by adding manure, crop residues and plenty of mixed fertilizer.

Last season, the fertility program included 400 pounds per acre of 4-16-16 plowed down before corn planting, plus 200 pounds added in the row at planting. In addition, 45 pounds per acre of 80 per cent nitrogen fertilizer was applied for the corn crop.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

BETTER CORN HYBRIDS—For a long time Kentucky farmers have been looking for corn hybrids better than the old standards, U.S. 13, Ky. 103, and Ky. 523W. Now it looks like Experiment Station plant breeders have hit upon combinations which are very superior, both as to yield and to strength of stalk. Among the most promising are Ky. 105, and Ky. 106A, both yellow, and Ky. 204, an excellent white. Although seed of these hybrids are still in short supply, small amounts can be obtained for testing purposes and by next year there should be adequate supply of the best certified seed available.

NEW ENTERPRISES—Farmers all over Kentucky are looking for new enterprises to probably occupy the time and land made idle by reduced tobacco, corn and wheat crops.

One opportunity that looks promising, for those with the inclination for such specialties, is the growing of vegetables under plastics. The use of this inexpensive material for vegetable production was developed by Dr. E. M. Emmert of the University of Kentucky, and has been used successfully in many states. It can be used either as a covering for green houses or as a ground cover for new crops.

Growing vegetables in plastic green houses seems to have many advantages. The houses are cheap to construct and maintain (a commercial operation can be started for less than $1,000); only a small area of land is needed, and it can be quickly brought to the highest state of fertility; the crops are not dependent upon the vagaries of the weather, and full winter-time employment is provided. They also may be used to produce early plants for field setting, thus aiding in growing vegetables for the early market. Vegetables grown in plastic green houses are very productive and of excellent quality, and since they go to the market at off-peak seasons, they usually sell at high prices.

Kentucky farmers need to participate in some way in the tremendous task of supplying fresh vegetables to a rapidly expanding population. Who knows what plastic green houses will be the answer—they are at least worth a trial.

Clean, Covered and Cool Are Rules For Egg Care

Clean, covered, and cool are the three C's for retaining the delicate flavor of fresh eggs. Their miracle packaging is a wonderful protection providing the eggs are kept in a covered container to keep the moisture in and the odors out, says UK Extension foods specialists.

Put the family egg supply into the refrigerator as soon as possible, and keep the eggs there until they are to be used.

To keep yolks, place them (unbroken) in a dish and add just enough water to cover them, put whites in a dish with tight cover. Keep both whites and yolks cold.

The biggest single item in milk marketing costs is butter—about 23 percent. The color of the shell of an egg does not affect food value, flavor or quality.

Government programs in 1956 facilitated the "heavy overseas shipment" of wheat, rice, fats, and oils, domestic supplies of which were very large. The flavor of cornmeal may be varied by topping the batter with bits of crumbled-crisped bacon or shredded cheese.

Milk treated by radioactivity will not lose its flavor and can be kept in good condition 10 days, recent British research shows. The process has not yet been adapted for commercial use.

A Minnesota farmer got $88.62 an acre net profit by proper use of fertilizers on his corn crop during a production test last year.

It is not necessary to shrink 100% Dacron fabrics, as they do not shrink. If Dacron is blended with wool or cotton, the material should be shrunk.

Wild strawberry plants collected in Oklahoma and grown at the Oklahoma Experiment Station have shown exceptional tolerance to heat and drought. The plants may be an important source of breeding stock if heat and drought resistance in commercial varieties become necessary.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

Well as you all know we had a few days of real winter last week, but hope we don't have many more snows.

Those on our sick list are improving, which we are glad to know and hope they continue so.

We were glad to see a larger crowd out to Sunday School and church services at Staffordburg Sunday morning, hope you can be with us again next Sunday both morning and evening, all are more than welcome anytime.

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and little son from our community, as they have moved from Steep Creek Road with Mrs. Damon parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Damon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballenger spent one day this past week with Mr. and Mrs. Kline Gordon and family near Dry Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney have returned home from several days visit with their daughter Mrs. Morris Wharton and family of near Dayton, Ohio.

Remember the Staffordburg W. S. C. S. will meet with Mrs. Dawson Ballenger Thursday the 14th at 8 p. m. All members try to be present.

Mrs. Wayne Riley and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children called in Mr. and Mrs. Radford Riley Saturday afternoon. The Rileys are planning on leaving for Florida in the near future to take up the grocery business there.

The Reynolds sale was well attended Saturday and everything sold for good prices.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett entertained with a six o'clock dinner Saturday evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barnett, son and daughter, and Mr. Byrnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losey had as guests Sunday Mrs. Losey's sister, Mrs. Albert Gilligan and husband of Batavia, Ohio, also their son J. B. of Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp spent the day Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Denver Binder and family.

Several from this community attended the Producers Milk Association for dinner, last Thursday at the Netherlands Plaza Mr. Bernie Cavanaugh and daughter, and Mrs. Ona Cavanaugh were among the guests from this neighborhood.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish left Monday morning for Louisville to spend a few days with their sons and families.

Mrs. Mary Brown and children spent the weekend with relatives of Lexington. Mrs. Carl Rice of near Devon visited with her father Mr. Thomas Barkers one day the past week.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Now Retired:

Justice Stanley Reed of Maysville is now retired, gone from his duties as member of the Supreme Court.

It might be well to review something of his life, something about the Kentuckian who has been described as a "courtly man, with twinkling eyes, a love of good company, endowed with a quiet sense of humor and a full-blooded zest for life." Washington correspondents who cover the Court say his great joy is his Kentucky farm.

A Liberal:

Justice Reed went to the court not long after President Roosevelt had tried to enlarge—pack—the court. He was described in those days as a New Dealer, a liberal.

Of late years, however, the Kentucky squire has tended to vote conservative. In fact, his close friends describe him as innately conservative, in spite of the fact that as solicitor general he fought hard before the same court for the New Deal program.

To His Credit:

While Justice Reed was a member of the high court, it became involved in bitter, internal quarrels. Some of the members said bitter things about colleagues.

Justice Reed, however, was not a party to the bickering. While some justices refused to even speak to others on the court, they all spoke to the quiet Kentuckian, and he to them. He was a man who disliked extremes.

Before High Office:

Before he became a member of the Supreme Court, Justice Reed was a member of the Kentucky General Assembly. When he left the Blue Grass state for the nation's Capitol, he had built up a good law practice.

Now, that he has retired, President Eisenhower gets an opportunity to appoint a fourth member of the court. In accepting his resignation, the President wrote of Justice Reed's "dedication and devotion which are so much a part of your reputation."

What about the future? Will he write his memoirs? He says not, but he also agrees that if he did, he could tell some interesting stories.

Burley Production For 1957 Requires Advance Planning

Burley farmers ought to start this month planning their 1957 tobacco crop says Russell Hunt, UK Agricultural Extension Service burley specialist.

For instance, they should test soils for nitrogen, lime, phosphorus, and potash needs. Stalks also may be applied to cropland or sod if no fusarium wilt or black shank was in the previous crop, Hunt notes. Stalks should be applied early, too.

The 1956 crop was mild, thin-bodied, flavorful and ripe; this kind of tobacco, Hunt says, "has been and will continue to be in demand for making cigarettes."

All these factors—soil nutrient needs, past cropping history, and market demand for burley—should be a guide to proper fertilization of the 1957 tobacco crop.

One material, of 700 tested, shows promise in keeping bees from feeding on nectar plants treated with insecticides.

CONRAD HAS IT

Spring is here next week and the ladies are already buying paint—ruber base we are closing out at 3.95 a gallon, 1.25 a quart. We always sell a lot of Bolce liquid satin and lustre-kote and most of all, they call want Jelled Magic, the paint that goes one-third farther and does not splatter or drip. Of course, if you want a hard finish for a bathroom and furniture, use Bolce quick-drying enamel. Our former mayor, R. M. Hall, who has bought a new home at Florence, has been buying paint and gadgets for their new home. The Walton Baptist Church bought their home next door to the church.

Mrs. Davis, over beyond Verona, came in at paint point brushes, linseed oil, turpentine, foot tub, mop and plastic shades. We sold a lot of linoleum to a fellow and Mrs. wife over Verona way—sorry, I can't remember their name. We sell a lot of tholeum every spring. Omer Kite was over and bought a scythe snath with a grass blade, fishing tackle, fishing license for his wife and left his lawn mower to be overhauled. We sell so many portable heaters at the time of year it is very hard to have around. Ed Helms bought a 12'x100' plastic cover, an applicator and 12 cans of Dowfume for preparing his tobacco plant bed. We sold several tobacco canvases today. We sell lots of good canvas every year and this year we have a full supply of Clay's tobacco seed. Ralph Hightman and wife were over today, shopping in Walton. Ed Kennedy from Beaver Lick was in today for a while. He had a fellow in today, he is building a new house and wanted the price on a complete bathroom outfit, and a table-top electric water heater. I gave him a very good price and he seemed well satisfied. Another fellow in today needed a water system and a water heater for his milk house. We have a very good stock of Dayton water systems, all types of water pipe, and fittings.

This was a bad, rainy day, but we had several customers and Chick was right after them. Brewster does a lot of repair work, but he helps out too as he likes to ring that cash register. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott were over today, he was having trouble with his Sunbeam sheep shears, but Brewster soon repaired them. Clarence Veer came after pipe fittings to fix up a gasoline tank for his tractor fuel. We sell so many handles; of course we keep a large stock of handles in all types and sizes. From a tack hammer to a 51/2' fork handle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Davis and Mrs. Davis' sister were in today getting some glass and putty. Andy Irwin bought 8'x1' plastic pipe to put water in his milk house. Dale Stephens just called and asked if we would get him another quart of Jelled Magic paint, he was out of paint and wanted to finish that room tonight; they sure like that Jelled Magic paint. The ladies can even get their husbands to paint at night with Jelled Magic, it goes on so easy. You won't even have to take up the rug or take out the furniture, as it don't splatter or drip. Get Jelled Magic at Conrad's! Groger blathered in with two trucks today and unloaded 60 cartons of hardware. We can put up stock all day and now we have a real stock of hardware, paints, and plumbing supplies. Robt. Blanton came down from Crittenden hunting a set of drill bits with a "V" shape. I had them! He had been to several other hardware stores and they didn't carry them. I like to have hardware items that no one else carries and I try to do this all the time. When you can't get it other places try Conrad, or the best thing to do is come to Conrad's for your hardware and save all the driving.

When you come to Conrad's you can park in the driveway or lot by the store. Most of the lot and drive belongs to me; the other to Mr. Pollett, who owns the hotel. My customers and his all use it, so drive right in if you can find a place. We have a very many customers who drive in the driveway and come in the side door or blow their horn and we give them service right in their car. So drive right in and you can go around the hotel and come out High Street. Some late winter items it will soon be baby chick time. We have oil, gas and electric brooders, all types of feeders and waterers.

Mrs. Alfred Hume is getting the painting fever again, she came in after several color cards. Once she starts, she really paints everything but Tracy. The new tenants up at the Ferick farm bought a lot of rubber base paint and floor enamel. Andy Irwin came after a Dayton jet water system and pipe fittings for his milk house. Albert Rosentier brought up the lift pump from his milk house for Brewster to repair. They had to have some welding done on the pump rod, then Brewster put in new cup and valve leathers, he went home all fixed up.

Brewster sold a chicken brooder the first thing this morning. We have one 4'x6' Jamestown electric brooder for only 49.50, which is 10.00 less than today's market. We have several Jamestown oil brooders and we have some small 100-chick size electric brooders for only 16.75. In the next few days, as soon as it dries up, we are going to all have to burn and sow some tobacco beds. We have lots of Dowfume and plastic covers for preparing the bed, and for covering the bed. Use Dowfume and save all that hard work, only costs you 38.00 for 9'x100' bed the first year and 8.55 the following years. In the last week of winter we are selling a little of everything. Some late winter items and some early spring items. Shop at Conrad's!

Magisterial Districts And Precincts Are Explained by Clerk

There being some confusion as to which voting precincts comprise each of the three Magisterial Districts in Boone County, the following is a list of precincts which make up the respective Magisterial Districts.

1st Magisterial District: Bellevue, Bullittsville, Constance, Hebron, Petersburg No. 1 and Petersburg No. 2 Precincts.

2nd Magisterial District: Burlington No. 1, Burlington No. 2, Florence No. 1, Florence No. 2, and Union Precincts.

3rd Magisterial District: Beaver, Carlin, Hamilton, Verona, Walton No. 1, and Walton No. 2 Precincts.

All voters registered in the foregoing precincts are eligible to vote for the candidates for each district whose names appear on the ballots in that particular precinct in the coming Primary Election, May 28, 1957.

Last day to register March 30, 1957, for the May Primary.

C. D. Benson, Clerk Boone County Court.

Y. W. A. Week of Prayer

The Y. W. A. of the Walton Baptist Church held their Week of Prayer program at the church, Monday evening, March 4. There were eight members and the counselor present.

Sunday afternoon, March 10, the Y. W. A. went to Big Bone to put on a program and show the Big Bone group how a Y. W. A. group is functioned. There were eight members and two counselors present. Those who attended were: Donna Wright, Irma Rector, Patsy Markberry, Shirley Saylor, Barbara Abner, Betty Johnson, Janice Osburn, Dora Pennington, Mrs. Joseph Tackett, and Loretta Johnson.

Any girl, age 16-24, unmarried, is invited to attend the next meeting, which will be held at the church Monday evening, April 8, at 7:30.

Verona Homemakers

The Verona Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Ivy Vest, Friday, March 1. The meeting was called to order by the president, and members answered roll call by giving the name of their favorite flower. A discussion on ways to improve the club was had.

Members attending: Mrs. A. M. Davis, Mrs. Etta McManama, Mrs. Ethel Fooks, Mrs. Elizabeth Crowe, Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Pearl Kennedy, Mrs. Pearl Alphin, Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mrs. Frances McCormick, Mrs. Lillian Jackson, Mrs. Dora Burchett and son, Mrs. Lucille Elliott and daughter, the hostess and little Melinda Jo Brown.

Firemen Answer 3 Calls

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department answered three calls the past week. They answered grass fire alarms Saturday and Sunday, according to Chief Worthington, and on Monday they were summoned to the home of Walter Whitson, Walton-Nicholson Road, where the only damage was from smoke.

People are urged to be careful of grass fires—they can become a menace.

Alcohol Education Week Observance At Piner Church

Alcohol Education Week will be observed at the Piner Baptist Church, March 25-29, according to the pastor, W. Robert Shettler. The study will be from 7:30 to 9:15 each evening. The church invites all interested persons to attend this study. The church business will run, and there are classes for all age groups. Teachers and classes are as follows:

Primary, Mrs. Christina Oliver; junior, Mrs. Mello Cook; intermediate, Mrs. Read Shettler; young people, Bro. Frank Kuriger, pastor of Kenton Baptist Church; adults, Bro. W. Robert Shettler.

You and yours are invited to attend this study and hear what science and the scriptures have to say about the use of alcohol. There is a shadow over America. What is it? Why is it? What can be done about it? Come one, come all, come often, and hear the answer to these and other vital questions.

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."—Prov. 20:1.

2018 VOTERS DROPPED

The Boone County Purgation Board, comprised of John W. Grant, Democrat; Wilfred Scott, Republican, and Daniel Baker, citizen, completed their work March 9. Mr. Grant, chairman of the board, said they were fortunate in being able to complete this job in as much as the voting books had not been purged in the past 22 years.

The board "cancelled" 2,018 names, and of this number, 1,010, "moved out of precinct." 916 "failed to vote at any primary or regular election for two consecutive years, last past; 72 "persons who are deceased," and 20 "who have changed their name."

The board will make recommendations to the County Election Commissioners. Mr. Grant said that precinct officers were very cooperative.

This board will be in session for the coming three years, and Miss Donna Robinson, Burlington, is stenographer.

Boone County Garden Club Making Plans For June Show

The Boone County Garden Club held its basic arrangements already set up, though she started a few from the initial accessories and ingredients. She demonstrated combinations of dried, cured, artificial and fresh plant materials in beautiful harmony and made many helpful suggestions as to way of making a few flowers serve a large purpose, though as a florist she would prefer that we use dozens—as an artist she gave a delicate touch here and there and the result was that an amateur dream of and keeps striving for. She was very gracious and generous with her information as to sources of materials, makeshift use of simple, everyday household things to beautify our homes and answered questions after she had given her talk.

A tea was served afterwards which was most enjoyable on the first spring-like day of the season and the Boone County Garden Club was happy to count more than fifty guests—neighbors, members of other clubs, and out-of-town guests.

Officers of the club and the hostesses were happy to have lapel corsages of green for St. Patrick's Day, which were a gift from Mrs. William Long of Family Gardens, Florence. Punch was served by Mesdames Paul Cheney and J. F. Daugherty. The hostesses were Mesdames William Long, William Daly, J. F. Daugherty and T. C. Crume.

Working committees for the June flower show were announced by Mrs. R. C. Garrison, and all members whose names were read are urged to begin to think of their duties and start work so that the last week will not find everyone breathless and behind with the work. Members are also reminded of the April meeting which will be a workshop on Flower Arrangements—a most appropriate prelude to the flower show. This meeting will be held at the Florence Community Center, April 9, at 11 a. m., and each member is asked to bring a sandwich, as the hostesses for the day will serve drinks and a dessert. There will be more publicity about this meeting in later issues of this paper.

STAFFORDSBURG

L. M. Riley was honored with a birthday dinner on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dewey Parsons and family. The guests included the following, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley, all from this neighborhood, and Mr. and Mrs. Winard Riley and daughter of Lexington. Our wish is for many happy returns.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish spent a few days the past week with their children in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna called on Mr. Howard Stafford who recently returned from the hospital. He is really pleased when his friends come to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mills and sons, David and Michael, have recently moved on the Morris Wharton farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby and daughter—Mr. and Mrs. Winford Riley and daughter are leaving on Friday to visit their parents in Florida.

Because of the recent school holiday, Rev. and Mrs. Ray Martin and children visited her parents for a few days the past week.

Mrs. Dawson Ballinger entertained the W.S.C.S. on Thursday evening. Had a good number present including one guest, Mrs. Ray Martin.

Mrs. Daisy Richardson who has been a shut-in for the past several months is now suffering from a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children, Louie and Lynn, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney and other relatives.

Sorry to learn that Mr. Harry Rees is again on the sick list.

Methodist Youth Fellowship
A group of young people met at the home of Emma Yates on Sunday afternoon and after rehearsing some songs for the Sunday morning services, organized on Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship. The following officers were elected: president, Sandra Holl; vice-president, Tom Nunery; secretary, Cheryl Rumm; treasurer, Juanita Taylor.

They decided to meet twice a month on Sunday evenings at 7 o'clock. Those present were in addition to the officers, Whynell Watson, Roberto Burns, Sally and Susan Rich, Judy Rapp, Karen Bruggen, Carol Shaw and Jerry Binder. Mrs. David Kennedy and Mrs. John Shaw were also present.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

The March meeting of the Staffordsborg W. S. C. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Dawson Ballinger last Thursday evening at 8 p. m. with president, Mrs. J. J. Barnett presiding. The devotion was opened with song. Prayer by Mrs. Agnes Barnett. Scripture reading by Don Keeney.

Mrs. John Shaw, program leader, gave a talk on Paul's Letters. A panel presentation was given by Mrs. Agnes Barnett, first speaker, Mrs. Margie Rich; second and Mrs. Bessie Cummings, third, which was well represented. Mrs. J. A. Keeney gave a reading from the Study book, which they are planning on a class this Thursday evening at 8 p. m. at the parsonage with Mrs. Parish as hostess.

The business meeting was then opened by the president. The roll call was called with seventeen members present and one visitor. Several of our members were absent on account of illness.

The meeting was closed with prayer by our visitor, Mrs. Ray Martin. After which refreshments of ice cream and cake, by the hostess, Mrs. Ballinger, assisted by Mrs. Don Keeney and Mrs. Howard Willoughby.

The April meeting will be with Mrs. J. J. Barnett on Thursday, April 11 at 8 p. m. All members are urged to be present at that meeting at which time all new officers will be elected for this coming year.

Oak Island Homemakers
The Oak Island Homemakers held their March meeting at the church. The last lesson on seat caning was given by Mrs. Steeley and Mrs. Donald Riddell. Devotions were read by Mrs. Donald Riddell. "Care of the lawn" was given by the garden leader, Miss Nell Neihoff.

Those present were Mesdames Arthur Steeley, Frank Jackson, Edward Kerr, Alvin Olinx, Robert Wainwright, O. B. Black, Donald Riddell, Russell Rector, Sherman Barberick, Albert Martin, Miss Nell Neihoff, and a visitor, Mrs. G. Dunn.

Punching fruit to see if it is ripe increases spoilage, and costs retailers thousands of dollars each year, which in turn is passed on to the consumer.

SCOUTS WIN HONORS

Thomas Wilson and James Gang, Boy Scout Troop 14, Forest Hills, received the "Ad Altice De" award from Bishop William T. Mulloy of Lexington, February 17. This is the highest honor the church can give a boy in connection with Scouting. They are justly proud of this achievement.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilson of Mason Road, and attends Holy Cross School.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gang of Porter Road, and attends St. Cecilia School, Independence.

CIRCLE SECURITY PLAN TO BE INTRODUCED HERE

Several Mutual of Omaha representatives will introduce Mutual of Omaha's new hospital, sickness, accident and surgical Circle Security Plan for individual or family protection in this area, including parts of Boone and Kenton counties.

The Mutual of Omaha representatives include Thomas H. Jenkins, supervisor; John Dietz, Milton Ramsey, and Kenneth Smith. They represent the largest exclusive health and accident company in the world. The company pays out in benefits over $1,400,000 each week. Total benefits paid by the company exceed $600,000,000.

Mutual of Omaha's new Circle Security Plan features a renewal safeguard and does not reduce benefits because of age. John B. Conrad, district manager, explains that the renewal safeguard provides that when a person qualifies for the coverage, the company cannot refuse to renew it for health reasons to the age of 65. Special plans are available for those over age 65.

"This type of voluntary health insurance," Mr. Conrad said, "is proving extremely popular wherever we introduce it. The coverage includes hospital, surgical and income protection insurance and the cost is reasonable."

Mutual of Omaha, which is licensed in each of the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Canada, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Alaska and the Canal Zone, is known in the insurance industry as one of the pioneers in health and accident protection.

Those desiring to be seen first complete and mail the coupon which will be found in a full page advertisement in this paper or call Mr. Jenkins at the Phoenix Hotel, Walton 29.

Thirty-nine counties in Kentucky reported having organized homemakers chorus the past year.

when sickness or accident runs up sky-high medical bills . . . cuts off your regular income

We're coming to tell you why the new Circle Security Plan is America's most talked-about health and accident policy!

It's the plan that pays you cash when you really need it! Cash to help pay the doctor and medical bills. Cash to help pay the rent, the food bills, the installments on your car or home.

CASH YOU CAN COUNT ON when accident or sickness keeps you off the job . . . puts an end to your regular paychecks.

The Circle Security Plan is a new idea in family protection . . . realistically based on today's higher cost-of-living and hospital rates. It is backed

"Both my wife and I have been insured with your company for the past 12 years, and during that time we have drawn benefits several times. You have paid me $450.00 alone for my present illness which started in December, 1956. We are glad to recommend your company."—Charles D. Fennell, Walton, Ky.

"Thank you for your help on our hospital bills following the tragedy that happened to my husband. Your company has been fair and prompt."—Mrs.
Walter Caddock, Union, Ky.

"I applied for your policy on October 17, 1956, and on October 18, I was severely injured in a truck accident. You issued my policy anyway and since then I have received over $2,000 in benefits. I would urge everyone to get their protection now, from Mutual of Omaha. If I had waited it would have been too late."—Marvin L. Tanner, 121 Carlisle Ave., Florence, Ky.

"I am truly grateful to Mutual of Omaha for their prompt payments and courteous service during my illness and I can sincerely recommend them to anyone in the need of insurance."—Rev. R. F. DeMoisey, Walton, Ky.

"My dealings with your company as a policyholder have been very fair and satisfactory. I am glad to recommend Mutual of Omaha."—Charles L.
Hempfling, Taylorsport, Ky.

"My family has received benefits five different times since 1950 from Mutual of Omaha. Anyone who wants the best in coverage should have this plan."—Mrs. Madeline Walton, Route 2, Burlington, Ky.

"My claim following hospitalization was promptly and fully handled. This is the second time I have drawn benefits, and I am very pleased with Mutual of Omaha's service."—S. R. McCall, Route 1, Independence, Ky.

"I have been insured with Mutual of Omaha for a number of years and my claims have always been satisfactorily and promptly paid."—Lloyd F.

MUTUAL OF OMAHA'S CIRCLE SECURITY PLAN

...while you're in the hospital
...after you leave the hospital

YES...MONTHLY CASH PAYMENTS FOR DISABILITY—EVEN FOR LIFE!***

According to the plan you select, pays you:

*$50.00 to $500.00 a month when totally disabled by covered accident or sickness that confines you at home or in the hospital—even for life!

$25.00 to $250.00 a month when partially disabled by accident for up to 3 months . . . $50.00 to $500.00 a month when totally disabled by covered sickness, but not confined, for up to 3 months.

$5.00 to $15.00 a day hospital room and board for up to 500 days. Pays full daily rate to which your plan entitles you even if hospital room and board charge is less.

Hospital "Extras": Pays up to $50.00 each for medicines and hypo-dermics; $25.00 each for operating room, blood transfusions, oxygen, surgical dressings, and costs; $20.00 each for anesthetics and x-ray; and $10.00 for laboratory service.

Double benefits when hospitalized from 31 to 60 days.

Triple benefits when hospitalized over 60 days.

Up to $20.00 for hospital out-patient expense, if not confined to a hospital but need hospital treatment.

$5.00 to $375.00 surgical benefits on a scheduled basis according to the nature of the operation. Even covers dislocations and fractures. Pays whether operation is performed at home, in doctor's office, or in hospital.

Maternity benefits, effective under family plans after 10 months from policy date.

A POLICY THAT'S YOURS TO KEEP!

Once you qualify, your policy cannot be cancelled by the company for health reasons up to age 65! Even then you will be eligible for insurance for which you then qualify. This is protection that is yours to keep . . .
no matter how many times you collect benefits . . . no matter how your physical condition changes! Coverage can be modified only in cases of fraud, overinsurance, or change to a more hazardous job, and your cost cannot be increased unless rates are increased on like policies.

● FAST CLAIM PAYMENTS FROM LOCAL OFFICES!

You can have all or part of this plan to fit your needs . . .

and your policy clearly states conditions of coverage. For example: you are covered for accidents occurring after policy date; for ordinary sickness, the cause of which originates 90 days from policy date; such sickness resulting in surgery if operation is performed more than 90 days after policy date. Even covers heart trouble, hernia, diseases of the female generative organs originating more than 90 days after policy date. The only sickness and accidents not provided for are insanity, mental disorders, war, or military service.

Coverage is effective in any private hospital in the United States, Canada, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Canal
Zone, Virgin Islands . . . 6 months world-wide coverage.

ATTENTION:

GROUP PLAN MEMBERS

and those covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employer's Liability.

The Circle Security Plan can be fitted to your present group plan to broaden its

Simon Kenton F.H.A. Asks "Do You Know?"

Kentucky's total Vocational Home-making program consists of teaching organized classes, home projects and experiences, Future Homemaker chapters and adult classes. Simon Kenton's program has all of these with the exception of adult classes.

In teaching organized classes the seven areas of homemaking which are taught are: Foods, Clothing, Housing, Relationships, Child Care, Health, and Management. In the foods area, we divide into family groups and plan a day's meals using the basic seven food groups. We find our recipes and plan our market order, then we prepare and serve the meals. In the clothing area, we divide into family groups and make a garment after first learning the selection of good material, patterns and equipment. We have units in good grooming and selecting and buying our clothes. In the housing area we have units which teach us to decorate the interior and exterior of our homes. We learn how to choose and arrange furniture, select color schemes, and plan our yards so they are attractive. In the relationship area we have a unit on growing up and we learn how to entertain and associate with people our own age and with those younger and older than ourselves. In the child care area we learn how to take care of babies and older children. We also have units in understanding, teaching, and enjoying small children. In the health area we think in terms of how to make the home safe by not over-loading the sockets or using pennies for fuses. We learn to take care of insect bites, sprains, broken bones, burns, cuts, poisons, and many other injuries. In the management area the girls learn how to live in the homemaking department and plan the year's work. We have appreciation and how to manage our time, money, and energy.

In teaching non-vocational classes the teacher just teaches sewing and cooking. She teaches sewing one semester and cooking for the other semester. You can see now how a girl with a vocational homemaking program has a wider range of homemaking experiences than she would have with a non-vocational program.

Simon Kenton's homemaking department offers its services to the school. This is done by having a sewing kit for mends and repairs on things like the basketball uniforms. We also have a first aid kit for injuries or minor accidents. The homemaking girls clean the offices, locker rooms, and rest rooms. Simon Kenton has four homemaking classes daily for Homemaker I and II with a project period provided. Each class period lasts for one hour. The local Board of Education and the State Department of Education provide the homemaking department, equipment, and the teacher. The state supervisor of Homemaking Education in Kentucky is Miss Mary Lois Williamson.

The home project program consists of each girl using one of the seven areas of homemaking for an experience in the home. We are encouraged to have a project each semester and also during the summer. The summer project must be completed before credit is given for that year. Mrs. Helen McElroy, who is employed twelve months a year instead of nine, visits us at our home to help and advise us in our work.

There were 277 home projects carried on in Kenton county last year. We are encouraged to have a project in each of the seven areas of homemaking and then repeat areas we like best for additional projects.

Another part of the total homemaking program is the Future Homemaker of America. We think this organization is so important because we learn to work together cooperatively and each girl is given an opportunity to work. We also learn to work and help with whatever we have, whether it be time, material or service. In our organization we also learn to have good, clean fun. One of our activities is the field trip. We visit nearby places of interest such as the Airport, Conservatory, and Singer Sewing Machine Company. We also give a sweetheart party for the Future Farmers and honor the F.H.A. beau at the time. During the spring, we have our Mother-Daughter banquet, honoring our mothers.

Our state F.H.A. project in Kentucky is the Scholarship Fund. Our chapter contributed $8.50 toward this fund which will allow six $200 scholarships to deserving girls who wish to major in Home Economics in college.

The National organization also has projects which local chapters are encouraged to work on during the year. These are: Families Together, UNESCO, Home, School and Community Beautification, Civil Defense, and Teenager Consumer. Our chapter is trying in many ways to help promote these projects. We had a chili supper and encouraged our members to come with their families to help our families do more things together. Our chapter also received birthday pennies from each member to be sent to the United Nations UNESCO in Jordan. We are also planning to plant rose bushes around the school for the school beautification. Our chapter works for the services to the community. Some of these services are the scrap drive, the birthday pennies for UNESCO, and Eastern Kentucky flood relief.

Services to the school are also goals of our organization. We observed a good citizenship week and set up activities for each day of that week. Some of these were: Pick up papers, get in overdue books, cafeteria courtesy, teachers appreciation day, help around the home, visit the church of your choice.

As you can see the Future Homemaker is not only a local organization but is also National. We call our local group in the school, a chapter. The chapters around this locality make up our district. All of the fourteen districts in Kentucky make up the State Association. Chapters in Washington, D. C., Guam, Hawaii, Virgin Islands, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and all states in the United States, except South Carolina, make up the National organization. Our chapter consists of eighty-three members and we hold our meetings each Thursday.

The district has twenty chapters holding two meetings each year. One of our members, Jean Elliott, is district recreation leader. The district advisor is Miss Loretta Greeno of Highlands High School. The state, which consists of over two hundred chapters, holds one meeting each year. Our state advisor is Miss Mary Bell Vaughan. The National organization meets every three years. Last year it met in Chicago, Ill., and our chapter was honored to have delegates to this convention. They were Jo Ann Heidemier, who is state treasurer, and Mrs. McElroy, our advisor.

Each member is expected to have a clear understanding of the fundamentals of our organization. The colors are red and white. Red stands for courage and firm determination to succeed; white for purity and integrity of youth. The flower of our organization is the rose. It was chosen because it grows in all parts of the country.

The emblem of our organization is eight-sided with each point representing one of our purposes.

Around the top is the name of our organization and at the bottom is our motto, "Toward New Horizons." In the center is a house supported by the hands of a boy and a girl, representing that the future homes are in the hands of today's youth. The lines radiating out from the house represent how the homes of today affect the homes of tomorrow.

After we have been a member of F.H.A. for one semester we are eligible to work on a degree. There are three degrees which can be achieved during the time we are a member of the chapter. These are: Junior, Chapter, and State degrees. After holding the Junior degree for one semester, we may receive our Chapter degree. A Chapter degree must be held for one year before a State degree can be conferred. The Junior and Chapter degrees are conferred by the local chapter but the State degree is conferred by the State Association.

We are encouraged to work on a degree because the purpose of the degrees is to help us grow as individuals, home members, chapter members, and school and community members. There are approximately twenty-five girls now working on the Junior and Chapter degrees at Simon Kenton. Jean Elliott, Joyce Moffett, and Pat Jones are working on their State degrees.

Now that you have read this news article we trust that you have a better understanding of Simon Kenton's total Vocational Homemaking program—Publicity Chairman

Bradford O. E. S. Ham Supper

The Annual Ham Supper sponsored by the members of Bradford Star Chapter 493 will be held Saturday evening, March 23rd at the Simon Kenton High School cafeteria. Servings will begin at 5 p. m. and end at 7:30 p. m. For those who are not in favor of ham, beef will be available and the cost will be $1.25 for adults and 75c for children. Pies or cakes are requested from the chapter members by Virginia Carr, Worthy Mat.

Just A Thought

If you live it up, the chances are, later on, that you'll have to live it down.

Personal Interest

Sandy West, of Main St., had as weekend guest, Miss Peggy Filer of Bowman Road.

Many persons from this area visited New Orleans during its Annual Mardi Gras Festivities. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Walzing, Sr., of McCallum Rd., Donald Chapman, Main St. and Tony Huelsman of Cody Rd. All enjoyed a week of fun and frolic and have a desire to return next year for the New Orleans Celebration.

With such a nice weekend, the writer and his family visited the new lake at Verona, Ky., and found many persons having brought their boats and motors from the moth balls and was spending a wonderful day on the Lake, fishing, picnicking and just cruising around. It was noted that a 6 Horse-power boat motor 1 the maximum allowed on Bullock Pen Lake, due to its size.

Alfred Eugene Damon of Steep Creek Rd., arrived home from Lockland Air Force Base in Texas, last week. Alfred (Tadpole) will be home a few more days before reporting to another base for advance training.

Mrs. Betty J. Carr of Pleasure Isle Subd. has been under the Doctor's care, due to a nervous condition. Betty is improving in her illness.

Mr. Chas. Williams of Plantation Heights, Mrs. Jessie Fisk, Miss Janet Fisk, of Nicholson Heights and Leslie Wagner of Shaw Rd., attended the State Basketball Tourney at Louisville last week.

Ed Wietbolter of Main St., has been confined to his home or the past week, due to a virus condition and a throat infection. Eddie is the new caretaker of the Swindler's Funeral Home.

Mildred Auton of Main St., has returned home from the Hospital. Mildred is improving slowly, but will have to return to the hospital later.

Johnny Back of Cody Rd., had a tragedy last Sunday afternoon. He fell his kite right into a tree and couldn't get it down. A new kite is now in the making.

Mr. Otis Scott, of 3-L Highway, who recently purchased the building next to the Independence Christian Church will soon have that lot cleared of all its buildings. This land was purchased by the Christian Church for enlarging their parking area, a very essential project for the members and visitors of this church.

Mrs. Lucille Weatherford of Sugar Camp Rd., fell at her home and received a back and neck injuries, x-rays revealed no broken bones, but have been very painful to Lucille.

Bethel 8 Jobs Daughters Meeting

The next regularly stated meeting for members and officers of Bethel 8 Job's Daughters will be held Monday evening March 25th at 7:30 p. m. at the bank building. Joan Cram, Honored Queen cordially invites all members of the Masonic Orders to be present. Refreshments will be served by the appointed committee.

Litterbug

It seems the travelers are becoming more and more conscious of the word "Litterbug" because I have noticed during last week-end touring of Kentucky, that the roads are not littered with the picnic papers or traveler's trash who are not aware of the mess they make along our highways. From time to time, news and notices will be published so that they too, might learn about the neat Auto Trash container that can be purchased for a few cents, but will help in keeping our highways and byways looking like a million.

Independence and Community News

Anyone desiring to submit items of interest, personal or otherwise may do so by sending or phoning their information to Bob West, F17-8601. For these items to be published in the very next issue of the Advertiser, they must reach me by Monday afternoon. Social and club gatherings make mighty fine reading because of the wonderful work these members do for the Community. It would be easy for the presidents or secretaries to submit their writings on projects, meetings, and the Highlights of previous meetings to me for publication for all to read about. Remember, just jot it down and send it to Bob West, Independence.

Simon Kenton Band Boosters

The members of the Simon Kenton Band Boosters Club are now obtaining a cast of men to be in the next "Womanless Wedding" which will be put on for the public in the near future. As always, this show will be very funny and will be a sensation for all who will attend. Whenever the date for this show is known it will be published for you to "make it a date" night.

Celebrates Birthday

Mr. Charles M. Wilson of Versailles, Ky., celebrated his 86th birthday last Sunday by having many relatives of Independence, Ky., visit him. Mr. Wilson, known to all in this area as "Pop" Wilson and I know that many of us wish Pop Wilson a very pleasant Birthday greetings.

Hypocrites

Lesson for March 24, 1957

THE word "hypocrite" can be thrown around recklessly. Some one asked Dr. W. L. Lingle once why there are so many hypocrites in the church. His reply was that there are really not so many as some people think. The church, he says, is full of half-way Christians, stupid Christians, ignorant and weak Christians, even 2½ Christians. But a genuine hypocrite is a person who is bad and knows it, and pretends to be good in order to conceal his badness. Such persons, Dr. Foreman says, are few. However, we should not sit back and suppose that all the hypocrites were Bible characters. Still less should any one imagine that today all the hypocrites are in the church. People who are at least temporary hypocrites can be found all around. Perhaps in us!

Family Hypocrites

We don't have to go to church to be hypocrites. We can practice right at home, and some of us do all too well at it. The word originally meant simply "actor." We are all hypocrites when we act better than we know we are, or when our preachments fly at a higher level than our practice. When Father gives the children a lecture on honesty, the very day when he sells a piece of real estate for more than he knows it is worth; when he spansks the children for losing their temper—but doesn't spank them till he has lost his own; when Mother tells the children at table to be patient, though she wouldn't wait in line at the post office but squeezed in out of turn; or when she greets the visiting Mrs. Jones like a long-lost sister, only to say before the visitor gets in to her car, that she hopes that Mother never comes again—Father bore never comes again—Father and Mother are being play-actors. Even the children may be playing-acting when they take their parents' lectures or discipline as if they heard every word and meant to do better next time, when all the while they are thinking about something else; and they may be terrible little hypocrites about school—how mean the teacher is, and how all the children pick on me, and so on.

Business Hypocrites

Dwight L. Moody admitted the church harbors a good many hypocrites, but he said there are a lot more outside the church. There are indeed take business for instance. Listening to the high priests of big business in America, reading the advertisements, the man from Mars might take it seriously and believe that the main object of business is service. The jolly fellowship at luncheon clubs might be taken in the same way; how can these people be deadly rivals? The answer is, they aren't. The club rules allow admittance of only one person from each "classification." But in each classification the man may be a ruthless rival of other men in the same line not in this club. And as for service, it is quite true this is an aim of business, but the aim is making money. Even men in "professions" which have a long and honorable record of service, may be there for the simple reason that there is more money in it than in anything else they would find in general. When a town finds itself year after year without a resident doctor or minister simply because it isn't a town of poor people, the citizens are a little dubious about the "Service" professions.

Hypocrites in Church

Which brings up the kind of hypocrites who drew Jesus' fire—the hypocrites in church. Aren't we all hypocrites when we tip our heads back and sing, "Jesus, I my cross have taken, all I leave and follow thee"—when we decline even the small opportunities for service the church offers us? Isn't a minister a hypocrite when he exhorts his people to virtues which in his position are very easy but which he would find pretty hard if he were in their place? (Temperance, for instance.) Isn't the church member a hypocrite who hastens to dust off the Bible when she sees the minister coming up the front walk? Isn't the churchman a hypocrite who is extra careful of his language around the preacher? And aren't we all hypocrites when we pray, "Thy Kingdom come,"—and back the prayer up with one thin quarter?

Forgiveness

Our verdict had been given. With a word of commendation the Judge discharged us, the ladies and gentlemen of the jury. The completed duty brought little relief. Instead there was a burden, a spiritual weight. Days of testimony and hours of deliberation had given an oppressive sense of the world's sin and suffering.

The door of my church was open and I slipped inside. I was alone as the rays of the setting sun enhanced the rich colors of the windows. All was quiet. I dropped to my knees.

Gradually in the solemn beauty of that sacred place I found peace. Here was sanctuary for me and for all who would come in faith believing.

Thankfully I arose; my heart and mind felt calm and refreshed. I could go home now, but I would return often. In glad fellowship with God's people I would worship the Christ who died that men might be forgiven.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church—without a strong Church—our civilization cannot survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SPRING---1957

We are just bursting with hardware items that cannot be topped for quality and price. If its available you can count on Conrad having the best for the money. Just like this Sto-Dri for stopping water—the best is the cheapest anytime. We have Lawn Boy power mowers for 69.95 and 89.95, the best two-cycle mowers I can buy. We have the Mastercut in three sizes, 109.50, 149.50 and 289.50. We have Eclipse in two sizes, 112.50 and 124.50, also these two with electric starters for 137.50 and 149.50. Also for price, we have a Mono four-cycle 20" cut for 69.50—give it a try and if not OK, you bought it from Conrad.

Doc and Bessie Webster from Zion Station came in late Saturday and bought 5 Mono chain saws. They have been good customers for a long time. Clay Nix from Elliston bought barb wire, staples and nails. Harry Chapman came after three gallons of liquid lime sulphur to spray his fruit trees. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Lunsford were in a few minutes for some paint. Mrs. Ben Snow and son, Wilbur, were in getting several small items.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts came up for a lot of Jelled Magic paint and some Balc white enamel, the new-yellowing type. While here they wanted to look the lawn mowers over, so I took them out to the warehouse and showed them all the lawn mowers—they selected the 21" Eclipse mower as the best buy for the money. I sold a high chair today, an item we sell several of each year, and only 6.95. Every day now these fishermen are buying fishing tackle. Gilbert Smith, one of our best painters, from over at Union, bought fishing tackle. He is ready to go as soon as he gets time. Bill Gasham was in today after more pipe and fittings. He looked over the fishing tackle and nearly bought some, but he had to finish the plumbing first. William Ruth came down after 5 lbs. of lawn seed. T. O. Ballard, my neighbor and barber, bought a lot of that Balc paint for the inside of his home. He is one of the youngest men I know of for 80 years old. He works as a barber every day, does his own housework and now is doing some painting on the floors and the woodwork. The folks up at the Firecrack farm came after more paint for the floors and walls.

We have new Maytag washers in round and square tub, for 95.00. We have a used round tub Maytag for 45.00. We also have some cheaper used washers. Someone called for a used coal range, and we did not have one. We have a new black range with white door panels for 97.50. We have a new porcelain range for 139.50 and we have a four-peak black step stove, oven opens on each side, for only 39.50. Mrs. Ethel Sheppard was in today—she has been using Jelled Magic paint and said it was wonderful and covered so much surface per gallon.

Ed Helmer bought a tobacco seed sower. We sell several of these each year. Saturday we sold out of plastic covers and cans of Dowlume for preparing tobacco plant beds for seed, but I will try to have more in a few days. I also sold out of several varieties of Clay's tobacco seed, but I have more now. We have sold more Clay's seed than ever sold of any other kind before. We received six rolls of new patterns of linoleum and 20 new linoleum rugs, all new patterns. We had some of those Farmers' Feeder seeds that fit on the draw bar of a tractor and drive off the power take-off.

Simon Kenton Student Council Sponsoring A Poster Contest

The Student Council of Simon Kenton High School, Independence, under the student leadership of Garry Sipple, president, Mike Vaughn, vice president, Tom Stephenson, treasurer, Joyce Moffett, secretary, and Doty Cain, reporter is sponsoring a poster contest. The project consists of four major contests: (1) Courtesy and Safety, (2) Alcohol and Narcotics, (3) Sponsorship, and (4) Importance of An Education.

Tom Stephenson

The first three closed with Alma Cain, seventh grade, and Jimmy Filer, sophomore, winners. Jean Pollard, Helen Twelves, sophomores, Sylvia Deglow, senior, and Kenny Jump, seventh grade, took second and third places. The remaining contest, "Importance of An Education," will close March 29.

The posters are displayed in the trophy case. The names of the winners are being engraved on a plaque to be presented to the school, tomorrow day. The entire project is to be entered in the National Student Councils' A. K. Oliver Citizenship Awards contest.

"Ma, Pa, Me" Banquet Held at Simon Kenton

On Thursday, March 21, at 7:00 p. m., the Simon Kenton Senior Y-Teens held their annual Ma, Pa, and Me banquet. An enjoyable meal was served by the Hi-Y boys. Guest entertainers for the evening were Donna Easton, Roger Rouse, and the Keynotes, consisting of Gary Cavanaugh on the drums, Jim Hempling at the piano, and Harry Sparrow on the electric guitar, all from Boone County High School. Miss Fowler, Y-Teen sponsor at Boone County, attended the banquet with them.

The collect was given by Norma Elliott, and during the serving of the dinner, the Keynotes entertained with some instrumental numbers.

During the finish of the meal, Jean Elliott and Wanda Brautigan led in some group singing. The president, Edna Miller, welcomed the guests, and the vice-president, Carol Winburn, gave a toast to the mothers, with a response from Mrs. Winburn. Edna gave a toast to the fathers, with a response from Mr. Miller. Entertainment was then offered by vocalists Donna Easton and Roger Rouse, accompanied by the Keynotes.

Turning to the more serious side, Miss Easton sang a song for the mothers.

Edna Miller

Scottish Rite Club to Meet April 1st at Walton School

Members of the Boone County Scottish Rite Club are to meet at 8 p. m., Monday, April 1, at the Walton school, end of Alto Vista Ave., E. C. Ruppert, Burlington, president, announced.

Mr. Ruppert said that Allie Allnut, 33rd Degree Mason, will be the speaker of the evening. He will talk on the history of Free Masonry. Mr. Ruppert said that All Blue Lodge Masons are extended a most cordial invitation to meet with members of the Boone County Scottish Rite Club on April 1. Refreshments and a social hour will follow the meeting.

Mrs. Boyd Courtney of Salem Creek Road entered Booth Hospital or surgery recently. Her room number is 302.

Accord Students Entertain at Meeting Of Walton P. T. A.

The Walton P.T.A. met last Wednesday at 2:30, with some of the accord pupils of Mrs. Roberto Steinhauser and Miss Donna Wright entertaining. They were: Garry Crutcher, Lee Pennington, Jimmy Stone, Donald Mee, Larry Moser, Billy Wiloughby, Garry Farnash, Mildred Carder, James Handly, Darlene Poore, Joyce Miller, Janice Morgan, Jerry Sisson, and Billy Sexton.

Rev. Joseph Tackett then brought the devotional from the 12th chapter of Romans. He stressed the importance of people living together in harmony with one another, especially in church and school life; each person do the best he can in what we do, use all the talents we are given, be they large or small. He ended with prayer.

It was decided to serve the teachers a dinner March 27, it being Teacher Appreciation Week.

The nominating committee reported, and their recommendations voted upon. Mrs. Margie Ison is to be the new secretary, and Mrs. Rosemary Clements will be district president. They take office in May.

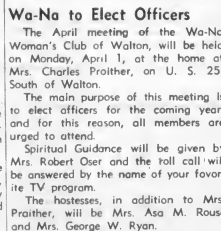

Plans were made for the alumni banquet, to be held May 4, with Mrs. Gaynelle Flynn in charge of all committees.

The next meeting will be held on April 29, at 8:00 p. m. Every parent is urged to be present.

Mrs. Julia A. Rouse and Mrs. Marvin Kendall will be hostesses for the April meeting of the Walton Women's Literary Club, which will be held at Janada Restaurant, Wednesday, April 3, at 2:30 p. m. The guest speaker will be Dr. Virginia Kratz. Her subject will be "Health Sanitation in Boone County."

Scatter Rug Social

A scatter rug social will be given by the ladies of St. Mary's and St. Matthew's churches on Sunday, March 31, at 2:00 p. m., at St. Matthew's School, White Villa. There will be refreshments. The public is cordially invited.

Panel Program Is Planned for Kenton Elementary PTA Meet

On March 28, at 8:00 p. m., Mrs. George White, First Vice-President of the Sixth District Congress, P. T. A., will present a panel program on promoting cooperation between home and school to the Kenton Elementary School P. T. A. Participating in this program will be Mrs. Ray Baldwin and Wayne Bailey, teachers in the school, and Herbert Works and Carl Wicklund.

There will be an election of new officers for the coming year. Delegates to attend the Spring conference of the Sixth District Congress of Parents and Teachers are: Mrs. Harold Schneider, Mrs. Les Field, Mrs. Herbert Works, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. George Dawkins, Mrs. Donald Meyers, Mrs. Carl Wicklund, and Mrs. George Fisk.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burgess were visiting relatives in Carrollton on Sunday afternoon.

Piner School Host To Kenton County Faculty Club Meet

Piner School was host to the Kenton County Faculty Club for their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, March 27. Approximately one hundred persons attended the dinner meeting.

Following the dinner, a business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. Helen McElroy presiding. Then the meeting was turned over to the principal of Piner, Mr. William R. Brown, who presented the program for the evening. The program, a talent show by students from Piner, was prepared and arranged by the faculty of Piner School.

The members were given by those students winning prizes at a recent talent show given at the school. The numbers consisted of a second grade rhythm band, and an upper class fluteophone band. Jerry Spiegel and Bruce Lunsford presented an accordion duet. Becky Jones did an acrobatic act. There was piano solo by Linda Spiegel. Pam McKinley, Darryl Spillman, Dianne Breeden and Linda Spiegel all presented vocal solos. Linda Foreman gave a xylophone solo.

The dinner and program was enjoyed by all attending. The April meeting has been cancelled in order that all may attend the Kentucky Educational Association held in Louisville. The last meeting of the year will be held in May at the James A. Caywood School.

MRS. MARTHA L. HUEY

Mrs. Martha L. Huey, member of a prominent Boone county family, died Thursday, March 21, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, following an operation. Mrs. Huey resided near Union, on U. S. Highway 42.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph A. Huey, her daughter, Mrs. Patsy Slayback, of Union; two sons, Lassing Huey, of near Union, and Dr. J. M. Huey, of Walton; two brothers, Walter H. Lassing of San Diego, Calif., and Coleman H. Lassing of St. Petersburg, Fla.; four grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Huey's brother, the late Judge John M. Lassing, was formerly a member of the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Huey was a member of the Union Homemakers' Club, the Union Eastern Star Chapter, and the Florence Woman's Club. She was also an active member of Union Presbyterian Church.

Service were held Saturday afternoon at 2:00 in the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence. Burial was in Richmond Cemetery.

Walton Bldg. and Loan Celebrates 70th Year Under Present Charter

In the rear of the spacious offices of the Dixie State Bank, is the office of the Walton Building and Loan Association. This is the B&L, celebrates its 70th year under its present charter, and no one knows how long it may have existed under previous charter.

The thing which makes this birthday an item of news is the fact that the B&L is the oldest corporation in the City of Walton, perhaps the oldest in Boone county. Its officers and directors are understandably proud of this distinction.

Under the tutelage of E. J. B&L's secretary and treasurer, the past several years, the B&L has become one of the most important building and loan associations in the state. Quietly and in a very unassuming manner, Mr. West has furthered the policy of the B&L to make real estate loans and real estate improvement loans to hundreds of customers throughout the Northern Kentucky area. The specialty of the B&L is in the loan of money to customers who wish to improve their property with, for example, a new furnace, roof, storm windows and doors, garage, car port, barn, outbuildings, sidewalks, or any one of a dozen other ways in which property can be made more attractive, functional and valuable.

In the B&L, you will not find the marble décor of fancy firm that is present in many associations of today. You will find, however, the things that are much more important, that is, courteous and efficient service that has marked our oldest corporation from the time of Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison.

To the Walton B&L we say, "Happy Birthday!"

Keep Stock From Trampling Pastures In Winter and Spring

When there has been ample rainfall and pastures have been grazed closely, much damage can result from trampling by livestock, says Lyle Leonard, UK Agricultural Extension Service conservationist.

Soil under a good pasture is granular and open, rain percolates into it until the soil is thoroughly saturated.

When livestock trample the saturated soil, the ground becomes churned up and puddled, more compact, and water from later rains enters slowly.

Trampling wet soil has the same effect as plowing or harrowing when soil is too wet; it gets hard and cloddy.

As the soil compacts, feeder roots of young grass and clover have a harder time making rapid growth in spring; this causes later grazing.

And as the field dries later on, spring rains soak in more slowly and the subsoil gets a good deal drier than it should.

Leonard says the trampling also cuts up young roots, slowing grass growth.

A badly trampled pasture may be as much as three weeks late providing good spring pasture.

WHITES TOWER

Joe Schadler, a resident of the Tower, we are sorry to report suffered a light stroke and has been off from work for several days. He is much better today Monday.

Mrs. Lucille Weatherford of Sugar Creek Road, fell on her porch one day last week, and was taken to the hospital or X-ray examination. No news thus far as to the results of that test.

Quite a little excitement was created in the Tower, Saturday afternoon when a resident of the Tower burning weeds and grass off his garden let the flames get away from him in the high wind, and the blaze blew thru his fence into the farm of Mr. Pruitt adjoining the Tower. Flames were really leaping for awhile and traveled several hundred yards into the farm field before the Independence fire department arrived and did an excellent job of getting the blaze under control. Just another big feather in the caps of our volunteer fire departments.

Rev. George Caddi will begin a revival at the Decoursey Baptist Church on March 18. Everyone is invited and this is an invitation to all those in the vicinity to hear a man called of God to deliver the messages.

We can't understand why there is so much sickness these days when all you have to do is turn on your radio in the morning and you can find a cure for every ailment of mankind, and the best part of it is, if it don't cure you, you get your money back.

SPRING IS SEASON FOR FIRE DANGER

State Fire Marshal Roy Humkey, taking note of changeable weather of early spring, has warned against the danger of overheating furnaces and heating units when a sudden temperature dip may follow a period of relatively warm weather.

End of winter and beginning of spring present conditions which constitute a major fire threat, he said, adding "it is easy to become careless when you wake up on a cold morning and try to warm the house in a hurry."
Humkey called the use of kerosene to start a fire "the most dangerous fire trap you can fall into," and urged that such practices never be employed.

The fire marshal also called upon farmers to use extreme caution when burning tobacco beds, pointing out that two Kentuckians recently burned to death when they fell into such flames.
Due to modern processing and marketing, shrimp are available today in all parts of the country.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Last Judgment

Lesson for March 31, 1957

ALL human judgments are imperfect, and some of them highly unjust, because no man knows all the circumstances of any act, not even his own. We are notoriously poor judges of our own actions, but we are no juster to others. Judgments of ourselves are spoiled by pride; judgments about others are spoiled by prejudice. We never do really see any action in all its dimensions. We can never judge the consequences of an act because we know only a small fraction of them. We cannot well judge the motives of an act, because we mis-read (or read through rose-colored glasses) our own motives, and the motives of others we can do no more than guess at.

Final Judgment

Nevertheless, most of us are called on to pass judgment on others in various ways. And when we are honest, we do try to come as near to God's viewpoint as we can. That is, we try to take everything into consideration. But try as we may, we must admit first and last that only God can be the final judge, for only he has all the facts. There are many pictures of the "Last Judgment" in the Bible and they do not agree in details, since they are pictures of what cannot really be imagined. But back of all the pictures, stern, compelling, chilling as some of them are, we discern some plain truths. One is that not only is God the final judge of every man, but his judgment is final because he and only he has all the facts, and he does not render his judgment till all the facts are in. True, God's judgment is going on all the time, and we can read them in history. "I can read his righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps" as the poet says. This is true of men and nations, that the divine judgment is interwoven with their lives. God settles many of the affairs of this planet, on this planet. But in the ultimate future, and only then, will all the facts be in. No judgment before then, not even God's, is final.

The Great Separation

All sorts of efforts have been made to dull the force of Jesus' terrible picture of prophecy of the Last Judgment in the parable of the sheep and the goats. It has been said that this is a judgment of nations, not individual persons; but anyone who can read Greek can see that is not the case. The word "them" in Matt. 25:32 plainly does not refer to nations but to persons. (Furthermore, how do "nations" fit into the end of the story?) It has been said too that this is not a separation of the "saved" from the "unsaved." But the issues of the Trial, as Jesus pictures it, are eternal life and eternal death. The fact is, this is Jesus' picture of the Last Judgment of mankind, and there is no getting out of it. At least two points stand out, etched as it were by fire. One is that the final judgment against a man is not necessarily for what he has done but for what he didn't do; did not even think about doing. The other point is that the basis of judgment is "a man's human relations. True, deeper than that is a man's relationship to Christ; but in this parable, Christ identifies himself completely with the troubled sufferers of the world. What we do, or do not do, about human misery, we do or fail to do for the Lord.

The Judgment Seat of Christ

Another strange thing appears in this overwhelming portrayal of judgment, vast and final. The Judge, the King, is the Son of Man, Jesus Christ himself. This fits in with other passages in the New Testament where sometimes Christ, and sometimes God, appears as the Judge of all. This is a tremendous claim on Jesus' part, to have the right to sit on the throne of the universe. No where is the deity of Christ more strikingly affirmed than right here. On the other hand, he is still the Son of Man. He is our Elder Brother, bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh, "made like his brethren in every respect" as Heb. 2:17 says. God in his final judgment, acts with and through his Son who was and ever shall be one with God and one with man. We cannot deceive him. He is one of us.

Dr. Foreman

Consider...

After the bleakness of winter comes Spring. Fulfilling a promise of long ago, the seasons follow one another in divinely planned succession.

All around us we see evidence that evil prevails throughout the world, but the Church gives positive assurance that God is ever present. As Spring brings new life to nature so God, through the Church, brings more abundant life to human beings.

Consider the daffodil—its freshness and beauty speak of hope. Consider the Church—its steadfast faith reaches out to undergird and strengthen mankind. God creates daffodils without our help, but intelligent cultivation makes them even more beautiful. Likewise, He depends on us to work in His Church, helping to spread its influence, to broadcast its message, to make a better world.

Let us accept this tremendous challenge and become a part of God's Church today.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Bible Revival Planned At Crittenden Baptist Church; Starts Sunday

John Duham, pastor of the Crittenden Baptist Church has announced plans are being completed for a Bible Revival to be held March 31 through April 5. There will be an equal teaching and evangelism emphasis in this unusual type of meeting, at the time the first eleven chapters of the book of Genesis will be considered. The evangelist will be Dr. Clyde T. Francisco, who is the John R. Sampy professor of Old Testament Interpretation at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville.

Dr. Clyde T. Francisco

Dr. Francisco is a native of Virginia, where he was named to the All-State football team while in high school. He went on to the University of Richmond where he played fullback on the university football team. He graduated from this school with the highest average in the history of the school—all A's for a 3.00 average.

Later he earned the Th.M. and Th.D. degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, in addition to completing studies at the University of California, Stanford University, and Pacific School of Religion.

His numerous pastoral experiences include a pastorate at Turner Ridge Baptist Church in Grant County from 1941 to 1943.

It is felt that this type of meeting will be a blessing to all who are in attendance. Everyone is urged to attend.

Buy Fertilizer Early To Save Time and Avoid Spring Delays

THE Middle West Soil Improvement Committee lists four advantages in buying your fertilizer early this winter and storing it on the farm until spring:

1—You are sure of getting the exact grade and amount of fertilizer you want. The plant food is well cured and you can get immediate delivery.

2—You have the fertilizer on hand and ready to use at a moment's notice when planting time arrives.

3—You save time and avoid costly delays in the spring when everybody is scrambling for fertilizer.

4—You avoid the risk of scarcities in the spring rush period when some grades of plant food are sometimes hard to get.

The committee points out that fertilizer can be safely stored so it will be in good condition when it is needed for crop operations. It doesn't take up much room, either.

The plant food can be stored in the barn or some other dry building. It is advisable to tie the bags on 2x4's or cribbing above the floor, so the fertilizer won't soak up moisture.

Bags should be piled only seven or eight high to prevent caking. Broken bags should be kept separate from the main pile, says the committee.

Florence Homemakers

The Florence Homemakers Club held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy C. Lutes, with Mrs. C. F. Blankenbaker as co-hostess.

Mrs. Don Eger, president, presided over the business meeting conducted in the morning. A report of the bake sale

Extra Profits from Fertilizer Pay for Better Farm Living

EXTRA profits from fertilizer use can help farmers pay for comforts and conveniences they and their families desire, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out.

Tests at agricultural colleges and field experience on farms, says the committee, show that fertilizer can return anywhere from $2 to $5 in increased crop production value for every dollar invested in plant food.

The extra dollars can help farmers buy new cars, tractors and equipment, new furniture, rugs and drapes, labor-saving electric kitchens, more plumbing ing or new refrigerators, the committee declares.

"That makes prosperity for local merchants and for business generally," says the committee, "and it all springs from intelligent use of fertilizer."

"When a farmer invests in crop-producing items such as fertilizer, he cuts the cost of production for each crop unit and he increases his profit margin."

"Soil building investments usually pay back the very first year in increased crop yields. And after that, the farmer has carry-over profits in future years from bigger crop yields per acre on more fertile soil."

Kenton Utopia Club Meets

The Kenton Utopia Club met at the Visalia School with Charles Grift as host. Reservations were made for the conference at Lexington, March 30.

The club is to select a man and a woman from the club to win an award of merit as being an outstanding Utopia Club member, depending on previous 4-H club work, Utopia Club work, church work, FFA, FHA work, and farm work.

The two selected were William B. Barnes and Mrs. Wanda Works. They will be in the running for State medals at the State conference.

Two, Riley brought two very educational movies to be shown. The meeting was then adjourned, and everyone enjoyed a lovely lunch, served by the host.

About 8,500 students of agriculture are expected to graduate in June from land-grant colleges and universities, and about 15,000 job openings are awaiting in fields related to agriculture, says the USDA.

Soil Care Pays Off For New Corn Prince

DAVID LUX, 18, of Shelbyville, Indiana, the new Corn Prince, maintained an old family tradition when he won top honors at the recent International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago.

David is a third-generation champion in the family. His grandfather, Peter J. Lux, started at all back in the 1920's when he won Corn King title four times. David's father, Maurice, was Corn Prince twice and his Uncle Frank, also a former Corn Prince, was named reserve grand champion corn grower at the 1956 international show.

The Lux family attribute their corn growing success to careful seed selection, good management and soil fertility.

Last season, the fertility program included 400 pounds per acre of 4-16-18, plowed down before corn planting, plus 200 pounds added in the row at planting. In addition, 45 pounds per acre of 80 per cent nitrogen fertilizer was applied for the corn crop.

Ordinance No. 259

An Ordinance prohibiting children under 16 years of age from congregating and loitering on the streets of Walton, Kentucky, after certain hours of night.

WHEREAS, it has been called to the attention of the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, that minor children under 16 years of age have been congregating and loitering on the streets of Walton, Kentucky, until the late hours of night;

AND WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, is interested in the health and well being of the children of today, and realizing that the best interest of the child is neglected by tolerating this situation;

Now, therefore, the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, does ordain as follows:

That no child under 16 years of age shall be permitted to congregate or loiter on the streets of Walton, Kentucky after the hour of 11:00 P. M., from Sunday through Friday.

That no child under 16 years of age shall be permitted to congregate or loiter on the streets of Walton, Kentucky after the hour of 11:30 P. M., on Saturday.

Any parent or parents who permits his child, or children, under 16 years of age to violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than Five ($5.00) Dollars nor more than Fifty ($50.00) Dollars for each offense.

Passed and adopted this 25th day of March, 1957.

LEON B. HALL, Mayor, City of Walton, Kentucky

Attest: JOHN J. ROMES, Clerk, City of Walton, Kentucky

Food costs in the nine states of the northeast region of the United States are higher than in any other region due to less home-food production and because more meals are eaten away from home.

Soil Test Samples Total Still Too Low

Kentucky farmers, spending about $40 million in 1956 on fertilizer, still are using much of this plant food and limestone in such a way that "greatest possible returns per dollar invested are not realized."

George Corder, UK Agricultural Extension Service soil specialist, says this is indicated by soil testing figures. In 1956, from 40 to 50 thousand such tests were made. This is about one-third the desired number.

He noted there are 107 county laboratories in the state for such testing. Farmers using soil testing are getting savings in fertilizer costs that others are not.

Attend Land Bank Meet

Carl Sheriff, Williamstown, and H. W. Bertram, Cold Springs, have returned from Louisville, where they represented the Northern Kentucky National Farm Loan Association at the 40th anniversary celebration of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville.

Sherriff and Bertram were among 350 attending the meeting from Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

Thomas A. Maxwell, director of land bank service for the Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C., was the speaker. He characterized the Federal Land Bank of Louisville as "the most rapidly growing bank of all twelve. In eight years your loans outstanding have almost trebled."

Dwarf Fruit Trees Fit Family Needs Very Well

Dwarf fruit trees have proved much more satisfactory for family fruit production than standard trees, says A. J. Olney, UK Agricultural Experiment Station horticulturist.

Dwarf trees begin to bear the third or fourth year; their fruit averages as large or larger than standard trees; and they can be sprayed with garden equipment because of their small size.

Spray equipment for standard trees often is too expensive for family use. Olney notes, the planting is larger than necessary for a family and entails a good deal of labor and expense homeowners can ill afford.

Olney recommends planting dwarf trees 15 feet apart, and keeping a 6' circle around each tree free of grass and weeds. A mulch of partly rotted manure applied annually helps maintain growth until trees begin to bear; after that, small amounts of fertilizer are recommended broadcast around each tree in early spring.

Dwarf trees have restricted root systems, so a stake should be driven close to the tree and the latter tied to it. The trees require an annual light pruning.

Circular No. 521 lists summer and fall ripening varieties, plus spraying and other handling tips.

Kentucky, which ranks 13th in total national milk production, rates sixth nationally in the production of cheddar (American) cheese, and fourth in evaporated milk.

Conservation Contest Offers Nine Awards To F.H.A. Members

Nine awards totaling $240 are awaiting or vocational agriculture students in the 1957 Kentucky Future Farmers of America Soil and Water Conservation Contest.

Any F.F.A. member regularly enrolled in high school vocational agriculture may enter this eighth annual competition, sponsored by The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times and WHAS, Inc. Graduates of last spring are also eligible if they are under 21 years old and if soil and water management are part of their agriculture program.

State winners will receive $50. Prizes of $40 and $30 will be presented to second and third-place winners respectively while top contestants from the six remaining F.F.A. districts will each get $20.

In addition, to their prizes, the three top boys and their parents will be awarded all-expense paid trips to Louisville for the twentieth annual Farm Awards Luncheon next spring. Here they will meet with winners in four other farm-radio contests of the newspapers and radio-television station.

Each contestant must submit a report of his year's accomplishments, a story explaining the conservation practices he carried out and two maps of the farm on which his work was done.

The contest covers any twelve months ending between January 1 and March 1, 1957. Entries are due by May 31.

Contest forms may be obtained by writing W. C. Montgomery, executive secretary, Kentucky Association of F. F. A., Frankfort, Ky.

Bykota Skating Party

The Bykota class of the Walton Christian Church will have a skating party Tuesday, April 2, at the Walton Roller-drome. Tickets may be secured from any member of the class or at the door. Admission 45 cents. Door prizes. Come on out and join the fun.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By G. H. Kingsberry

Travel Time:

This is the time of the year Kentuckians like to visit Washington. So, this is the time to give some recommendations on what to see. The Capitol is filled with monuments and portraits of interest to the Blue Grass State. Don't forget, for example, to see the statue in the Hall of Fame, paying tribute to that native of Kentucky, Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy.

Ask the guide on your tour to show you the desk occupied by Davis when he was a senator from Mississippi. And if you are fortunate to get in the floor of the Senate, look for the boy-scout on the desk. It was put there by a Union soldier in a fit or anger.

Abe Lincoln:

Look for the Abe Lincoln statue, too, just to show your allegiance to the Union. In case you've forgotten, he, like Davis, was a native of our state. Of course, no one forgets the Lincoln Memorial. Thirty six columns hold the majestic roof in place. Look for the one which represents our state.

In the Capitol, again in the Hall of Fame, is another statue celebrating the achievements of a great Kentuckian, Dr. McDowell of Danville. See it! Remember, then, forever, Dr. Ephraim McDowell's contribution to the world of medical surgery.

Also Henry Clay:

One of the finest paintings in the Capitol Building is the portrait of Henry Clay, the great commoner, a congressman from the Lexington District.

He was elected speaker during his first term in the Lower House and, until recently, he held the record for length of service.

Adlai Stevenson, the elder, is represented by a bust. He, a vice president of the United States under Cleveland, is the grandfather of today's Adlai. He has a Kentucky background.

Other Sights:

On your Cherry Blossom visit to the Nation's Capitol, you'll want to take a ride on the subway. It runs from the Capitol to the Senate Office Building. Your congressman or senator can make the arrangements, and there is no charge. It's one of the few free rides in Washington.

Your congressman (and your senators) can get you tickets for many other government attractions in Washington. You'll get faster service on a tour of the White House, on a trip through the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, or through the FBI exhibit.

True, you don't have to have those congressional passes, but they'll get you fast accommodations. And they cost neither you, nor your congressman, a single cent.

Birthday Celebration

A host of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Marsh on Sunday, the occasion being to celebrate the birthdays of Mr. Marsh, their son, Wayne, and Mr. Melvin Rust. A bountiful and delicious basket dinner was enjoyed by the following:

Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and sons, Mrs. Iva Rust, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker, Sr. and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rust and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jones and children, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker, Jr. and son, Sandra Chapman, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gullion and daughters of Verona; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsh, Harold Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Rust, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lipscomb, and grandson, and Jimmie Lipscomb, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Browning, Devon, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rader, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marsh and children, Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiley and son, Becky Wilcoxson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frazer, Sherman; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gullen and daughter, Nicholson; Wayne Marsh and the host and hostess. Everyone left wishing Forrest, Wayne, and Melvin many more happy returns.

Fertile Soil Essential For A Good Garden

For a successful vegetable garden, getting the ground in good condition is an important step to be taken now, says Joe Claxton, County Agent. He recommends using a combination of manure and commercial fertilizer so that high fertility may be maintained throughout the coming season.

Results of soil tests have often shown that certain plant foods are present in generous supply, thus effecting a cash saving in fertilizer.

Home gardeners as well as farmers may have soil tested or a nominal fee at the offices of the County Agent.

Soil for a good garden should have a pH of 5.5 to 6.5, Mr. Claxton said, or in terms of plant food, it should have 50 pounds of nitrogen, 100 pounds of phosphate and 100 pounds of potash to the acre. If a soil test shows that the amount of phosphate present in soil is greater than 100 pounds to the acre, an added amount in fertilizer is not necessary.

Lacking a soil test, Claxton recommends using 1,000 pounds of 5-10-10 fertilizer to the acre, or 30 pounds for 1,000 square feet. If manure is used (5 to 10 tons to the acre) the commercial fertilizer recommended should be reduced by about half.

For fertilization by the row without manure, use these amounts for each 100 foot row: rows 12 inches apart, 3 lbs. 5-10-10 fertilizer; rows 24 inches apart, 6 pounds; 36 inches apart, 8 1/2 pounds.

Since it is important that fertilizer not touch vegetable seeds, Claxton recommends that a month before planting time half the amount of fertilizer should be spread on the garden and plowed under. Just before planting is done, spread the remainder, and thoroughly disk or rake it into the soil.

With more favorable weather than the year before, bee colonies in the South-east last year produced nearly a third larger honey crop, totaling more than 4 1/2 million pounds, said the USDA. Kentucky produced 2,992,000 pounds, fifth high among the nine Southeastern states.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The March meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Sterling with Mrs. William Endres assisting. The meeting opened with a prayer and the pledge to the flag was followed by a reading by Mrs. Vera Ott in keeping with the Lenten season.

The club will hold its display for National Home Demonstration Week, April 28 to May 4, at the Second Federal Savings and Loan Branch Office in South Fort Mitchell. Members are planning to attend the District meeting April 26, to be held at the Madison Avenue Church in Cincinnati.

The club will again sponsor the catalog and canning program for the Kenton County 4-H Club this year. Mrs. Frank Afterkirk called attention to the gates and entrances of farms and compared them to the front doors of homes and the impressions they could make on visitors. In her lesson on exterior beautification, she told the members that there were several booklets available on the care of roses, annuals and small gardens at the Home Demonstration office in the Federal Building, Covington.

The Beechgrove club had the pleasure of being represented at the annual "Merry-go-Round" of the Consumer League held March 19 at the Gibson Hotel, with Mrs. Roger Robinson modeling several lovely creations. She is an accomplished seamstress and has been of great value to the club.

Miss Zelma Byerly, home demonstration agent, was a guest at the meeting and spoke on the canning of stools and also on a new program planning for 1958. Mrs. F. M. Powers and Mrs. H. L. Clark will give the lesson on the stools in April. The progress reported showed 12 new lamps and 10 extra shades had been completed, also that seven chairs had been caned and refinished.

Members present were Mesdames William Endres, F. M. Powers, Roy Kummer, William Meyers, William Wolsing, William Clinkenbeard, Verner Stephens, Stanley Parker, Roger Robinson, Louis Lee, Frank Afterkirk, Greg Brumage, George Fennell, Russell Quick, E. A. Sterling, H. L. Clark, Verna Ott, and Raymond McHale.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Afterkirk, on the 17th, with Mrs. m. Clinkenbeard assisting.

Importance of Correct Foods Being Tested In Todd County

The homemakers clubs of Todd County and the home economics department of Elkton High School are co-operating in a project to show the importance of proper food selection and what happens when essentials are limited.

Four white rats in separate cages are being fed different foods over a three-month period: milk only, whole grain cereal only, whole grain cereal and milk, and milk with hamburger or liver added. The results are expected to show the results of a diet low in iron, vitamin B, and calcium in contrast with a combination of foods containing the recommended minerals and vitamins. The experiment will be concluded in late May.

The homemakers, who are paying the expense of the experiment with the research experiment, will check at their monthly meetings the weight of the animals and observe changes in appearance. The home economics students will keep the weekly weight chart, feed and care for the rats.

Freezing and Storing

Some very important points to remember about freezing are listed below, says Mary Ann McCormack, acting Home Demonstration Agent, Boone County.

1. Foods should be quick frozen very soon after they are packed. Prepare only three or four containers or packages at a time and pack. Packed perishable foods should be placed in refrigerator to keep cool until stored in freezer.

2. Pack only as many containers at a time as can be frozen in the home freezer in 24 hours. This will usually be about 2 or 3 pounds per cubic foot of freezer capacity. When lockers are overloaded, freezing is retarded and foods may lose quality or even spoil.

3. Place packages against freezing plates or coils, but spread them out so can move between them.

4. Have the quick-freeze temperature at least 0 degrees F. or preferably -10 degrees to -15 degrees F.

5. After freezing, store food at 0 degrees F. or lower. At higher temperature, frozen foods lose both eating quality and vitamin values.

6. If power for a home freezer is interrupted or the freezer fails to operate normally, do not open the cabinet. Food in a loaded cabinet will usually stay frozen for days even in summer. If repairs cannot be made in one or two days, use dry ice to keep the food frozen or remove the frozen food to a commercial locker plant.

For further information call your Home Demonstration Extension Agent and ask or Circular 527 "Home Freezing of Foods."

after Vapom is applied before seeding. Since Vapom is retained in the same soil for a considerable period, it is desirable to rake the plant bed area very LIGHTLY to break the crust one week before seeding. Vapom is poisonous. Users of Vapom should carefully observe the safety precautions printed on the label, according to Claxon.

Preparing Plantbeds

In preparing tobacco plantbeds Vapom has been very successful in Boone County when applied according to directions. Joe Claxon, County Agent said. Many questions have been received to last few weeks, concerning Vapom and the following is the recommended way of using Vapom.

The ground should be broken and thoroughly disked about one week prior to the time of treatment. Soil temperatures should be 50 degrees F or warmer, at the time of treatment. In extreme dry weather when the ground is dusty a light application of water to the bed a few days prior to treatment, followed by a light raking or disking, is helpful to obtain penetration of the solution. All clods should be either broken up or raked off the bed site.

Use 2 gallons of Vapom in 175 to 200 gallons of water. Stir and sprinkle over 100 square yards of bed area. Applications may be made with power pump or sprinkling can. There should be enough of the solution to penetrate the soil 2 1/2 to 3 inches deep. Vapom undergoes a chemical reaction in the soil, releasing a toxic gas which kills weeds seed.

Vapom may be used in plant-bed preparation in the fall or in the spring. Fall applications are not quite so effective in controlling weeds as spring applications, but the advantage of having better weather in the fall, coupled with a better physical condition of the soil, more than offsets the slightly better weed-kill in the spring. Fall-prepared beds may be seeded as soon as weather permits in the spring. When using spring prepared beds, wait 3 weeks or longer

The Ford Club Victoria is a brilliant example of the Mark of Tomorrow styling and built-in plus-values that have made Ford the best-selling car in the nation.

FORD is the lowest priced of the low-price three!

Everywhere you look in the new Ford, you see plus-value features. And these advanced features that make Ford your best buy today...also make it your best buy for the years ahead.

There are many plus-values in the all-new "Inner Ford" You don't ordinarily see many of the plus-value features that are built deep down into the all-new "Inner Ford." For example, such features as the new, sturdier, contoured frame and new suspensions, front and rear.

There's a big plus-value in Ford power for '57! This year, you can pick a Ford engine to suit your power needs from a whole new family of mighty Ford V-8's. Or you may choose the new Mileage Maker Six.

Ford is worth more when you sell it!

The years-ahead styling and rugged "Inner Ford" features that make Ford worth more now are the features that will make it worth more when you are finally ready to sell it or trade it in.

Ford is priced right!

Comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices proves that model for model, Ford is the lowest-priced, full-size car.

OAK RIDGE

The Taylor Mill Boy Scouts had a very nice Spaghetti supper last Saturday night at the fire house. It was real cute to see the boys acting as waiters and bus boys.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Rose Eger is ill in Jewish Hospital. Rose was at home sick with the flu last week, but is up and about now. Mrs. Ida Bindel is feeling ill again and expects to undergo another operation soon.

The Taylor Mill Church of Christ is coming along nicely with their new building and they expect to have the basement finished in the very near future. Their attendance has grown to over 130 and they are very much in need of the additional room.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met March 19 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Galloway on Taylor Mill Pike. Three members were absent because of serious illness in their families. Mrs. Harry Collier, the president, opened the meeting with prayer for these members. The devotionals were given by Mrs. Ollie Miller. The Club planned a lamp workshop at the Gas and Electric Company for March 21 and a canning workshop at the home of Mrs. W. C. Tallent for April 1st. Three members plan to write for International Pen Pals. The Citizenship Chairman, Mrs. E. C. Harris, presented a report on the importance of preparing for an atomic bomb attack, by having a bomb shelter and adequate food and water supplies in the shelter to take care of the family for at least two weeks. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Piper. An exhibit of work completed in the past year will be held at the April meeting, also at that time flower plants and bulbs will be exchanged and members will bring jellies and articles of clothing to be donated to the Covington Protestant Children's Home.

Wilbur Perry went to the roller skating races at Maysville Saturday night with the delegation from Lloyd's Roller Rink.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lile (the former Naomi Oehl) on the birth of a baby boy, March 23 at Booth Hospital. He is their first child.

Judy Thompson represented Simon Kenton High School and Molly Baird, represented Taylor Mill School, at the Spelling Match at the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company February 23.

Ryland Homemakers

The March meeting of the Ryland Homemakers was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Halfhill. The president, Mrs. W. P. Schwall, called the meeting to order.

Twelve members answered roll call with their favorite hobby, when two new members were welcomed. Mrs. William Damon read the 24th verse of the 18th chapter of Proverbs for devotion, and a poem, "Bible Made For the Day."

Mrs. J. H. Lawson gave the lesson on the case of the leprosy and shub. March 4 the time to plant trees and shrubs and to sow grass seed. Miss Ruth Schmidt gave a report on the meetings she had attended, and read a paper on the use of table salt as a medicine. Mrs. Evert Wilson and Mrs. Harold Halfhill gave a lesson on caning of chair seats from the lesson they received at the UK Homemakers' class.

Present were: Mesdames W. P. Schwall, J. H. Lawson, William Bagby, F. B. Hermes, O. J. Williams, William Damon, Rudolph Cusson, Evert Wilson, Harold Halfhill, J. A. Rich, W. B. Barnes, and Mrs. Ruth Schmidt. Mrs. Richard Kuhn and Mrs. Laverne Osborne were welcomed as new members.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Schwall.

Notice to Wool Growers

According to the Boone County ASC office, closing date for the 1956 wool program will be March 31. This is the deadline for filing application for payments. Farmers are urged to bring in wool and lamb bills before this date.

"Keep America Beautiful" is the name of a new nationwide campaign for cleaner, safer and more attractive surroundings and highways.

INDEPENDENCE

Banklick Christian Church

The ladies of the Banklick Christian Church will have a Chili and Frankfurter Supper next Saturday, March 30 at the church, located on the 3-L Highway near Hands Road.

The serving will begin at 3 p. m. and continue until 8 p. m. with homemade pies and cakes, added to the menu. The public is cordially invited to attend this supper.

Officers Will Meet

The officers of Bradford OES Chapter 493 will hold their regular stated meeting Friday evening April 5 at 7:45 p. m. in the Bank building in Independence. All officers are urged to attend this meeting.

Moves To Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Goodridge (nee Nellie Fisk of Nicholson) have moved to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to make their home.

Supper Is Success

The members of Bradford Star Chapter 493 wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to all who participated and attended their Annual Ham Supper, given at Simon Kenton High School last Saturday evening. Virginia Carr, Worthy Matron, and Merl Appel, Worthy Patron also wish to give a special thanks to Patty and Pamela Gibbs, Donna Watson, Sandy Wilson and Sandy West for their efficient help in serving. The Chapter is expected to enter into its treasury approximately $125.00 after expenses.

Hickory Grove Y. W. A.

The Y. W. A.'s of Hickory Grove went to the Aged Home owned by the Baptist last Saturday to put on a program for the patients. A St. Patrick favor was given to each one at the Home by the girls. Those attending were Sandra Hurd, Jozetta Flickinger, Janet Fisk, Beverly and Joan Hutchins, Alice Warks, Glinda Hall, May Bell Wiley, Dorothy Hale, Violet Lipscomb, Mrs. Harry Fisk, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Mary Sullivan and Mrs. Leo Wiley.

VERONA

This community sympathizes with the family of A. C. Roberts in his passing. He was correspondent for the Boone Co. Recorder for the last twenty-five years. The church is enjoying their new Sunday School rooms.

On March 10 Mrs. Robert Ashman and her daughter and husband visited in Louisville at the Waller home at 175 N. Bellaire Ave. They returned home to Indianapolis on Sunday and Patti Waller returned with them for a visit, and she returned home on March 17.

Who took this bite?...

NOT YOU—but chances are you paid for it! For this is the freight excise "tax bite" that comes out of practically everything you buy, long before you buy it. Here's what happens...

Every shipper who uses public for-hire transportation, right down the line from original producer to ultimate consumer, must pay a tax on the freight charges. Naturally, each one normally tries to "pass it on" to the next fellow. This works fine until it gets to you, the consumer. You can't pass the taxes on. So you foot the bill in higher prices for what you buy.

This tax on freight charges and its companion tax on passenger fares were imposed by the government as temporary emergency measures during World War II, to raise money for war and to discourage the use of overburdened public transportation facilities. Yet they are still with us, costing consumers hundreds of millions of dollars annually and bearing most heavily on those least able to afford them.

We urge in the public interest that sincere consideration be given now to the repeal of these unfair and discriminatory "temporary" taxes that arbitrarily penalize the users of our service, act as a drag on the flow of business and ultimately inflate the price of almost everything you buy.

MARCH IS OUT

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Florence, over by Bullock Pen Lake, on Verona-Crittenden Road, were in getting screen wire. A little early but they will be ready for the flies. Robert Bell had cut and drill 12 pieces of angle iron to make a wagon bed. I took Mr. Schira, down at Florence, on U. S. 42, a 12' metal farm gate. I went over to see Carl Smith, cashier of Mt. Zion Deposit Bank. I sold him a coal heating stove last fall and it has not been satisfactory, so I went over and traded him a new Warm Morning coal heater, for his home C. C. Northcutt came after another five rods of fence.

Mrs. Sarah Hodges, with the girls and boys, also Grandma Clifford, came after a Perfection portable oil heater, some white enamel, a ball bat and glove. Grandma had to have some window glass. Edward Kennedy was in Walton, today—he got one of those Farmers' Feeder seed sowers to put on tractor draw bar and drive off power take-off. Several have been buying screen wire and poultry netting—this is a sure sign of spring, and spring is here. The flowers are blooming, and the grass is green and growing every day, so now is the time to get that old lawn mower ready or buy a new one.

Give us a call to get your old one tuned up and sharpened or trade it in a new one. Before we get anywhere, compare our lawn mowers and prices with anyone. We have lots of mowers for you to select from—2-cycle motors, 4-cycle motors, reel type and rotary type. Push mowers, self-propelled, and riding mowers. New hand mowers and several used hand and power mowers. We have several fishermen getting ready for the first warm day. Several have had good luck already. We have some very fine lakes around here to fish in—Kensington Lake, Boone Lake, Bullock Pen Lake, Verona Ranch Lake, and Walton Reservoir are some of the largest.

There are a lot of small ones that have very good fishing. We have some of the most beautiful patterns of inleams, and inleam rugs. All new patterns in most all sizes of rugs and inleams. Riley Prather got a Shox-Stok electric fence charger. We sell lots of these, mostly in the spring when they start turning stock out on grass. Kurt Richter called for 15 steel fence posts. Mrs. Lucille Heizer sent for a roll of fence, brace wire and staples. Sue Jarnan called for white window shades—Brewster delivered all of this.

A very busy day. I sent Brewster to Hagedorn's with some lawn mowers to be sharpened, also to get some repairs for Harry Glacken's Maytag washer. We are lucky to have a service center this close to us.

Eugene McCoy is doing a lot of painting in the Ransler apartment he rented from Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hall, the owners. Gilbert Smith, from Union and Big Bone, came after a lemon yellow paint—he said he bought some here last year, but if I ever had any lemon yellow paint, I don't remember, so he bought buttercup yellow instead. Roger Arnold bought several gallons of Bolce interior paint—they use and sell lots of Bolce paint for me every year.

Omie Kite brought his hand saw to be sharpened. William Rudnick came in and we had politics for about an hour. We have sold several lawn mowers and have the four best mowers to select from—Eclipse, Lawn Boy, Mastercut and Sunbeam. You can buy lawn mowers of all prices and types, but when you buy a top grade lawn mower from Conrad Hardware, you have made a deal that will last. Mr. Cooper, over on Green Road, was looking over my mowers—he said he would be back and buy one from me, as he bought a Perfection oil heater from me several years ago and we took care of it just like we said we would.

Carl Smith, cashier of Mt. Zion Deposit Bank, and I had a stove trade. Brewster took over a Warm Morning coal heater and brought back a coal heater with cabinet on it. Noel Walton, from Burlington, stopped and bought his wife a stapler. Ruth Worthington bought three 9x12 inleam rugs for over at the Goshen Christian Church. Kenneth Stamper was in, he said that Mono chain saw he bought here sure did work.

We have sold several electric fence chargers in the past few days. These are so handy to use, easy and quick to put up and you can build a half mile for $25. Frank Penick, Jr. just came after some paint for the Christian Church Sunday School, stepped and bought his wife a stapler. Ruth Worthington bought three 9x12 inleam rugs for over at the Goshen Christian Church. Kenneth Stamper was in, he said that Mono chain saw he bought here sure did work.

Arthur Earl Brooks bought a Dayton jet water system for their home over on Stephenson Mill Road—Brewster took it, the 165' of 1" pipe and a lot of fittings over as he is going to install it. I have two Dayton piston pumps on [3-gallon tanks] at the 1956 price of $99.50. Also, I have one Dayton jet with a stainless steel 4-gallon tank only $89.50. Sanford Collins came in after an XL pump wheel and axle—he just bought a house up at Bracht from Ab Ryan. I have a 52-gallon table-top electric water heater and a 52-gallon electric upright water heater. The wall make me want to close these out. I also have some bargains in washers. Oh yes, if you need a lawn mower, come to Conrad's.

Local Delegates Attend Spring PTA Meet at Taylor Mill

The Walton P.T.A. president, Mrs. Helen Burgess, wishes to thank all the women for helping to make the dinner we served our teachers so pleasant, special thanks to Blanche Roberts, Margie Lion, Myrtle Young for planning the menu of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, lima beans, spring salad, strawberry shortcake, and coffee; to Miss Bruce and her Home Economics girls for decorating the tables and serving the dinner; for the women who prepared the dinner, Helen Burgess, Emma Tackett, Blanche Roberts, Rosemary Clements, Ruth Stephenson, June Brewster, and Partha Dance.

We were glad of the opportunity to do something nice for our teachers in appreciation of all they do for our children. All teachers were present, but one, Mary Jane Trapp. Thelma Smith was her substitute teacher that day.

The delegates to the spring conference thank the P.T.A. for sending them to the conference at the Taylor Mill School. We were privileged to hear Dr. Margaret McKinn of the Teachers College of the University of Cincinnati, as guest speaker, speaking on "Reading and What It Means to Our Children." There were seven delegates to go: Helen Burgess, Ruth Stephenson, Adeline Reed, Rose Mary Clements, Margie Lion, June Brewster, and Virgie Redd—Pub. Chm.

Methodist WSCS to Meet

Circle II of the Walton Methodist Church, W. S. C. S., will meet at the church on Friday, April 5, at 7:30 p. m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Virginia Liggett, a missionary on furlough from South America. All members are urged to be present and to bring some friends with them.

OAK ISLAND REVIVAL

Rev. Robert Shettler

Revival services will begin at the Oak Island Baptist Church, Morning View, on Monday night, April 8 and continue through Sunday, April 14, with services at 8:00 p. m. Rev. Robert Shettler, pastor of the Piner Baptist Church, will be the evangelist. A welcome is extended to everyone.

Telephone Company Seeks Loan to Rebuild And Extend Service

The Consolidated Telephone Company has made formal application to Rural Telephone Administration of the United States Government or the necessary financing to rebuild and extend all telephone service in Boone County which will include the conversion to dial of the Burlington and Walton exchanges according to an announcement by G. B. Foushee, Jr., general manager.

One of the first steps toward qualifying for such a loan is the preparation of detailed maps of the area showing every residential and business establishment and the designing of telephone facilities to adequately serve the area for present and estimated future requirements, said Foushee. A telephone engineering firm from Atlanta has been employed to do this survey work and the preparation of basic maps has been started. As soon as the basic maps are completed field forces will begin the work of locating present and potential customers on these maps. The amount of financing required cannot be determined until this engineering work is completed.

This method of financing was decided upon because, in the opinion of the officers and directors of the telephone company, this is the fastest method of providing adequate, modern service to all areas of Boone County.

While the Consolidated Telephone Company has been among the fastest growing telephone companies in the country during the past few years, this change in method of financing is necessary to keep up with the booming population growth of Boone County.

Plans for the modernization of the Hebron exchange will not be delayed by this procedure, Foushee said. Brick work for the Hebron exchange building was started this week. This building, when completed will house the most modern dial central office equipment obtainable.

CANCER WORKERS MEET

A meeting of the volunteer workers for the Boone County American Cancer Society was held at the home of Mrs. W. D. Scroggins, president, Verona, on Wednesday, March 27.

Mrs. Howard F. Barry, Kenton Hills, Covington, field representative, was the principal speaker, concerning the annual educational and fund drive that started April 1.

Those present at the tea were: Mesdames Howard F. Barry, Omar Delwick, Russell Horn, Hebron; William Westler, E. R. Miller, May Griffin, Paul Raum, Florence; Marvin Kendall, Julia Raum, Forest Thompson, Andrew Penn, Claude Thompson, Ralph Carpenter, Walton; Grover C. Ransom, Verona; Mrs. W. D. Scroggins, hostess.

Gladd to report Ed Kendall from Fort Lauderdale, is getting along nicely.

EVERETT STAHL

Edward Everett Stahl, 1016 Maple Ave., Dayton, died March 27, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. He was 54 years old.

Mr. Stahl, who was a native of Gallatin county, had resided in Dayton for over ten years. He was a member of the Point Lick Baptist Church, Gallatin county, and financial secretary of Local No. 1988, United Steel Workers of America. He was employed at the Edward Machinist Co., Cincinnati.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Ruth Jones Stahl, two daughters, Janice and Cheryl Stahl, both at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stahl of Gallatin county; four brothers, Raymond Stahl of Walton, William Stahl of Gallatin county, Elmer Stahl of Covington, and Robert Stahl of Dayton, and one niece.

Services were held Saturday morning at the Stith funeral home, Florence, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

New Union Bank to Hold Open House Saturday, April 6th

The Union Deposit Bank is proud to announce to its many friends and patrons the completion of its new building. After 54 years of service to the community of Union, particularly, and the citizens of Boone county, generally, the old bank building with its outmoded facilities had to give way to modern day banking and the rapid growth that this area has experienced.

The Union Deposit Bank was organized in April, 1903, and opened its doors for business the first Monday in January, 1904, and since that date has experienced the most favorable and pleasant relations with all the people who have had dealings with it. The bank is justly proud of this attainment and therein lies the answer to the rapid strides this institution has made in the field of banking.

The bank has had three cashiers since its inception, namely, James L. Frazier, Lillian Bristow, and Patsy Slayback. The presidents have been four in number, namely, M. J. Crouch, Ezra A. Blankenbaker, Thomas Huff, and Joseph A. Huey, now president. In each instance the bank has been most fortunate in having such outstanding men and women to guide its destiny.

In the erection of the building they have tried to give to the community of Union the most modern and efficient banking facilities. They are most grateful for the encouragement given them in their work to accomplish this fact. Now that they are ready to open the doors on a new era they most sincerely solicit your best wishes and good will.

Other personnel includes Mattie B. Utz, assistant cashier, and Frances Prigge, clerk. Present directors of the bank are Joseph A. Huey, president; John A. McVey, vice president; R. E. Smith, James A. Huey, Everett Jones, and Patsy Slayback, secretary.

THE WALTON-VERONA FHA

Counties represented were Campbell, Boone, Carroll, Grant, Gallatin, Bracken, Pendleton, Owen, and Kenton.

Elma Taylor

Miss Taylor, previously chosen as "Kenton County Teacher of the Year," thus becomes one of the eleven finalists in the state-wide competition. The "Kentucky Teacher of the Year" will be announced soon.

Miss Taylor's teaching career began in a one-room school at Morning View and includes twelve years as principal of the former Piner High School. She has served in her present position since the opening of Simon Kenton school nineteen years ago. She holds degrees from the University of Kentucky.

Miss Taylor's mother, Emma Rector Taylor, was a teacher before her marriage. A brother, Claude A. Taylor, has also been an educator for years. He is now with the State Department of Education, Frankfort.

Miss Taylor lives on Rector Road, in the South end of the county, on a farm, her birth place, which has been in the family for a century.

The Fidelis class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet at the home of Marie Jones on Tuesday, April 9, at 7:30 p. m.

Services On Tuesday; Burial at Napoleon

A 10-year-old Walton boy was killed and his father and sister were injured Sunday morning when the truck in which they were riding was struck by a passenger train on the Southern Railroad in Walton.

The victim was Albert Eugene Alphin, son of William (Jack) Alphin, 34, who was driving the truck.

The father received a back injury, rib fractures and abrasions of the face. The boy's sister, Cynthia, 3, suffered abrasions of both legs, left hand and forehead and a broken collar bone.

The family resides at 28 Locust St., Walton. Mrs. Lucille Alphin, the child's mother, was at home at the time of the tragedy.

The vehicle was struck by the Royal Palm, a passenger train. They listed the engineer as J. E. Rouse and the conductor as W. C. Baker.

The truck was knocked back from the track about eight feet, coming to a stop in a ditch along the road. The train stopped about a quarter of a mile from the scene.

Robert E. Brugh, Boone county coroner, reported the boy, who was sitting on the right side of the truck's cab, was killed instantly. He suffered internal injuries, a crushed chest and multiple body injuries. The coroner returned a verdict of accidental death.

Officials said the boy, a student at Walton-Verona Elementary School, was on his way to Sunday school at the Walton Christian Church, where the family was a member.

The boy was taken to the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton.

Besides his parents and his sister, he leaves his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alphin, Walton, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Collins, Glasgow.

Services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home. Rev. George Fiske, pastor of the Walton Christian Church, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. J. R. Tackett of the Walton Baptist Church. Burial was in the Napoleon Cemetery, Gallatin county.

Children's Pictures Taken Free; Published In Walton Advertiser

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation, and community, will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future, "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures—they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here on Saturday, April 13. Pictures will be taken at the City Hall and will be open from 12:00 Noon to 7:00 P. M.

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings attached. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers, of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures, the Better

The Advertiser simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. So the mothers and fathers of this community in which this paper circulates should remember the date—April 13, at City Hall, and not fail to bring their children to the photographer. You will be mightily glad, afterwards, if you did, and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and both mother and dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

Rupture Shield SPECIALIST

E. J. MEINHARDT, widely known Rupture (Hernia) Shield Specialist, of Chicago and Michigan, has been coming to Cincinnati for many years. He will again be in his rooms in the Sheraton Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, for two days—Tuesday and Wednesday, April 9th and 10th. Office hours 11:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

First, an exact impression (similar to a dental impression) is taken of each customer's body shape and condition. Then the correct appliance is made from this impression. When completed, it has no belts, buckles or hard pads. After wearing this appliance a short time, it usually prevents any size rupture or hernia from protruding for life.

CAUTION: If your rupture or hernia is protruding under the appliance you are now wearing, this can cause pain in stomach, nervousness, weakness and dangerous strangulation. Also, if your rupture has returned after surgery, you may be especially interested in obtaining the correct appliance.

Only men invited. There is no charge for consultation and demonstration. Investigate now and decide later.

Who rates what for performance and smoother riding in the low-priced trios? Chevrolet has laid the answer and the proof on the line!

First, Chevrolet won the Auto Decathlon over every car in its field, and over the higher priced cars that were tested, too. This rugged ten-way test (right, below) showed Chevrolet was the champ in handling ease, braking, acceleration, passing ability, smoothness of ride and other driving qualities you want in a car.

Then, Chevy won the Pure Oil Performance Trophy at Daytona (left, below) as "best performing U. S. automobile."

It's quite a feeling to know that you are driving a car that performs so well, responds so beautifully and is so finely built. You feel proud, of course. But you also enjoy a surer, smoother, steadier way of going, a keen cat-quick response of power, and the easiest handling you've ever experienced behind a wheel. Just try this Chevrolet (V8 or Six) and see!

Chevy showed it's still the champ... at Daytona... and in the Decathlon!

VERONA

We are sorry to know they had to rush Mrs. Bettie Brannon to St. Elizabeth Hospital from prayer meeting last Wednesday night. They haven't found out her trouble yet. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Bertha Jenkins was operated on last week and we wish her a speedy recovery.

We extend sympathy to the family of Mr. Ben Sturdivent and the family of Mr. Everett Stahl in the passing of their loved ones.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Chapman and Vevie Webster had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Struve and children of Richmond. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert King and Soble Stafford of Latonia, Mrs. Helen King and daughter of Ft. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Webster and family of Berry Station, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Webster of Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman and May Wilson of Verona. They all met in honor of Mrs. Chapman's 83rd birthday Monday, April 1st. We wish her many more birthdays.

We sure have a lot of sickness in our little burg. We wish each and everyone a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm spent Saturday night with Mr. Lamm's brother in Williamstown, who still remains very ill. Mrs. Carrie Coleman and son, Woody of Cincinnati, spent Sunday with her father, J. T. Glore and Mrs. Glore. Rev. and Mrs. Ray Stewart and son were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Mayro Hayden Sunday afternoon. Bro. Stewart has been called as pastor of the Union Baptist Church and will be leaving New Liberty Church soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm visited his sister, Mrs. Rheda Jump and children on Sunday. Mrs. Jump is still very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curry and children had as their guests Sunday Mr. Ronnie Kennedy and Miss Carolyn Hayden.

We were sorry to hear of Jack Allphin and two children being struck by a train Sunday at Walton. He was taking his two children to Sunday School. The train hit the truck, demolishing it, killing the little 10-year-old boy, Jack and the little girl are in the hospital. Hope they are not hurt too serious. We extend our sympathy to the rest of the family who are very dear friends of this scribe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edgington spent Tuesday with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Miller of Rising Sun, Ind.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union
Scripture School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH L. FOREMAN

He Took the Cup

Lesson for April 7, 1957

THE dark shadows of Gethsemane have never fully lifted. Even the closest friends of Jesus did not watch with him through that hour, we cannot at this great distance hope to penetrate where no light is. Some have found it hard to believe that Jesus actually knew distress. This is to deny Jesus' own words. "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death," Mark's report that he was "greatly distressed and troubled," and Luke's story of the sweat like drops of blood. Dr. Foreman could hardly have been far from death that disturbed him. Lesser men have met it without a tremor, and he himself had faced it more than once without fear. It was something deeper that broke up the fountains of his soul that night.

Cup of Suffering

There are gleams in the darkness. Jesus refers to his experience as a "cup." He had been speaking of a cup not two hours before, in the upper room, the cup of his blood. Was it this cup he prayed might pass from him? We make a mistake when we think of this in merely physical terms. In many a hospital there are patients who have already suffered longer and more severely than Jesus could have, physically speaking, all of Good Friday. It was his soul that was troubled, not his nerves, in Gethsemane. The cup of suffering which he dreaded was more than scourging and nails. He was being rejected... rejected. Not a friend would stand by him. All his work would come to an end. He had fought for time, but time was running out. He had come to his own, and his own people had not received him. He was God's last word to men, and men had no response but thumbs and a cross. Other men have known rejection, but none have known it as he knew it, for not another man in history came to this earth so full of heaven as he.

Cup of Sacrifice

The cup which he dreaded was also the cup of sacrifice. From earliest times, the Christian church has read the story of Gethsemane and Calvary in the light of the prophecy in Isaiah 53: "He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities." The weight of human sin lay darkly on his soul. It was not that in Gethsemane for the first time had occurred to him. Long ago he had spoken of giving his life a ransom for many. The rejection of love is a sore thing to bear; but to feel the weight of the sins of the world is something of which we do not even dare to think. He had always identified himself with sinners and with sufferers; but now he was going the last mile appointed to the suffering and the sinning. All the pain and all the perverseness of mankind fell upon him, a smothering cloud which in a few hours would even hide the face of God.

"Not as I Will"

We must not accuse the Master of cowardice, not even of weakness. Horror there was indeed; but a strong man may be filled with horror without being any the less strong. Jesus did not turn to flee. Yet it is quite plain, and we must not pretend it was otherwise, that Jesus wished for some other cup than this. "Nevertheless," he said, "not as I will but as Thou wilt." We do not know what other occasions there may have been when Jesus knew that his own will was not as his Father's will. Yet if there had been other occasions, his Father must have been ever the same: "Not as I will! Above all other desires, above even the desire to fulfill his own will—a desire all the stronger, the stouter his character is—was the overruling desire to do the Father's will. There were elements of Jesus' suffering in Gethsemane which set that night off from all other nights, and that strong soul apart from all other souls. And yet, even in the mystery there is something for us to learn. If the masterwork of our life in that our own will be done, we shall come to frustration in the end. But if the overmastering wish is that our Father's will be done, then whatever our first desires may be, our highest prayer shall still be answered.

SYMBOL

Legend has it that, long ago, the dogwood came into bloom on Calvary and that, afterwards, a cross was implanted into the flower itself, to remain for all time. You can see it if you look closely, rust brown against the white of each individual blossom.

Many of us carry crosses, faint like the dogwood's emblem but with us, nevertheless. Somehow, in this Lenten season, we become particularly conscious of them and of our need for help—a certain kind of help, that can be found only through the things we learn in Church.

The Church doesn't pretend to banish our cares and woes. But, its teachings realistically consider the experiences of life itself. No matter what our personal cross may be, we seem able to bear its burden with more strength.

Lent is a wonderful time in which to begin making church-going a regular part of your life—if you haven't already.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

STAFFORDSBURG

Miss Nannie Ballinger who spent the winter with the Brannocks at Kelat, is now visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

Plans are going forward for the Easter Service which is scheduled for 6 a. m. on Easter morning. We hope everyone in the community who doesn't have other plans will come and worship with us. Though we cannot, like the women of old, told about in Matthew 28:1, go to the sepulcher, we can worship him in the sanctuary and rejoice that He arose. Let us put real joy into our songs of praise for we serve a Living Saviour.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children of Dayton, Ohio spent the week-end with relatives here.

The John Shaw family visited on Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Daisy Richardson and daughter, Helen. Other callers were Mrs. Joe Richardson and Mrs. Geo. Finnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dawson had as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Hammer of Lexington and Mrs. Albert Brown and children.

Our church has been hard hit in recent months having lost three members: Mrs. Mary Hoffman on January 27; Mrs. Naomi Hana on March 27, and J. A. Hawkins on March 28.

Mr. August Hawkins funeral was held at the church on March 30 with Rev. Parish officiating, assisted by Rev. Kurler of Kenton Baptist Church. He joined the church here as a young man and was faithful in attendance as long as health permitted. For many years a Steward, he was always ready to do his share in any project undertaken by the men of the church. Never having married he cared for his mother until her death. He then lived several years with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawkins. At this brother's death he was given a home with his other brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawkins, where he had lived several years. Besides his brother, Henry, he leaves a sister, Mrs. Anna Portwood and a number of nieces and nephews.

We were glad to have with us on Sunday three of our boys who are students at U. of Ky., Lee Giles, J. B. Losey and Henry Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Damon were the recent Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent Sunday with their daughter and family, Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin of LaGrange.

Rev. and Mrs. Almet Kidwell, Richmond Road, were at Staffordsburg Methodist Church Friday afternoon where Rev. Kidwell conducted the funeral of Mrs. Earl Hanna, a member there.

One doesn't know where to begin when it is time to write of a friendship of nearly fifty years, for it was almost that long since I first met Mrs. Naomi Hanna. We were both brides then. She who had been Naomi Cain having been married on Dec. 24 to W. E. Hanna and I to J. A. Keeney on February 8. We have always been friends—not always agreeing on details but in the larger things we usually saw about the same way. Over the years our friendship has grown and meant more to each of us. It is now hard to realize that she will share no more with me the things which friends hold dear. Mrs. Hanna passed away at Booth Hospital on Wednesday, March 27 following an operation on March 25. Having been ill for several weeks before going to the hospital she didn't have the strength to rally. The sympathy of a host of friends went out to her husband and son and grand sons, also a number of other relatives who mourn. She became a member of the Staffordsburg Church at the age of nineteen and was one of the most loyal workers. She always was in her place unless sickness or something she could not control, kept her away. Funeral services were held at the church she loved on Friday with a former pastor, Rev. Elmer Kidwell preaching assisted by Rev. John Wheary and Rev. J. W. Porish.

Cheese should always be cooked at low temperature, say UK food specialists. Stringiness, and curdling results when too-long or high temperatures are used.

Children's Pictures to Be Taken Free at City Bldg., Saturday

Saturday, April 13 is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters! The Advertiser is having pictures taken of all children who are brought to the City Hall, between 12:00 Noon and 7:00 P. M., absolutely free of charge.

The Advertiser wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of the mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one-runners and are growing up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this paper and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Advertiser nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain additional prints by arranging direct with the Studio representative if you want them. This is entirely up to you!

"DAY APART" SERVICE

Special Lenten "Day Apart" services will be held at the Walton Methodist Church, April 17, beginning at 10:00 a. m., with Miss Althea Leeper, Secretary of Missionary Personnel from Division Headquarters in New York, as guest speaker.

There will be special music and in the afternoon pupils from the Walton high school will sing, which will be followed by a communion service and communion meditations by Dr. H. C. Ogles, Superintendent of the Covington District.

This is an annual service promoted by the Women's Society of Christian Service, under the leadership of Mrs. C. L. Dornaby, District President, of Covington, and Mrs. Clarence Stephenson, District Secretary of Spiritual Life, of Walton.

Everyone is invited. Come and enjoy a time of spiritual fellowship. Bring a sandwich. Dessert and drink will be furnished for 35 cents.

Chair Seating Taught To Leaders of Kenton County Homemakers

A class for teaching chair seating with Hong Kong Grass and rush was presented to 52 leaders of the Kenton County Homemakers Association, April 3 at the Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia, under the supervision of Mrs. Mary E. Burroughs, home-furnishing specialist from the University of Kentucky and Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Extension Agent.

A workshop, conducted, fifty stools were woven. The type of seating taught is used on early American Ladder-Back, Hitchcock, and Sheraton type chairs.

Kenton County Homemakers having completed the course in reupholstering chairs are now able to reset chairs by hand caning or by rush weaving, they set at their goal 200 hand caned chairs and 500 stools or chairs woven with rush. Similar lessons will be given by leaders in 25 communities.

Attending the class were mesdames Wm. Gilbert, Harry Hamilton, Howard Clark, F. M. Powers, Ben Schmeling, Bernard Hackman, Arnold Motz, Robert Heilman, M. K. ## Benson Is Candidate For Re-election As County Court Clerk

C. D. (Dewey) Benson, Burlington, announces his candidacy for re-election to the office of County Court Clerk in this issue of the Advertiser, subject to action of the Democratic primary on Tuesday, May 28, 1957.

Dewey is now completing 24 years in the clerk's office, having taken office in January of 1934.

C. D. (Dewey) Benson

Mr. Benson was born and reared in Boone county, and was educated in the Walton elementary and high school. He is a member of the Burlington Baptist Church, and is vice president of the Dixie State Bank, Walton.

He made the following statement in regard to his candidacy:

"In making my announcement for re-election to the office of County Court Clerk, first, I want to thank you people, each and everyone of you, for your kindness and support during campaigns of previous elections, permitting me to serve as your county clerk for almost 24 years.

"Your support and kindness has not only been of much encouragement to me, but the many friends I now have, made possible only by being your clerk, means more than anything that could possibly have happened to me during my lifetime.

"Your continued support will be appreciated and, re-elected, will try to serve you to the best of my ability."

New Ladies' Auxiliary Officers

The annual election of officers of the Ladies Firemen's Auxiliary was held at Marshall's Restaurant, March 5.

Those elected to office were: Mrs. Sharon Grubbs, president; Mrs. Eva Waters, first vice president; Miss Barbara Brakefield, second vice president; Mrs. Mary Berkemeier, treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Vest, secretary.

The officers were installed at the meeting April 2, at the home of Mrs. Chick Worthington. Members present were: Mrs. Sharon Grubbs, Mrs. Eva Waters, Mrs. Mary Berkemeier, Mrs. Ruth Vest, Mrs. Betty Carlisle, Mrs. Chick Worthington, Mrs. Medley, Mrs. Hetzel, and Barb Brakefield.

KENTON ELEMENTARY PTA

The Kenton Elementary P.T.A. met recently at the school auditorium, under the leadership of Mrs. Carl Wicklund, president. Mr. Earl, sixth grade teacher, gave the devotional.

Mrs. Charles Adams, program chairman, introduced Mrs. George White, first vice president of Sixth District Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. White brought a panel program, with Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. Wicklund and Mr. Works. They discussed the fact that the P.T.A. affords such important things as understanding, partnership, cooperation, and services between parents and school.

Mrs. Jones, second grade teacher, won the room attendance award for March. Mrs. George Dawkins was elected president for the coming two-year term. Receiving the honors for treasurer was Mrs. Les Fields.

The meeting was adjourned to the cafeteria where refreshments were served by Mrs. E. B. Rich, Mrs. D. B. Vandlandingham, and the social committee.

Kenton Utopian Is Named to State Office At Lexington Meeting

The State Utopia Club Conference was held March 30 at the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Club members from 15 counties over the state elected James S. Sprague, of Union county, president; Elwell Clinkenbeard, Nicholas county, first vice president; Mrs. William Hedgecock, Bracken county, second vice president; Mrs. Herbert Works, Kenton county, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Stewart, Warren county, reporter.

Elwell Clinkenbeard and Mrs. Ann R. Hardison, Simpson county, were named the two outstanding Utopia men and women of the year and were presented gold medals.

The conference heard Ann Huffage tell of her experiences in Norway as an International Farm Youth Exchange student. Jane Webster, Morganfield, told of a trip to Raleigh, N. C.

Richard Le Grand, Warsaw, made a report on the Young Farm Family program and led a discussion. Ralph Ramsey, Ky. staff, led the recreation.

LeGrand outlined the Utopia county, discussed Utopia plans for the future. Mrs. Stella Wethington, Creston, state president, who presided at the sessions, discussed the program for the conference.

Dr. E. J. Neisus, associate director of the Kentucky Extension Service, talked on the future of farming in Kentucky and the nation. He told the members that they have an important part in the future of farming.

Dr. Dewey Steele of the U. K. staff, told of his experiences in Venezuela, South America. He showed slides of scenes from the South American country. The conference ended with a banquet and square dancing.

Firemen Answer Three Calls; Entertain North Central Fire Ass'n Here

Saturday at 6:45 p. m., the Walton Volunteer Fire Department was called to Bracht, where the car of Sam Van Winkle of Stanford, Ky., was on fire.

Saturday at 10:30 p. m., they were called to the home of Wilford Dixon on Nicholson Road, where a fire had started in a chest of drawers. The cause is unknown, and the damage was slight.

Tuesday, the firemen answered a call to the Grover Ransom farm, near Vevy, where Mrs. Lawrence Poole, the tenant, thought she smelled something burning. However, nothing could be found.

The department's portable generator proved its worth Saturday night when electric power failed as the result of a car crashing into the line at Richmond. The generator powered the radio system and Chief Simmons was able to keep contact with State Police.

Walton was host to the North Central Fire Association, at the fire house and city building, Tuesday night, with 24 men present from Owenton, Williams town, Crittenden, Dale Ridge, and Walton. An excellent meal was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary. Everyone enjoyed the dinner and the safety films shown by Jack Conner, after the business session.

The firemen get fifty percent of all advance sales for the circus coming to town, April 23. See any fireman and get your tickets today!

Readnours Have Son

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James (Buddy) Readnour of Eads Road, a son, Charles Otis, on Friday, April 5, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Even though they "double in brass" with the big show—that is, they are actors and workers, too, the elephants are the most even tempered and obliging creatures on the lot, and that does not mean any of the human troupers, either.

When the Ring Brothers Circus comes to Walton, on Tuesday, April 23, at the Firemen's playgrounds, under the sponsorship of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, the elephants will be seen in the dawn's early light pushing and pulling the heavy cages and wagons into their proper positions.

Along about noon the elephants will get one hour or so of rest before donning their ring trappings for the afternoon performance. Another rest, and they become actors again only too soon, to lay aside the buskin and start work once more lining up the loaded circus caravan for the run to the next show town.

During the strenuous and seemingly endless day there is no protest on the part of the elephants. They are amiable and willing at all times, whether working or performing. They are great creatures these "ponderous pachyderms," and they have great hearts too. They are circus troupers.

With a host of internationally famous performers, all new to The Ring Brothers Circus and sensational features, a pleasing show is presented that will delight old and young alike.

Two performances will be given at 3:00 and 8:15 P. M., with doors opening one hour early to allow time for visits to the menagerie and kiddie show, and snake and reptile dens. Patrons are urged to purchase tickets now, from any member of the local Fire Department.

WILLIAM WEBSTER

William Webster, 76, farmer, died unexpectedly last Friday at his home on Narrow Grove Road, Kenton county.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Aggie Noel Webster, a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Adams of Bowen, Ky.; three brothers, Lon Webster of Independence, Lyle Webster of Covington, and James Webster of Elmira; a sister, Mrs. Edna Lambert of Elliston; six grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the funeral home in Independence, with burial in the Napoleon Cemetery.

Simon Kenton Students Attend Youth Assembly At Frankfort, April 1-3

On April 1, 2, and 3, nineteen delegates and two sponsors from Simon Kenton attended the Kentucky Youth Assembly at Frankfort. They were Jimmy Watson, Melvin Platt, George Binder, Richard Bailey, Edwin Miller, Pat Fisk and Janice Riley, Representatives, Norma Elliott, Press Representative, Garry Sipple, Jackie Cain, and Jean Elliott, Senators, Judy Rohmiller and Joyce Cooper, Secretaries, Sandra Tattershall and Joyce Moffett, Candidates, Roger Finney, Senate Floor Leader, Marvin Dunn, Commissioner of Education, and Bobby Walcott, Campaign Manager. Miss Elma Taylor and Mr. Walter Brown were sponsors.

Seven bills submitted by Simon Kenton clubs were approved for the delegates manual. Two of these bills passed with the House of Representatives and Senate. One of these bills introduced by the Simon Kenton Y-Teens providing recreation for teenagers in a city with the population of 10,000 was vetoed by the Governor, Dave McCracken, from District B. The other bill introduced by the Senior Y-Teen club requiring day collections on house trailers was signed by the Governor.

Two of the candidates for office from District 8 were from Simon Kenton. Sandra Tattershall was a candidate for Secretary of State and Joyce Moffett for Speaker of the House. They both did fine jobs of campaigning.

We are very proud of the fact that two of our delegates won awards. Bobby Walcott, District 8 Campaign Manager, was presented a trophy for performance in the House of Representatives. His brother, Jimmy Walcott, received a trophy for his work in Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Cooke of Independence, entertained last Saturday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Auton, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Joy Perry, Ruby Perry, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry. The party was interrupted with the news of an accident to Theresa Perry, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry, Sr. Three-year-old Theresa fell from her father's moving car onto a gravel road. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital. Stitches were needed to close cuts on chin, lip, cheek and head. Cuts on legs and hands were not as bad. X-rays were made to determine if any bones were broken. She will stay there a couple of days for observation. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry, Jr. of Crescent Springs.

On March 16, a party was held to celebrate the birthday of Virgil Perry, Sr., of Banklick Station Road. The party was held at the home of his son, Donald Perry, also of Banklick Station Road. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joy Perry, Mr. and Mrs. John Collins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Binder and children, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Auton and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McPherson.

Mrs. Johnny Collins of Banklick Station Road, underwent an emergency appendicitis operation at St. Elizabeth Hospital, the night of March 19. She was able to return home Sunday and is doing fine.

Mrs. Iva Auton of Williamstown has been visiting in the home of Kacky Auton while his wife, Mildred, has been ill. She is suffering from a ruptured disk in her back.

Announcement By*CARL J. RUH*Candidate For Sheriff of Kenton County

Now that I have served the people of Kenton County in the House of Representatives and in the State Senate, I feel that I can be of service to them in County government. As a candidate for Sheriff of Kenton County, I pledge my continued policy of serving the people—not individuals.

I have never yet run for office without a platform. My platform for Sheriff follows:

1. To maintain a sound business administration office. The Sheriff's office in Kenton County is responsible for $2,500,000.00 in tax payers' money.
2. The Sheriff's office will be conducted with fairness and ability.
3. The Sheriff's office will maintain a vehicle for any emergency, carrying all communication equipment available.
4. The processing of all tax bills will be handled rapidly.
5. As Sheriff I will cooperate with all police departments and all volunteer fire departments in Kenton County.
6. Through the Sheriff's office I intend setting up a youth program to demonstrate to our school students the results and outcomes of crime.
7. As Sheriff I will inaugurate a traffic safety bureau to combat speeding, reckless driving, and hot-rodding on our county roads.
8. As Sheriff I will always maintain the character and responsibility of that office to show that politics is an honorable profession.
9. As Sheriff, this office will be maintained by me personally, efficiently, and as a full time occupation.

My academic preparation consists of a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. For the past six years I have taught high school and college courses in the operation of our governmental system. During the terms of my public office I have made speeches to many church, civic, and social groups regarding the functions and duties of my office. I will continue to do so in the future. I am married and have two children, living in Kenton County all my life.

The Shouters

Lesson for April 14, 1957

IT WAS an exciting week in Jerusalem. There was shouting on Sunday; there was shouting on Friday; all about the same Visitor, one Jesus of Nazareth. Only the shouting was different. On Sunday he rode in to the city preceded by a guard of honor, disorderly to be sure, but wildly enthusiastic. They called him King ("Son of David"); they said with loud voices that he came in the name of the Lord; the Hosannas must have been heard for miles. Friday morning the Visitor was mostly out of sight. The Roman police had him, and they did not disgorge prisoners easily. The crowd milled about in the streets outside the governor's castle, and they kept yelling "Crucify him!" Nothing can be more thrilling than to be hailed as King; nothing can be more dreadful than the sound of a mob hungry for torture.

The Same Voices

Now the strange thing is that some of the same people who were shouting "Hosanna!" on Sunday, were shouting "Crucify him!" on Friday. Didn't they know their own minds? Well, they didn't. Shouters seldom do. There are always shouters about, they emerge from every crack when anything exciting goes on. They shout in crowds; solo shouters are rare. If you had taken many (maybe most) members of that Sunday crowd aside and asked each one in private: "Do you really think this Jesus is a King?" It is a fair guess that some of them would have replied, "Well... I don't know, of course. But he might be. Good idea to get on the bandwagon. I hear..." and so forth. Further, if you had been able to get private interviews with the bloody-sounding shouters on Friday morning, and asked, "do you really think that this Jesus is guilty—and if he is, of what, exactly? Do you personally want to see him crucified by the Romans?" You might have got some answers like—"Was I saying 'crucify'?" Well, that's a little strong. Of course I hate to see anybody in Roman hands. No, I don't know the man personally, but I was told... and so forth. I have heard—I was told—they say... Your shouters have no mind, all he has is a voice.

We Should Know

It is not such a dark mystery why the same people could yell Hosanna! and Crucify! about the same person within a week. Remember what was lined up against Jesus—intrenched interests, selfishness, indifference, hate, greed, prejudice. For him there was only truth, and truth has short shrift when the shouters are going strong. We may be shouters ourselves. How is it that on Sunday we can sing the most devoted songs about Jesus, we can even offer prayers in His name, and then on Monday (not waiting till Friday) our actions, which speak louder than our words always, "crucify the Son of God afresh?" We sing come from poems which better Christians wrote; we just sing along with others, we don't think much about what the words mean. Then on Monday we fall in to the ways of the world. We don't connect what we are doing (which can be pretty devilish and still legal) with what we said on Sunday; and we don't (maybe) intentionally mean anything against Jesus. But we do what "everybody" does and says, and don't stop to think (it's too much trouble for a shouter to think) that what we are doing, or failing to do, says louder than words—"Jesus! What's he? Nobody that makes any difference with me, nobody I'd care to be like!"

If They Had Known Him

There were some who shouted on Sunday who were silent on Friday. The Eleven forsook Him and fled, we know; but we may be sure they did not yell "Crucify Him!" and perhaps the Mother Mary took no voice in the shouting any time. The star of her love shone steadily through the storm. Those who really know Jesus, not by hearsay, rumor or tradition, but know him as a living inner Friend, and Savior, do not change their minds about Him overnight. And sometimes those who love Him most deeply are not to be found among the Shouters, but among those who serve.

ONE FRIDAY

When we become "mired in the routine" of life, one day is like any other. This was just another working-day for most of the people in Jerusalem.

Three men died on Calvary Hill. One of them was the Galilean!

Business as usual in Jerusalem. Unless we understand the whole significance of what is happening we pay little attention...

Do you understand what happened that Friday. Do you realize WHO hung on that central Cross. Do you know WHY He died. And FOR WHOM?

There is nothing more necessary in our lives than the deep, personal knowledge of what happened that Friday... and the Sunday following.

Come to Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OAK RIDGE

The children are all home from school this week for spring vacation and are taking the opportunity to sleep late. The teachers are enjoying a well deserved rest and trying to do all the things they can't find the time to do while school is in session. Let's hope the weather improves so they can all enjoy this week.

We can't complain because of dry cisterns now, everyone we talk to says theirs is running over. After buying water all winter we are glad to find our cistern full of good soft rain water. Even the wives of the men in the water hauling business were glad to see the rain, because now they can get away from the telephones long enough to go to town and buy their Easter outfits.

We hear that Simon Kenton did very well in the Regional Music Festival, getting Superior in most of the events.

Only a handful of members attended the Taylor Mill Civic Assn. meeting last Thursday night but they enjoyed a round table discussion of the water situation, county-wide planning and zoning, and the need for more classrooms in the schools. The President, Mr. H. R. Hutchins, reported that the city manager of Covington had met with representatives of the various communities along Taylor Mill Pike, and that Covington is confident of the various communities along Taylor Mill Pike and selling water to residents of the area at a price set by the Public Service Commission. Covington has not completed such plans as yet, but representatives of the communities to be effected will meet with officials from Covington again in the near future and will bring back a report to the association.

There was a meeting concerning county wide planning and zoning held at Devoe Park Club House last month and Mr. Hutchins attended as a representative from the Taylor Mill Civic Assn. at this time state laws do not permit such planning, but it is hoped that legislation to permit it can be presented to the next session of the legislature.

The Assn. was very concerned about the desperate need for four additional class rooms at Taylor Mill School next year in order to meet the requirements of the minimum foundation Program, and the fact that two new high schools will be needed in the county in the immediate future to take care of the present large enrollment in the elementary schools, who will be entering high school each year from now on. The school board has reached the end of its resources for school building purposes and cannot build any more schools from present tax revenue. We must all realize that as parents and grand parents of the children of our county, it is up to us to see to it that they are provided with schools in order that they can learn to be good citizens to take our place in the years to come. The school committee of the Taylor Mill Civic Club was asked to meet with the school board to offer their services in helping to board solve their problems of providing adequate schools for our children.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION—

I want to thank everyone of my friends and neighbors for all the cards, and their help and kindness. It is greatly appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank each one of you for the pretty cards and gifts, also for the prayers and visits while I was in the hospital and at home. Being remembered was appreciated very much.

CRITTENDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Spegal spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. Ollie Piner of Price Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams and family spent Sunday with his mother of Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cooke and Mrs. Bessie Tugate spent Sunday evening with their brother Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooke of Morning View.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reed of Ludlow were Sunday guests of his sister and brother Miss Mary Reed and Mr. John Reed.

Mrs. Lydia Doud entertained her Sunday School Class of Carter Chapel Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tugate of Walton have bought the farm of Geo. Edwards on Shady Lane Road. They are building a new house there.

Mr. Martin Harvey and Mr. Kenneth Gillock of Cincinnati spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. James Gillock. Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and family of Walton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wagner.

Mrs. Frances Bingham will enter St. Elizabeth Hospital Wednesday for an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Hise were Sunday guests of their daughter Mrs. Osa Hallon and Mr. Hallon of Dry Ridge.

WHITES TOWER

The Tower and probably the county lost its oldest resident when Mrs. Hannah Dorsey died last week. Mrs. Dorsey was a remarkable woman in many ways and especially as the never used glasses and in another month would have been 98 years old.

Burial was at Poplar Grove near her old home.

Rain and more rain has the farmers in a dither but this, Monday morning things look much better and maybe the break has come at last.

Floyd Smith, our neighbor, who has been sidelined by a light heart attack, we are glad to report went back to work last Monday and feels much better after a weeks work.

Sickness is very bad in the three communities here and we can only suppose it is an account of the changeable weather, there are so many reported to us that we will have to wait until next week to tell you the more serious cases. Hog jowl and greens, dandelion, water cress, shepard spread and even a few sprouts of pork will be available this week.

Jimmy Ryle and wife of Latonia were Sunday visitors at the Tower.

Fight Cancer With Checkup and Check Is Fund Drive Plea

THE TIME: The spring, reaching a climax in April, which is proclaimed Cancer Control Month by President Eisenhower.

THE ORGANIZATION: The American Cancer Society combats cancer through programs of research, education, and service to cancer patients. It is the only organization fighting cancer on all three fronts.

THE GOAL: To spread life-saving educational facts widely and to raise more than $30,000,000 for the fight against cancer—the importance of regular cancer checkups, alertness to cancer's seven danger signals, and to raise needed funds.

THE CHALLENGE: Last year the American Cancer Society could grant scientists only two to every three dollars they needed for research. More facilities are needed to provide the best in diagnosis and treatment for the needy cancer patient. While knowledge about cancer is improving, the fight against cancer is expanding vigorously as more money is given. There is more research, better service for patients, and more effective education.

THE PUBLIC: The public of Boone county has given generous and growing support to the crusade. This year it must be more. We need your help. Continue to read the literature given you by the workers and know the program of the American Cancer Society and your county unit. Many hopeful leads are coming from cancer research. The annual campaign must go on.

QUOTA: The quota for Boone county is $2,368, and the national goal is $30,000,000. Each community has its quota to meet—help your chairman meet her goal.

Following is a list of chairman working in Boone county:

Mrs. William Campbell, Florence, drive sponsored by Florence Woman's Club; Mrs. Al Bates, president of the Bellevue P. T. A.; Rev. Garnett Day, pastor of Petersburg Christian Church; Mrs. S. B. Nunnally, Bullitsville; Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Walton, county publicity chairman; Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Walton; Mrs. Grover Ransom, Verona, and Mrs. Omer Dalwick, Hebron; Mrs. Raymond Combs, Burlington; Mrs. Vaughn Hemphill, Taylorsport, and Mrs. Chas. Herbstreit, Constance.

Finishes "Boot" Training

David E. Waters

David E. Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Waters, High St., Walton, has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Md. A former student at Walton-Verona High, he is spending 14 days with his parents before reporting to San Francisco, Calif., for assignment.

Seaman Waters successfully completed the transition from civilian to military life which included instruction in seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, fire-fighting, military bearing, military drill, shipboard drill, and citizenship.

The local Bluejacket enlisted in Cincinnati for three years and six months.

MRS. LILLIE BEACH

Services for Mrs. Lillie May Beach, 76, retired postmistress of Elliott, were held Friday morning at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Beach, native of Grant county, died Tuesday night, April 2 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. George Roberts, Kenton county, with whom she had lived during the past year. She was a charter member of Elliott Baptist Church.

Besides her daughter, she leaves three sons, Howard Beach of Elliott, whose wife is the postmistress now; Adrian Beach of Covington, and Herbert Beach of Wilks Barre, Pa.; seven grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

The Hamilton funeral home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Teenage 4-H Club

A Teenage 4-H Club was organized in Boone County on March 26, at the Florence Community Center. Mr. Joe Claxon, County Agent, started the meeting by giving the purpose of the Teenage 4-H Club. The members present discussed what type programs they wanted for the coming year.

The Club elected the following officers: President, Nancy Prigge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Prigge, Union; Vice President, Roy Joe Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lucas, Florence; Secretary, Carolyn Judd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Judd, Florence; Treasurer, Eddie Foltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foltz, Florence.

After the meeting adjourned, there was recreation consisting of games, dancing and refreshments, states Glen R. McCormack, assistant County Agent.

The Boone County Utopia Club is sponsoring the teenage 4-H Club. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Meddow, Florence, were the Utopia members present at the first meeting.

Baptist W.M.S. to Meet

The Baptist W. M. S. meets Thursday April 18th at 10:30 a. m. All members are urged to be present. Visitors are welcome.

Hostesses are Mrs. Maryalice Carrad, Mrs. Hollie Cook and Mrs. Mary Black.

We are sending money to our Baptist Orphan Homes, so they may buy fresh eggs as they need them.

WOOL POOL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Boone County Wool Pool will be held Saturday, April 13, at 10:00 a. m., in the county agent's office in Burlington, according to Robert Grant, president.

Mr. Grant said that officers and directors will be elected and plans for selling the 1957 wool will be made. Prices received for wool by Boone county growers through the pool has continuously been higher than other ways of selling. Mr. Grant stated. All sheepmen are invited and urged to attend.

Installation at Kenton

There will be an installation of officers of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Gibson McClure Post 6095 V. F. W. at the Kenton D. of A. Hall Sunday April 17 at 2 p. m.

The public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

Defensive Driving Recommended By State Safety Head

Safety Commissioner Don S. Sturgill has urged motorists to "drive defensively." He pointed out that all motorists need to be on guard against the unpredictable behavior of pedestrians and other drivers.

"The other person is the big question mark in traffic," Sturgill said. "But at the same time we need to re-examine our own driving and walking habits and continuously try to improve them."

"Every highway user has a moral responsibility to prevent accidents if he can—even if the other fellow is at fault," Commissioner Sturgill said.

He emphasized that in traffic the driver is at the mercy of everyone he meets. His only protection lies in anticipating the other fellow's actions and countering his blunders with quick, safe action.

The Commissioner listed these highway blunders as most likely to cause trouble:

Failure to heed a stop sign.
Making a left-hand turn from a right-hand lane.

Failure to signal a turn.

Stopping suddenly.

Trying to pass on a curve or in a no-passing zone.

Suddenly swerving over the center line.

Pulling out from the curb into traffic without warning.

Weaving dangerously through traffic.

The state safety head also warned drivers to watch out for pedestrians crossing in mid-block or against the lights, getting out of a vehicle on the street side or walking along the road in dark clothing at night.

Eastern Star To Meet

Walton Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Masonic Hall, Monday night, April 15. Special highlights of the evening will be the honoring of the Deputy Grand Patron, Al Fields, and all Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the chapter. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Florence Newton, Worthy Matron, and John E. Stephenson, Worthy Patron, will preside.

Teachers Enjoy Luncheon

The faculty members of the Walton School were guests at a delicious luncheon, given by the P.T.A. Wednesday, March 27. Fried chicken, mashed potatoes, lima beans, tossed salad, hot rolls, butter, coffee, and strawberry shortcake proved to be a delightful treat that was enjoyed by all.

The following were honored by this expression of appreciation: Mr. Isom, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Acree, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Steer, Mrs. Gutman, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Gex, Mr. Montague, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Conner, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Shields, Mr. Snow, Miss Bruce, Mrs. Conner, Mr. Vest, and Mrs. Huey.

Completes Combat Training

Army Private Donald R. Behanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Behanan, of Walton, completed eight weeks of basic combat training April 6 at Fort Knox, Ky., under the Reserve Forces Act program. He will finish his military service in a Army Reserve or National Guard unit. The 1-year-old soldier attended Grant High School in Covington.

YWA Visits Baptist Home

The Dortha Lane YWA of the Walton Baptist Church visited the Baptist Home in Newport, on Sunday afternoon, March 31, and took them a large basket of fruit. After a short period of singing, the devotional was given by Miss Irma Rector. The YWA girls were then honored by a tour of the new building. On returning home the girls stopped at the hospital to visit several of the shut-ins there. The girls then made their last stop, at the airport. The afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Those participating were Donna Wright, Irma Rector, Patsy Marksberry, Barbara Abner, Betty Johnson, Janice Osborne, Dora Pennington, and Loretta Johnson.

Mt. Zion Homemakers

Mrs. Roger McGuire, presided at the April meeting. Mrs. W. Burney read the devotional. Articles were selected for the window display May 6 to 11th at Denham's Drug Store, Florence.

Mrs. A. Insko gave a reading on landscaping. Final session on canning chairs was demonstrated by showing a finished chair by leaders Mrs. Noel Denham and Mrs. Clyde Howell. A work shop was conducted in which Mrs. Hubert Winburn demonstrated Sedwih Weaving and Mrs. Roger McGuire did glass etching. Recreation was conducted by Mrs. Hubert Winburn. Hostess Mrs. Frank Damoschko welcomed the following members: Medans, Don Altrath, Romer Burns, Hubert Winburn, Roger McGuire, R. E. Vonderschmitt, Andy Insko, Noel Denham, John Schlegel, John Beutel, William Burney, Bennett Russell, Clyde Howell, guests Mrs. William Ger and daughter. May meeting at Mrs. Romer Burns.

CARD OF THANKS—

I sincerely desire to thank the many who sent cards and gifts to me during my stay in the hospital in Baltimore, Md. They certainly meant a lot to me. —JIMMY HUEY

To The Voters of Boone County

Many candidates for political office are calling on your homes and talking with you about the forthcoming election. I, too, would like to contact each of you personally. However, at the present time, this is contrary to doctor's orders.

On January 30 I suffered a heart attack (Coronary Thrombosis). I am now recuperating at my home, with the assurance from my doctor that with an adequate amount of rest I will be able to resume normal activity in the near future. Many people suffer heart attacks, some more serious than others. My attack was similar to that of President Eisenhower and, as you know, he had to take time out for an extended rest also. By following the doctors' advice President Eisenhower regained good health and continued his job of serving the American public.

By following the same formula I have every reason to believe I can serve the people of Boone County. The job of jailer of Boone County is the one I am seeking and for which I ask your support on May 28. I will devote all the time it takes to efficiently perform the duties of the office. Again, let me express my regret at not visiting with you in your homes, and talking to each one of you personally. But I can assure you when I am able to be out, I will call on as many of you as possible.

Jobs Daughters Officers to Meet

All officers of Bethel B. Jobs Daughters, will meet Sunday afternoon, April 14, at 2:30 p. m., in the Independence Bank Building. This meeting is called to practice for inspection, which will be held the evening of April 22. Helen West, Guardian of Bethel B, urges all officers to be present.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Clay Martin, Independence, and Mrs. Wanda Martin, Taylor Mill Road, enjoyed a weekend trip March 23 to Portsmouth, Ohio, visiting Wanda Martin's sister, Mrs. J. H. Reeder. They motored there and had nice weather except a little fog early Saturday morning on the way to Portsmouth. Mrs. Wanda Martin and sister, Mrs. Reeder, had the pleasure of seeing their brother, Jack Baker, whom they had not seen for eight years. A pleasant family reunion was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Martin and sister-in-law, Mrs. Wanda Martin, attended services at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday, April 7. They heard a good sermon by James Dalton, of Cleveland, O. Mr. Dalton is a former member of the Calvary church. He was also a deacon and superintendent of the Bible School. Pastor D. B. Eastep was away on a preaching mission in Noblesville, Ind. Pastor Eastep will return April 13, and will be back ready to lead the preaching services at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday, April 14. Everyone always welcome—come and bring your friends, and visit at Calvary Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Martin had guests Sunday evening for supper their son, E. F. Mullen, and family. The Martins are really proud of those three grandsons.

E. F. Dozier, Charlotte, N. C., an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Martin, returned to Charlotte, March 31. He intended to stay with the Martins until next September and then go to Florida for the winter. Mr. Dozier has a bad heart ailment and can't stand cold damp weather as he also has attacks of asthma. Mr. Dozier intends to return to the Martins, May 20 and hopes the weather will be warm by that time. He really put in his time on these nice fishing lakes in Kentucky.

Clay Martin will be celebrating his birthday April 27, also his 24th year as a truck driver at Stewart Iron Works in Covington.

Mrs. Clay Martin's father, Leighton Huff, Glendale, Ohio, was seriously ill late last month. Mr. and Mrs. Martin visited him at Mrs. Martin's sister's, Mrs. Edward Hadley, Sharonville, Ohio. Mrs. Martin received word last Friday he was much better and was returning to his home. Mrs. Martin plans to visit him this week.

Post Office to Close Saturdays

Under a special issue of the Post Office bulletin, recently received by Robert X. West, postmaster at Independence, the following general curtailments will be made, effective as stated, unless funds become available.

1. Commencing April 13, 1957, all post offices will be closed to the public on all Saturdays and Sundays.
2. Effective April 13, 1957, all city, village and rural delivery service will be discontinued on Saturdays, except special delivery messenger service.
3. No third class mail, except certain medical items, will be accepted effective April 29, 1957.
4. Window service at post offices, except fourth class offices, will be limited to 8½ hours per day beginning on April 15, 1957.

Also, in addition to the above restricted service to patrons, will be the issuance of money orders will be suspended at all offices of the first and second class, effective April 29, 1957.

Just A Thought

Twenty years ago lots of people dreamed about earning the salary they can't get along on today.

Hickory Grove W. M. S.

The W. M. S. ladies of Hickory Grove Church met at the home of Mrs. Pauline Hurd, Hemphill Road, Tuesday night, April 2, with only six members present and one visitor. They were Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Forest Papp, Mrs. Franklin Lipscomb, Mrs. Rudolph Casson, Mrs. Ralph Jump, Mrs. Hurd, and Mrs. Flora Summey, visiting Mrs. Reynolds, and a former member. We are always glad to have visitors. We discussed several items of business. Our Y. W. A. girls are having a banquet for their mothers on April 27 and the ladies of the W.M.S. are to help them serve. Thanks to Mrs. Eugene Gilvin we now have a stove in the basement which will be a big help when we have anything to keep warm when serving meals. We are sorry to hear Eddie Frakes' mother was in the hospital and Mr. Hemmingsway is confined to a wheel chair. Cards are to be sent to sick. Mrs. Maddox, Miss Jump, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Durr visited Booth Hospital last month, March 19, and visited some 15 to 20 patients. We hope we brought a little cheer to all visited. Refreshments of cakes, both chocolate and white, were served with tea and coffee by Mrs. Hurd, was enjoyed by all. We do hope more of our members and several ladies of the church that should be going will try and come to our next meeting on May 7, as everyone is welcome.—Mrs. Ralph Jump, Reporter.

Ralph Jump Visits Lexington
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jump, Bowman Road, Independence, their sons, Ralph and Kenny, and daughter, Ruth, took a trip to the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Saturday, March 30, to attend the R.O.T.C. Air Force parade, which their son, Harry Sidney, participated. It was held on grounds in front of the Armory on the University campus. Some 1300 R.O.T.C. students, including the military band, took part.

The parade was held in honor of four girls, one is to be chosen as Queen of the Military Ball. Several visitors and students enjoyed watching the parade. Afterwards, Sidney returned home with his parents and spent the weekend. He is a graduate of Simon Kenton school (1956) and now a freshman at the University of Kentucky, taking civil engineering. He will be working with Ky. State Highway Department this summer as last year. He obtained a job with them by winning $500 scholarship, given in civil engineering by the Ky. State Highway Department, upon graduation last year.

Personal Interest
Randall Wagner, rural carrier, who resides on Shaw Road, is again in bed under his doctor's care, due to a relapse of his recent illness. Randall is doing nicely and will be on his route soon. We all hope for his speedy recovery.

Helen West, Main Street, has been home due to a severe head and chest cold. She is also under her physician's care.

Another tour was made by Bob West and family, accompanied by LeRoy (Pete) Filer and family to the nearby fishing lakes. They visited the two sections of Bulluck Pen Lake and then motored to Williamstown where they saw many boats of various size and shape. Plans for picnicking, boating and fishing are in the making.

Arbor Day, a special day to recognize the importance of tree planting, was first observed in Nebraska on April 10, 1872.

To Launch Drive For New Football Seats At Dixie Heights High

It was announced today at Dixie Heights High School that a fund raising campaign for new football seats will be inaugurated on the 2nd and 3rd of May. A Smorgasbord Dinner and carnival will occupy the spotlight from 5 to 8:00 p. m., and will be followed by a Musical and Stage Show in the auditorium.

The dinner will be served in the school cafeteria, and the carnival in the school gymnasium. Music by Roger Schueler's "Cool Colonels," the school orchestra, will highlight the entertainment in the auditorium.

Also on sale during the fund raising campaign will be season tickets to the football games. The season ticket sale will include family, adult, and student tickets at all reduced prices.

All funds raised during the festival will be used toward the new bleachers, and some repair of the best remaining ones. The new bleachers have been ordered, and the work of tearing down the old seats will get under way soon.

Fans and patrons of Dixie are urged to come to the school on May 2nd, and May 3rd, have dinner and see the shows.

Seats at the Dixie School have been inadequate for the last two seasons. After the new seats are erected, accommodations should take care of the increased crowds.

Building and Loan- Celebrates 70th Year Under Present Charter

In the rear of the spacious offices of the Dixie State Bank is the office of the Walton Building and Loan Association. This year the B&L celebrates the 70th year under its present charter, and no one knows how long it may have existed under previous charter.

The thing which makes this birthday an item of new is the fact that the B&L is the oldest corporation in the City of Walton, perhaps the oldest in Boone county. Its officers and directors are understandably proud of this distinction.

Under the tutorage of E. S. West, the B&L's secretary and treasurer, for the past several years, the institution has become one of the most solvent building and loan associations in the state. Quietly and in a very efficient manner, Mr. West has furthered the policy of the B&L to make real estate loans and real estate improvement loans to hundreds of customers throughout the Northern Kentucky area. The specialty of the B&L is the loaning of money to customers who wish to improve their property with, for example, a new furnace, roof, storm windows and doors, garage, carport, bath, outbuilding, silos, or any one of a dozen other ways in which property can be made more attractive, functional and valuable.

In the B&L, you will not find the marble decor or fancy trim that is present in many associations of today. You will find, however, the things that are much more important, that is, courteous and efficient service that has marked our oldest corporation from the time of Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison. To the Walton B&L we say, "Happy Birthday!"

Demand for asparagus, which can be successfully grown in Kentucky, has increased steadily in the past 10 years. It ranks high in dollar value as a cash crop.

June Suter, Warsaw, Candidate for Clerk of Court of Appeals

A northern Kentucky farmer and businessman, J. L. (June) Suter, formally announced his candidacy this week for the office of Clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals to fill the unexpired term of the late Charles K. O'Connell.

Mr. Suter, long a leader in the democratic party, seeks the nomination at the May 28 primary.

Meanwhile Gov. A. C. Chandler announced in Frankfort that his administration would give all-out support to Mr. Suter.

June Suter

"I have known June Suter many years," the Governor said. "I can recommend him without reservation to the people as a qualified and energetic public servant."

Mr. Suter, who lives in Warsaw, in Gallatin county, has also been a close friend of anti-administration leaders and is expected to attract strong support from both sides of the democratic party.

Mr. Suter, who was born in Owen county, and later moved to Carrollton, has been a candidate twice before for a state office. In each race he lost by a fraction of one percent of the votes, the outcome being in doubt until several days after ballots were tabulated.

In 1947 he lost in his bid for State Auditor by 347. In 1955 when over 400,000 votes were cast in the primary, Mr. Suter was defeated by Thelma Stovall for Secretary of State by 941 votes.

The Warsaw candidate said he planned on an active campaign and expected to visit each county.

He is married and has two children, a daughter at the University of Kentucky, and a son in Gallatin county High School. Mr. Suter is 40 years old.

Clowns Will Be Big Feature In Ring Bros. Circus Here April 23

Clowns are the comic strips and cartoons of the Ring Brothers circus. They brighten the performance the same way Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck enliven your movie programs. Their merry antics relieve the tension of thrilling aerial and acrobatic feats and the exciting animal acts.

But make no mistake about the clown's work being a soft snap. The ability to make people laugh nowadays is an altogether exacting and calls for a keen knowledge of human psychology and great gifts of originality.

Like the cartoonist, the clown draws many of his ideas from current happenings and the humorous fables of human nature. He must express his ideas in the simplest possible terms so that the audience can "get the point" at a fleeting glance. He exaggerates and distorts, but always with the expert skill of a caricaturist.

The Ring Brothers circus carries an imposing aggregation of clowns of all sorts and sizes, headed by Danny Sylvan, famous American clown. These agile acrobatic fellows with a live, undressed, trained mule and a truck horn growling machine are guaranteed to make you laugh and forget your cares.

The Ring Brothers circus comes to Walton on April 23, for afternoon and evening performances at the same place. The firemen get 10 percent of the advance ticket sales, so see any fireman today and get yours.

Wool Producers Hold Annual Meeting at County Court House

The Annual Meeting of the Boone County Wool Producers was held at the County Agent's Office, Saturday, April 13. It was reported that the Wool Pool received 22,126 lbs. of wool in 1956. This was an increase over the previous year of 2,638 lbs. Mr. Robert Grant, President, stated the Pool was expecting an increase for 1957 as there were more sheep in the county.

The following officers and directors were elected for 1957: President, Mr. Robert Grant, Petersburg; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Beckham Shields, Walton; Directors elected were: Mr. Maurice B. Weas, Hebron; Mr. Russell Sparks, Verona; Mrs. Alma Riley, Union; and Mrs. Frances Berkshire, Florence.

All sheep men that plan to sell their wool through the pool should contact directors or officers in their community. The Pool has been receiving a continuously higher price for wool than the independent buyers have been able to pay, according to Mr. Grant.

Sacks and strings may be picked up at the following places: Florence Feed Store, Florence; Conrad's Hardware, Walton; Gully's Store, Burlington; and Goodridge's Store, Hebron.

SALE OF FIRST POPPY—Mrs. Herbert Day, President of the American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Earl Waters, Chairman of Poppy Day is selling the first poppy to Mayor Leon Hall of Walton. Mayor Hall had just finished making an official proclamation on Poppy Day as follows: "I, Leon Hall, Mayor of Walton, Kentucky, do hereby declare April 27th, 1957 National Poppy Day for the City of Walton, Kentucky, sponsored by the Johnson-McElroy American Legion Auxiliary Unit 277."

"I am not just a crepe paper flower, wound together and fashioned by the tired hands of those other thousands who marched away at the call of our country, only to return home, broken in body and spirit and with the thread of economic success in life broken. I am the wistful symbol of their sacrifice, made daily, behind white hospital walls, without the bloom of drums and cheers of frenzied multitudes. I am not just a tag flower, offered by the American Legion Auxiliary. I am the living, throbbing symbol of the obligations and sacrifices required of all good citizens in binding up the wounds of a nation's disabled and I represent your contribution of that cause. In remembrance of America's heroic dead and in helplessness of her living disabled and dependents, wear me, on Poppy Day, April 27th."

On Friday afternoon, April 26, the Senior boys and girls of Walton-Verona School will make a house to house canvass with lots of little red poppies. When you get your poppy and make your contribution remember you are giving a veteran a better chance for better living."

FLOWERS FOR EASTER

Boone Garden Club Has Workshop Meet At Florence April 9th

The April meeting of the Boone County Garden Club was held on Tuesday, April 9, at the Florence Community Center. This was a workshop meeting, the members and guests met at 11:00, taking a sandwich, and the dessert and beverages were served by the hostesses. The hostesses were: Mesdames Maddox Reneker, Leonard and Mrs. Lucy Grant.

Each member was asked to bring flowers, foliage and containers as the workshop dealt with Flower Arrangements and preparation of exhibits for the coming Flower Show. Mrs. Kenneth Sharpe, the President of Kenwick Club in Lexington conducted the workshop, led the discussions, answered questions and made several arrangements using a Standard Flower Show and gave many pertinent facts on the selection, preparation, conditioning and other treatment of flowers to be exhibited. Every member of the Club is urged to begin planning now to enter exhibits, in the show and to invite non-members to exhibit, also. This is not a closed show, it is for all the flower lovers in and around Boone County. There will be very valuable short articles appearing in this paper every week until the Show, and the date and place of the Show and other things about it will be announced later.

On Friday, April 12, the Bluegrass Regional meeting was held in Lexington at the Lexington Country Club, and the following named members attended: Mesdames Wallace Gubins, Walton, Lillard Scott, R. C. Garrison, Corroll Cropper, and Robert Clore, of Burlington, William Oliver, Paul Chaney, William Wesley, Roy Lutes and T. C. Crum all of Florence. We were happy to have the second largest delegation at the meeting. Several honors came to our Club, which will be announced later.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICES

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held in the Walton Christian Church on Easter Sunday, April 21, at 6:30 a. m. Pastors of the local churches will assist in the service and the united choirs of the churches will lead us in singing our earliest Easter praises. The pastors affectionately urge the members of all churches to be present for this service of rejoicing. A special offering will be taken for the support of the Northern Kentucky Protestant Association in which our churches are members.

Speaks on Marriage, Family, Child Problems

Dr. James W. Gladden, associate professor of sociology at the University of Kentucky, and specialist in the fields of marriage, family and child development, will be the guest speaker at the Northern Kentucky District Homemakers' meeting. The meeting will be held on Friday, April 26, at the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington, according to Mary Ann McCormack, acting home demonstration agent in Boone county.

Prior to his coming to the University, Dr. Gladden was head of the Department of Sociology at Mt. Union College, Alliance, Ohio, and earlier was a minister of the Methodist Church in Pittsburgh, Pa. A popular speaker, he has appeared before scores of audiences of parents and young people. His subject will be "Giving the Marriage a Chance."

Mrs. Virgil Grayson, Somerset, president of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers, has chosen for her subject, "What of the Future?"

Chairmen of the four standing committees of the Federation—citizenship, reading, membership, and publicity—will tell of the work of their committees. Mrs. William Foote, Boone county, will give the membership report.

Music by county homemakers' choruses and other numbers will add variety to the program.

Holy Week Union Services

Union services in Walton for Holy Week will be held on Good Friday, Friday, 12 noon to 1:30 p. m. with Meditations on the Words of Jesus spoken from the Cross. The brief messages will be given by Rev. George Fiske of the Walton Christian Church, Rev. Julian Charles, Richwood Presbyterian Church and Rev. Alfred E. Atkinson of Walton Methodist Church.

While it may not be possible for some of us to be present all the time, most of us can give part of our time, hour to meditation upon the Suffering of Jesus which won for us so great a salvation. Everyone welcome to this service sponsored by Northern Kentucky Protestant Association.

WHITES TOWER

We were sorry to hear of the sudden death of a very dear friend and neighbor of ours while we lived in Latonia. Mrs. Joe Curran who collapsed and died while in a doctor's office in Scott street. Helen was beloved by all who knew her and always she was loyal to her friends and neighbors. Helen will always be remembered by those who knew, when some of the bigger names are forgotten. Our sympathy goes to the husband and son in their great loss. Naturally we have been very interested and have been following the news on the Post Office department every day. The solution seems so easy to us that we can not help but mention it as we know that it affects everyone, rich and poor alike. The answer is simply to make those who are getting their junk delivered for practically nothing, pay their proper share of the expense for their mailings. I don't have to mention who it is that are getting their mail carried for practically nothing, but everyone who reads knows. We don't think they can bluff Uncle Sam much longer. Bro. Bob Brumback is conducting a revival at Twelve Mile Baptist Church in Campbell County on April 21 to 28. It looks like this Monday morning as though we may get some of that garden stuff planted as the ground is drying out rapidly. We are already two weeks behind last year getting started. Bro. Rader of Decoursey Baptist Church will leave next Monday to visit his sister who is seriously ill at her home in California. The sick we are glad to report are much better and maybe it is due to that wonderful sunshine on Sunday and a promise from the weatherman that warmer weather is on the way.

Miss Ruth Ann Cox, one of our most popular and lovable teen-agers, just returned from a sight-seeing trip to New York. Miss Ruth didn't forget her friends and several received some beautiful and lasting souvenirs which she presented them as mementos of a very enjoyable trip.

OAK RIDGE

The Annie Allen Circle of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church met April 9 at the home of Mrs. Robert Butte. The meeting was opened by prayer and devotion by the Circle Chairman, Mrs. Edward Rust. A program on Home Missions, and a colored film strip was presented by Mrs. R. S. Richardson. Mrs. W. C. Tallent taught two chapters of the book "So Sure of Life" by Violet Wood. The program was closed by prayer. Those present were Mrs. Robert Butte, Mrs. R. S. Richardson, Mrs. W. C. Tallent, Mrs. Edward Rust, Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. H. C. Lipscomb, Mrs. Guy King, Mrs. Charles Asch and Mrs. G. C. Richardson. Rev. Frank Wilkerson visited his parents in Chattanooga, Tenn. several days last week.

The very excellent full length motion picture "Martin Luther" will be presented at Oak Ridge Baptist Church on April 21 at 7:15 p. m.

Miss Gertrude Dorman has been in bed with a bad cold for several days. Mrs. Mayo Smith of Crestwood visited her sister, Miss Emma Yates over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gary of Lexington spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Richardson. They came to get their son, Jimmy, who had spent last week visiting the Thompsons.

Boone DAR Meets

The April meeting of the Boone County Chapter, DAR, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferguson on U. S. Highway 42, south of Union. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Ralph Barlow, Mrs. Frances Berkshire, Mrs. William Tupman, Mrs. John L. Feagan, and Miss Jean Sleet.

Mrs. Joseph B. Wolfe, Regent, presided. Mrs. Floyd Roberts, chairman of the D. A. Good Citizenship committee, presented Miss Anita Hempling and Miss Sue Gutzeit with Good Citizenship medals. It was announced that the girls would be entertained on April 27 with a tour of Frankfort, followed by a tea at the Governor's Mansion.

The program of the evening was sponsored by the Boone Trails Society, DAR. Miss Elizabeth Grubbs and Miss Virginia Nestor read papers about their ancestral lines and Revolutionary ancestors.

A pleasant social followed and a delicious lunch was served. Present at the meeting were Mesdames Louie Braun, Wallace Grubbs, Ralph Barlow, Randall Crume, Rufus Towner, Frances Berkshire, John Feagan, Harold Conner, Clarence Wolfe, Roy C. Nestor, Floyd Roberts, Aileen Conner, William Tupman, Clifford Coyle, Walter Ferguson, and Miss Jean Sleet. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ferguson, Mrs. Nell Blankenkner, Walter Ferguson, Ronald Crume, Mrs. Sue Gutzeit, and Mrs. Vaughn Hempling.

Piner-Homemakers

The April meeting of the Piner Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Angela Pelizzari, with 22 members present, and two children. Mrs. William Walteman reported that 14 picture frames had been refinished in a recent work day. The care of the lawn and shrubs was the subject of the lesson given by Mrs. William Woods in her exterior beautification report.

After lunch, Mrs. Fred McMillan and Mrs. Chester Mullins gave a lesson on canning chives and stools.

Those present were Mrs. J. C. Cavannah, Mrs. John Dwyer, Mrs. R. W. Elliott, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Clarence Duncan and two children, Mrs. Charles

Flynn, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. James Kidwell, Mrs. Marian Martin, Mrs. Chester Mullins, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. Steve Rich, Mrs. E. H. Spaulding, Mrs. Leslie Smith, Mrs. Roy Tamm, Mrs. William Walteman, Mrs. Angelo

Pelizzari, Mrs. Robert Bell, and Mrs. William Woods.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS
by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

MAN VERSUS MONEY. During the past twenty years the number of people working on American farms has decreased 4 million. During the same period the amount of money needed to operate farms has increased 4 times! Thus, as it is often said, money is replacing man power on modern farms. Capital requirements a few years ago was principally for real estate. Given an acreage of land, a thrifty, industrious farm couple could usually accumulate the tools and teams needed to operate it; but today the investment required for productive equipment and livestock often exceeds the cost of the farm.

And, in addition, modern living and farm management requires much additional cash expenditures. A few years ago the farm home was not expected to have electricity nor water, nor the comforts of the city home, and the farm itself furnished most of the essentials of living. But today everyone expects the farmer to have the same standards of living as his city brother. Even though one wanted to re-live the horse and buggy days with their oil lamps, wood or coal ranges, and "out houses," the farm management practices used those days simply would not support even the old standards of living. Successful farmers must keep abreast of new developments and techniques if they are to stay in the business of farming.

THE TOOL OF CREDIT. The increase in capital needs for modern agriculture has increased so much faster than the supply of cash that the use of borrowed money, or CREDIT, has become one of the most important factors in efficient farming. Now-a-days the tool of credit is recognized as being just as important as any other production tool on the farm. Credit is like most any other farm tool—used wisely, it is very beneficial; used unwisely, it is dangerous. Credit will help a good farmer get ahead but will not make a good farmer out of a poor one. In fact, credit is a good tool for an efficient farmer, but is a dangerous tool for the inefficient.

Many young farmers have an opportunity to learn how to use most production tools before they start operating for themselves but few of them are trained, or have had much experience with credit until they are forced, through necessity, to use it.

It is encouraging to see the Future Farmers of America studying credit as a part of their school work. It will be very helpful to them.

To The Voters of Boone County

Many candidates for political office are calling at your homes and talking with you about the forthcoming election. I, too, would like to contact each of you personally. However, at the present time, this is contrary to doctor's orders.

On January 30 I suffered a heart attack (Coronary Thrombosis). I am now recuperating at my home, with the assurance from my doctor that with an adequate amount of rest I will be able to resume normal activity in the near future. Many people suffer heart attacks, some more serious than others. My attack was similar to that of President Eisenhower and, as you know, he had to take time out for an extended rest also. By following the doctors' advice President Eisenhower regained good health and continued his job of serving the American public.

By following the same formula I have every reason to believe I can serve the people of Boone County. The job of jailer of Boone County is the one I am seeking and for which I ask your support on May 28. I will devote all the time it takes to efficiently perform the duties of the office. Again, let me express my regret at not visiting with you in your homes, and talking to each one of you personally. But I can assure you when I am able to be out, I will call on as many of you as possible.

The Helping Hand

Our electric system, owned and operated by the rural people in this area, is proud to extend a helping hand to our urban friends. Our progress is related.

Rural electrification has improved the working and living conditions of farm people, but it has also had a gigantic impact in other walks of life.

Rural electric consumers, alone, have already spent a staggering $12-billion for electrical appliances and equipment. This means the average farm family spends over $4 for wiring and appliances for every $1 invested by the rural electric system in its facilities. But this is only the beginning. These consumers will continue to spend over $1-billion a year for years to come on new appliances and equipment.

We are pleased to have had a part in creating this new appliance market for our local businessmen. But that's not all. As farm people increase their profits through increased use of electricity in productive agriculture, their spending will also increase. All along the line—locally, regionally, nationally—this money will be injected into the economy as salaries and wages and taxes and payments for goods and services.

We are proud that our locally owned and operated rural electric cooperative is playing an important role in the progress of our community and our country, with benefits to urban as well as farm people.

Owen County Rural Electric Co-op. Corp.

Number of mules and horses in the U. S. has dropped about 9 percent this year over January 1, 1956 figures. Home demonstration agents in Kentucky worked last year with state and county health departments in 77 counties in Kentucky.

Lesson for April 23, 1957

ONE OF the most famous of Easter hymns begins: "The strife is over, the battle done. The Victory of life is won..." Among the many true meanings of Christ's death and resurrection is this: Christ has conquered sin and death. All that death and sin could do to him, was done; yet he "rose a victor over the dark domain," as another familiar hymn goes. The last word of Jesus to his disciples, as Matthew reports it, begins — "All authority has been given me..." Easter is not a season for puzzles; and yet all this does raise a question in the minds of both Christians and unbelievers. If it is true that Christ has won for us the victory over sin and death, if it is true that it is He who has the true authority over man and history, how is it that the world racks along in such a slow, painful, frustrated sort of way? Looking at a slum, or a battlefield, or a cemetery, or a jail, looking at life as it is lived on this planet, would we guess that God had won a tremendous victory over the powers of evil?

D-Day Is Not V-Day

A theologian of our time, Oscar Cullman has given an answer to this in the simplest terms. We live, he says, in the interval, so to speak, between D-Day and V-Day. All who can remember back to June 6, 1944, remember the tremendous victory of that hard-fought D-Day. But the war went on for nearly a year after that. Was D-Day, then, a failure? By no means. With D-Day the war was virtually won. The enemy had little chance, after that; but it took a lot of fighting, and some of it, like the Battle of the Bulge, costly and disheartening. So we are living, in the time between Christ's ascension and his coming again in glory, as we were between D-Day and V-Day.

What God Has Done

What has been accomplished by God's D-Day? One thing is, that God's power has been shown, once and for all. Over and over in the New Testament, especially in the letters of Paul, the power with which God raised Christ from the dead is called the same power that works in Christians. The victory over sin and death which we see in Christ, can be the hope and to an increasing degree the experience of our own lives. There really is a difference between living in the world before Christ and after. All that Christ was and did and said, climaxed by the resurrection, are ever before our minds if we only think. Before Christ, no one on earth really knew what God could do. Since Christ, men of faith know. The other achievement of D-Day's victory is, for us, sharing in God's certainty of victory which finally shall be complete. One of the easiest and subtlest temptations into which we can fall is to wonder whether God may not at last be overwhelmed by a universe which he created but cannot now control. Realizing what D-Day means, we need never have such fears.

What We Must Do

Calvary and Easter have practical messages for the Christian. They are not mere admiration-days, when we can sing happily about what God has done. They are challenge-days calling us to thought, attitude, action, as befits children of the mighty God. As for death, we can see clearly through it. Christ has shown us the glory on the other side. As for sin, Christ bore our sins with Him "to the tree" as Peter said. The power that wrought in Him is available for us in our struggles against evil. But there is something more than this. John Baillie speaks of our era, between the time of Jesus and the end of time, as "the years of grace," that the great task of Christians is just the very thing which Matthew leaves with his readers as the climax of his story of Christ. "All authority has been given me... therefore—(sit down and be at ease? wait quietly for the end? spend your time singing my praises? no, none of these.)—therefore GO, and Make Disciples." The going, winning Christian is the one in whom the victory of Easter moves on toward final triumph.

AND THEN...IT'S EASTER!

Yesterday, these four were their Mothers' despair. Their faces were grimy, their play-clothes spattered with mud. They were even ready to put up their fists and fight when the rivalry between spacemen and cowboys became a little too keen.

Today, they are immaculate. They sing like young angels. They even look like angels... because today is Easter! And these boys are proclaiming the glorious message that Christ Is Risen.

Easter is the time of promise, beauty, awe at the miracle of birth and rebirth. Easter is the time to let the joy of living seep into you. It is the time to tell yourself that you believe... and, if there's been any doubt about it, to start believing again.

Spend part of your Easter in Church. Spend the rest of it looking, with new eyes, at the wonderland God has created around you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser were recent Sunday guests of friends in Fort Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger were very pleasantly surprised to receive a call on April 5 that their son, Chester, would arrive on Saturday for a short visit. He was enroute to Chicago.

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fryer and family of Dallas, Tex., were glad to learn they were not in the path of the recent tornado.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser called on the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp on Friday evening, April 5.

We were saddened to see Earl Hanna moving from his lovely home of which he and his wife were so proud. It reminds us that our fondest dreams in this life are often of very short duration.

ation. So let us number our days that we may use wisdom and put our trust in our Lord's promise. "I go to prepare a place for you." Mr. Hanna will not be far away, since he plans to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Riley.

We were glad to have Mrs. Gertrude Daniels at church, April 7. She was the weekend guest of Mrs. Mamie Palmer and son, Randall.

State Checks Stock Hauling

Agents from the office of the State veterinarian have been stationed at the 32 truck check points established by the Kentucky Revenue Department.

Dr. L. L. Breck, State veterinarian and director of the livestock sanitation division, said his agents are checking trucks hauling livestock to determine whether the animals have proper health certificates.

Kentucky law requires that all animals shipped interstate must be free of brucellosis, tuberculosis, cholera and all other contagious diseases.

The roadblocks were set up by the revenue department near points of entry to the Commonwealth to insure full compliance with Kentucky's motor fuel tax laws.

Peanuts, which are on the plentiful food list, are rich in protein and B vitamins, and are a good source of energy.

Exam for Clerk-Typist

On Tuesday, April 23, at 9:00 a. m. an examination will be held at the Boone County Health Department, Florence, for the position of clerk-typist II in the County Health Department.

Minimum requirements for admittance to the examination are: Graduation from an accredited high school plus one year experience in clerical work, and must be able to type at a moderate rate of speed. The beginning salary is $145.00 per month. Persons interested in taking this examination can obtain further details and an application blank from the Boone County Health Department or by writing the Merit System Office, Kentucky State Department of Health, 620 South Third St., Louisville 2, Ky.

After all the rain, I believe we are going to have some dry weather. Several have started to plow in the fields that was dry enough. I went down to farm but the northwest hillside we are going to plow was too wet. We have not had enough hot sun yet. Mr. Gibson over in Kenton bought a plastic cover and applicator to prepare his plant bed with Dowfume which he bought last week. He thought he would borrow a cover, but later changed his mind and bought a cover of his own. He also bought a new canvas. Mrs. Davis down at Richmond called for a 36-foot ladder and pair of ladder jacks. R. R. Kacaba also down Richmond way took a Sunbeam Lawn Mower machine to try out. I saw him later and he said it worked just fine. Elsie Hartman called early today for a gallon of Magic Foam and pair of rubber gloves.

Mrs. Richard Howard came up for a gallon of rubber base wall-paint and step ladder. Judge Oliver's wife came after twenty chain links for their manure spreader. I had them and she was on her way. Mrs. Orr Britt from Gallatin County was in. I was busy and Brewster failed to find out what she bought.

Mr. Mitch Gobard Sr. and Junior who now live west of Glencoe stopped for some of that good White Enamel, the non-yellowing type. Kurt Richter came over for several hardware items. Mrs. Ora Stone bought a gallon of that Rubber Base Wall Paint. We have been closing this out at a reduced price and we have sold lots of it. A very good point but we need the space for other paint. Mr. John Dues was over today getting some paint for the Pleasant View Baptist Church. Chick sold another Lawn Boy Lawn Mower.

Brewster went to Elliston to Hobart Beach's to repair their oil heater. He brought in their old lawn mower to be repaired, maybe we can have a lawn mower trade when Ruth comes up. We have a lot of quality equipment, all size feeders, and fountains. We have a 100-chick size electric hover for only $16.95 and of course we still have the old reliable Jamesway Oil Brooder, also a Oakes Gas Hover. Chick and Red just put up 200 new fish poles 15 and 35 cents. We have a few small and cracked poles for 10 cents with a line, hook, cork and sinker for 15 cents, so anyone can go fishing for 25 cents. We brought in Roger Arnold's Air Conditioner for repair. The lightning had run in and burned it out. Mabel Groger had to have a Maytag washer, her old one has seen its best work day.

The Simon Kenton senior class will present "Deacon Dubbs," a rural comedy-drama in three acts on April 25 and 26, in the school auditorium. Independence, with Malcolm Moseley serving as sponsor. The play is set off with plenty of laughs, romance, and country songs, plus plenty of action.

Deacon Dubbs from Sorghum Center, W. Va., Garry Sipple and Bob Wainwright.

Amos Coleman, his nephew and lawyer, Ronald Brown and Roger Finney, Ramden Crawley, a wolf-in-sheep's clothing, Raymond Zimmerman and Edgar Martin.

Major McNutt, auctioneer and justice of peace, Jerry Hatfield and Tom Stephenson.

Deuteronomy Jones, a country prod, Marvin Duan.

Miss Philomena Popover, has both eyes on the Deacon, Betty Northcutt and Margie Bridges.

Rose Raleigh, the brave little school marm, Edwina Miller and Carol Winborn.

Emily Dale, the richest girl in town, Joan Cram and Joyce Cooper.

Trickie Coleman, full of mischief, Joyce Driskill and Donna Schuster.

Yennie Yensen, the hired girl from Sweden, Betty McDonald and Mary Garlough.

Synopsis: Act I, a country auction, the Deacon arrives from Sorghum Center, W. Va. Act II, a country wedding, shadows of the past; the Deacon takes a prisoner. Act III, huckling, law, a tentative break, the Deacon takes a wife. This play will be about two and one-quarter hours in length.

The curtain goes up at 8:00 p. m. and the tickets for admission are: Reserved, 60 cents; adults, 50 cents, and students, 35 cents.

Intermediate Day at Walton

There is a special day set aside for the Intermediate Department of the Walton Baptist Church April 28. This day is being observed in all the Southern Baptist Conference. There will be a breakfast served for the intermediates and their guests at 8:00 a. m. on Sunday morning and immediately following will be a special program for the department.

Rev. Paul Bowles will be the speaker for this program. The subject will be "Showers of Blessings" and the theme "Intermediates or Christ." Ray Jenkins will be in charge of the music.

The Intermediate Department will have a combined Sunday School Class. This should be a great day for all.

Baptist WMS Meets At Church; Hears Convention Report

The Walton Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met at the church on April 18.

The president, Mrs. Helen Chance, opened the meeting by reading several verses from the Bible. She urged everyone to pray daily, remembering the missionaries.

Mrs. Louise Stephenson, community mission leader, gave a playlet setting forth the value and means of community missions in the W. M. S. "Scriptural Tonic." Those taking part were Miss Sherry Stephenson, Mrs. Tackett, Mrs. Kacoba, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Percival, and Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Chance reported on her trip to the W. M. U. State convention at Paducah, Ky.

The program was taken from the Royal Service, "Carver School, A Source of Blessing." Members were assigned parts. Devotional was given by Mrs. Relda Powers.

Mrs. Flora Summey was a guest.

McVEY ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

William P. (Bill) McVey, of Florence, formally announced this week for the office of County Attorney of Boone County.

Bill is completing his second term as County Attorney and in his announcement stated, "I am grateful to the citizens of Boone county for permitting me to serve in the capacity of County Attorney for two terms and I humbly accept the responsibilities to serve the next four years as your County Attorney and shall endeavor to perform the duties of my office with the constant thought in mind of the trust and confidence the citizens of Boone county have placed in me."

Ernest Gadd Candidate For Jailer of Boone County In May Primary

Ernest E. Gadd, Burlington farmer, announces his candidacy for jailer of Boone county, subject to action of the Democratic primary, Tuesday, May 28. Mr. Gadd has been a resident of this county for the past 20 years, most of which time has been spent in the Burlington area. Four of these years were spent in the Walton area.

He has owned and operated several farms near Burlington during the past several years, and is well known in this area.

Ernest Gadd

He is a member of the Burlington Baptist Church and of the Burlington Masonic Lodge. He has been a farmer all his life.

In making his formal bow to the voters of Boone county, Mr. Gadd said: "I have never held public office, but assure the voters of Boone county if I am nominated and elected to this office I will serve to the best of my ability, giving all my time to the duties of the office. Your support will be appreciated."

CHOIR PRESENTS CANTATA

The cantata, "Christ Crucified," was presented by the choir on Good Friday, April 19, at 7:30 p. m., in the Walton Methodist Church. Lighted candles, palms and lilies formed the background in keeping with the Easter theme, while the choir were in white vestments.

The prelude, "Easter Fantasy," was presented by Mrs. Lucille Hudson, at the organ, and Mrs. Anna Morgan, at the piano. The invocation was given by the Rev. A. E. Atkinson, and Miss Louise Conrad served as reader. Included on the program were: Crown Him Lord; Getsemane; Jesus Before the High Priest; The Dream; To Calvary; Jesus, Our Lord, Is Crucified; The Glory of the Cross, and The Everlasting Song. Rev. Atkinson gave the benediction, and Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Morgan gave the postlude.

The program was enjoyed by all who heard it.

Will Practice in Florence

Dr. K. Elwood Lanter will begin the general practice of medicine in the office of Dr. Dilts, 225 Main St., Florence, on July 1.

Dr. Lanter, a native of Grant county, is a graduate of the University of Louisville College of Medicine, and is doing his internship at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Covington.

Dr. Lanter is a veteran of World War II, serving two years with the Army in the European theater, and wears the Purple Heart. He has five brothers, Lee, Otis, Carl, Dawson and Clyde Lanter.

There are more than 10,000 insect pests in the U. S., but there is now a control measure for nearly every kind.

Local Family to Be Honored

Admission prices are: Reserved seats 75 cents; general admission 60 cents, and children 40 cents.

CORN DELIVERY DATE CHANGED

Ray C. Gray, Chairman of the State ASC Committee, announced today that because of the unseasonable, wet weather which we have experienced this spring, the delivery date for 1956-crop farm-stored loan corn which was originally scheduled for May 1 has been changed to June 1 in all counties in the state with the exception of nine southern central counties which are: Trigg, Christian, Todd, Logan, Simpson, Warren, Allen, Monroe, and Barren. The delivery date for farmers to deliver their corn in these nine counties has been set for May 15. Mr. Gray stated that farmers in the state had placed a total of 5,000,000 bushels of corn under Government loan which will start delivering to the Commodity Credit Corporation on these dates.

District WSCS Meeting Held at The Walton Methodist Church

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Walton Methodist Church was hostess to the Covington District for the "Day Apart" service on Wednesday, April 17, which was presided over by Mrs. J. L. Donnelly, president of the Covington District.

Mrs. A. E. Atkinson gave the call to worship, followed by prayer, given by the host pastor, Rev. A. E. Atkinson. Mrs. Andy Penn, president of the local society, gave the welcome of the Lloyd Watson and Mrs. Scott Lancaster were in charge of registration, and Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Howard Stephenson and members of Circle II were in charge of serving the desert for the luncheon, while organ music by Mrs. J. L. Layne, district organist, was enjoyed.

Members of Circle I, Mrs. Pearl Bedinger, Mrs. Lulu Hudson, Mrs. Carrie Reuser, Mrs. Berta Conrad, Mrs. Latta Powers, Mrs. Martha Wallace, Mrs. Mayme Simpson, Mrs. Emma Vest, Mrs. Bessie Mills, and Mrs. Annabelle Lancaster were recognized and paid tribute for their years of service in missionary work by Mrs. Clarence Stephenson, district secretary of Spiritual Life. Mrs. Lulu Hudson, 90 years young, was a charter member of the Walton society when it was organized in 1887. Life membership pins were given to Mrs. Latta Powers and Mrs. Mayme Simpson. Due to illness, Mrs. Simpson was not present to receive her pin.

Mrs. Howard Jackson, Alexandria, song, "God So Loved the World," and Mrs. Stephenson introduced the guest speaker, Miss Alpheretta Leeper, Secretary of Missionary Personnel, of New York City. Her message was very inspirational, as she spoke about God calling each of us to His service.

The afternoon session was opened with the singing of the girls glee club of Walton-Vernon High School, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Brewer, and Mrs. Lulu Hudson, organist. Dr. H. C. Ogles, Secretary of the Covington District, gave the communion meditation and was assisted in serving communion by Rev. A. E. Atkinson and guest ministers.

Not Too Late to Test Soil

It is not too late to test soil according to Joe Claxon, county agent. Stanley Aylor, Hebrim-Lombard Road, is the soil-testing technician for the county. Mr. Aylor took over his duties as soil testing technician on April 15 and the laboratory is set up in his home. The county has the same soil-testing laboratory used by the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, and procedure is under their direction.

All row crops should have a soil test each year, while other crops should be tested as the rotation is changed. It makes good sense to test soil and know that you are putting the right amount of plant food for the crop you are growing, and that you are spending your dollars wisely and where it is needed. Why waste fertilizer and cash? Why waste seed and where there is proper fertilization. Testing the soil will save seed and dollars, Claxon says. Take your soil samples to the County Agent's office in Burlington.

Dorthea Lane YWA Meets

The Dorthea Lane Y. W. A. of the Walton Baptist Church met at the church on Monday evening, April 8. The meeting was called to order by the president, Dorthea Lane, and the session, the program, entitled "The House That Says Beautiful" was presented. Movie slides were then shown. Those present were Jean Elliott, Shirley Saylor, Joyce Osborne, Patsy Markberry, Betty Johnson, Barbara Abbever, Dorla Pennington, and Loretta Johnson.

On Tuesday evening, April 9, the Y. W. A. banquet at Southside Baptist Church. The Y. W. A. of Walton received the banner for having the largest number present according to enrollment. Movie slides were then shown by Rev. E. V. Howell from Elmore, on the Holy Land. Those attending were Jean Elliott, Shirley Saylor, Janice Osborne, Patsy Markberry, Betty Johnson, Barbara Abbever, Dorla Pennington, Emma Tackett, and Loretta Johnson.

S. S. Class to Meet

Group of Juniors and Seniors from S. K. Go To Washington, D. C.

Twenty-five of the juniors and seniors of Simon Kenton High School, Independence, took the Cherry Blossom trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City. Malvin Sebree went along as the chaperone. A report follows:

"We left the Cincinnati Terminal, Tuesday afternoon, April 9, and arrived in Washington, D. C., early Wednesday morning. "We toured the Capitol Building, where we saw the Senate and House of Representatives in session. Other sights of interest were the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Lincoln Monument, Jefferson Monument, Arlington Cemetery (and we saw the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier). At Mount Vernon, we visited the George Washington estate.

"Wednesday night, we arrived in Jersey City, N. J., and took the ferry across the Hudson River to Manhattan. "In New York, we stayed in the Taft Hotel. We visited the RCA Building, Radio City, Statue of Liberty, the waterfront, China Town, the Bowery, and many other places, including old churches of historical interest. "Friday afternoon we left New York and arrived in Cincinnati, Saturday morning, April 13. "We enjoyed the trip and wish to thank the B&O Railroad for making this trip possible."

Cecilia 4-H Club Meets

On Monday evening, April 15, the regular monthly meeting of the Cecilia 4-H Club was held, with 44 members present. The skating party was decided to be held at Lloyd's Rink in Latonia, on April 22. It was decided to hold the next meeting on May 20, but was then changed to May 27. After the meeting adjourned, games and refreshments were enjoyed by all those present.

KENTON GARDEN CLUB

The Kenton County Garden Club will meet at 8:00 p. m., May 2, at the home of Mrs. S. C. Fisk, Shaw Road. Mrs. Roberta Steinhauer will lead the program on "Home Landscaping and Garden Plans."

The club was represented at the annual Bluegrass Regional meeting of Kentucky Garden Clubs, in Lexington, April 12, by Mrs. Velma Pitcher, Mrs. Lewis Gabriel, Mrs. S. C. Fisk, and Mrs. Lena Mills. The club was honored when Mrs. Velma Pitcher was elected co-director of the Bluegrass Region for the ensuing biennium. Miss Lena Mills gave the club's annual report at the meeting.

Miss Mary Margaret Stephens was hostess to the club for the February meeting on the 28th.

1956 Wool Payment Applications Are Due By April 30, Rector

Wool and lamb producers must file applications for payment under the 1956 wool incentive payment program not later than April 30, Chairman Russell Rector of the Kenton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee has announced. The applications must be filed at the County ASC office. Payments under the 1956 program will be made on marketings of wool and lambs completed between April 1, 1956 and March 31, 1957.

"Completions of marketings," the chairman explains, means that the title or wool or lambs must have passed from the seller to the buyer. If any part of the sale, such as price, weight or yield—needed to determine the purchase price is not completed within the dates mentioned above, the sale will not be considered as eligible for submission under the 1956 program. Sales made after March 31 will be eligible under the 1957 program, which runs from April 1 of this year through March 31, 1958.

In applying for payments, producers must supply documents showing complete information concerning the sale of their wool and lambs.

Wool incentive payments are authorized by the National Wool Act of 1954 to stimulate increased production of wool. Payments are made on lambs to encourage the normal marketing of lambs with the wool on. First payments under the program were made last summer on 1955-56 marketings. Nationally, these payments total approximately $57.5 million.

CROPPER ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY JUDGE

Judge C. L. Cropper, Burlington, this week, made the following statement to the voters of Boone county:

"In announcing as a candidate for reelection to the office of County Judge of Boone county, I wish to express to the people my deep appreciation for their loyal support and friendship which has permitted me to become the Democratic nominee for this office without opposition."

"For fifteen years I have tried to fulfill the duties of this office and serve all the people to the best of my ability and shall continue to do so as long as I hold the office."

"I wish to thank the citizens of Boone county for their cooperation and support through the years and sincerely request your help in the years ahead."

MRS. CLARA LINVILLE

Services for Mrs. Clara Mae Linville, 61, of Price Pike, Florence, were held Monday afternoon at the Connely Bros. Funeral home, Covington. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell.

Mrs. Linville was a member of the Oak Island Homemakers' Club. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Thomas Knox, with whom she lived; a daughter, Mrs. Louise Roegner, Cincinnati; a son, William Linville, Covington; two brothers, Leslie and Griffin Williams, both of Cincinnati, and two grandchildren.

Poppy Day Saturday; House-to-House Sale On Friday Afternoon

The crepe-paper poppy you wear over your heart this poppy day in remembrance may be ill-fashioned and unskillfully made. Treasure it the more, because it represents the first faltering steps on the road back for some men who risked his life so that you and I could keep ours. In many cases he has a family, for which he was responsible before he offered his greatest gift to his country. He worried about his family and is trying to rehabilitate himself so that he may leave the white coat and the white hospital and again take his place at the head of the table and say "grace" with thanksgiving.

The money which the veterans earn from poppy-making augments the stipend which their families receive from the government and it is not charity. Charity is an ugly word in connection with these staunch defenders and they are a proud group. The disabled veteran likes to feel that he is helping to support his wife and children.

Buy the poppy Friday afternoon, April 26, from the senior boys and girls when they will make a house-to-house canvass, or buy them Saturday from any Legion Auxiliary member on the streets.

May 28
Boone, Owen, Carroll,
Gallatin and Grant
Counties

To the Citizens of Boone County:

The reports from throughout the district as to the progress of my race for Commonwealth Attorney are most favorable and encouraging. I earnestly urge you to continue your active support in my behalf.

I want to impress upon each and every one of you that I am running my own race, and that I am not aligned with any candidate or group of candidates, although I will appreciate support from all.

The office of Commonwealth Attorney is an office that should not be dictated to by any person, group, or political faction. I assure you that if elected, I will be YOUR Commonwealth Attorney.

Respectfully,

J. R. FORD

MILLIONS DID! For this advertisement appeared recently in national business magazines and in leading financial papers that have a combined circulation of more than five million readers. Why did we run it? Why have we run many others similar to it in the past? Because promoting the industrial growth of the Southland in every way we can is good for the Southern — and good for the South!

Our national advertising program is one way we do this. Maintaining an Industrial Development Department that constantly and aggressively seeks new industries for every available plant location is another. Providing efficient and dependable rail transportation so vital to industry today is still another.

New factories and new payrolls are "coming to town" all over the South. Last year 423 major industrial developments that cost over $710 million and created 26,000 new job opportunities took place along the Southern alone. Many in the South helped bring this about. All in the South benefit!

Independence News

Edited by Robert K. West—FL 7-8601

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Martin had the pleasure of attending Kenton Baptist Church Revival services Friday night. Frank Keriger, is the pastor of Kenton Baptist Church. Their visiting pastor at Kenton was Rev. Hundley from Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Grace Martin, of Independence, visited one of her old neighbors, Mrs. Opal Sims, Sunday afternoon, both enjoyed a nice chat together and hoping to do more visiting together when warmer weather appears.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyon's, Martin Rd., Independence had the pleasure of having their son, Leonard home with them for the weekend. Leonard is stationed in Georgia, in the Army. The Lyon's held a large reception, Sunday afternoon at their home for their son and bride. The newly weds were married Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's Church, Independence, Ky. Leonard will be stationed overseas soon and his bride will join him in a few weeks.

The aunt of Mrs. Clay Martin, Mrs. Mary Broughton, Evansville, Ind., passed away Saturday at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Broughton, was ninety-five years old. She leaves three daughters and two sons. Mr. Broughton passed away many years ago.

Marsha Baldwin, of Pelly Pike, fell from her TriCycle and broke her arm, Marsha spent Saturday in the hospital accompanied by her mother.

Tom Carlisle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle of Morning View, was married Monday evening, April 15, at Oak Island Baptist Church, to Miss Mary Piper, of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Shettler, pastor of Pine Bluff Church. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Piper of Albuquerque. Tom's brother, Bob, acted as his best man, and Miss Dianne Dressman of Morning View, was Maid of Honor. Several piano selections were provided by Geneva Campbell of Morning View.

Square Dance
A square dance, sponsored by the Independence Moon Bros. Post #25 of the American Legion will be held Saturday, April 27 at 9:00 p. m. at the Legion home. The public is cordially invited.

God Made Us Last

Lesson for April 28, 1957

THE readers of this column will not all read Genesis in the same day. Some will take it pretty literally, others will read the early chapters in it as picture-stories, parables in half poetic form. All readers, it is hoped, can agree on one point: that whether we take these stories literally or as parables, the meaning is the same in any case. We do not have to go grubbing in obscure corners for the meanings and messages of Genesis. The book was not written for people with complicated minds. The meanings it conveys are on the surface, or so near it that the simplest readers can see them.

Dr. Foreman

The Earth Is Man's Home

From the second story of creation which we find in Genesis, in chapter 2, the story which concentrates on man himself, we can select some outstanding impressions which the story makes, and no doubt was intended to make. First of all, this earth is the home of man. That is its principal use. Man came late to the planet; God made us last. We did not make our appearance here till all was ready for us. Some thinkers have thought of man as a sort of homeless creature, dropped into this earth almost by accident, fitting in nowhere. Quite the contrary; man might be lonely and restless on some far galaxy, but not on this green earth. Man, furthermore, being at the top of the ladder of creation, is master of this planet. This does not mean he is master of the universe. It may be discovered some day, as the science-fiction boys have already suggested, that men may some day find themselves on another planet, but as intruders, only to be thrown out or destroyed. But on this earth man has a right to live, and to achieve mastery. In Genesis 1 (where the horizon is wider than in Gen. 2) man is told: Replenish the earth and subdue it. Man, in short, is to work together with God in bringing order and completeness to the planet which is his rightful home.

Top of Creation

Let us pursue that thought about the top of creation a little further. This story in Genesis presents man as made from dust, and all other living things, both plants and beasts and birds, are likewise sprung from the dust by the power of God. Man has a kind of kinship with all of life, and therefore, as Albert Schweitzer has said, must have a reverence for life. Man cannot give life to himself nor to any other creature; and should be very slow about taking life of any sort. Nevertheless it is much nearer the truth to say that the creation is made for man, than that man is made for the rest of creation. Not that God intends everything in the world to be used. It is an interesting point that the trees of Eden are not all good for food; some of them are simply beautiful to see. The beauty of the world, sometimes its useless beauty (like a sunset) is for man alone, just as its usefulness—sometimes its unbeautiful usefulness—is appreciated best by man alone. Only man can heat the arctic and cool the tropics; only man can bring his foods from the ends of the earth.

"One Man Is No Man"

The Greeks had a slogan: One man is no man, meaning that we each need the help and companionship of others to live at all, as human beings. The story of the first man as told in Genesis illustrates this in a moving way. God sees that this man is incomplete, though he is set in the midst of great beauty and has work to occupy mind and hands. So God produces all the other animals; but man can't only talk about them with them. So at last another human being is made. Before, there was only a man alone; now there is a human race. This is not science, not intended to be; but it is a profound truth. Man is made for community. Without it, he sinks to the brute's level. In community a man becomes human. And yet if the only companionship man finds is human, he has still missed his destiny. For man was made for fellowship, above all, with God. Only as friend of God can man become what God intended him to be.

THE DIVINE VIGIL

Scenes like this are as commonplace as the moonbeams that play on the nursery wall. Little Gail doesn't know it... but Daddy and Mummy "look in" on her every night.

But what of the hours when parents sleep? What of the busy playtime when Daddy's at work, and Mummy's in the kitchen, and Gail is out walking her doll? Who will "look in" then?

Centuries ago the Hebrew pilgrims went up to Jerusalem for the great feasts, lifting their eyes to the hills, singing the song of "The Divine Vigil."

He that keepeth thee will not slumber rang the voice of the leader. He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep answered the chorus.

Even the loving care of parents is no substitute for the faithfulness of God. When you worship in church next Sunday you'll be expressing the ageless conviction: My help cometh from the Lord.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character, and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Carr entertained relatives on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney attended the "Day Apart" at Walton on Wednesday.

We were glad to have our college boys Lee Giles, J. B. Lasey and Henry Rice, home in their last long weekend of the year.

We were pleased to have a good attendance at both worship services and also Sunday School.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish had as guests on Easter one son and one daughter and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children spent Saturday with relatives here.

The W. S. C. S. met on Thursday evening with Mrs. J. J. Barnett, 18 members were present. Mrs. Parish read a poem in memory of Mrs. W. E. Hanna recently deceased. New officers were elected, they will be installed at the May meeting at the home of Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

WHITES TOWER

Real summer weather the past few days have developed a real case of garden fever among our residents and you can see everyone on the move this Monday morning, plowing and disking.

The writer has been on the sick list the past week and Sunday we had the following visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ryle and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schrader of Cincinnati, Mrs. Wm. Garbo and daughter Debbie of Florence, Mrs. Mary Ward and daughter Linda of Covington, Mrs. Wm. Brumback and daughter Judy of Independence, and Billy Baker of Taylor Mill Pike.

True friends like diamonds, precious but rare. False one like autumn leaves are found everywhere.

Another old resident of the Tower passed away when Uncle Charlie Bridwell, father of Mrs. Ray Darrell passed away at his home "Whites Tower Service Center. He was 79 years old.

Mrs. Jess Webster had as guests Sunday her son Doc, and family of Louisville, and her mother Mrs. Jump of Lotonia.

Joe Schadler and Mr. Inabitt of the Tower are making some improvements in landscaping around their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dorsey were very happy when they received word from their son Lieutenant Dorsey, who is in Japan that he and his family were coming home some time in May and he will now be stationed at Lexington, Ky.

We are all happy for them at we will be glad to see Dick, Otie and Sarah.

Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry and Tom Brumback of Independence have formed a partnership and bought a power saw and are taking orders for posts and will contract to cut your trees at anytime. They are considering a herd of goats to eat the sprouts that came up where they saw the trees in the farm.

Mrs. Henry Bindel was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital one day last week where she underwent a minor operation. At last reports she is recovering nicely.

We are glad to see our very efficient Rural Carrier Randall Wagner back on the job after a siege of a few days with a bad throat.

LOSE UGLY FAT . . . IN TEN DAYS OR MONEY BACK!

If you are overweight, here is the first really thrilling news to come along in years. A new and convenient way to get rid of extra pounds easier than ever, so you can be as slim and trim as you want. This new product called DIATRON curbs both hunger & appetite. No drugs, no diet, no exercise. Absolutely harmless. When you take DIATRON you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions and automatically your weight must come down, because, as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Excess weight endangers your heart, kidneys. So no matter what you have tried before, get DIATRON and prove to yourself what it can do. DIATRON is sold on this GUARANTEE: You must lose weight with the first package you use or the package costs you nothing. Just return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back. DIATRON costs $3.00 and is sold with this strict money back guarantee by Brakesfield Drug Store, Walton. Mail orders filled.

THIS IS IT!

This is the weekend to get you a new power lawn mower. That grass is really growing and now is the time to mow. Bring your old mower and we never fail to trade, if you want to trade; of course we find one now and then that really don't want to trade—they want you to give them a mower. But Conrad will really trade with you, and if he is not here, I have some helpers that will give you a good deal. They know what these mowers cost, what we sell them for and what we can get for your old mower, so trade with them, and if you get a bad one, bring it back and get another.

I sold a fellow the best mower I had Saturday, we put it in his truck and he went home to mow his yard. A few minutes I saw him come in the side door, I said I thought you went home to mow that lawn. He said I did but I will have to have a mower, I went about 50 feet and it looked up tight. So I gave him another mower and have not seen him since, so I guess he is OK. In everything you sell, you get a defective item now and then, so buy it from Conrad and he will make it good. He always tried to do this but some won't let you do the right thing.

We wait until the next season and come in with a big job story and expect me to replace the item after the warranty is over. Please, when you have a mower with a mower in warranty, which is 90 days from date of purchase, bring it in now, not next season. We have several hand mowers, Eclipse brand, $16.50, $24.50, $34.50, user mowers, $7.50, $9.50, just been sharpened and adjusted. Has anyone shown you the Eclipse power mower with the electric starter, in the size, for $137.50 and $149.50? When better mowers are made, Eclipse will make them.

We went down and picked up Roger Arnold's air conditioner unit, the lightning had run in and burned it out. We also picked up his exhaust fan, it was burned out motor. We sent the air conditioner in to be repaired and I ordered a new motor for the fan. C. K. Mullins left his water pump here to be repaired. Chick called Ed Hanton, our Dayton pump man, he said it up to his shop and they would repair it. The Readnor boys from down at Big Bone came up and brought a rubber tired wagon. Red tied it on behind the truck and took it down to them.

It rained the past two days but we had several customers. Everyone is ready for fair weather, the farmers, builders and contractors can't wait which puts many out of work and no income. This is very bad in our land today, because living is high and a few weeks without pay makes a very bad situation. Mrs. Naomi Sparks bought a round tub Maytag and Red delivered it today; he also took Roger Arnold's window fan we had repaired. He took Bertha Jack a new lawn mower, and delivered 2 gallons Jelled Magic paint to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Combs.

He then dropped off a new stove to Mrs. Cecil Gaines—she got a defective one and the Revere Co. made it good. Then he left a Mirromatic cooker lid for Mrs. Mort Rust, which also the Mirromatic Co. repaired for her. Then he took Dr. Bachmeyer some rollers that will give you a good deal. They know what these mowers cost, what we sell them for and what we can get for your old mower, so trade with them, and if you get a bad one, bring it back and get another.

I sold a fellow the best mower I had Saturday, we put it in his truck and he went home to mow his yard. A few minutes I saw him come in the side door, I said I thought you went home to mow that lawn. ## Zimmer of Florence, Candidate for State Representative

Ben Zimmer, of Florence, has announced this week as a candidate for State Representative from Boone and Gallatin Counties, and makes the following statement to the voters:

"In announcing as a candidate for the office of State Representative of the Boone-Gallatin Counties District, I want to state to you all that I feel that the responsibilities of the office are weighty and demand active, honest and attentive representation. I, pledge when elected to maintain a freedom from political obligations which will leave me free to honestly represent the people on any issue which may arise. My only obligation will be to render the best service of which I am capable to a people which have in the past, not been well represented and overtaxed. On the basis of this policy, I solicit the support of all freedom-loving people of Boone and Gallatin counties."

Mr. Zimmer is an accountant, a student of economics with training at Chase College of Commerce and Law, and the University of Kentucky College of Commerce, Lexington. Had experience in the Public Relations office with the Department of Revenue, Frankfort. He is owner of the Florence Bookkeeping and Tax Service Company, also manager of The Southern Realty Company and the Southern Insurance Agency.

He has been on the executive board of Young Democratic Clubs, chairman of the Democratic Club of the Fifth District.

Wa-Na To Meet at Janodo; Literary Club to Be Guests

The Wa-Na Woman's Club will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, May 6 at Janodo, at 8:00 p. m. The topic for the meeting is "International Relations" and the guest speaker will be Mrs. Opat Vincent, Principal of the Forest Hills Elementary School. Mrs. Vincent is well qualified to speak on this subject as she recently spent a year in Europe as an exchange teacher. This promises to be an interesting evening and all members are urged to attend.

The club will also welcome as guests the members of the Woman's Literary Club of Walton.

In line with the subject for the meeting, roll call will be answered with the members naming the foreign city each would most like to visit.

SIMON KENTON PTA

Installation of officers will be held Monday night, May 6 at 8 p. m. at the monthly meeting of Simon-Kenton P. T. A. in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Helen E. Collins, program director, will deliver a poem, entitled "It's a Boy, It's a Girl." Independence Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts will be honored. Social hour will follow in the school cafeteria.

To Speak at Carter's Chapel

Dr. Harry Bowman, of the Methodist Board of Evangelism, Nashville, Tenn., will speak at Carter's Chapel Methodist Church, East of Crittendon, on Saturday night and Sunday morning, May 4-5. Dr. H. G. Ogles, District Superintendent of the Covington District, will also be present at both services. The public is cordially invited.

Parrs Have New Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Parr, Kenton, are the proud parents of a 6-lb., 14-oz. baby girl, born April 29, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, named Melissa Ann. She will be welcomed home by brother, Danny, age 5.

Mr. Parr is a lieutenant in the Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Dept.

"Home" Scottish Rite Services

Wilford Scottish Rite Club of Kenton county will leave Sunday, May 5, for the Old Masons' Home, Veachland, Ky., where they will hold their annual church services. Rev. Arthur Tipton, pastor of the Independence Christian Church, will give the sermon. There will be special music by Brenda Worthington and Carlos Oliver, as well as singing by Jobs Daughters.

All Masons, their families and friends are invited to go, and include well-filled baskets of food.

Social at Kenton, Saturday

Campbell, son of Mrs. Mabel Campbell, Walton, is a 1952 graduate of Walton-Verona High School. He is the son of Russell B. Campbell, Covington. His wife, Leora, is with him in Georgia.

Telephone Company Plans Direct Distance Dialing for Florence

Consolidated Telephone Company has announced that preparations are being made for the installation of equipment which will enable Florence customers to dial many of their out-of-town calls from their own telephones. This type of service is known as Direct Distance Dialing (DDD).

In order to make this possible it is necessary to make certain equipment changes on May 5. These changes will affect customers only when they need to dial "information," "Repair Service" or another party on their line.

Letters are being sent to all customers in Florence and Union this week advising of this change and providing stickers to be placed on telephone directories showing the necessary changes in instructions.

Later, when equipment now on order is received and installed an announcement will be made giving the effective date of DDD and complete instructions for dialing over 40 points in Kentucky and Ohio, including all of Kenton, Campbell, and Hamilton counties.

SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

The Walton baseball team, an entry in the Boone County Saturday Afternoon League, will open the season on Saturday, May 4, at 2:00 p. m., against Burlington, at the county seat park.

Loyle Chessman is expected to be on the mound for the locals, and Dallas Justice will probably catch. Other likely starters are Carl Sharp, 1b; Lloyd Moore, 2b; Paul Black, ss; Stormy Linton, 3b; Danny Black, rf; Bob Medley, cf, and Don Rice, p.

Games coming up are: May 11 at Ludlow; May 18 at Big Bone; May 25 at Bellevue.

Waltz Representative Here

A representative from the Waltz Studios will be in Walton, May 10, from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., at the City Building, to show proofs of the children's pictures taken recently.

Eggs provide high-quality protein, which is essential for every living cell and for body building and repair; eggs contain minerals and vitamins also.

OAK RIDGE

This past week of summer weather has certainly changed the appearance of the countryside around here. The trees are all leafing out, everyone has had to mow their lawns, the tulips and lilacs are blooming their best and the hillsides are beautiful with red bud and wild philox.

Greg Corbin had the measles last week.

*The men from the Covington South office of the Commonwealth Life Insurance Co. had good luck on their fishing trip to Cumberland Lake last weekend. They caught over a hundred fish, mostly crappie. They ate all they could hold and brought quite a few home.

We are glad to hear that both Mrs. Ida Bindel and Mrs. W. G. Bales are improving after their operations and Mrs. Bales has returned home from the hospital. Mrs. Bindel is still at Booth Hospital.

There were two accidents on Taylor Mill Pike over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Whalen spent the week-end in Indiana.

There will be a very important meeting of the Taylor Mill Civic Assn. at the Taylor Mill School, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will concern a proposal by the city of Covington to run water mains into the area, efforts to alleviate the crowded condition of Taylor Mill School, the new tax rate set by the city of Taylor Mill, and appointment of a nominating committee. All residents of the area are urged to attend.

The Mother Singers from Taylor Mill P. T. A. and Kenton Elementary P. T. A. will sing at the state P. T. A. Convention in Lexington May 1st.

The Taylor Mill P. T. A. had a very good dinner at the school last Friday night. Those who cooked and those who served are to be commended on the excellent food and service. Not only do you get a good meal at those dinners but you get to see all your old friends that you don't get to see very often.

Jackie Miller is still in bed with rheumatic fever.

Missy Kemper is still in St. Elizabeth's Hospital with a broken leg. Tuesday, April 30 is his birthday. He would appreciate receiving greeting cards. It is mighty lonesome staying in the hospital in traction for several weeks and especially for a boy on his 14th birthday.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish are leaving on Wednesday to attend the W. S. C. S. Conference at Frankfort and then on to Taylorsville where Rev. Parish will preach the dedicatory sermon for the recently erected parsonage and education building.

Mrs. Dawson Ballinger spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Cooper at Riggs Rd.

Miss Emma Yates entertained Rev. and Mrs. Parish on Sunday and after dinner they were joined by Mrs. J. A. Keeney and all attended the service honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watson, who are going to Africa.

Prof. Ray Richardson of Texas A&M was a recent weekend visitor of relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brueggem enjoyed a visit from her mother on Sunday. We were much encouraged to receive into the fellowship of our church here on Sunday several new members, among whom were the following, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Binder, Peggy, Jerry and Stephen, Bruce Binder, Mrs. Chester Rapp, Judy Rapp, Tommy Nunery, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons, Sharon and Jeffery and Mr. and Mrs. Kenney. Our prayer is that we may mean as much to them as we are sure they will mean to us.

Rev. Elmer Kidwell a former pastor here will preach on next Sunday.

STAFFORDSBURG

Miss Marcello Godde of Detroit spent a recent weekend with relatives here.

Most of the members of our Homemakers Club attended the District meeting at Madison Ave. Christian Church on Friday, where Miss Viola K. Hansen the new chairman of Home Ec. Extension programs in Ky. told us of our programs in the future. Dr. James W. Gladden also from the University told us how to grow good families.

Ends Second Phase of Training

Private Robert E. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bell, Independence, recently completed the second phase of a six-month tour of active military training under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox, Ky. Bell received eight weeks of automotive maintenance helper training after completing basic combat training.

Poison Ivy, the bane of picknickers, now is controlled by a new chemical, amino triazole.

WHITES TOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Rapp were callers at the farm Thursday and Mr. Rapp ordered a couple of those fine Hampshire pigs for his meat this fall.

Quite a crowd from this neighborhood and from Decatur Baptist Church attended the revival at 12-Mile Baptist Church in Campbell County on Friday night where Bro. Bob Brumback, the pastor, is bringing the messages. Already quite a number have been added to the church membership.

Pear blossoms have already dropped and apples and peaches are in full bloom, a little early this year on account of the very warm weather.

Walton Baptist Y. W. A.

The Dortha Lone Y. W. A. of the Walton Baptist Church journeyed to Big Bone for their regular meeting on Monday evening, April 15. After a short program by the Big Bone girls, the Walton girls gave their program, "See Her Daughters." Those attending were Irma Rector, Janice Osborne, Shirley Saylor, Jean Elliott, Barbara Abner, Patsy Marksberry, Noretta Johnson, and Dora Pennington.

On Sunday evening, April 14, the Walton Y. W. A. were honored as part of the Associational girls gave a playlet, "Challenge of the Cross." The program was enjoyed by all.

LOSE UGLY FAT . . . IN TEN DAYS OR MONEY BACK!

If you are overweight, here is the first truly thrilling news to come along in years. A new and convenient way to get rid of extra pounds easier than ever, so you can be as slim and trim as you want. This new product called DIATRON curbs both hunger & appetite. No drugs, no diet, no exercise. Absolutely harmless. When you take DIATRON you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions and automatically your weight must come down, because, as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Excess weight endangers your heart, kidneys. So no matter what you have tried before, get DIATRON and prove to yourself what it can do. DIATRON is sold on this GUARANTEE: You must lose weight with the first package you use or the package costs you nothing. Just return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back. DIATRON costs $3.00 and is sold with this strict money back guarantee by Drakefield Drug Store, Walton. Mail orders filled. 5t-15

The Beacon class of the Walton Methodist Sunday School was entertained on Friday evening, April 26, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burgess on Edwards Avenue.

The business was conducted by the president, Paul Kline. Mrs. Arthur Doggett was elected to fill the vacancy of treasurer. The nursery committee reported on their findings and the nursery is to be refurnished with furniture and toys. The new name, The Beacon Class, was agreed upon for this adult group. The title means, "Be Ever Alert Concerning Others Needs."

The devotional, "Walking With Christ," was given by Mrs. A. E. Atkinson. This was followed by prayer. Some exciting games were led by Mrs. Atkinson, after which a delightful dessert course was served to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doggett, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Atkinson and daughter, Elizabeth, Paul Kline, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burgess.

PINER BAPTIST W. M. U.

The Woman's Missionary Union of Piner Baptist Church met Thursday, April 18, at the home of Mrs. Agnes McMillan with 15 members, two visitors and two children present.

Roll call was answered with verses of scripture. Thirty-five cards had been sent, 22 visits made in the community, and four women made 30 visits and gave 51 tracts in Booth Hospital.

Mrs. Myrtle Bell, Mrs. Read Shettler and Mrs. Mary Elliott gave a wonderful report of their trip to the state W.M.U. meeting at Paducah, Ky. The rest almost felt as if they had been there too.

After lunch, the program in Royal

Service was given, under the direction of Mrs. Christine Tungate, with several members taking part.

Those present were Mrs. Billie Lunsford, Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, Mrs. Mary Oliver, Mrs. Cecil Belew, Mrs. Evelyn Lunsford, Mrs. Georgia Cornelius, Mrs. Nettie Mann, Mrs. Agnes McMillan, Mrs. Hazel Kidwell, Mrs. Myrtle Bell, Mrs. Christine Oliver, Mrs. Mary Elliott, Mrs. Christine Tungate, Mrs. Read Shettler, Mrs. Prude Oliver, Miss Annie Whaley, and Mrs. Faye McMillan and two children.

Resourceful God

Lesson for May 5, 1957

THE BIBLE has a plot, take it as a whole, as much as any thriller you ever read. In fact the Bible is more thrilling, because it directly concerns each one of the human race. It is the story of age-long conflict between Good and Evil, portrayed as a personal conflict between God and Satan, a struggle for the control of the earth and of man. The story begins in a sunny, hopeful way. God makes a world, an uninhabited world but nevertheless beautiful, and he calls into existence Man and Woman, to live on this earth, to beautify and complete it further. They are to be God's friends and fellow-workers. But before the reader quite knows how it happens, the Serpent appears on the scene and persuades man that God is not his friend but his enemy. So the man rebels against his Maker, is faithless to his divine Friend. Philosophers and theologians have other ways of telling it; but from the simple picture-stories of Genesis shines the same double truth and tragedy: Man is made for fellowship with God and other human beings, but he has broken the fellowship, he has turned against his trust Friend.

God Planning

Mysteries darken our knowledge here. But of some things we can be sure. One is that God does not deal with his world and his creatures haphazard. He is a planning God. Another thing that seems clear is that man has freedom to obey God or to disobey; to fit in with the Plan or to reject it and the Planner. God could, no doubt, have made a race of beings who could not possibly do anything but right, a race of perfect robots; but for some reason God chose to make man free. One suspects that the reason is that God would rather be loved by persons who would love him freely, than to be loved by creatures "wound up," so to speak—bound to love him whether or no. (Would that be real love?) Another thing that stands out is that God is resourceful; in one sense his Plan can be broken, when men go contrary to his will. In another sense men do not break his Plan, for God appears in Genesis like a wise general who has more than one plan of strategy—all pointing to victory.

God Rejected

Man is not free unless he is free to do wrong as well as to do right. And if he is free to do wrong, which is a short way of saying free to go against the will and plan of God, then he is free to destroy himself. For the Plan of God for man, born as it is infinite Wisdom and infinite Love, is always for man's best. For man to resist God, to ignore him, scorn him, live by man-made plans, is to choose the way of death. Genesis shows dramatically how the sin of man grows worse as a snowball grows larger—the farther it goes the more rapidly it grows. Adam's sin seemed a rather slight thing—then his son is a murderer, and his descendants so bad that God could scarcely find one good family among them. The story in Genesis is the story of mankind; men prefer their own way to God's way—the way of hate and conflict rather than the way of fellowship and love; and they suffer the judgment of God; namely that those who take their own way must accept the inevitable disaster.

God Undeafed

Many religions know of just and righteous gods who have been rejected by wicked or careless or ignorant men. But the God revealed in the Bible does not act as the "gods of the gentiles" are said to act. For man's sin, other gods may have resentment, vengeance, punishment. But these things leave man as he was, an enemy—a conquered enemy perhaps, but with rebellion still smoldering in his soul. Other religions provide elaborate methods by which men may pay for their sins—going long pilgrimages, undergoing self-imposed tortures. But the true God is quite different from the gods whom men imagine—a god undefeated, infinitely resourceful. He never gives up his Plan for a people in fellowship with him. Men are changed, saved, made fit to be God's friends, only by steadfast undiscouraged love.

WE ALL HAVE OUR DREAMS

Yes, we all have our dreams.

Perhaps sometimes, they are mere projections of our selfishness . . . hopes unfair to others . . . ambitions dangerous to ourselves.

But often, they are healthy, honest aspirations . . . opportunities which zeal deserves . . . victories which justice demands.

Is it wrong to dream such dreams? Does God frown on honest hope and love?

Of course not! Rather, God has given us minds able to dream, and souls courageous enough to seek the difficult—even the impossible.

But the Divine Architect helps man to model his castles in the air, and provides the tools for their building. With faith and the guidance of the Church a man may realize hopes and aims which a cynical world calls futile.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a new world of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Farm Facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

FARM OWNERSHIP VERSUS MANAGEMENT—We are all concerned about the difficulties, due to the high capital requirements of modern agriculture, that confront young men in becoming established in farming. The same financial problems, however, confront young men who want to go into any other productive or merchandizing business. In either case one cannot start as an owner-operator unless he has had the good fortune to inherit a going business.

Possibly more young farmers should consider dividing the ladder to farm ownership part-time with one partner who, if he wanted to operate a grocery or department store, a garage or any other business. He would first get a job working for a successful owner, then, in line with his abilities, he would have an opportunity to become, progressively, manager, partner or leasor, and then owner. Ownership, however, either in the business of farming or otherwise, is not essential to success. Many good operators, both in the city and on the farm, find it preferable to let someone else furnish the capital for ownership while they furnish the managerial ability and the tools of production. Efficient young farmers may find better futures for themselves in operating someone else's good farms than by struggling to own a mediocre one themselves.

SOMETHING NEW—It has long been the custom of Chambers of Commerce and other groups of businessmen to sponsor tours and trips designed to promote good will and encourage industrial development. Now, the Kentucky Agricultural Council, a group composed of some 75 state-wide farm agencies and organizations, is planning to do the same thing in behalf of agriculture. A two-day Agricultural Development Tour will be held in early August of this year. Tentative plans call for a trip by bus, leaving Frankfort on August 6, with stops in Taylor and Green counties, enroute to Burns where the group will spend the night. The second day's itinerary will take the party through Pulaski, Lincoln and possibly Fayette counties.

Oak Island Homemakers

The April meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers was held in the Sunday school room of the church. The devotions were given by Mrs. Donald Riddell. A lesson on home decorating was given by Mrs. Arthur Steeley and Mrs. Edward Kerr. Samples of materials were shown for correct coloring in the making of a work day to weave rocker and stool seats.

Several members plan to attend the Northern Kentucky District meeting on April 26, to be held in the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington.

Those present were Mesdames Arthur Steeley, Frank Jackson, Cecil Northcutt, Sherman Barberick, Robert Wainwright, Donald Riddell, Russell Rector, Albert Martin, Edward Kerr, Alvin Oliver, Glenmore Dunn, Miss Nell Niehoff, and Miss Zelma Byerly.

Wild game reared in confinement and then released may spread such diseases as coccidiosis and fowl tuberculosis among other wild game.

VERONA

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chandler spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Mayra Hayden and Carolyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm had as Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reffett and Freddie, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronne Reffett.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes were the Easter Sunday dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert King, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Webster and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Webster were recent Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Chapman and Mrs. Vevie Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman spent Easter with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yates, and Nola.

Mrs. Susie Glare entertained her Sunday school class Sunday with an egg hunt. Those present were Joyce Burgett, Charlotte Rosemire, Brenda Wilson, Donna Wilson, Juanita Williams, Eula Coyle, Janet Wilson, Wanda Cole, plus five other girls whose names we did not learn. Other callers were Mrs. Aracela Hayden, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Allie Chandler, Mrs. Iris Hughes, Mrs. Fannie Edrington, Miss Carolyn Hayden, Don Curry, Miss Norma Locke and Miss Vicky Leek.

Mrs. Pattie Wilford has been staying with Mrs. May Wilson the past few nights while her husband is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chandler were the six o'clock dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Allie Chandler and Mrs. Ethel Rogers.

We were glad to see Hayes Stephenson able to be back from the hospital. We were glad to see Mrs. Grace Renaker able to be brought to church for the Easter morning services, and also Miss Carol Ann Harris. It was Carol Ann's first time to attend church since she was stricken with polio. We hope they will both be able to continue on coming to church.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephenson entertained their little son, little Carol Ann Harris, for dinner Sunday. Mrs. Lena Harris returned to her home here recently from Florida, where she had been with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouse, and children since December.

Mrs. Pattie Waller of Louisville, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Luther Risner, Saturday night and Sunday. Bernard Wilson was taken back to the hospital recently. His right arm is not doing so well. They had to graft some skin on it. We hope he will get along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gallion was calling on Mr. Gallion's sister, Mrs. James Kiper of Carrollton, who had been operated on for gall stones. We are glad she is getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Pettit at Dry Ridge.

Mrs. Ellena Hamilton and son, Jim Bob, and daughter, Karen, and Mrs. Fannie Edrington were calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doll Gordon and family Sunday afternoon. They were having a Birthday dinner for Mr. Curtis Webster. Mr. Webster is getting pretty feeble but we wish him many more birthdays.

Mrs. Allie Chandler had as her guests Sunday Mrs. Susie Glare, Miss Carolyn Hayden and Mrs. Edith Chandler. Mrs. Chandler is going to stay all week, as her husband, Curtis Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Mayra Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walden left Sunday morning for the Kentucky Lake on a fishing trip. We sure wish them the best of luck.

Mrs. Fannie Edrington was calling on Mrs. Maq Chapman and Mrs. Vevie Webster one afternoon last week. Jerry and Paul Dyer had the measles last week but they are getting along all right.

There were forty-one of the school children of Verona and Walton school that went to Mammoth Cove Friday night and stayed until Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Coleman and Mrs. Carrie Coleman of Cincinnati were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Floria Adams Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Ethel Rogers is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frances Aylor and Mr. Aylor this week.

We are sorry Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman and Mrs. Virgie Coleman are on the sick list. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Martha Hayden entertained her daughter, Mrs. Christine Yancy Sunday afternoon.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By G. H. Kingsbury

School Heale:

There's been a lot of talk in Kentucky about extension centers—junior colleges—set up and established by the University of Kentucky.

Well, right across the river from Washington, in Northern Virginia, a hassle has developed over the location of a junior college under the auspices of the University of Virginia.

The quarrel has become so bitter that University officials have declared that nothing will be done until the warring factions smoke the pipe of peace.

The Supreme Court:

Not all Kentucky news regarding the Supreme Court originated in Kentucky last week where Mayville's famous citizen, Justice Stanley Reed, was honored.

Here in the Capitol, a Cavington attorney, accompanied by Representative Brent Spence, went over to the Supreme Court headquarters on Monday, where James C. Ware was introduced and admitted to practice before the highest court in the land.

Book Review:

The Congressional Directory ($2) is off the press and we give our annual book review. Longest Kentucky biography belongs to Senator John Sherman Cooper. Shortest is a tie between Congressman John Watts of the Blue Grass District and junior Senator Thruston Morton.

We talk these days about the length of congressional sessions but, actually, they stayed in session almost year round back in the pioneer times. For example, the second session of the Fifth Congress (1798) met for 246 days. And one of the post-Civil War sessions lasted 345 days, a full year's work.

Military News:

We report on an event of interest to military men in Kentucky. A new army hospital—costing more than eight million dollars—opens this week at Fort Knox.

The equipment includes 45 bassinets, 14 incubators, and two delivery rooms. Military doctors say it's one of the best in the world and ready to care for 500 soldiers, their wives, children, or other dependents. And if business gets good, there is room to add two more wings to take care of the patients.

Staffordburg Homemakers

Mrs. Thomas Byrne entertained at her home on Taylor Mill Road for the April meeting of the Staffordburg Homemakers Club. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Bluch Rich. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. George Klein, while Mrs. J. A. Keeney gave two readings. A tour to be taken this summer by the club was discussed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. G. L. Cooper in Latonia. Those attending were Mesdames Bluch Rich, Thomas Byrne, John Shaw, H. L. Faulkner, Anthony Wolf, E. B. Rich, Ralph Howard, William Binder, Denver Binder, Emil Stern, Roy Payne, George Klein, L. J. Rapp, Melvin Bruggen, J. A. Keeney, Stella Richardson, Edith Ware, and three visitors.

MAY IS HERE

This is the month everyone goes to work, even the birds and the bees. The flowers bloom and the trees and bushes are reaching to go. The hills down towards the river are covered with dogwood and redbud and are beautiful. You can stand in the yard down at the farm and look towards the Ohio River, the hills are covered with dogwood and redbud, all bloomed out, a beautiful sight. This is May delight, the grass is so tender and green. The cows and horses are losing that long hair and getting slick. Sonny Madden, Ed Kennedy, Chas. Robinson, Dannie Hodges and Bob Hodges really gave those old sheep a shearing, a manicure, PTZ pellets and pine tar. These neighbors help out when you are in need—a fine group of people down around Beaver.

While this was going on, Chick, Brewster and Red were busy selling here at the store. Gladys Calton, Kenneth Collins, Claude Sturgeon, Martin Allen and Fred Green all bought power lawn mowers in one day. Worth Vandlandham and Lucille Lemming bought two of those rebuilt Maytag washers—these are a real buy. When I came in they said we are out of several kinds of paint—we had better order some. Keeping up the stock here is a big job.

James Staton and I had a lawn mower trade—he brought up his used mower and when I showed him that 21" pin Eclipse mower, we traded right there. Kenneth Vest, from Verona, bought a Mastercut mower, a great mower that gives very little trouble. Mr. Roger Arnold had me bring her a gallon of Bolce outside white paint. I stayed at the store a long at that point, also that Flemings seems to be the leading color in Bolce Liquid Satin and Bolce Lustre-Kote—same color, one is flat and the other a gloss. Mrs. Francis Kilgore came after fertilizer for their garden. Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Owen Flynn and Owen's mother were all here buying hardware. Another one of my old reliable customers passed away, Mrs. Sophia Rauckhaner, who did live here but moved to Apple Drive, over by Simon Kenton High School.

Mrs. Paul Soden was in buying a few small pieces of hardware. She was inquiring about that Jelled Magic paint, the one you do not have to stir or thin. We sure sell that paint—every day the boys have a list for me to order out from Bolce. Brewster and Chick sold those 9x12 rugs at one time. We have lots of rugs and several patterns of linoleum to select from. They want out of here with a little of everything, garden plots, hoe handles, potato hoes, rakes, lawn seed, fly spray, wall paper paste, wall boards, wool twine, plastic pipe and fittings, weed killer, Esteron 99 to kill wild onions, fish poles, fish tackle, ball gloves, paint, PTZ powder, tools, pots and pans, BlueStone, lime, DDZ, pump repairs, horse shoes, harness, etc.

Dates Announced For Boone County Fair at Burlington

The Boone County Fair will be held August 22, 23 and 24, at Burlington. The Fair Council has cooperated with the Northern Kentucky Association of Fairs and the State Association in setting up the dates, according to John Crigler, chairman.

At a recent meeting, the fair committee decided to have a beauty contest on Thursday night, August 22. The winner of this contest will be known as "Miss Boone County Fair," according to Crigler, and will represent Boone county in the state contest, "Miss County Fair of Kentucky, 1957."

Rules and regulations governing the contest will be followed as set up by the State Association. They are:

1. Contestant must be between 15 and 22 years of age (single or married).
2. The contestant can only represent one fair.
3. Contestant must show in bathing suit and party dress.
4. Appropriate prizes will be given.

Contestant must register at the County Agent's office, Burlington, before July 23, 1957.

Any contestant who is interested in having a sponsor may contact R. V. Lantz, 1 Lloyd Ave., Florence. Phone ATlantic 3-1161.

Local Red Cross Entertains

"Coffee Hour," on Sunday, May 5, at the Fort Thomas VA hospital was sponsored by the Boone County Branch of the Cincinnati Area Red Cross Chapter. From 9:30 to 11:30 doughnuts, sweet rolls and coffee were served to the veterans by Mrs. Elizabeth Nestor, executive secretary, and Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, acting chairman of the Boone County Branch, ABC.

Patients at the hospital eagerly look forward to this weekly Red Cross treat, one of the many Red Cross services supported by the United Appeal, the joint campaign of the Red Cross and Chest in the five county area.

Services at Lebanon

There will be services at Lebanon Presbyterian Church, Sunday afternoon, May 12, at 2:30, by Rev. Charles Owens of Louisville. The public is cordially invited to attend. Services are held the second and fourth Sunday of each month.

Historic Log Cabin Is Scene of Boone County DAR Meeting

On Wednesday, May 1, the Boone County Chapter, D. A. R., held a meeting in the historic old log cabin located on the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferguson, of Union. The cabin was founded 1813 by some of the early settlers of Boone county.

Prior to the business meeting a pilgrimage to a Revolutionary soldier's grave was made by the members. The grave is that of a soldier named Steers, who was born in Ireland, came to this country at the age of 18 and in the year 1846, at the age of 90 years, passed away in Boone county.

Mrs. J. B. Wolfe, regent, presented D. A. R. history medals to Judy Ely of Florence school, and Mary Carol Bresser of St. Paul's School, in Florence. Each year the Boone County Chapter sponsors an historical scrapbook contest among the fifth grade students in all the schools of the county, and an essay contest among the eighth grade students. Miss Ely received the award for a lovely scrapbook, and Miss Bresser the award for an excellent essay on the subject of Kentucky History.

Miss Walton, Burlington, was guest speaker of the evening. The subject of his talk was a most interesting one about the Historical Geography of Northern Kentucky.

Following these activities, the guests were served a delicious barbecue, served by Mrs. Walter Ferguson and her co-hostesses, the Mesdames Roy C. Nestor, Virginia Goodridge, Rufus Tanner, and Davis Gaines.

Guests were Mesdames George Moritz, Curtis Ely, Ralph Bresser, the Misses Virginia Royal Nestor and Judy Conrad, and the Mesdames. Walter Ferguson and Bruce Ferguson. Members present were Mesdames J. P. Brothers, Louis Brown, Jenny Deans, Frances Berkshire, Harold Conner, Clarence Wolfe, John Feagun, Ashton Logan, Wallace Grubbs, and Sidney Conrad.

ARCH O. ROUSE

Arch O. Rouse, retired superintendent of roads in Boone county, died May 2, at the Dry Ridge Rest Home. He was 75 years old, and had been a patient there for more than a year.

A lifelong resident of Boone county, Mr. Rouse was a retired farmer and made his home at Union, where he was a member of the Union Baptist Church. Survivors of him are his widow, Mrs. Ada R. Rouse; two sons, Orvin Rouse, former Boone county sheriff, and Lloyd Rouse, operator of a service station in Florence for more than 20 years; a daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Weaver, of Covington; eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Nell Graddock, widow of Walter Graddock, who died recently of pneumonia in a garage holdup last December, Mrs. Orville, wife of Cecil Prentiss, present Boone county jailer and a candidate for sheriff, and a brother, Harry Rouse, of Union.

Services were conducted Saturday afternoon at the Stith funeral home, Florence, with Rev. R. A. Johnson, pastor of the Florence Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Rice Cemetery, at Union.

Annual Birthday Dinner at Walton Christian Church

All members, former members, and friends of the Walton Christian Church are invited to a birthday party, an annual affair, which will be held this Friday—May 10—in the church fellowship hall.

Each month is represented by a table decorated according to the dominant color that occurred during that month, such as the Fourth of July. Committees of three have been appointed by assistant-superintendent, Harold Marsh, to decorate each of the month's table. All those who celebrate birthdays in January sit at the January table, and so on.

The dinner will be potluck and will be under the direction of Mrs. Finley Jacobs, Sr., Mrs. Ira Stephenson, Mrs. Jesse Galt, Mrs. Gilbert Groger, Mrs. Clarence Patrick, and Mrs. Jane Sleet. Dr. Cyrus Yocum, professor of missions at The College of the Bible, will be the speaker. Dr. Yocum is noted for a large store of interesting and amusing stories concerning the missions of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

The traditional dinner is sponsored by the Walton Christian church school, whose officers are Layne Cheesman, superintendent; Harold Marsh, assistant superintendent; Miss Pauline Gross, secretary, and Miss Libbie Ingram, treasurer.

Fellowship Guild to Meet

The Fellowship Guild of the Walton Christian Church will hear Dr. Cyrus Yocum of Indianapolis, Ind., speak at their meeting in the home of Mrs. O. F. Young tonight (Thursday) at 8:00. The Guild, evening mission group of the local church, carries on a program of missionary education and service. Most recent of its service projects is a large store of interesting and amusing stories concerning the missions of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

The traditional dinner is sponsored by the Walton Christian church school, whose officers are Layne Cheesman, superintendent; Harold Marsh, assistant superintendent; Miss Pauline Gross, secretary, and Miss Libbie Ingram, treasurer.

EQUALIZATION BOARD IN SESSION MONDAY

The Boone County Board of Tax Supervisors, composed of John Crigler, Hebron, representing Magisterial District 1; M. G. Martin, Florence, representing District 2; and Harry Alphin, Walton, representing District 3, will convene at the courthouse in Burlington, on Monday, May 13, at 9:00 a. m., for the purpose of reviewing the 1957 assessment.

The board will be in session each day from 9:00 a. m. until 3:30 p. m., it was announced.

Anyone wishing to appeal to the board may do so at this time.

Skating Party May 14

The Intermediate girls' class of the Williamson Baptist Church, Fiskburg, is sponsoring a skating party at the Walton rink, Tuesday night, May 14. The doors will be open at 7:30. The public is welcome. Admission, 35 cents.

Gardens Is Topic at May Meet of Walton Woman's Literary Club

Mrs. Nicholas Welsh was the gracious hostess, at her home on High Street, for a delightful luncheon, followed by the May meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club.

The president, Mrs. Forest Thompson, presided over the meeting. While in business session, members voted to make a contribution to the National Headquarters Fund in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. D. Schoggin and Mrs. Julia A. Rouse were named as delegates to the sixty-second annual convention of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Louisville, on May 14-16. Mrs. Marvin Kendall and Mrs. Wendell Rouse were named alternates.

The Spiritual Guidance was given by Mrs. James Powers with an appropriate talk, after reading the 24th Psalm.

"Gardens," was the program topic. Members were asked to respond to roll call by giving a history of an unusual flower or shrub.

Mrs. Bowen Carter, a member of the Fish and Wildlife Department, Frankfort, made a most pleasing contribution with a film showing many varieties of wild flowers and rock gardens.

The members were pleased to have as their guest speaker, Mrs. Raymond Green of Williamstown. Mrs. Green, who has experienced in the care of plants, gave a talk on different flowers and plants and gave an interesting history of the Peace rose.

The speaker was introduced by the president, Mrs. Thompson.

Various pieces of handicraft and flower arrangements were on display.

Guests and members who enjoyed the hospitality of the Welsh home were: Mrs. Dan W. Bedinger, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Raymond Green, Mrs. Bowen Carter, Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Mrs. C. S. Vincent, Mrs. J. ## Wa-Na Woman's Club Hears Talk On France At the May Meeting

The Wa-Na Woman's Club met Monday, May 6, at 8:00 p. m., at Janodo.

The subject for this month's meeting was "International Relations," and the speaker, Mrs. Opal Vincent, principal of Forest Hills Elementary School, Kenton county.

Mrs. Vincent took her audience on a delightful tour of France by means of lovely colored slides and interesting comments on them. Having spent eleven months during 1954-55 in France as a teacher in the schools provided for children of U. S. Army personnel, Mrs. Vincent was able to give them interesting pictures and a storehouse of information regarding that most interesting country.

Concerning the business of the club, plans were made for delegates to attend the State Convention, to be held next week in Louisville.

The Wa-Na Club was most pleased to welcome as guests members of the Woman's Literary Club of Walton.

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. D. L. Maddox, Mrs. James Falls, Mrs. Chester Sturgeon, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Ward Rice, Mrs. Eldred Steinhauer, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., Mrs. John Mayhugh, Jr., Mrs. Lewis Webster, Mrs. D. L. Maddox, Mrs. Martha Martin, Mrs. D. L. Maddox, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. William Scroggin, Mrs. Julia Rouse, Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. Hess Vest, Mrs. Jane Sleet, and Mrs. D. L. Luby.

LLOYD G. ARMSTRONG

Lloyd G. Armstrong, 36 High Street, Walton, died Saturday at his home. He was formerly employed as a custodian at Simon Kenton High School, Independence.

Mr. Armstrong was a member of Bradford Lodge, 123, F&M, Independence. He was 64 years old.

Surviving him are five sisters, Mrs. Ora Strain, with whom he made his home, Mrs. Flora Summey, and Miss Marie Armstrong, both of Walton, Mrs. Charles Lasey, Morning View and Mrs. William House, Independence; five brothers, Roddie, of Reno, Nev., Neuman, of Nicholson, Foster, of Oldsmar, Fla., and Bryan and Geobert Armstrong, both of Independence, and a half-brother, Harry Armstrong, Independence.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Swindler funeral home, Independence. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Prigge Is Champion At 4-H Club Rally Held In Burlington

Two hundred 4-H'ers, leaders and parents attended the Boone County 4-H Rally, held at Burlington, according to the County Agent's office. The program consisted of dairy judging, dress revue, demonstrations, speech contest, and seed identification, after which 160 members were taken by school buses to the air port for a tour, which was enjoyed very much.

Nancy Prigge, Boone County High, was chosen over-all champion for her green formal and will represent Boone county in the State Style Review at Lexington, in June. Ninety-five girls participated in the style revue.

Champions in the girls' demonstration contests were Susan McEvoy, bread-making demonstration; Phyllis Kirtley, modeling; and parent education. Local award showed how to put in a skirt zipper.

Donnie Maddox, Boone County High, won the boys' demonstration contest; Mary Dixon was the winner of the girls' speech contest, and Bill Mathis won the boys' speech contest. Winners of the speech and demonstration contests will compete in the District Rally at Williamstown, May 11.

Ribbon winners from this area in the various events were: Apron and patch—(blue) Marilyn Butler, of All Saints; Alyce Agon, Sandra Webster, and Peggy Ann, all of All Saints; (red) Janny Aylor, Hamilton. Thirty-two girls modeled school dresses. Local award winners were: (blue) Linda Baker, New Haven; (red) Sally Scholer, Hamilton; Lynelle Flynn, Walton; Mary Borkin, All Saints; Gertrude Butler, All Saints, and Teresa Romes, All Saints. Palamas and housecoat: (blue) Linda Baker, New Haven; (red) Jane Ranson, New Haven; Lynne McKay, New Haven. Play suit: (red) Jane Schwenke, Hamilton. Formal: (blue) Wanda Tackett, Walton-Verona.

Twenty-five members took part in the dairy judging contest, and eight members took part in the seed identification contest.

Ground Purchased at Piner

The Kenton County Board of Education has purchased approximately six acres of land adjacent to the Piner Elementary School for $250 per acre. The tract is part of the 200-acre farm of Lewis M. Gabriel.

A lake is to be constructed as a reservoir for the school and, in event the County School Board issue is passed on May 28, the lake would also be used as a source of water or a new school building on the site.

Social at Independence

The Independence fire department will give a social on May 11. Fish sandwiches, coffee and home made pie will be served.

On May 18, the annual chicken supper will be given at Simon Kenton High School from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m.

Friend of God

Lesson for May 12, 1957

COUNTED a saint by three religions. Abraham is unique among the great men of the world. The Mohammedan name for him is simply "The Friend," meaning Friend of God. His greatness is not in anything that is especially admired and paid highly for in America, so that his reputation among us is not what he deserves. He was not a noted business man, executive, or popular novelist; no oil was ever discovered on his property. However, he might be introduced to a Dr. Foreman American audience as a successful cattleman. Even small boys might be interested to know that he was extra good as a deputy sheriff. But these facts were not the main point about him.

Faith That Works

The big fact about Abraham was his religious genius. To some persons God seems very dim. Even Abraham's faith worshipped "other gods"—we have no idea how many. But Abraham, out of an idolatrous home, came forth a man for whom God was his closest and most real Friend. To use the Bible word, Abraham was a man of faith. In one book of the New Testament (Romans) Paul says that Abraham was "justified"—that is, God looked with approval on him—for his faith.

Belief

"Abraham believed God," it is said. No living man now knows how God spoke to Abraham. Long ago Saint Augustine debated, but did not decide, the question whether God spoke in tones that the ear could catch, or in a voice audible only in the soul. The point is that when Abraham knew it for God's direction, or God's promise, he believed that what God said was true. God made some pretty unlikely promises to him; that he would have a son at all was very unlikely; that this son's descendants would be more numerous than the stars was equally unlikely; that they would live in and own the countryside where Abraham was a landless nomad was still more improbable; but most incredible of all was that through Abraham's descendants the whole earth should be blessed. Yet we are told that Abraham believed all these things; and indeed they all came true.

Obedience

It is one thing to believe that what God says is true; it is another thing to act about living by that truth. Many a person will stand up for the proposition that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, but simply won't act and live in accordance with what the Bible plainly teaches. Such "faith" as James said is "vain"—but Abraham's faith was not vain. He took God at his word; when God said "Go," he went, and he went all the way. "Whatever my God ordains is right" is a song Abraham could well have sung.

Patience

Abraham's faith was shown also by his patience. Most of us are like small children, whose clocks show only two times, NOW and NEVER. If Father has promised a ride, or Mother a lollipop, the child wants it right this minute. If it's not to be had, tears fall and wails arise. If I can't have it now, I'll never get it! So we pray and expect an answer as if it were by return mail. We can't trust God to time his blessings. Abraham knew better. He was willing to wait. Indeed some of the promises God made to him he never lived to see. But he did not think that God had cheated him.

Sacrifice

The story of Abraham's sacrifice (or near-sacrifice) of Isaac shows the endless lengths to which Abraham's faith would go. Psychologically and morally impossible for a sane American today, the act of child-sacrifice was not so impossible for Abraham, living as he did among people for whom human sacrifices were all too common. But it is impossible to exaggerate the meaning of this sacrifice to Abraham. It meant cutting off, so far as he could see, all the promises of God. Indeed it may well have seemed to him that God had changed his mind and was taking back all he had promised for the future. All this added to the deep love Abraham had for this child of faith, the child for whom he had waited so many years, made the act seem especially terrible. But Abraham's faith went the last mile.

NOT SO LONG AGO...

It doesn't seem so long since she was a little girl herself, picking out a card for her mother on Mother's Day. Yet this morning there was a card at the breakfast table, reading, "To Mommy, with love..."

On this day, she feels a special meaning as she goes to church with her little girl's white-gloved hand clasped tightly in hers. As they kneel in prayer together a wave of tenderness comes over her, and as she looks at the small figure by her side she at once feels grateful to God for making her a mother, and awed by the responsibility which is hers.

She prays God to endow her with the qualities all mothers need: common sense, a touch of humor, tenderness, wisdom, the capacity for comfort, a large measure of courage, quick laughter, and just a dash of sternness. And she is deeply thankful that in this, the most important task of her life, she has her Faith and her Church to guide her.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and financial support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VERONA

Charlie Chipman and Dennis Rich are entertaining the measles this week. Mrs. Etta McManama stayed with Mrs. Ramsey Sunday while Mrs. Ramsey visited relatives.

Mrs. Rose Hamilton returned home from New Mexico Wednesday night. She had been visiting her son, Robert Hamilton and wife the past month.

Mrs. Elma Hamilton and two children and Mrs. Flannice Edgington visited their aunt, Mrs. Juna Pettit Tuesday afternoon at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Pettit of Latonia. Mrs. Pettit has been sick, but was feeling better, we are glad to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waldon, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden and Curtis Chandler returned home Sunday afternoon from Camden, Tenn., where they had been on a fishing trip. They sure brought back some fine fish, fifty some pounds. This is no fish story for this scribe saw the catch. They were crappies.

Mrs. Ethel Rogers spent a few days last week with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aylor.

We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Coyle in the passing of their little daughter who died last week. Her funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the Hamilton Funeral Home.

Mrs. Pattie Willford and Mrs. Susie Gore, Mrs. America Sturdivent were calling on Mrs. Flannice Edgington Sunday afternoon for awhile.

We are sorry to hear of Mr. Willie Florence having to be operated on last week. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Old Jack frost visited our community Friday night and Saturday night and killed quite a bit of flowers and things that was up. Most everyone covered their tomato plants or it would have killed all of them.

Mrs. Martha Hayden is visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Yancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Brashear had as their guests Mrs. Brashear's niece,

Mr. and Mrs. Don Chambers and son, of Bloomington, Ind. from Friday until Sunday morning. They had for their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Mills Hemphill from Rising Sun, Ind.

We are sorry to hear of Mrs. Bessie Mills falling again last week. She was taken to the hospital but we did not hear how bad she was hurt. Wish her a speedy recovery.

while his parents and grandparents were on vacation in Florida.

Mrs. L. M. Deser and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks visited their sister, Mrs. Chas. Smith of Russell, Ky., who suffered a stroke.

STAFFORDSBURG

A good number were out to hear Rev. Elmer Kidwell as he filled the pulpit for Rev. Parish. We were disappointed that Mrs. Kidwell and the girls were not with him because of measles.

Mrs. Chester Rapp entertained a small guest, her nephew, Franklin Duncan Jr.

Remember IRA M. TANNER for JAILER

Be sure to vote in the primary and vote for the candidate of your choice. There are several good men in the race for jailer this year and no matter who you vote for, you can't go wrong. Each candidate deserves good fortune.

While you are considering who your choice will be, we just want to call your attention to the fact that an old friend of yours and ours, IRA TANNER, is in this race too although he will not be able to wage the vigorous campaign he would like to. Mr. Tanner had a mild heart attack in January but is feeling much better and is permitted by his doctor to get out a little more every day. However, he is not going to be able to see or talk to hardly any of his many friends before the election because election day is just around the corner.

Mr. Tanner is grateful beyond words for the many messages of support that he has received from all over the county. He is in this election race to win. So we want to say for Mr. Tanner that, although he may not get to meet you before May 28, he deserves every consideration you can give him, no matter who your final choice is.

We assure you that this message was placed in this paper by a group of Mr. Tanner's well wishers and, although we had his consent to make a statement, Mr. Tanner was not informed 'til now of what we had to say.

Please vote for IRA M. TANNER for jailer, and thank you for reading our message.

New Hall Policy To Save Farmers Premium Dollars

A new crop-hail insurance policy, designed to save Kentucky farmers substantial premium payments, has been approved by the State Insurance Department, E. J. W. Fennell, deputy commissioner, has announced.

Policy revision was undertaken because of the losses suffered in Kentucky last year by insurance companies in the crop-hail line, Fennell said. "We believe this revision will prevent a big boost in premium rates," he said.

Last year Kentuckians paid $1,975,629.346 in claims for a loss ratio of 132 percent, he said.

"Our agency knew something had to be done to prevent crop-hail insurance from being priced out of the market of the companies from declining to write such insurance in Kentucky," Fennell said.

In the ensuing study of the problem, the department found recent research projects of independent and state agencies which determined the effect of hail on growing crops. These showed and substantiated that a hail loss of five percent or less does not affect tobacco either as to quality or marketability.

Thirty percent of the losses paid last year in Kentucky were for damage of five percent or less. These losses did not cost the farmer in prices received at market, yet the companies had to pay a claim.

The new policy will, in effect, relieve the companies of paying losses less than five percent where no damage, in fact, has been done. The net result to the farmers of Kentucky will be a stabilizing of rates for crop hail insurance, Fennell said.

Corn King "Pours" on Plant Food for Championship Yields

Walter J. Harpel, the new corn King, shows his winning exhibit.

GOOD soil management, good seed and plenty of fertilizer paid off for Walter J. Harpel, of Crawfordville, Indiana, when he won the "Corn King" title of North America for the second time at the recent International Grain and Hay Show held here in conjunction with the International Livestock Exposition. He was champion before in 1947.

Harpel, who grows hybrid seed corn on his Montgomery county farm, won the 1956 crown with a 10-ear exhibit of Indiana Certified 844-D, a hybrid strain developed at Purdue University.

The championship corn came from a 150-acre field of leased land. The land was in a soil-building alfalfa-sweet clover crop last year. It was plowed down after grazing, with plenty of top growth left to build organic matter.

The soil has had a steady input of plant food based on soil tests and on recommendations by Purdue University agronomists. It regularly receives a plow-down application of 500 to 600 pounds per acre of a mixed fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash, such as 4-16-16.

In addition to the plow-down treatment, Harpel added 200 pounds of 4-16-16 in the row at corn planting time last spring. The value of the soil's high organic matter supply, good structure and drainage was demonstrated during the 1956 growing season. Heavy spring rains—12 inches in one 10-day period in May—might have spelled disaster to many a corn crop. But the soil soaked up the moisture and retained much of it for the use of the corn crop during the dry summer months. The corn field yielded better than 100 bushels per acre. One 5-acre plot checked out at 150 bushels per acre.

Judges at the Chicago show pronounced Harpel's winning corn exhibit outstanding for quality, finish, luster and uniformity of kernels.

Starter Fertilizer in Band Gives Push to Corn Crop

CORN crops will get an important push this spring if farmers use the band fertilization method at planting time, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by A. J. Ohlrogge, Purdue University agronomist.

Ohlrogge says that broadcast and plow-down applications of plant food are essential in building up the soil's fertility level. "But it takes starter fertilizer in the band to speed the corn plant's growth from germination to the knee-high stage," he points out.

"This seedling stage is probably the most important in the corn plant's life cycle. During this period there is a partial development of all the leaves, the root system, auxiliary buds, nodes, internodes and primordial tassels the corn plant will ever have."

Band fertilization, according to Ohlrogge, involves putting the plant food in a continuous single band approximately 2 inches to the side of the seed and at seed level or about one to two inches below the seed.

Effective band fertilization, he says, feeds the root system so it can develop the maximum number of additional shoots and branches in the band of plant food.

While nitrogen and phosphate are essential nutrients in the starter fertilizer, potash may be needed on many soils to feed the young corn plants, he says. This can be added by broadcast and plow-down applications of potash mixed into the plow layer, or by including potash in the row fertilizer.

Best results in nutrient "up-take" are made by the corn plants when nitrogen and phosphate are put together in a single band, Ohlrogge reports.

Kenton Faculty Club Meets

The Kenton County Faculty Club held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening, May 8, at the James A. Cowwood School. This last supper meeting of the group was a picnic and enjoyed by all.

The president, Mrs. Helen McElroy, Simon Kenton, presided over this last business session of the club. New officers were elected, who will take office in September and preside during the 1957-58 school year.

There was no planned program for the evening but a social hour was enjoyed by all.

New cotton fabrics—softer, smoother, and more lustrous than today's cotton—are the objectives of a new contract research project sponsored by U.S.D.A.

More than 20,354,000 acres (under 919,000 agreements) have been put into the acreage reserve portion of the Soil Bank and more than 3,523,287 acres have been put under 39,636 contracts in the conservation reserve part of the Soil Bank.

If you buy whole fish, allow 1 pound per person, if it is dressed, ½ pound; and for steaks, fillets or sticks, one-third pound.

Raising meat type hogs can mean a substantial saving in feed costs per pound of gain, Iowa researchers say. For every one-tenth inch less of backfat on each pig, the animals used 4½ percent less feed per 100 pounds of gain. Conclusions were that as backfat decreased, feed efficiency increased.

Milk production per cow in 1956 in the U. S. averaged 6,000 pounds for the first time of record, says the USDA. Production per cow has increased 20 percent in the last decade, too.

Frozen meat now accounts for about 2 percent of meat sales in the U. S. By 1960, it is predicted, this will be 20 percent.

Americans' diet now has fewer calories per day compared to diets of early 1900's, but it is a more balanced and nutritious diet, says the Institute of Home Economics.

GOING OUR WAY? Up... up... up! That's the way industrial development keeps going in the modern Southland.

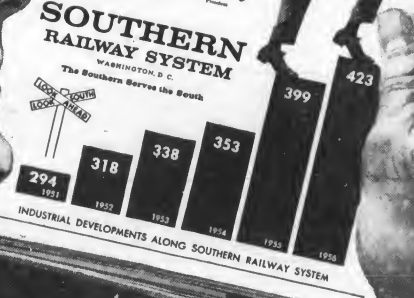

Look at the chart and see. Each year is bigger and better than the year before—and record-breaking 1956 tops them all, with 423 industrial additions or expansions along Southern Railway System alone.

If you, too, want to step up in the industrial world, you'll find unique advantages and opportunities of all kinds. The record proves it. Let our Industrial Development Department show you how the South's many attractions to so many different industries can specifically benefit you.

Did you see this?

MILLIONS DID! For this advertisement appeared recently in national business magazines and in leading financial papers that have a combined circulation of more than five million readers. Why did we run it? Why have we run many others similar to it in the past? Because promoting the industrial growth of the Southland in every way we can is good for the Southern — and good for the South!

Our national advertising program is one way we do this. Maintaining an Industrial Development Department that constantly and aggressively seeks new industries for every available plant location is another. Providing efficient and dependable rail transportation so vital to industry today is still another.

New factories and new payrolls are "coming to town" all over the South. Last year 423 major industrial developments that cost over $710 million and created 26,000 new job opportunities took place along the Southern alone. Many in the South helped bring this about. All in the South benefit!

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Vast New Road Program Outlined To State Committee

A proposed $85,000,000 road improvement program for the next 14 months, to be financed with federal and state funds, has been presented to Gov. A. B. Chandler's Citizens Advisory Committee on Highways for consideration.

The scheduled outlay, first in an unprecedented 13-year Kentucky highway building program, was outlined at the first meeting of the 39-member committee recently appointed by the governor. John Fred Williams, Ashland, is chairman.

The program, officials explained, covers proposed federal-aid work, including state of superhighway construction, but not certain rural work which will be additional.

The estimated $85,000,000 would consist of federal monies made available when matched with state funds and money officially estimated to be available from state road-fund tax sources during the fiscal year starting July 1.

Chandler recalled that Williams, a Republican, had teamed with Highway Commissioner Robert Humphreys, Democratic State committee chairman, in helping lead the nonpartisan campaign for approval of the state's $100,000, 000 road bond issue.

The $85,000,000 plan can be expanded, highway officials said, if the proposed highway bond issue is finally upheld by the courts and bonds are sold. Some of the projects in the $85,000,000 program are on the interstate superhighway system, to be financed with $9 in federal funds for each $1 put up by the state. Other federal-aid is available on a 50-50 matching basis.

A map outlining the program did not show exactly where the interstate routes would be built. Dwight H. Bray, chief highway engineer, said officials "felt it would not be in the best public interest" to publicize the exact routes at this time, in order to avoid land speculation.

Experimenters have used high frequency radio waves to "crack" seeds that won't germinate normally. Hard alfalfa seed germination was upped from 60 percent to 96 percent by exposing the seed to 25 seconds of high frequency energy.

Principal surplus foods donated by the USDA, from July to January, in this country and abroad through the Agricultural Marketing Service's direct distribution program were: nonfat dry milk, rice, flour, corn meal, cheese, dry beans, wheat, frozen hamburger, canned and frozen pork, turkeys, eggs and lamb.

A U. S. Grade stamp indicates that food has met certain specifications of quality. In meats, such things as color, tenderness, freedom from defects, and size determine the grade.

Mt. Zion Homemakers

President Mrs. Roger McGuire opened the May meeting of the Mt. Zion Homemakers Club with the reading of the Homemakers Creed. The devotional was given by Mrs. Charles Hemphill. Lessons for the coming year were discussed, also articles for the window display were collected. Election of officers was held. Landscaping was given by Mrs. Andy Insko. Mrs. Charles Hemphill and Mrs. Frank Domaschko, leaders for the year plan to visit, gave instructions on what materials to buy and to be prepared for the June meeting. Recreation was conducted by Mrs. Hubert Winburn. Mrs. Vernon Humphreys and Mrs. Edna Brown were welcomed as guests.

The following members exchanged flowers: Mesdames Bennett Russell, Homer Flagg, William Burrey, Roger McGuire, John Schira, Andy Insko, John Beutell, Charles Hemphill, Frank Domaschko, Hubert Winburn, Noel Denham, R. E. Vanderschmidt, Romer Burns, and Clyde Howell.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Howell.

HUGHES CHAPEL WSCS

To help make it possible for Mrs. Bedinger, Mrs. Kidwell, and Mrs. Hudson to attend the District W. S. C. S. meeting at Walton Methodist Church, Wednesday, April 17, the regular meeting of Hughes Chapel W. S. C. S. was postponed until April 24. This April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Shirley Guard. Pot luck meal was served at noon. The subject of the program was "Our Plus Becomes A Cross—Home Missions in the National News," which was led by Mrs. Elmer Kidwell. The purpose was to give a birds-eye view of the scope of the work of the Woman's Division in home fields, with special emphasis on minority islands, isolated by communism or circumstances, and to inspire members to try in their own communities to make undesirable islands desirable. Hymns used were "O Beautiful for Spacious Skies" and "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." Mrs. Clarence Struve read scripture from Luke 9. Mrs. Pearl Bedinger led group in prayer.

Present and assisting with the program were: Mrs. Walter P. Robinson, Mrs. Shirley Guard, Mrs. Charles Rector, Mrs. Mary Ella Logan, Mrs. Dan Bedinger, Mrs. Thomas Guard, Mrs. Clarence Struve, Mrs. Lulu Hudson and Mrs. Joe Wood. Mrs. Hudson gave the closing prayer.

The business meeting was rather an important part of the years work and was presided over by Mrs. Elmer Kidwell. Mrs. Joe Wood read minutes of last meeting which had met with Mrs. Wood. Report was given on the successful bake sale held at Gross Appliance, Walton, in March. Annual pledge of society was made. Officers of society of the coming year were elected. Next meeting will be at home of Mrs. Walter Robinson, Main Street, Walton, on May 15.

Plant Food Yields Most Profits With Good Crop Policy

FERTILIZER returns the most profits per dollar invested when farmers use good crop production practices, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by R. H. Blosser, Ohio State University farm economist. "Corn yields were 35 bushels higher from an 800-pound fertilizer application than from a 200-pound application, when good production practices were used on both fields," says the committee.

"But the increase from the higher fertilizer application was only 20 bushels, when poor methods were used."

Fertilizer boosts crop yields out of costs of production.

These yields came in tests at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

Among "good production practices" listed by Blosser are: careful land preparation, prompt planting, soil-building rotations, liming where needed; the use of well-adapted seed varieties and enough stalks to make use of all the nutrients the soil can provide.

Poor practices include soil depleting rotations, insufficient liming, poor drainage, the use of low-yielding corn varieties, late planting and not enough seed.

In the Ohio tests, the 800-pound fertilizer application yielded $5 more profits than did the 200-pound application, when good production practices were used, the profit increase was only $15.

Strawberry Planting Time Here Now for Kentuckians

Now is the best time to set out strawberry plants, whether they are to be for home use or a commercial planting.

There is a reasonable supply of virus-free Kentucky grown plants available, says W. W. Magill, UK Agricultural Extension Service fruit specialist. The two most popular varieties are Pocahontas and Tennessee Beauty, both well adapted to Kentucky. Pocahontas, available only a few years, is a high-quality and high-yield variety. Blackmore is still a good variety, Magill says, but yields generally are under those of Pocahontas and Tennessee Beauty.

For home and freezer use Magill recommends setting 100 plants in rows four feet apart. Plants should be set about 3 feet apart in the rows.

Magill suggests that 1957 is a good year to plant an acre or two for the 1958 harvest season. There are good market cooperatives in the state for strawberries, and local markets can also take a limited number of berries. Likewise, many growers sell the crop in the field with the consumer purchasing doing the actual picking; this type of merchandising of berries is expanding quite rapidly, Magill says.

CUTWORMS MAJOR PESTS IN BURLEY PLANT BEDS

Cutworms are a major pest of burley plant beds and can wipe out a bed in one night, says the UK Agricultural Experiment Station entomology department. They can migrate (as worms) into plant beds, or can be deposited as eggs by a certain type of moth. The worms feed at night generally and show plants to rag, or cut them at the base.

DDT or Endrin (as dusts or sprays) are two recommended control materials. Endrin is considered better against cutworms that live underground, the entomologists note.

Use 1 pound of a 10 percent DDT dust per 100 square yards of bed. One to two pounds of a 50 percent wettable powder in 50 gallons of water, used at the rate of 5 gallons per 100 square yards, also is effective in the spray form.

Use a 1½ percent Endrin dust, 1 to 2 pounds per 100 square yards of bed. Use 1 to 2 teaspoons of Endrin emulsion concentrate in 5 to 10 gallons of water per 100 square yards of bed if a spray is desired.

Shell color of eggs has nothing to do with their nutritive value or flavor, say Extension food specialists at the University of Kentucky. White or brown eggs are equally good for all purposes.

Do not remove the tops of tulips, narcissi, and other flowering bulbs until they turn brown, as food is manufactured in the tops and stored for the bulbs for another year's bloom.

Jaeger - Bailey Wedding

Mrs. Jill Jaeger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Yates of Kleete Road, and Jesse Bailey of Covington, were married in a private family ceremony at 7:30 p. m. May 3rd at Oak Ridge Baptist Church by the Rev. Frank Wilkerson. The bride wore a lovely light grey suit with pink accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

Her flower girl as her 5-year-old daughter, Marilyn Sue, who wore a flowered nylon dress with a full skirt and carried a small bouquet of white carnations and tiny pink rosebuds.

The bride and groom were attended by Mrs. Betty Wilson, who wore a checked tan and white suit with white accessories and a yellow and white corsage, and Mrs. Gertrude Spanton, who wore a navy blue suit with light blue accessories and a yellow and white corsage.

The bride's mother wore a light grey suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The music was played by Miss Linda Yates, sister of the bride.

The couple will reside on Kleete Road when they return from their honeymoon in Michigan.

The Taylor Mill Civic Association met at the Taylor Mill School on May 2nd and heard an enlightening talk by Mr. J. A. Cowdow, Kenton County Superintendent of Schools, concerning the desperate need for additional schools in the county. The only way to build schools is with tax money and if our children are going to have classrooms, then it is imperative that the citizens of Kenton County vote in favor of the 5 to 50 cent School Tax levy that will appear on the ballot at the primary election on May 28th. I guess we all hate to pay taxes, but this is one tax where we can see that we get our money. If we consider the amount of school tax we pay, and the number of children we have going to school, we see that we really are not paying very much for the education of our children. The Civic Association voted to endorse the tax levy.

The proposal by Covington to furnish water to the Taylor Mill area was then discussed. After much discussion, it was voted to invite the Waterworks Superintendent and the City Manager and City Commissioners to the next meeting of the Taylor Mill Civic Association so that the residents of the area could ask them any questions they had about water.

James Pierson, Kenneth Kelly and Clyde Vincent were appointed as a nominating committee to nominate officers for the coming year.

Following the Civic Association meeting, the City of Taylor Mill held a meeting to discuss problems facing this newly organized city.

INDEPENDENCE

Trip to Old Masons' Home

Members and their families of Bradford Lodge, 123, Bradford O.E.S., Chapter 493, and the Independence Bethel, 8, Order of Job's Daughters enjoyed a lovely trip to the Old Masons' Home, near Frankfort, last Sunday. While there Bro. Arthur Tipton of the Independence Christian Church, gave a wonderful Sunday morning talk at the chapel. All who were present enjoyed a noon picnic lunch, after which a tour of the home, its hospital and grounds were made. Many improvements were made since last year's trip was made and plans for further improvements and buildings are in the making. This trip to the Old Masons' Home has been made each year for the past several years and each one shows a bigger and better attendance.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

About Cowboys:

We have an unhappy report to make to those young ones who want to go West to be cowboys.

Do you know — young fella — that more calves were born in Kentucky last year than in such wide open spaces as Idaho, Wyoming, New Mexico and Colorado? That's what the farm experts here in the Capital declare.

Of course, Texas still leads and Wisconsin's "loidy land" is in second place. But we of the Blue Grass State are coming right along.

Patience Needed:

We speak again of junior colleges and university extension centers as demanded by Covington, Harlan and Henderson.

Seven years ago the University of Virginia agreed to establish one in suburban Washington. But nothing has happened. It's all a fight over where to locate it.

Virginia officials took a step toward a solution the other day by naming a committee to bump heads together and decide on a site.

Bridges, Again:

That Indiana congressman, Earl Wilson, is still fighting to build a bridge across the Ohio River from Lawrenceburg, Ind., to Boone County, Ky.

He told lawmakers that it wouldn't cost Uncle Sam a cent.

"Our people," he declared, "are willing to pay for it all. We'll charge tolls and retire the bonds."

The River:

The growth of river traffic, and especially by small boats, rates a mention here.

We get the story that no less than 12 Kentucky towns have established landing places. Included are Augusta, Mayville, Warsaw, Newport, and Carrollton, among others.

The news comes from one of the organizations lobbying for Ohio River improvements.

SAFE DRIVING CAMPAIGN

On May 1, the Stringtown Woman's Club of Florence, opened their annual safe driving campaign. It is open to any high school student living in Boone County.

There will be a prize for the winner and also the runner-up for three consecutive months, May, June and July. There will also be a grand prize awarded for the month of August, the winner to be picked from the ones selected in the preceding months.

Prizes have been donated by service stations in Florence, including Shamrock Texaco Service, Eads Service Station, Holmes Texaco Service, Martin Brothers Garage, Newman's Gulf Service, Roberts' Service Station, and Rouse Standard Service.

Americans had a sweet tooth last year — consuming an average of 98 pounds of refined sugar during 1956.

Retail food sales, the nation's biggest business, amounted to $67 million in 1955, yet it ranked 27th in annual expenditures in support of research and development.

Four good reasons why today's superior concrete pavement will save lives and dollars for generations of American drivers on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways:

1. Safety. Gritty texture for better skid-resistance, light color for higher visibility.
2. Durability. Much longer life than any other type of pavement.
3. Low upkeep. Lowest maintenance cost as proven by published records of 24 state highway departments.
4. Costs no more to build. Lower first cost than other types designed for the same traffic.

Best investment for tax dollars—concrete.

Bradford Lodge Ball Team

The members of Bradford Lodge, 123, played their first softball game, with the trophy winners of 1956, and the Bradford team chalked up a winner, and are now practicing for their next game at the Erlanger Elementary School ball park, when they meet Good Faith Lodge, 95.

Personal Interest

Last week Gregory Wermuth of Wilson Road, was taken to Booth Hospital for surgery on his toe. Greg was mowing the lawn with a rotary mower when he slipped and the blade hit his big toe. Plastic surgery was performed at the hospital.

Mike and Pat Carr of Pleasure Isle subdivision are both confined to their beds for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cox of Walton are the proud parents of a baby girl. Mrs. Cox was formerly, Shirley Dennis of McCullum Road.

Stationed In Germany

Army Private William M. Hufaker, Jr., whose wife, Laura, lives on Walton, Route 1, is a member of the 508th Military Police Battalion's Company C in Augsburg, Germany. He entered the Army in November, 1955, and received his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and has been in Europe since last November. The 18-year-old soldier attended Simon Kenton High School.

Some authorities believe that by 1960, housewives will be buying one-fifth of the meat purchased in frozen form.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snow of Glencoe, will have an open house from 2 to 4 Sunday, Mother's Day, for their Golden Anniversary.

Sympathy is extended the family of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Gross over the death of her mother, Mrs. Price.

Mrs. Nanie Chapman is home from the hospital and doing time.

Quite a few people are planning to hear Bro. Russell Ford this week at the Warsaw Methodist Church.

Bro. Claude Richardson's little boy was seriously hurt when he caught his finger in an electric pump. It cut the end off his little finger.

Mrs. Mintie Snow called on her sister, Mrs. Georgia Noel, on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Worth Collins was not so well over the week-end.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

About Cowboys:

We have an unhappy report to make to those young ones who want to go West to be cowboys.

Do you know—young fella—that more calves were born in Kentucky last year than in such wide open spaces as Idaho, Wyoming, New Mexico and Colorado? That's what the farm experts here in the Capitol declare.

Of course, Texas still leads and Wisconsin's laudable land is in second place. But we of the Blue Grass State are coming right along.

Patience Needed:

We speak again of junior colleges and university extension centers as demanded by Covington, Harlan and Henderson.

Seven years ago the University of Virginia agreed to establish one in suburban Washington. But nothing has happened. It's all a fight over where to locate it.

Virginia officials took a step forward a solution the other day by naming a committee to bump heads together and decide on a site.

Bridges, Again:

That Indiana congressman, Earl Wilson, is still fighting to build a bridge across the Ohio River from Lawrenceburg, Ind., to Boone County, Ky.

He told lawmakers that it wouldn't cost Uncle Sam a cent.

"Our people," he declared, "are willing to pay for it all. We'll charge tolls and retire the bonds."

He's hopeful about approval.

The River:

The growth of river traffic, and especially by small boats, rates a mention here.

We get the story that no less than 12 Kentucky towns have established landing places. Included are Augusta, Mayville, Warsaw, Newport, and Carrollton, among others.

The news comes from one of the organizations lobbying for Ohio River improvements.

SAFE DRIVING CAMPAIGN

On May 1, the Stringtown Woman's Club of Florence, opened their annual safe driving campaign. It is open to any high school student living in Boone county.

There will be a prize for the winner and also the runner-up for three consecutive months, May, June and July. There will also be a grand prize awarded for the month of August, the winner to be picked from the ones selected in the preceding months.

Prizes have been donated by service stations in Florence, including Shamrock, Texaco Service, Eads Service Station, Holmes Texaco Service, Martin Brothers Garage, Newman's Gulf Service, Roberts' Service Station, and Rouse Standard Service.

Americans had a sweet tooth last year—consuming an average of 98 pounds of refined sugar during 1956.

Retail food sales, the nation's biggest business, amounted to $67 billion in 1955, yet it ranked 27th in annual expenditures in support of research and development.

DESIGNED FOR THE FUTURE

Four good reasons why today's superior concrete pavement will save lives and dollars for generations of American drivers on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways:

1. Safety. Gritty texture for better skid-resistance, light color for higher visibility.
2. Durability. Much longer life than any other type of pavement.
3. Low upkeep. Lowest maintenance cost as proven by published records of 24 state highway departments.
4. Costs no more to build. Lower first cost than other types designed for the same traffic.

Best investment for tax dollars—concrete.

Small budgets love big Fords

You don't have to be rich to enjoy fine-car luxury. The new kind of Ford is America's lowest-priced* big car... yet it offers the beauty, V-8 GO and luxury ride of cars costing far more!

If you love big-car performance you'll love our '57 Ford.

If you love thrill you'll love our '57 Ford. No car ever before has offered such perfect blending of big-car luxury and small-car price.

Once you take the wheel, you'll discover how the "Inner Ford" gives you the kind of ride you have experienced before only in cars costing far more. You'll find its advanced-design chassis and lower center of gravity let it corner as if it were on rails... that its engine is as responsive and nimble as a polo pony. Six or V-8 the going is great!

But even though this Ford handles like an expensive car, it's still priced Ford-low. In fact, model for model right across the board, the 1957 Ford is the lowest priced of the low-price three!

Ford is worth more at trade-in time. And when you go to trade your Ford, you'll find Ford's traditionally high resale value makes it worth more at that time, too.

Why not come in and Action Test this fun-lovin', budget-lovin' Ford? Why not come in and see it today?

Hardware Business

The hardware business must be a fascinating business as everyone wants to get in it. Just on a small scale to be in business. It is harder to stay in the hardware business than ever before—we were in Covington last week and there in a Ten Cent Store was a power lawn mower you could buy for 50 cents per week, and tonight on TV a jewelry store was advertising where you could buy a power lawn mower for 1.50 per week. I have tried to stay in the hardware and household business for 20 years, but it looks like now everyone is trying to get into the hardware business. The big advantage of buying from Conrad Hardware is the guarantee and service you get.

When you buy from a Ten Cent Store, a jewelry store, a dry goods store, and other places where you can get hardware besides a hardware store, you take home what you buy and that is it. But we sell quality lawn mowers and do our best to keep them running. When you want quality hardware, come to Conrad Hardware. I still say we have the most complete hardware store in Northern Kentucky. When they show me a different I will admit it. I saw my ad on the rear end of the Independence bus. I had never seen it. I told John Breeden what I wanted and they put it on. Very good advertising I would say, for a large percentage of my good customers come from Kenton county.

Today, I ordered more Jelled Magic paint, as well as some Bolce paints; also, the Chicago Paint Co. was here—we have sold lots of their paint every year as they carry some colors and some paints that Bolce does not carry. We also sold out of that 69.50 power lawn mower and that 149.50 self-propelled Sunbeam power mower, so I called for more and Groger will bring them out tonight. Mrs. Raymond Conrad called and said she was coming than we had so I called for another roll and they also sent it out by Groger. By the looks of things Groger must have unloaded all trucks here today. A shipment of steel bars, a shipment of Bolce paint, 5 lawn mowers, and a hardware shipment from Kruse.

Wilbur Snow came in, bought his wife a large linoleum rug and fishing tackle for himself. Bertha Jack called and said her new lawn mower had locked up tight, so we took her another new mower—that's what I tell you about buying lawn mowers from Conrad. If you get a bad one, which we do in anything we buy, all you have to do is call Conrad. Mrs. Jean Hester bought a new hand mower. We have sold several of these this season. Brewster took Roger Arnold's air conditioner to put it in—we had it repaired for him as lightning had run in on it.

I put up about 20 cartons of paint which just came down from Bolce. We carry a large stock of paint, but we order two or three times a week, so as to keep it fresh—anytime you get a can of hard paint, bring it back! That Jelled Magic paint is really selling—once you use it, you will use nothing else, and it comes in 20 beautiful colors. Bolce has a lot of new colors in Liquid Satin and Lustrakote. Paint rollers and pans are cheap and Lustrakote covers only 79 cents. Get several of these.

I took one of those Mastercraft riding lawn mowers down to R. C. Durr—he had had one of these for several years and has had very good service—he traded in the old one. Chick took Mrs. Raymond Conrad over at Doc Edwards' farm on US 42, a lot of linoleum and Bolce paint, then he went to Hagedorn's and on down to R. C. Durr's to deliver that riding lawn mower. We received a shipment of newer lawnmowers. Every year we sell several of these. Mrs. Walter Han brought in a tank sprayer that had been frozen and would not hold pressure but Brewster, with that eagle eye, found a crack where it had been frozen and bursted—he then soldered it and put in some new parts and now it works, as a sprayer that won't work is really worthless.

Gwynne Flynn was still having toaster trouble—the brought back that Hamilton-Beach toaster for the second time and bought what I think the best in appliances—Sunbeam—and I have never found any appliance as good as it. Anything Sunbeam makes is just a little better than any other as I can see it. Mr. and Mrs. W. Wolterman, up on Bracht-Piner Road, bought a Sunbeam power mower—they looked at all of them and decided Sunbeam was the best for the money. Dr. Bachmeyer also needed a lawn mower—he selected a 21" Lawn Boy, which is a very good mower and only $89.50. Chas. Prather came up and looked over the lawn mowers—he decided to try a 21" Eclipse with electric starter. He left his old one and I sold it to Wilbur Snow this afternoon. I have several used mowers as soon as I get them checked over, not much wrong, but they won't buy them unless they run. We sure have sold the hand mowers this year. I have two used electric mowers for only $25.00 each.

Frank Robinson was here Saturday getting some wiring material—he was doing a little wiring job for Dr. Paul Robinson, down in Fort Mitchell. Frank is now here, and he really likes it. Lexington is looking good on the bottom. Frank says they need houses faster than they are building them. We sold Blue Stone and lime to put on plantbeds for Wildlife and Blue Mild, but the best is Streptomycin, which will kill or prevent Wildfire and Blue Mild on plantbeds. Brewster delivered Earnest Dearborn's washer—we had the wringer rebuilt.

Boone Youths Win District 4-H Honors

Kirtley, Maddox To Be In State Contests

Two Boone County 4-H members captured high honors at the District 4-H Rally, which was held Saturday, May 11, at Williamson, according to Mary Ann McCormack, Acting Home Demonstration Agent.

Phyllis Kirtley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kirtley, of Union, won the Championship in the Girls General Demonstration Contest with her demonstration on "How to Put in a Skirt Zipper."

Donnie Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Maddox, of Florence, won the championship of the Boy's Individual Demonstration Contest with his demonstration on "How to Candle and Grade Eggs."

These two 4-H members will compete in the State Demonstration Contests to be held during 4-H Week in Lexington, June 4-8.

Other winners, who competed Saturday, were Susan McVey, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John McVey of Burlington, who won a blue ribbon her demonstration, "How to Make Baking Powder Biscuits."

Mary Jo Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Dixon, Independence, won a red ribbon on her speech, entitled, "Action for Peace."

Bill Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Mathis of Verona, won a blue ribbon on his speech, "Resources Unlimited." The competition was very stiff in all of these contests. 4-H members from eleven counties participated in the different contests.

CHARLES M. WILSON

Requiem High Mass for Charles M. Wilson, father of Miss Leo F. Wilson, Versailles, Ky., were sung at 10:00 a. m., Monday at St. Cecilia Church, Independence. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Wilson, who was 86 years old, died Thursday, May 9, at Father Wilson's home. A retired farmer, he was widely known in the Independence area. He also leaves another son, Charles W. Wilson, Independence merchant, and a daughter, Mrs. Harry Heuston, also of Independence, nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Second In District Contest

Miss Peggy Binder, 6466 Taylor Mill Road, a member of the Independence 4-H Club placed second in the Northern Kentucky District 4-H public speaking contest. The event was held at the Williamson, High School, on Saturday, May 11. Miss Binder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Binder. She is serving as treasurer of her local 4-H Club where she is enrolled in the junior leadership project.

Membership Drive Now Under Way by Firemen's Auxiliary

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department is asking for more members, in order to fulfill the purpose of the Auxiliary. Following is information on this organization:

Any woman or girl, over 16 years of age, is eligible for membership. You do not have to be a wife, sister, mother or relative of a fireman.

The meeting night of the Auxiliary is the first Tuesday of each month. Each member taking turns being the hostess, and the meeting is held either in the home or at the firehouse, according to the convenience of the hostess.

The purpose of the Auxiliary is to help our firemen. Such as serving coffee and sandwiches at fires, helping the fire department entertain visiting fire departments, and working at the picnic. The Auxiliary will be very glad to have any of you ladies. Anyone interested may call any of the following members as to where the next meeting will be held: Sharon Grubbs, Betty Carlisle, Barbara Brakfield, Ruth Vest, or Eva Waters.

Be careful of using chick-feeders in your poultry operation; as chickens grow, the smaller feeders can cause loss of feed.

To Tour Eden Shale Farm

Boone County Utopians will make a tour of the Eden Shale Demonstration Farm in Owen County, Saturday, May 18th.

The public is invited to go on this tour with the Utopian members, Mr. O. D. Hawkins, Manager of the farm, will take the group on the tour and explain the many experiments and improvements that have been carried on under the direction of the Experiment Station, University of Kentucky. To date there has been new roads built, large lakes, plastic green house, barn for livestock, clearing up of land, sowing of seed and many other improvements too numerous to mention.

The Tour will start from the Baptist Church in Florence at 9:30 a. m., with each bringing a picnic lunch. Mr. Henry Hudson, president of the Utopia Club in vites all to go on the tour.

Staffordburg Homemakers

The Staffordburg Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. G. L. Cooper, president over by Mrs. Bluch Rich. The devotion was given by Mrs. J. A. Kooney. Mrs. Mary Ann Bruggen and Mrs. Roy Payne gave the lesson on re-finishing stools, and Mrs. Denver Binder displayed new style planters. A special program will be held at the home of Mrs. Bluch Rich, May 21.

Those present were Mesdames Bluch Rich, G. L. Cooper, Thomas Byrne, H. T. Faulkner, Chester Hill, Inez Beall, George Klein, Anthony Wolf, Ralph Howard, Denver Binder, Emil Stein, L. J. Rapp, Roy Payne, Melvin Bruggen, John Shaw, James Keeney, Stella Richardson, Floyd Smith, and Edith Ware.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers' May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Taylor Mill Pike. Mrs. Dan Hacker, president, presented. A report of eight planters made on a special work day, held at the home of Mrs. C. Davis, was made. Home Extension Agent Miss Zelma Byerly gave next year's program report. Mrs. Robert Kunkel and Mrs. V. Vogelhoff gave the lesson on seating stools and rockers.

Those attending were Miss Zelma E. Byerly, agent; Miss V. Bradford, Mesdames J. B. Kenny, H. L. Witt, Logan Wayman, C. Davis, D. Hacker, R. Kunkel, F. Summey, W. House, V. Vogelhoff, and the hostess, J. C. Reynolds.

Pre-College Studies To Be Offered At U. K.

The University of Kentucky will offer a special "College Preparation Program" June 12 through August 3 for high school seniors who plan to enter a college or university in the fall. Non-credit courses will be available in English, mathematics and reading.

In addition, a series of orientation lectures will be held weekly on such topics as developing better study habits, choosing a career and adjusting to college life. Tuition is $32.50, plus the dormitory fee, meals and necessary books. Registration is planned June 12 and classwork begins the following day.

High school students in need of bolstering weakness in any of the three areas, and who desire assistance in making the change from high school to college, may learn more about the UK program by contacting their principals or the University College of Adult and Extension Education office.

Good Soils Are Necessary For High Vegetable Yield

Don't expect good vegetable yields and high quality when you plant your garden on poor soil, says Clyde Singleton, Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station horticulturist.

Some vegetables require different soil types than others and when possible the proper soil type should be selected for each vegetable crop. Light, sandy soils produce vegetables earlier than heavier soils; however, the heavier soils generally give the highest yields. Farmers who grow for the early market may select lighter soil types and sacrifice high yields for the higher prices, Mr. Singleton notes.

Plastic bags, to carry cream, instead of metal cans, were used in a South Dakota experiment. They worked very well, cost less, were easier to handle, and reduced handling costs and efforts.

ALAN LEWIS HOUSTON

Alan Lewis Houston, 14-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley (Dan) Houston of U. S. Highway 42, Florence, died Sunday at his home following a long illness.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Sandra Fay, 3 years old; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clemons, Sherman; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Houston, Florence; and a number of uncles and aunts.

Rev. Ray A. Johnson, pastor of the Florence Baptist Church, officiated at services Tuesday afternoon, May 14, at the Stith funeral home, Florence. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery, Florence.

Social at Independence

The ladies of St. Cecilia Church, Independence, will hold their monthly card party and social on Wednesday, May 22, from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m., in the church basement. Donation of 50 cents includes refreshment. The public is cordially invited.

Completes Basic Training

Private Arvil M. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Day, Crittenden, recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky., under the Reserve Forces Act program.

Men volunteering for the six-month tour of active duty are permitted to carry their military training in local Army Reserve or National Guard units.

Baptist Brotherhood to Meet

The Simon Kenton F.F.A. Chapter has elected 1957-58 officers, who are as follows: Melvin Whiteaker, president; Dan Goode, vice president; Harry Rieger, secretary; Fred Barberick, treasurer; Alvin Gibson, reporter; and James Kennedy, sentinel.

Deer Is Injured by Auto Near Nicholson; Animal Dies Later

A deer, rarely seen in Northern Kentucky, ran against the side of an auto and was injured Saturday on Taylor Mill Road near Nicholson, according to Kentucky county police.

The female deer, accompanied by a young buck, ran into a field after striking, but not damaging the car of Floyd Hicks, Covington.

George Finnell, Jr., of Staffordburg, Versailles Road, Kentucky, and Russell England, Jr., Independence, followed the injured deer. They found and took the 180-pound animal to Mr. Finnell's farm. The doe died while receiving treatment. A buck which had accompanied her at the time of the accident had disappeared.

Deer never have been seen in Kentucky County in recent times, and Finnell theorized that the two were members of a small herd released a few years ago in Pendleton County.

Fertilizer Purchases Mean Efficiency and Money-Saving

About $35,000,000 will be spent by Kentucky farmers for fertilizer this season—and of that amount, about $1,000,000 can be saved by using higher analysis fertilizers, says George Corlier, UK Agricultural Extension Service soils specialist.

For instance: Last year Kentuckians used 16,734 tons of 3-9-6 fertilizer; had they used 12,553 tons of 4-12-8, they would have saved the same amount of plant food, handled 4,181 fewer tons and saved $81,200. Further, Kentuckians used 47,452 tons of 3-12-12; but 28,470 tons of 5-20-20 would have done the same amount of work. Nutrients saved $139,653, and handled 18,982 fewer tons.

Kentuckians gradually are moving to higher analysis fertilizers. In 1940, the average fertilizer had only 17 pounds of nutrients per hundred pounds; in 1956, it was 27 pounds. Corlier says that maximum returns of money invested in fertilizers can be obtained only when the nutrient or nutrient limiting production are purchased; that a soil test is the best way of discovering needed nutrients, and that the higher analysis fertilizers save money.

Ky. Law Says Firemen Must Be 21 Years of Age

Edgewood Mayor Is Speaker at May Meet of Simon Kenton PTA

Mr. William Whitson, Mayor of Edgewood, Chairman of the 5-to-50c School Tax Levy, speaking before the May meeting of Simon Kenton P. T. A. stressed our great need for more teachers.

More classrooms, more schools. Our present schools are inadequate to care for the number of students now enrolled. The State department in their survey recommended that two Junior High School buildings be built to take care of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, and also support the tax levy. Mothers will be at the polls on election day to give out literature on the tax levy.

Officers for the Simon Kenton P.T.A. for the ensuing year are: Mrs. Harold Collins, vice president; Mrs. Edwin Miller, treasurer and Mrs. John Butler, secretary. Mrs. John Ashcraft was installing officer. Independence Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts presented a program. Girl Scouts under the direction of leaders, Mrs. Carl Moon, Mrs. Oscar Hastings and Miss Virginia Bradford sang songs. Boy Scouts with Mr. Sterling Staggs and Mr. Mike Vaughn gave the Scout laws and oath. Mike Vaughn gave the requirements for a Boy Scout.

Mrs. Helen Collins read an interesting poem. Mrs. R. C. Hinsdale and Mr. H. B. Noe tied for room count. Mrs. Halliwell presided. Social hour followed the meeting in the school cafeteria.

Graduation Program Begins at Simon K'ton High, Friday Evening

The graduation program at Simon Kenton High School, Independence, will get under way Friday night, May 17, at 8:00, with the "class night" exercises. Miss Joyce Cooper is solicitor and Miss Norma Jean Elliott is the valedictorian.

The baccalaureate will be held Sunday, May 19, at 8:00 p. m., in the local auditorium, with the address being given by Rev. James A. Shepherd, pastor of Immanuel Methodist Church. Ellis Frakes, Rev. Arthur Tipton, and Miss Carolyn Zepf are also on the program.

Commencement will take place on Friday, May 24, at 8:00 p. m., with Dr. William Durr, professor at State College, being the speaker. The school band, James A. Gaywood, Roger Finney, Faemon Rold, Robert Wainwright and Marvin Dunn are also on the program.

Eight Boone Youths Win Free Trips to State 4-H Club Week

Four boys and four girls of Boone County 4-H Club win free trips to the State 4-H week, June 4 through June 8, which will be held on the campus of the University of Kentucky. These boys and girls won this trip by being outstanding 4-H members and winning in the County 4-H Rally Day held April 27, at the Burlington School, states Glen R. McCormack, assistant County Agent.

The four boys will be as follows: Donnie Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Maddox, Florence; Bill Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mathis, Verona; David Gligler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodford Gligler, Hartsville; and Albert Schwenke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schwenke, Hamilton.

The four girls will be as follows: Nancy Ann Prigge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prigge, Prigge, Union; Phyllis Kirtley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kirtley, Union; Mary Jo Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dixon, Independence and Susan McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McVey, Florence.

MRS. ANNA MAE GLASS

Services for Mrs. Anna Mae Glass, Independence, Route 1, were held at 2:00 p. m., Friday, May 10, at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home in Walton. Burial was in the Independence cemetery.

Mrs. Glass, who was 58 years old, died May 7, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. She was a member of the New Banklick Baptist Church, and the Daughters of America.

Survivors include her husband, Charles Glass; four sons, Homer of Independence, Lawrence of Florence, Gilbert of Dayton, and Oliver Glass of Walton; a sister, Mrs. Lucy Schenker, and five brothers, Charles, George, Archie, Joseph and Ira Schodler, all of Kenton county, and ten grandchildren.

Kenton Elementary Student Wins District Posture Poster Contest

The Posture Poster contest sponsored by the Chiropractic Association of America, was won by a student of the Kenton elementary school, district by James Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Barnes, Covington, Route 5. All district winners competed for state and national prizes at Louisville, May 9. At this meeting, the hundreds of posters had been reduced to fifteen. Among this number was James' poster, which received state honorable mention. He is a sixth grade student at Kenton elementary school, Independence, and is a pupil of Miss Katherine Antrabs. The first district award was a $25 U. S. Savings bond and state honorable mention was an award of $5.00. All expenses were paid for the winner, his parents, and teacher to a convention, given by the Association at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville, May 9. A very lovely banquet and interesting program had been arranged for all concerned.

The Chiropractic Association is sponsoring these contests, which are nationwide to fifth and sixth graders to promote greater influence on and stress the importance of correct posture for health.

The national award was won by a Louisville boy who also had won the district and state award. He received U. S. Savings Bonds amounting to $175.00 for his poster.

Blow to Local Firemen; Twelve Men Are Lost

At a North Canton Firemen's meeting several weeks ago, the fact that a State law governing the age requirements of firemen existed, was brought to the attention of the Walton Volunteers.

This fact was verified by Walton City Attorney R. A. Blackburn, who was asked by the Fire Chief to get an opinion from the Attorney General to see if this law applied to volunteer firemen.

Below is the letter received from the Attorney General's office:

April 11, 1957
Hon. R. A. Blackburn
Attorney at Law
Williamstown, Kentucky
Dear Sir:

This is in answer to your letter of April 5 in which you request an opinion of this office as to whether minors may serve as members of the Volunteer Fire Department of the City of Walton. KRS 95.710 provides as follows:

"To be eligible for appointment as a member of the police force or fire department of a city of the fourth or fifth class, a person must be a citizen of the state, a resident of the county for at least six months, at least twenty-one years of age, able to read and write the English language intelligently, and sober, moral and socious."

Under this section of the statutes it is our opinion that you were correct in the advice you gave to the City Council of Walton. KRS 95.710 specifically states that all members of the fire department of a city of the fifth class must be at least 21 years of age.

Very truly yours,
Ja M. Ferguson
Attorney General

By David B. Sebrree
Assistant Attorney General

As a result of the above, the Fire Department was advised by the City Attorney and the Council to release all men of duty under 21.

It was necessary for the following men to resign: Ray Green, Theodore Locke, Terry Smith, Don McIntyre, Tom McIntyre, Charles Simpson, Ronnie McMillan, Don McMillan, Joe the Chief, Richard McMillan, Phillip Kennedy, and Jim Lipscomb.

The Fire Chief wishes to thank publicly these men for their help and cooperation in the past, and to welcome each and every one back when they reach the required age.

The following men will do their best to continue to give the City of Walton and the protection area the same efficient fire protection which you have had in the past: Charles (Chick) Worthington, Chief; Guy Carlisle, Worthington, Chief; Mesdames McElroy, Assistant Chief; Jimmy Bob McElroy, Assistant Chief; Clarence Patrick, Ladder Captain; Jack Conner, Ladder Lieut.; Buddy Gibbs, Hose Captain; David Hankinson, Engine Captain; Russell Groger, Alvin Lawrence, Harold Jones, and Charles Northcutt.

The tentative date for the annual fund raising picnic of the local firemen has been set as July 11, 12 and 13.

Kenton Elementary PTA Meets Tonight; Rev. Asiles Speaker

On May 16, the Kenton Elementary School will begin its final P. T. A. meeting of the school year with open house from 7:15 to 7:45 p. m. The meeting will come to order at 8:00 with Mrs. C. Wickland in the chair.

The Rev. John B. Asiles, pastor of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church and president of the Northern Kentucky Association of Protestant Churches, will bring the meeting to a close with the proposed tax levy.

Miss Minerva Rigg, music director at Kenton Elementary, will bring the "Mother Singers," to present some selections.

The installation of officers will be presided over by Mrs. A. L. Stone, president of the Kenton County Council.

Refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited to attend the open house and see their children's work and to hear the very interesting program that is planned.

Bradford Lodge 123 Soft Ball Team

Another great victory has been marked up for our home team last Wednesday evening, when Bradford Soft Ball team won over Good Faith by a 19-4 score. In the game, the home-run hitters were Bob Carr, Randall Wagner, Bill Bender, Louis Lee, Jr., Bill Collier, Howard Wiloughby, Don Copping, Gene Copping, Paul Robinson, Bernie Huesman, and Billie Appel.

On May 15th, Wednesday evening at 6:30 p. m. on Beer's Community Ball Park, the Bradford team will meet the "Order of Crusaders. The public is cordially invited to attend all of the games. Seats for spectators will probably be ready by that time.

On Wednesday evening, May 22, at 6:30 p. m. the Bradford team will be scheduled to meet the Kismet Grotto team of Covington on Beers Ball Park, located at Scott Subdivision, on the 3-L Highway. This game will be a good one to watch.

In time, possibly, a practice game will be played between this Mosaic team and the Independence Soft Ball team, headed by Lyman Holdreder.

It always helps the home team players to know their friends and neighbors are in the grand stand rooting for a winner—why not back your team. Attend the next game of whoever you are in favor of and give them good support, better yet, attend all their games the play this season.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

The Ryland Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Everett Wilson for the May meeting. Mrs. W. P. Schwall presided. The club collected was read by Mrs. J. A. Rich, citizenship chairman, to open the meeting. She then told how to display the flag.

Mrs. H. W. Ward, reading chairman, conducted the devotional period which pertained to "Mother." Miss Ruth Schmidt reported on the Advisory Council meeting which she attended. During the Exterior Beautification lesson, Mrs. J. H. Lawson discussed the new wasp-like insect which is attacking roses in Kentucky. Fresh cuts should be covered with some material to keep this insect out, such as orange shellac, tree wound dressing, etc., as it works on the exposed pith of the stem and soon kills the branch back to the main stem.

Miss Schmidt and Mrs. Wilson demonstrated how to cane stools. A workshop day to make aluminum and copper planters will be held May 16 at the home of Mrs. Ward. A flower exchange was held.

The following were present: Mesdames H. W. Ward, F. B. Hermes, G. A. Damon, Wm. P. Schwall, Rudolph Casson, Wm. A. Damon, O. J. Williams, J. A. Rich, Harold Halfhill, J. H. Lawson, Richard Kuhn, Miss Ruth Schmidt, and guests, Mrs. Donald Keeney, Mrs. Lula Carpenter, Mrs. Martha Noble, Miss Mary Ruth Harrison, and Master Clayton Keeney.

J. R. FORD Receives Unanimous Endorsement From All Democrat Candidates For Owen County Offices

All Owen County candidates for county offices and their designated deputies have directed a letter of endorsement to J. R. Ford in which they state as follows:

"The undersigned being all of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for county offices in Owen County, Kentucky, and their designated deputies, do wholeheartedly endorse you for the Democratic nomination to the office of Commonwealth Attorney for the 15th Judicial District which includes the counties of Owen, Boone, Carroll, Gallatin, and Grant.

We know that you are a loyal Democrat well qualified for the office and that if elected you will cooperate with the county officials and carry out the duties of the office in a reasonable and efficient manner."

The above endorsement is greatly appreciated by me. It shows that all the candidates of my home county have confidence in my character, ability, and my qualifications for the position of Commonwealth Attorney.

Remember IRA M. TANNER for JAILER

Be sure to vote in the primary and vote for the candidate of your choice. There are several good men in the race for jailer this year and no matter who you vote for, you can't go wrong. Each candidate deserves good fortune.

While you are considering who your choice will be, we just want to call your attention to the fact that an old friend of yours and ours, IRA TANNER, is in this race too although he will not be able to wage the vigorous campaign he would like to. Mr. Tanner had a mild heart attack in January but is feeling much better and is permitted by his doctor to get out a little more every day. However, he is not going to be able to see or talk to hardly any of his many friends before the election because election day is just around the corner.

Mr. Tanner is grateful beyond words for the many messages of support that he has received from all over the county. He is in this election race to win. So we want to say for Mr. Tanner that, although he may not get to meet you before May 28, he deserves every consideration you can give him, no matter who your final choice is.

We assure you that this message was placed in this paper by a group of Mr. Tanner's well wishers and, although we had his consent to make a statement, Mr. Tanner was not informed 'til now of what we had to say.

Please vote for IRA M. TANNER for jailer, and thank you for reading our message.

—FRIENDS OF IRA M. TANNER

To the Voters of Boone County:

It has been a real pleasure the past several months calling on the voters of Boone County. I have made every attempt to see and talk with all of you and yet I realize that I have missed some of you. From now until election day, May 28, I still hope to see those of you I have not had an opportunity to visit with.

It has been gratifying to learn the interest the voters have in my nomination and election to the office of sheriff of Boone County. In every section of the county my long-time friends and new citizens of the county have pledged their support and interest. For this support, I shall always be grateful, and if elected sheriff I will fulfill my pledge of good honest and efficient government in the sheriff's office.

I feel that my background and qualifications merit the consideration of all. I have been a lifelong resident of the county, have served as your jailer, and have taken part and supported all programs for the betterment of the county.

Again I want to "thank" the many people of Boone County and earnestly solicit your support Tuesday, May 28.

Sincerely,
Cecil (Pi) Presser
Candidate for Sheriff of Boone County

Eva R. Miller Endorses Candidate

To my friends and citizens of Boone County:

As it is not possible for me to see all of you Democrat voters in person, I take this opportunity to urge you to vote for J. R. Ford of Owen for Commonwealth Attorney for Boone, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, and Owen counties in the Democrat Primary Election, Tuesday, May 28.

I have known both Mr. and Mrs. Ford for some time. He and his wife have lived in my home where they both have been extensively canvassing Boone county.

Mr. Ford has practiced law in Owen since 1947, after serving four years in the U. S. Navy during World War II. He was Police Judge of Owen for five years, and served as County Judge

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Henry Clay:

Now that Henry Clay, the great Kentuckian, is to have his picture placed in the Senate Hall of Fame, we'd better take a look at the last of the important Whigs in the Blue Grass.

When Henry Clay passed away, the Whig party in Kentucky went with him, and several years went by before the Republican party got its organizational wings off the ground.

Rough, Effective: Clay was a rough, effective office-holder and served as Speaker of the Lower House no less than three different times. He held the unique distinction of being elected speaker during his first term of service.

Much of the legislation driven through the Congress by Clay may be remembered—or recalled—only by students of history. But every school boy remembers that Henry Clay was the man who said, "I'd rather be right than be president."

TO THE PEOPLE OF BOONE COUNTY:

I know Mr. Robert "King" Solomon personally. He is a most sincere and conscientious person, having a real sense of responsibility, not only to his own affairs but also in the affairs of any responsibility assigned him.

Mr. Solomon is a sober, honest, sincere man who is well qualified for the position of jailer of Boone county, having served as a turn-key before.

Mr. Solomon attends Sunday School and Church services regularly.

Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

In a Bad World

Lesson for May 19, 1957

THIS world we're in may be a bad one, but it never gets so bad we can't pray. The worse it is, the more reason to pray. There is a story in the Bible which shows a good man at prayer in an evil world. There are many such stories in the Bible, to be sure. The one which has been selected for our study is that of Abraham, pleading for the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. No man of his time was better than Abraham. No city of those times was worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. Yet this goodman, Dr. Foreman prayed for those wicked cities. There have always been puzzlers in this story, but they are not the main point. That point has nothing to do with such questions as "How can God eat hot bread and veal roast?" or "How could Abraham see God if it is true (see John 1:18) that no man has seen God at any time?" The point of the story, for us, is the kind of prayer a good man can offer, in and for an evil world.

Realistic

First of all, Abraham's prayer shows that he had no illusions about Sodom and Gomorrah. They were cities which he preferred to stay away from, cities notorious for wickedness. Unhappily, we do not know how many thousand persons there may have been in Sodom, but Abraham ventures to think that in the whole city there may perhaps be 50 righteous persons. Abraham's series of prayers in which he begs the Lord to spare the city for the sake of fifty—then 45—40—30—20—10 good people, is often taken as a sign of Abraham's growing faith in God. But it can just as well stand for Abraham's decreasing faith in Sodom. At the end, he would not dare ask God to spare the city for "twenty's sake."—It is plain that he was very doubtful that there might be even that number of good citizens. Children may pray as if there were no evil in the world; but grown men even in their prayers must realize what kind of world they live in. Our Lord's Prayer mentions temptation and evil as real and dangerous, even for good men.

Generous

Abraham's prayer is not only realistic, it is generous. Readers of the Bible will remember Jesus' story of the Pharisee who in his prayer recalled the publican—no model citizen. But to the Pharisee the publican was not a man to be prayed for, only a man to be despised. Now Abraham was far better than the citizens of Sodom, if they were good at all, which seems doubtful; and he was better too than his relative, Lot, for whose sake he was chiefly praying. But he prays for them all the same. His prayer is of the highest sort—not for himself at all, but for others. The reader can test his religion by the kind of prayer he offers. One can ask oneself: How often do I pray for myself and how often for others? When I do pray for others, is it for good people only? Are my prayers an expression of selfishness, or can I offer generous prayers? How long has it been since I prayed for any one I didn't really like?

Daring

Abraham's prayer is humble; but it is also daring. Most of our prayers are safe; Abraham realizes that his is risky. It almost involves throwing a challenge to God: Shall not the judge of all earth do right? This man realizes that he may actually be praying against God's will. He may be praying for the wrong thing entirely. But that does not stop him. He dares to believe that God was interested in a very small minority of good people. He dares to pray beyond his hopes, beyond his knowledge, but not beyond God. The God in whom Abraham believed, the God Abraham knew, was not like men. He did not—and he does not—share man's prejudices, man's pride. A good man, even a good man, prides himself on not helping the unworthy; but God's mercy is untainted by conceit. Do we dare believe that God is just? Do we dare believe he will do the fair thing, or do we try to argue him into doing what we want even if it is not quite fair? Do we dare believe that God is merciful? or to pray for those who will not pray for themselves? Do we dare go so far as to pray even when we fear that we may be asking too much? Can we stand and take God's No (as Abraham had to) and still hold our faith in Him?

AND WHAT WILL THEY FIND INSIDE?

Here's a handsome, happy family marching through the open doors of a church. But what will they find inside? A lovely sanctuary? Perhaps. A congenial group of people? Perhaps. An inspiring sermon and beautiful music? Perhaps. All these they may possibly find inside. But here is what they will certainly find.

- A group of people banded together by a common faith for a common purpose....
- Assurance that there is a God who cares and loves....
- Direction for the perplexities that each day brings....
- A demand to live as God would have them live....
- A cross as the divine source of faith, hope and love....

And if you go to church next Sunday, that's what YOU'll certainly find too!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and financial support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

STAFFORDSBURG

After some six months of "red tape" Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rice left on Saturday to join the U. S. A. F. in Japan. We wish them safe passage, a happy landing and not too long stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children spent the week-end here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin of LeGrange, Ky., and visited Mrs. Russell Armstrong at Anchorage.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and Janet spent the week-end with her relatives at Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. Caroline Armstrong entertained some of her children on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Klette and Ruth called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney on Sunday.

Friends and relatives here attended the funeral of Lloyd Armstrong on Tuesday.

Earl Hanna reported a pleasant trip on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanna and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Goren Croymyle took him out to dinner at a restaurant near Cynthia.

The W.S.C.S. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney on Thursday evening. Fifteen members were present. Mrs. Parish gave the devotional, a very impressive pledge service was held and plans made to have a public installation of officers at the church next Sunday. Refreshments were served by the hosts. June meeting to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Daman.

Friends of Mr. Lee Faulkner were very shocked to hear of his sudden death on Sunday afternoon. Our sympathy goes to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby are enjoying a visit from his mother for a few days.

The writer is putting in a new heating system for next winter and has a large Heatsol which heats three rooms which the first who comes can have for $10 if they will get it over this week-end.

Mr. Lee who is building a new house Harris Pike was looking over Bide-A-Wee farm Sunday.

Jack Baynum of the Tower is quite an expert in raising peanuts and has quite a crop every year. He gave the writer some seed and we are going to try our luck this year.

The Reds have the fans all worked up since making a clean sweep of twelve games on the road. We sure hope they can keep up the good work.

The men have all found something to do away from the house as this is housecleaning week in the Tower.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clark who were tenants on the Cockhill farm at the corner of Harris Pike and 3L Highway, have purchased Bailey's house in Latonia Lakes.

Mrs. Margaret Hines and children, Charles and Diana, visited her mother, Mrs. H. R. Hutchins for Mother's Day.

Carol Tallent entertained her seventh grade class from Simon Kenton School with a picnic at her grandfather's farm last Saturday.

Judy Thompson received a medal as the outstanding girl student in the 7th Grade at Simon Kenton School at the Awards Day program last week. Judy has been a straight A student all thru school and is president of her room, president of the J. Y-Teens and participates in other school activities.

Mrs. Males of Latonia Lakes, has recovered from her recent operation and was able to come to church on Sunday.

OAK RIDGE

The beautiful summer weather continues, but we sure could use some rain as the clay soil along this ridge is so dry it has deep cracks in it and the grass is turning brown wherever it has been mowed the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wren and daughter returned Sunday from a two weeks vacation in Louisiana and Mississippi. They reported that people in those states are eating potatoes and beans and other vegetables from their gardens already, and corn is more than waist high. Their friends there thought it was funny when Mrs. Wren told them they hadn't even planted their garden yet.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson spent the week-end in Lexington with Mrs. Thompson's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Mitchell are visiting Mrs. Susan Delcamp in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bailey returned from their honeymoon in Michigan and went to Beattyville, Ky., for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dorman and Johnny of Shelbyville, visited Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Dorman over the week-end.

Mickey Kemper is now home from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schriener have sold their house on Lipscomb Road and moved to Latonia. The house was bought by the race car driver, Mr. and Mrs. McClannahan, but they have not moved in as yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cooper of Latonia Lakes have both been sick and in the hospital the past week.

FOR YOUR Commonwealth Attorney Do You Want GOOD LAW ENFORCEMENT?

This is an office that requires a capable lawyer with courtroom experience in the trial of cases before Juries;

This is not an office that should be given to someone just because they need a job and have failed to make a living practicing law.

Although our Commonwealth Attorney, Harlan Heilman's opponent has been a lawyer for ten years, yet has anyone ever heard of him trying jury cases in Court? Mr. Heilman's opponent's experience as a state employee, farming, and insurance salesman is a commendable background, but certainly does not qualify him to perform the duties of Commonwealth Attorney.

Harlan Heilman, our present Commonwealth Attorney, and a candidate for re-election, has capably served in this office for the past five and one-half years, and as a prosecutor, has one of the best records in the state.

Before taking office as Commonwealth Attorney, Mr. Heilman's experience as City Attorney and a successful trial lawyer, amply qualified him to properly and efficiently carry out the duties of this office when he was elected.

Mr. Heilman's opponent, by advertisement, has urged you to compare the record and background of the two candidates as to their professional ability to fill this important office. Therefore, we submit to you Mr. Heilman's professional record and background.

For continued good law enforcement and efficiency and justice in our courts, RE-ELECT HARLAN HEILMAN whose ability and integrity have already been proven.

WHEN?

When will it rain? The ground is so dry; the plowed ground is so hard, and the clouds are so hard you can't plant anything. If you do, it will not grow. But it has always rained in Kentucky in time to save us a crop. Monday night, and that rain is coming down—the Lord takes good care of us here in this part of the country. Last summer we thought it was pretty rough very well as it looks out there now. Sure they had a loss but not one seriously hurt or killed—after all, Northern Kentucky is the best place to live!

Mrs. Roy Kumer of the Beechgrove Home-makers came over for 38 bolts of paper-wool twine—they must be putting seeds in chairs. Larry Auld and Brewster came over for a tractor pump to use to water his plantings. Earl Metcalfe also bought a tractor pump to pump water for plantings. We also sold 2 bronze gear pumps and lots of plastic pipe, rubber hose and garden hose. We have 4, 6 and 8-barrel water troughs for your horses and cows. We have a 3-ton rubber tired tractor wagon with tires for only $145—this is a real buy!

Sue Jarman bought a 12x12 linoleum rug and some yard goods linoleum. We cut off the 3-yard wide piece to finish up. Now is the time to get a real buy in a power lawn mower and we have some of the best to choose from. Bessie Ford, one of my old customers, came after screen wire. She is not old but there are a lot of them that are not here, but were when I started. The boys who have been away awhile come back and the things they need, this is it.

S. C. Combs came in and wanted to sell me a cabinet Warm Morning coal heater, a year old. I made him a price and he took me up. If someone wants a good used Warm Morning for next winter, this is it. Point, point and more point—we sell lots of it every day. We just put away two orders and today I called in another. I missed some and will call that in tomorrow. Ed Helmer, on Bracht-Pinner Road, brought white—it is the best for the least money. Try some!

Today, we did a little of everything. Chick put two new plow handles on a lay-off plow, Brewster repaired a sweeper and an electric floor lamp; then they filled a mower knife with new sections and put in an axe handle for Winston Brown. We get lots of repair jobs. They are really buying at Bracht-Pinner Road. Hall came to our rescue. We received a large shipment of point from Chicago Point Co. We sell lots of their point that Bole does not carry. I went up to the Bole Point Co. after a lot of their point. They had a display with a large assortment of point brushes in the medium priced range. I stopped at the toy house and picked up several new plastic car and boat models, also several new toys. Lon Wilson just came in and bought a new hand lawn mower. Hubert Wilson from Crittenden, bought a Sunbeam Shearwater to shear his sheep. Harold Worthington bought a gear pump, some hose and fittings to water his plantings. We have sold several garden plows—we have the high wheel and low wheel plows. Judge Oliver came after more of that Bole outside white—he said, as lots of others do, that is the best point I have ever spread. I have 300 gallons to sell for $5.50 per gallon—get yours early!

We have a used riding lawn mower to sell cheap—look this one over. We also have two bags of Soda Ash to put in that pond that leaks. I have enough insect killer to kill any insect that flies or crawls. If you sow lawn seed now and we have a few show-ers you can mow it in two weeks. Mrs. R. L. Slayback, Sr. was here getting point, wool bags and twine. Mrs. Brown, over beyond Verona, bought Bole Lustre-Kote and screen wire. Mrs. Nevie Webster bought a lawn mower, also Harold Vest bought a riding power mower.

We sold a little of everything today—mower repairs, plow shovels, screen wire, wire fence, hardware cloth, 12" wire gate, plastic pipe and fittings, fishing tackle, linoleum, point, sprinklers, water hose, water pumps for tractors, water hose for tractor pumps. We have 1½" suction hose in 10' and 20' lengths. Gosh, they all come to town on once today and we sold a little of everything. I don't think I can remember half of who were here. Pete Black and wife bought a lot of point for the inside of the Beaverfield Baptist Church; also some for their home.

Joe Neumeister bought a brass gear pump to put on his tractor to pump water and to spray with. We sold several feet of hose and plastic pipe to water those plantings. Mrs. Pat Code bought poultry netting. That Smith, over Verona way, bought a lot of wiring material. Ed Helmer, on Bracht-Pinner Road, brought material, bicycle parts and window glass. We sold lots of fishing tackle and thermos jugs, also several gifts for Mothers' Day, such as aluminum pitchers, cake covers, dishes, clocks, silverware, plastic materials, scissors, can openers and pyrex dishes.

Price Johnson bought a 20" boy's bicycle. Mr. and Mrs. Lavan Amett, from Verona, bought a square aluminum tub. Maytag washer—when they want the best, they always buy Maytag, the greatest washer ever made. We love to sell Maytag, because we very seldom have a service call on them.

CITY ELECTION SET FOR NEXT TUESDAY

Local Graduate Gels Annual Reader's Digest Award

Irma Rector, valedictorian of the graduating class at Walton-Verona High School, has been given the annual award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community. It was announced this week by James S. Smith, principal.

Miss Rector will receive an honorary subscription to The Reader's Digest for one year and an engraved certificate from the editors, "in recognition of past accomplishment and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

The Reader's Digest Association has presented these awards yearly in senior high schools throughout the United States and Canada to the highest honor student of the graduating class.

The award to Miss Rector, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Rector, Belinger Avenue, was made possible through the cooperation of Mr. Smith and his teaching staff. They selected Irma to receive the award, designed to stimulate scholarship, citizenship, and continued contact with good reading after graduation.

Dorthea Lane Class Meets

The Dorthea Lane class of the Walton Baptist Church met at the home of Miss Barbara Abshire, on Monday evening, May 13.

The meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes and reports were given by the committees. The business meeting was then held and plans were made to tour several of the Baptist institutions in Kentucky. The program was then presented, with each girl participating. Buddy gifts were then distributed. Refreshments were then enjoyed by all.

Those present were: Janice Osborne, Donna Wright, Jean Elliott, Betty Johnson, Barbara Abshire, Irma Rector, Patsy Markberry, Dora Pennington, and Loretta Johnson.

Girl Scout Wiener Roast

Wireworm Control In Tobacco Offered By County Agent

Tobacco setting time is rapidly approaching. This section of Kentucky and wireworms will soon take their toll of newly transplanted tobacco plants, according to Joe Claxton, county agent.

Because of their long life period, wireworms may be found feeding on tobacco plants throughout the growing season. Their attacks on newly transplanted plants, however, cause the greatest concern. These young plants are attacked almost immediately. The worms bore into and make tunnels in the plant stalks, sometimes through their entire length, and through the buds if the stalks are short. This injury often causes a deformed plant. An obvious indication of severe injury is the more or less complete wilting of the plants.

The different varieties of tobacco that are in use are all subject to attack by wireworms and no one variety seems to be attacked to a greater extent than any other; however, the type of plants selected for transplanting differ in their ability to resist injury by wireworms.

One should select plants for setting (1) that have stems about the diameter of a lead pencil, (2) that have stems long enough so that the bud will not be covered with soil when transplanted, and (3) plants which are well hardened.

The convenience of applying insecticides in setting or transplanting water makes this process attractive. However, wireworms in water, a wettable powder will settle to some extent, and the mixture must be stirred frequently.

Insecticides recommended to control wireworms are:

Chlordane: Mix enough chlordane wettable powder to contain four ounces of chlordane in 50 gallons of water. Aldrin: Mix enough aldrin wettable powder to contain four ounces of aldrin in 50 gallons of water. Lindane: Mix enough lindane wettable powder to contain one-half ounce of lindane.

These insecticides must be weighed carefully, in case dusts are used, or measured accurately if liquids are used.

Competition For Votes Is Keen In Some Races

The Boone County election, in which all county officers are nominated for the general election in November, will be held next Tuesday—May 28. There are several offices that are not being contested; State Senator, and State Representative. A Commonwealth Attorney will also be nominated from this Judicial District. Circuit Court Judge Ward Yager is unopposed, and will appear on the November Democrat ballot.

In the county race, Judge C. L. Cropper, who has served for several years, has no opposition, and his name will appear on the November ballot. William P. McEay, County Attorney, is in the same category and will be nominated. The County Clerk's race is also an open affair with Dewey Benson being placed only on the November general election ballot.

Two In Sheriff's Race
The sheriff's race is one of the hotly contested events between Joseph A. Hogan, present deputy sheriff, and Cecil (Pi) Presser, present jailer, for the Democratic nomination. The third man for sheriff is Gilbert (Sonny) Gruelle, a Republican candidate, will appear only on the November ballot.

Mrs. Helen Brown, Florence, is making the race for Circuit Court Clerk against the incumbent, R. S. Hendley.
